The [illegible] of his letter is that pro[illegible] that Canadians shall buy at protected prices, which [illegible]. This statement of Mr. Russell's is true. The [illegible] argument was that, without [illegible], the price of labor in a country fell to the lowest [illegible] anywhere in the world. This, of course, is apparent. [illegible] of a country to wish to place their labor on a level with the [illegible] in the world is surely a [illegible] mind the words, [illegible] "treason," etc. [illegible] to the words "cheap labor." To bring the matter to an [illegible] head, all Mr. Russell has got to do is to say that, since we should be at liberty to import the cheap labor goods from other countries, we should also be at liberty to import cheap labor. It will be seen from this that the objection is insurmountable. All peoples are not the same, and their standards of living are not the same. If they wish to preserve those standards of living, how are they going to do it, except by blocking out cheap labor and the cheap products of cheap labor? As for the farmer, he is now, for the first time, up against the necessities of protection. The high cost of living could be lessened or could be lowered only by importation of food stuffs. Protectionists, to be consistent, could not be in favor of it; otherwise it would lower the farmer's revenue, and therefore the value of his property by just so much. This would be distinctly unjust. Protection to be protection must be protection all round, and when it is protection all round, let me inform Mr. Russell that there is no discrimination and there should be no howl about protectionists' prices. If there is no discrimination then all have advantage of protectionists' prices, and that is the idea of protection, and to cry in a loud voice "Protection! Protection!" is simply to beg a question and to ignore the great cause of a higher standard of living such as we unquestionably have in all protected countries. Britain at the present time is rent in twain with labor troubles and, although a free trade country, her agriculture is a joke. Her agriculture has to compete with Argentina and South Russia, and so her agricultural countries are reduced to the level of Argentina and Southern Russia. China has now begun to make steel with cheap Chinese labor, and what are the prospects of the future? That British labor must come down to the level of Chinese labor unless British labor is protected. If duties in Canada, we will say for the sake of argument, were 100 per cent. instead 30, what would be the result? The result would be high wheat, high bread, high farm implements, high all manufactured goods, high everything else, and all made in the country. There would be no discrimination as amongst Canadian people. Thus it would mean the preservation of Canada for Canadians and Canadian standards of living. One might just as well say that because the force of gravity attracts to the centre of the earth all attempts at movement of every description in a contrary direction is folly. This is the free trade argument. The free trade argument is simply that the natural course of events should be allowed to take its way. This would mean that once more all the mills on Georgian Bay should be silent, while the logs are once more towed across to the States for manufacture. Export duty is the finest kind of protection, but I have, I think, said enough in my reference to gravitation to show that to leave things to Nature would soon reduce us to the natural condition of man, that is, man in the state of nature. Let Mr. Russell argue these things out on principle, and I should be very glad to do what I can to answer. I think that all will admit that the very moment agriculture begins in the cheap labor countries without protection the Canadian farmer must come down to the same level. Is that so or is it not? But if the Canadian farmer is protected to the same degree as anybody else, what charge of injustice can honestly be made.

PATCHEN WINS MORE MONEY

BRANDON MAY GET BRANCH FACTORY

The Brandon Sun says: — Mr. James Matthews, of Ottawa, a son of the managing director of one of the largest meat packing plants in the Dominion was in the city yesterday and while at the Commercial Bureau stated that he considered Brandon the most beautiful city not only in the west but the whole Dominion. This he attributes to the long sweeping view of the beautiful Assiniboine valley. Mr. Matthews is just completing a pleasure tour of the west but he was so favorably impressed with this part of the country that he promises to consider the question of locating a branch of the meat packing factory here.

WANTS CANADIAN ON PRIVY COUNCIL

St. John, N.B., Aug. 7—That there should be a Canadian representative on the Privy Council is the feeling in England, says W. H. Trueman, barrister, Winnipeg, who arrived in St. John last night after arguing a case on the other side. "It is planned" he added to "change the constitution of the Judicial Committee and to have a Canadian added to its membership and Lord Haldane is sounding prominent Canadians to ascertain their views as to what steps can be taken to make the committee acceptable to Canadians, and to overcome any disposition to abolish Canadian appeals to the committee."

Silent English Crowds.

Silence is a great characteristic of an English crowd, it seems. The English people are generally very quiet. Once I went to Shepherd's Bush with my French friend. He said to me: "Can you believe that there are some 10,000 people in this ground? Just shut your eyes—you would feel you were standing in a desert!" Yes, he was only too true. In France or in Japan they would make deafening noises.—Observations of a Japanese in England.

Wales Was There.

At the fish docks in an English seaport the rather remarkable coincidence was noticed of three steam trawlers lying berthed side by side, their names being respectively Rose, Shamrock and Thistle.

"What a pity that Wales is not represented!" remarked a visitor. "That would have certainly completed it."

"Don't worry about that, guv'nor," replied the man addressed. "I expect there's a leak in one of 'em."

A Barbarous Pun.

An Edinburgh professor once objected to the graduation of a native of Ceylon on the ground that he spelled "exceed" with only one "e."

"Well," said another of the faculty, "you must remember he comes from the land of the Cingal-ese."—Boston Transcript.

WIRING GATES

Complaints That Springville Citizens Indulge in That Pastime

A Springville correspondent complains of some festive citizens, with a turn for practical joking, who make themselves especially busy Sunday evenings, when the more sober minded members of the community—including, no doubt, the correspondent himself—are engaged in public worship. When the church people return home they sometimes find that their facetious fellow-citizens have wired the gates so that entrance is effected only after some difficulty. The correspondent adds, with righteous indignation, that people guilty of such a low down trick are capable of anything, even to the buying and selling of horses on the day when, according to legislative enactment and religious precept, all trades and barters are held to be illegal and sinful.

If any of the citizens of Springville have really dickered in horses when they should have been in church, they have evidently been caught at it. They probably never heard how two worthy Scotchmen managed to make bargains on Sunday without traversing the letter of the law. The purchaser would remark that if it was not Sunday he would offer a certain price. All the seller had to do if satisfied with the figure was to answer that, on any other day he would accept the offer, so that to all intents and purposes the deal was made.

BLAST OF DOOM FOR OTTOMAN EMPIRE

London Correspondent Says Turkish Civil War is Inevitable.

Special to the Review.

London, Aug. 8—Advices from St. Petersburg and Constantinople give a gloomy view of the near east situation. St. Petersburg thinks it is the general conviction of all the powers that civil war may convulse Turkey at any moment, and that the blast of doom has sounded for the Ottoman Empire. The Daily Chronicle correspondent at Constantinople says that civil war in Turkey is inevitable.

HYDRO ELECTRIC SYSTEM IS CONSTANTLY EXPANDING

The Total Load for the Month of July Was 24.186 Horse Power as Against 9,723 for Same Month Last Year—Toronto Suburbs Take Hydro.

Toronto, Aug. 8.—Hon. Adam Beck is not unduly optimistic when he asserts that the present consumption of Hydro power will be increased by 100 per cent. within a year, if the present monthly increase can be used as an argument. The total load for the month of July was 24,186 h.p., compared with 9,723 h.p. for the same month last year.

Toronto's total load for the month was 10,154 h.p., which is a big increase over July, 1911, and it is anticipated that when the Hamilton plant is in proper working order the amount of power already used will be doubled.

"I am pleased that the Hydro electric power appeals to Welland, where the existing power is said to be cheap. Now Welland will have well lighted streets including a great white way," said Mr. Beck yesterday, but he was silent when questioned as to the alleged importation of thugs into the district in an effort to defeat the project at the poll.

Port Dalhouse will vote on Saturday. That place could not accept the Cataract Power Co.'s proposition, and the company, it is said, threatens to turn off the lights should the vote not go their way, but the enterprising port will have public ownership of its lighting system or nothing.

The commission is in a position to supply Earlscourt and Todmorden with power immediately, subject to a satisfactory agreement being drawn up.

From Mr. Pope was elicited the information that there would be no delay, and that work would commence as soon as satisfactory arrangements were made.

Ald. McIlvenna of North Bay paid a visit to Mr. Beck yesterday, and chatted over the possibilities and probabilities of introducing Hydro power in his home town.

FEWER NEW CASES ARE REPORTED

Epidemic at Ottawa Seems to be Abating.

Ottawa, Aug. 8.—In view of the serious outbreak of typhoid in Ottawa, there will be a renewed interest in the proposed legislation against the pollution of streams. For several sessions Senator Belcourt in the Senate has had such a measure, but it failed to get through the Commons. In the lower House a bill with similar provisions was introduced by Mr. Bradbury, of Selkirk, and the Prime Minister last session regretted that there had been insufficient time to properly consider it.

Only twelve new cases of fever were reported yesterday. This is a marked falling off. There have been no additional deaths. The City Council has taken steps for mechanical filtration of the water, but it will take two years to install the system. Meanwhile the water will have to be boiled and chlorinated for safety.

GETS A PEERAGE

Honor Conferred Upon a Former Government Whip.

London, Aug. 8.—A peerage has been conferred on the Right Hon. Alexander Murray, master of Elibank and chief Government whip, who has resigned his seat in the House of Commons. Percy Holden Illingworth, representing the Shipley division of Yorkshire, has been appointed his successor in office. The master of Elibank is the eldest son and heir of Viscount Elibank, at one time Lord Lieutenant of Peebleshire. He was Under Secretary of State for India from June, 1909, to February, 1910, when he was appointed Parliamentary Secretary to the Treasury and chief Liberal whip. He was elected to the House of Commons from Midlothian, Edinburghshire.

The master of Elibank resigned to become a partner in Lord Cowdray's big contracting firm of S. Pearson & Son, Ltd. His resignation is regarded as a serious blow to the Liberal Government at a critical moment, and much comment and curiosity have been occasioned as to why he should thus abandon a promising political career.

WILL NO LONGER DEFY THE CHURCH

Mannoir College Authorities Submit to Bishop.

Montreal, Aug. 8.—Canon Lemieux, of Mannoir College, which was interdicted at St. Johns, Que., by Archbishop Bruchesi, was in Montreal yesterday, and announced that the college authorities had practically decided not to defy the church any longer, but would close up their college and place themselves entirely at the disposal of the Bishop of St. Hyacinthe.

JAILERS LOCKED IN.

Brockville Officers Make Themselves Prisoners.

Brockville, Aug. 8.—Governor McDougall and Turnkey Hayes were held prisoners in the county jail for some hours yesterday afternoon. On duty bent, the two officers passed from the residential quarters into the jail through the heavy steel door which separates the two departments. This door has a spring lock, and no sooner were they on the inside than a breath of air blew against the door and there was a subdued click.

All the occupants of the residence were absent and in desperation the officials cudgeled their wits. Finally, through the grates of an upper cell, the jailer attracted the attention of County Engineer Blackwell, and soon the imprisoned men were breathing free air again.

Beck In Big Demand.

Toronto, Aug. 8.—Hon. Adam Beck, of the Hydro-Electric Commission, is in great demand as an attraction at exhibitions. Every mail brings him invitations to either speak at or open some fair. Being of an affable nature, the energetic Minister will lend his presence to as many of the country shows as he can afford time to attend.

MR. CARNEGIE'S OFFER REJECTED

Edmonton Council Turns Down the Library Proposition

Edmonton, Aug. 7.—If Edmonton has a Carnegie Library it will not be the library board that is to be thanked. That organization to-night washed its hands of the whole negotiations with the ironmaster, and put the question of accepting or rejecting the proffered $60,000 up to Commissioner Harrison.

The whole trouble is that Carnegie has based his offer on the recent Dominion census of 22,000, while the recent civic census gives Edmonton 55,385. The Library Board has recommended that Carnegie's gold be refused with thanks, and that the citizens erect a much more pretentious institution themselves.

OFFERED BIGGEST FEE ON RECORD

Lawyer Will Get $125,000 for Becker's Acquittal.

New York, Aug. 8.—Friends of Lieut. Becker expressed gratification yesterday over the conviction of two men upon evidence obtained by Becker's men in a raid which he himself conducted upon a poolroom alleged to have been maintained at Sam Paul's place, the Sans Souci.

Policeman Herman Schwartz of Becker's raiding squad, testified in the court of special sessions that Becker had given him some money and told him to go to Sam Paul's and get evidence against the poolroom operated there. Schwartz said he bet $10 in the place on a horse named Merry Scribe, running at the Fort Erie track Canada, and upon other horses, and cashed some of his bets before a cashier's window with other bettors. He then arrested the two men behind the window, David Levine and Morris Golden. After their conviction yesterday, the men were remanded to the Tombs pending sentence.

Three other men arrested in a previous raid on the same place by Inspector Callahan's men were discharged for lack of evidence.

It was stated yesterday by friends of Lieut. Becker that John F. McIntyre, the accused lieutenant's counsel, who has just been engaged, has accepted a cash retainer of $25,000. He will keep this sum whether he wins or loses. If he secures an acquittal he is guaranteed the additional fee of $100,000.

Montreal Ignored Them.

Montreal, Aug 8.—The forty members of the Educational Institutes of Scotland visiting here have a grievance against Montreal. It appears the civic authorities have absolutely ignored their presence. They threaten to say nasty things about Montreal when they get back home.

When suggestion was made to the City Council that the visitors be officially shown the city it was turned down because too much money had already been spent in entertaining visitors.

The party left to-day for Ottawa and Toronto.

SENTENCED TO FIVE YEARS EACH

Two Suffragettes at Dublin Receive Heavy Sentence.

Dublin, Ireland, Aug. 8.—Mary Leigh, the suffragette, who was tried yesterday on the charge of wounding John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Parliamentary party, with a hatchet she had thrown at Premier Asquith's carriage on July 19, was sentenced yesterday to five years' imprisonment.

Glady Evans, whose sentence was reserved Monday, after she had been found guilty of setting fire on July 18 to the Theatre Royal here, in which Mr. Asquith was scheduled to speak the following day on home rule, was also sentenced to a term of five years.

Miss Mary Baker was sentenced to seven months' imprisonment as an accomplice.

Mrs. Capper, who was accused of being an accomplice of Gladys Evans, was discharged for lack of evidence.

Mary Leigh addressed the jury in her own defence. She attempted to justify the militant methods of the suffragettes, because peaceful methods had failed to gain votes for women.

The Attorney-General for Ireland, C. A. O'Connor, spoke strongly of the horrors which would have attended a theatre fire, saying that was a price which was too high to pay for votes for women.

The verdict of guilty returned by the jury was received with applause by the spectators in court.

Hobhouse Under Cloud.

New York, Aug. 8.—A London cable says: Accused of inspiring suffragette violence, C. E. Hobhouse was subjected to strong pressure yesterday to resign from the Cabinet.

Witnesses at Gladys Evans' trial for attempting to burn the Theatre Royal, Dublin, said that Hobhouse declared in a public address that the suffragettes would accomplish nothing until they began burning houses.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd-George and one or two others are urging their colleague to stick to his portfolio, but Premier Asquith and a majority of the other Ministers want him to quit.

The outcome is uncertain, Hobhouse holds the post of Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, a nominal position so far as its work is concerned, which, however, adds greatly to its importance in the Commons. It was given to Hobhouse for his skill as a Liberal debator statistician and publicist.

BERESFORD SAYS CHURCHILL HAS PROVED A BIG FAILURE

British Admiral Grows Bitter Over Administration of the British Navy—Cannot Fight Now and Will Not be Ready for Some Time.

London, Aug. 8.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—Lord Charles Beresford, speaking at Evesham last night, had many unkind things to say of Winston Churchill, whom he characterized as the most eccentric individual who had ever been entrusted with naval executive work. He had occupied the position eight months and proved a miserable failure. He speaks of looking at things with a modern eye, but the first necessity is to see straight. With unaccountable insolence Churchill took charge of the recent Spithead naval manoeuvres, which resulted in chaotic disorganization.

The German menace was, in his opinion, so serious that he would withdraw the whole fleet and protect the heart of the Empire, leaving one armored cruiser only responsible in the Mediterranean.

"We can't at present fight," added Lord Charles, "and shan't be ready for some time to come."

Vigorously opposing naval alliance with foreign countries, he urged that the Empire should defend its own shores with its own ships. "The only alliance we should desire is one with the overseas dominions." "England," he concluded, "does not fear invasion, but starvation."

"We've reduced our fleet, we've reduced our army, while other nations are forging ahead with leaps and bounds. I say, stop fooling the people, tell them the truth."

ROOSEVELT AND JOHNSTON WILL MAKE RACE TOGETHER

Nominations Made at Third Party Convention and Session Concluded—Platform is Constructed on the Lines Laid Down in Their Leader's Speech.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers" and the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," the delegates to the first national convention of the new progressive party last night acclaimed Col. Theodore Roosevelt of New York as their candidate for President, and for Hiram W. Johnson of California as their choice as vice-president.

Marking a new departure in the proceedings of national conventions, the two candidates immediately were informally notified of their nomination, and in the midst of deafening cheers appeared before the delegates to voice their acceptance and to pledge their best efforts to the coming campaign.

The party formally christened itself "The Progressive Party," leaving out the prefix "national" by which it has heretofore been known, but provision was made for the recognition of "real" progressives in any of the states by whatever name they should be locally designated because of state laws.

The convention adjourned at 7.24 p.m., with the delegates singing the "Doxology," in lusty voices.

For several long hours during the afternoon and early morning the big throng in the Coliseum had listened to a flow of oratory in nominating and seconding speeches, in which the dominant note expressed was the belief that victory would come to the new party in the November election.

The name of Col. Theodore Roosevelt was placed in nomination for the Presidency by W. A. Prendergast of New York. When he concluded his speech, a demonstration was immediately begun. Delegates and spectators jumped upon their chairs and a chorus of cheering followed. The excitement lasted forty-five minutes. After several speeches, Governor Corey of Wyoming moved to suspend the rules and declare Theodore Roosevelt the nominee of the convention for President.

"Those in favor of the motion will answer 'Aye'."

From the floor there arose a rolling roar of "Aye."

A dull silence greeted the call for "Noes."

"The ayes seem to have it," began Beveridge, and a cheer interrupted him. "The ayes have it," he concluded when he could be heard, "and Theodore Roosevelt is declared the nominee of this convention."

Governor Hiram Johnson of California was then nominated for the vice-Presidency by John M. Parker of Louisiana, with Judge Ben Lindsey of Colorado. C. S. Wheeler of California, Gifford Pinchot, and F. R. Gleed, a negro delegate from New York, as seconders. The choice was likewise unanimous.

As Col. Roosevelt and Governor Johnson took their places side by side on the platform a demonstration broke loose. The delegates leaped to their chairs and cheered. Col. Roosevelt waved his hand to the crowd, but Johnson stood evidently just a little ill at ease.

"I come forward," said the colonel, "to thank you from my heart for the honor you have conferred upon me, and to say that, of course, I accept. I have been President. I have seen and know much of life, and I hold it by far the greatest honor and the greatest opportunity that has ever come to me to be called by you for the time being to the leadership of this great movement for the common people."

Governor Johnson pledged himself to aid Roosevelt in the "fight for the common good," and concluded: "I had rather go down to defeat with Theodore Roosevelt than to victory with any other Presidential candidate."

William Draper Lewis, dean of the law faculty of the University of Pennsylvania, presented the platform of the party. Its chief items are:

Preferential primaries in Presidential years.

Election of United States Senators by popular vote.

The short ballot, limiting the number of officials to be voted for.

A stringent and efficient Corrupt Practices Act, applying to primaries as well as elections.

Publicity of campaign contributions.

Initiative, referendum, and recall.

Recall of judicial decisions.

Simplifying the process for amendment of the constitution.

TORONTO'S NEW CITY COUNSEL

L. G. Meredith, of London, Chosen by Controllers.

Toronto, Aug. 8.—T. G. Meredith, K.C., at present city solicitor of London, is the choice of the Board of Control as corporation counsel, but the controllers decided at their meeting yesterday to consult with him as to the terms of his entering before definitely recommending him to the position. No other name was mentioned when the matter was up for discussion and a formal recommendation was only deferred because the board had been unable to get in communication with Mr. Meredith.

Judge Assassinated.

Constantinople, Aug. 8.—A despatch from Petch (also known as Ipek), in the vilayet of Kossovo, about 73 miles to the northeast of Skutari, says the judge of the civil court there was assassinated while sitting on the bench yesterday. The inmates of the prison in the town attempted to escape, but were prevented from doing so by the troops. A Bulgarian was arrested yesterday at Kenprila while he was in the act of placing a bomb in the local club.

"Into Hands of Fanatics."

Montreal, Aug. 8.—La Patrie, commenting on the bilingual school situation in Ontario, says:

"It is regrettable to note that Sir James Whitney, who has given so many proofs that he is animated by the spirit of fair play and who has so often risen superior to the prejudices of race and religion, should, in this instance, have thought fit to deliver our compatriots into the hands of the fanatics of his province."

DOUBLY WEDDED

Unusual Wedding Ceremony Performed in Toronto.

Kingston, Aug. 8.—An unusual occurrence is recorded in the marriage of G. A. Ferguson, Toronto, which took place Tuesday, in that the ceremony was performed by clergymen of two denominations. The couple were first married in the Roman Catholic archbishop's palace by Rev. Father Macdonald and afterwards in St. Andrew's Presbyterian manse by Rev. S. J. M. Compton.

Mr. Rodier, who died two years ago, took a prominent part in the work of the Trades and Labor Council, and was not only president of that body, but also filled other offices.

Police Guard Rubber Field.

Lima, Peru, Aug. 8.—Carlos Rey Castro, the special commissioner appointed by the Peruvian Government to take charge of the Putumayo rubber district in which the recent terrible atrocities occurred, has formed an efficient police force, the members of which have been distributed in positions from which they can readily control the region.

Her Twenty-Eighth Child.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Aug. 8.—Mrs. E. Webster of 1127 Fairfield avenue, this city, yesterday gave birth to her 28th child, a healthy boy, weighing 8 pounds, who was immediately named Albert M.

Mrs. Webster, who is 44 years old, has been married twice. She was first married when 18 years old. Her present husband is 46 years old. Among the children born to her were three pairs of twins and two sets of triplets. Eight of the 28 children are living. Mrs. Webster is colored.

Rowell Real Woodstockian.

Woodstock, Aug. 8.—N. W. Rowell, the Opposition leader in the Ontario Legislature, has forsaken Toronto for a time at least, and will make Woodstock his home during the summer months. He has brought his family here, and they are now domiciled in the Eden home on Light street.

Mrs. Rowell has held several receptions at her Woodstock residence, and they entertain many Toronto friends at the week ends.

Would-Be Assassin Insane.

Budapest, Aug. 8.—Julius Kovacs, a deputy in the Lower House of the Hungarian Parliament, who fired three times at Count Tisza, the Speaker of the Lower House, on June 7, and then shot himself, was yesterday brought before the police magistrate, who discharged him on the ground that he was insane.

A MARTYR TO HAY FEVER

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured After 15 Years' Suffering

CORNWALL CENTRE, ONT.,
November 27th 1911.

"I was a martyr to Hay Fever for probably fifteen years and I suffered terribly at times. I consulted many physicians and took their treatment, and I tried every remedy I heard of as being good for Hay Fever but nothing helped me.

Then I heard of "Fruit-a-tives" and decided to try them, and I am thankful to say that this remedy cured me completely.

To every sufferer from Hay Fever, I wish to say—"Try Fruit-a-tives". This medicine cured me when every other treatment failed, and I believe it is a perfect cure for this dreadful disease—Hay Fever."

MRS. HENRY KEMP.

The real cause of Hay Fever is poisoned blood, due to the faulty action of the bowels, kidneys and skin. "Fruit-a-tives" cleans the blood by regulating bowels, kidneys and skin—and thus relieves the excessive strain on the nervous system. Try "Fruit-a-tives".

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

CONTINUES TO TRIUMPH

The cause of public ownership in the matter of light and power is gathering strength every day and the prospects are that the patronage of the Hydro-Electric system will be doubled before the end of next year. In Toronto last month the maximum load was 10,184 as compared against 1,528 in July of last year. Welland, after a hard fight with the private interests has declared for the Hydro-Electric and Port Dalhousie will vote on the same question next Saturday. In the latter place trouble has been experienced with the Cataract Power Company, which has threatened to turn off the lights. Only a few days ago Uxbridge and adjacent towns formed a league to become patrons of the public system, and Hon. Adam Beck, chairman of the Commission, sees nothing but success in the future. He says that before the end of 1913 the Niagara district will be using from forty to fifty thousand horse power.

Every municipality that has had the Hydro-Electric system installed is interested in these extensions, as an increase of patronage means a corresponding reduction in the cost of light and power to the consumer. In a short time Peterborough too will have a place in the circle of cities that patronise the Commission.

THE CITIZEN IS ANGRY

The Ottawa Citizen flares up editorially as follows—

> Local newspapers still continue to bellow about the hundreds of cases of typhoid, or alleged typhoid, Ottawa contains, through the medium of three column scare heads. It is somewhat difficult to understand the object of this sort of publicity when everything possible is being done as quickly as possible to remedy the water system, responsible for most of the sickness. Ottawa has typhoid and Ottawa has a punk water system but the city is getting busy on the one which causes the other. If there is anything to be accomplished, beyond giving the capital a black-eye abroad and making life miserable for timid folk at home, by roaring about the hundreds of cases of disease in the city, it is not obvious.

The Citizen's violent language is the best evidence that its cause is weak. The editor of that paper is much too good a newspaperman, and understands the duties and responsibilities of journalism too well to suggest that the reading public, either in Ottawa or throughout the country should be kept in ignorance of a calamity so appalling as the present epidemic of typhoid fever in Ottawa. That the scene of the disaster is the Capital of the Dominion is an additional reason why the facts should be made known seeing that the nation at large has a peculiar interest in the welfare of Ottawa. While the above extract shows that the Citizen's quarrel is with its contemporaries in its own field, it has on other occasions deplored the publicity given the epidemic by the papers published in other places. In this particular instance it is the Citizen's ox that is being gored. It may be true, as the Citizen says, that the authorities are now busy in striving to remove the original cause of the epidemic, but the fact remains that these efforts are being made after the mischief has been done. The stable door is being locked when the horse thief has accomplished his purpose.

If Ottawa people had some time ago acted upon the advice of the Provincial Health Officer, with regard to the water supply, if when the first sign of the present epidemic had appeard, they had been guided by this counsel as to the best means to be employed to stamp it out, the catastrophe might, to a great extent, have been averted.

The Ottawa papers were the first to give circulation to the scare that the Dominion Parliament would flee the city and hold the next session in some other place.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Belleville's tax rate is to be 25 mills and the inevitable fraction. Over one-third of the amount to be raised is for the support of the schools.

Since Ald. Johnson vaguely referred to the "local government official who bamboozles the public," he has kept the community guessing the identity of the gentleman to whom he referred.

The Toronto Star's special correspondent at the Progressive convention, says that Roosevelt is no fair weather friend, but is true to the last ditch. What would President Taft, Senator Root and some of them say to this?

Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes, says that Canada is in danger of invasion by a foreign foe. In the event of such a catastrophe, Peterborough, with the gallant 57th in commission, is ready to do her part in the defence of the nation.

The suffragettes who are preparing to tie up their political fortunes with those of Col. Roosevelt, have evidently forgotten the "dear Maria" episode of a few years ago, and how the gallant colonel, when it suited his purpose, betrayed a confidence, and threw that militant body into the air.

The Dominion Railway Board no doubt possess almost unlimited powers, but it is hardly to be hoped that it has authority to compel the C.P.R. to permit the use of its bridge in this city as a public highway any more than the Board could force the railway to give up any other part of its rightway for the same purpose.

Belleville is among the first municipalities in Ontario to avail itself of the powers conferred by the new Noxious Weeds Act, and has appointed a special officer to enforce the law. It is not yet too late for the Peterborough City Council to make a move in the same direction.

The members of the new Progressive party are evidently not superstitious, seeing that they have adopted the red bandana as their emblem. That was the banner of the Democrats in 1888, when Grover Cleveland and Allan G. Thurman, of Ohio, as his running mate, went down to overwhelming defeat.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, Aug. 7.—At the Canadian Pacific Live Stock Market the receipts of live stock for the week ended Aug. 3 were 1200 cattle, 2000 sheep, 1200 hogs and 200 calves. The offerings to-day were 1000 cattle, 1000 sheep, 1100 hogs and 700 calves. There was only a fair market and the tendency, as at the west end market on Monday, was to lower prices. The arrivals for two weeks now have been large and the supply is greater than the midsummer demand, which has been stimulated only to a moderate degree by the comparatively cool weather. As a result bidding was very slow to-day and sellers were forced to accept lower prices. Steers sold from $4 to $6.50 per cwt.; cows, from $3.50 to $5. Few good bulls were offered and on the common run the price ranged from $2.50 to $3.25.

Sheep sold fairly steady at 4c a pound and lambs brought 4c for common and 6½c for good. Hogs were about 75c lower than a week ago, selects selling at $8.50 per cwt. Calves brought from $3 to $10 each.

THE WICKEDEST CITY.

Havana Seems to Qualify For Unenviable Reputation.

Several cities have been called the wickedest city — Reno, Nev., Port Said, and Irkutsk, Siberia, for instance. They are wicked cities, but their wickedness is of a sordid variety. Havana is wicked and gay.

In Paris the "night life," gay restaurants and dances are for the English and American tourists. In Havana the "gay life" is for the natives. Its wickedness is part of its life.

Everything in Havana is wide open. And of its fifty-seven varieties of wickedness the mildest is gambling. Gambling houses in Havana are open to both men and women. All that is necessary is a pocketful of bank notes. Roulette, faro, hazard, and poker are at hand.

Even as one sips his chocolate in the morning the daily round has its beginning. A half dozen peddlers of lottery tickets interrupt the meal. The lottery in Cuba is run by the Government for enormous prizes. The first prize is $100,000.

The tickets are hawked about the streets and sold at every corner store. But the fact that the Government conducts it does not guarantee its "being on the level." At a recent drawing the first prize was not awarded for the reason that that particular ticket had not been sold. The public didn't like it, but they kept on buying tickets, for it is their instinct to "take a chance."

If one sits around a cafe any length of time—and a large part of every day is spent in this way—one is certain to be invited to witness a cock fight. Cock-fighting is one of the commonest sports in Cuba, and while it is against the law, it is rarely interfered with. Large sums change hands on these bloody exhibitions.

The cafes are crowded, there is a constant stream of automobiles and carriages up and down the boulevards. The sidewalks are filled with people hurrying to the theatres. They are nearly all dressed in the height of fashion. Havana is one of the richest cities in the world. It's styles come direct from Paris. The only cheap things are tobacco and matches.

At 8 o'clock performances begin in a dozen theatres. In the moving pictures and variety theatres one finds real wickedness. The "grizzly bear," "the bunny hug" are modest compared with the dances shown on the stages of the variety theatres, where the public is admitted for 25 and 50 cents. The little plays are beyond description, and the actresses wear very scanty attire.

At midnight Central Park, which is in the heart of the city, is as crowded and filled with life as the Strand and Piccadilly before the theatres swallow up the crowds. The cafes are filled with people who eat ice cream and sip soft drinks. There is very little drinking of alcoholic liquors in Havana.

Of course, all Havana does not go to the theatre. Many of the fashionable set seek the clubs, some seek the gambling palaces and others attend masque balls, which are given nightly. The gayest affairs are given on Sunday nights at the Theatre Nacional. They begin about midnight and last until 8 and 9 o'clock on Monday morning.

The New Miramar is the Mecca of tourists. If one is well dressed and looks prosperous he is asked if he wishes to play.

A UNIQUE CARD INDEX.

How Grover Cleveland Got a Line on All the Office Seekers.

Among the anecdotes of "Cleveland's first election" related by William Gorham Rice, assistant private secretary to Cleveland as governor of New York, in the Century is the following:

"When Mr. Cleveland began to consider his cabinet and the other more important appointments special letters came to him in great numbers. One group of these was most curious. The writer of them was a newspaper man of high reputation and of wide acquaintance with Washington life. He called on Mr. Cleveland at Albany and when he left stated he would send from time to time information about public men unsigned, but in his own handwriting. Thereupon there began to come a daily envelope containing unsigned cards of convenient form for filing. These cards treated of nearly everybody proposed for the cabinet, of distinguished visitors announced in the public press as on their way to Albany and of well known men generally who might be commended for office themselves or might ask office for others. There was a separate card for every person, and his good points were written in red ink, while discreditable facts and undesirable characteristics appeared in black.

"Thus each card embodied a concise record of the deeds and a keen estimate of the character and influence of the man named therein. Giving as they did an incisive, impartial and, I believe, upon the whole an accurate analysis of those about whom they were written, they presented a comment of unusual wit and wisdom upon American national politics. The point of view was that of an experienced and able observer of current events, and the whole record made a kind of judgment day book of men of both parties conspicuous in national affairs—in civil life and in the army and navy.

"It can readily be imagined that not a few visitors who came to see Mr. Cleveland were surprised at the knowledge of the political affiliations of prominent men which was shown by the unsophisticated president elect."

SIRENS OF THE SANDS.

Gold Laden Professional Dancing Girls of North Africa.

The distinctive thing about the Ouled Nail, the professional dancing girl of north Africa, is her jewelry. She has so much of it, indeed, that there is no gold to be had in Algeria. Ask for napoleons instead of paper money at your bank in Biskra or Constantine and you will meet with a prompt "Impossible, m'sieur."

"But why is it impossible?" you naturally inquire.

"Because we have no gold on hand, m'sieur," is the polite response.

"Where is it then?" you ask, scenting a robbery or a defalcation.

"On the Ouled Nails, m'sieur," the cashier courteously replies.

And he speaks the truth. Every centime that a dancing girl can beg, borrow or earn goes toward the purchase of massive silver jewelry, anklets, bracelets and the like, and this in turn is exchanged for gold pieces—whether French napoleons, British sovereigns or Turkish liras she is not particular—which, linked together in trellised armor, clanking, clashing and shining, envelope her lithe young body from neck to hips. When her portable wealth has attained such dimensions it is usually the sign for the Ouled Nail to retire from business, going to her nomad husband with her dowry about her neck.—Metropolitan Magazine.

A Rebuke.

An anecdote about the late Rear Admiral Melville was told the other day at a Washington club.

"Melville one stormy morning at sea," said the narrator, "had occasion to rebuke a young officer for wearing soiled gloves.

"'But, sir,' the young officer remonstrated, 'the men have been so overworked in all this dirty weather one couldn't well ask them to wash gloves.'

"Melville took a pair of perfectly clean gloves from his pocket.

"'Here, wear these,' he said quietly. 'I washed these myself.'"—Washington Star.

An Agreement on Defence.

London, Aug. 8.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The Birmingham Post says a letter received here from a responsible authority in Ottawa expresses the confident belief that negotiations between Canada and the United States will take place after Mr. Borden's return for an agreement governing the frontier defence. Such an agreement would rquire the assent of the Imperial Government and would in the end benefit the whole Empire while avoiding the opposition of foreign powers which a direct Anglo-American treaty might provoke.

When the People Refuse to Pay

EVER since King John signed the Magna Charta the people have been discovering new rights and asserting them.

Long ago the people learned how to get what they wanted—by the simple expedient of "refusing to pay."

In the days when kings played "war" with one another the people could always put a sudden end to the fun by "refusing to pay."

To-day, when men play the great game of business, they have to depend on the people, even as did those kings of long ago. When the people stop payment, the game ends.

Of high importance is "the right to know" as applied to modern commerce. The people have found they want a "reason why" before they buy.

We awoke to this fact but a short while ago, when a few manufacturers began to tell us some of the things they thought we should know about their goods. They were the pioneer advertisers.

Soon the world discovered that it had an appetite for facts. And in the re-adjustment of things for the proper satisfaction of this appetite, we have developed a new science—its name is "Advertising."

Now that we have learned there is a way of telling us we demand to know. By the exercise of a power that has never failed—the refusal to pay unless satisfied—the people have set up a new order of things. The manufacturers and merchants are telling us everything we want to know—through Advertising.

When we buy soap, we must know "Whose soap?" "How is it made?" "What are its properties?" "What are its uses?" "Wherein does it excel?" The Advertising tells us.

It's the same with well-nigh everything we buy—food, clothes, furniture, pianos, automobiles. We will have the facts about these things—or we will refuse to pay.

We, the public, have created a new world force. We call it "Advertising."

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or through the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Bldg., Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

A Ray of Light.

The straightest thing in nature or art is a ray of light when passing through a medium of uniform density. Hence the eye is enabled to test the straightness of an edge or tube by holding it as nearly as possible coincident with a ray of light, such parts as depart from straightness then intercepting a ray and causing a shade to be cast upon other parts. It is not known at what early period in the history of mankind the discovery was made that straightness could be thus determined. It is certain that thousands of mechanics use the method without being able to give a rational explanation for it.

BUILDING MAY BE TORN DOWN

T. Rutherford Performed Work on Isaac Eastwood's Building Contrary to Permit.

City Engineer Hay who was instructed by Council to examine the Isaac Eastwood building on Hunter street, reported by letter, last evening that the structural work was satisfactory, although it did not conform with the special permit issued.

Ald. Buller explained that Mr. Eastwood says the second storey was built during his absence, and that he was therefore ignorant that it was being built contrary to the requirements called for in the permit.

Mr. Eastwood now feels that it means a great deal to be compelled to tear down the second storey, as it is being lathed and ready for plastering.

Council were strongly of the opinion that the fault was due to the to the contrariness of the contractor, T. Rutherford. When the latter and Mr. Eastwood jointly waited upon the Council, and were given to understand how the building must be erected to conform with the building by-law, they announced their readiness to agree to it. Yet the upper storey was put up by Mr. Rutherford regardless of instructions.

Ald. Gillespie felt that it was time Council put a stop to such actions and that Mr. Rutherford should be made to raze the upper storey and build it as ordered in the permit.

Mr. Eastwood regards it as a hardship to be asked to tear down part of the building, when other buildings that he knows of, were put up contrary to by-law regulations.

The Mayor explained that wherever such had occurred, it has been done by special permission.

As two of the council members were absent, no action was taken.

A young woman named Mrs. West employed at the Palace Hotel, received the greatest shock of her life this morning. While hanging out clothes, after they had been cleansed, her hand came in contact with a highly charged electric wire. The shock threw her to the ground and it was at first thought she was killed. She quickly revived however. and is none the worse for the accident.

Meeting Held Last Night and Progress Reported.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the day's sports, to be helf on Labor Day at Riverside Park, under the auspices of the Trades and Labor Council, held a meeting last evening, and reports were presented from the various committees, showing that considerable progress was being made in preparing a program for the day. During the evening, James Stevenson, of Toronto, who was present, addressed the meeting in the interests of the Trades and Labor Congress, urging the members of the various local unions to appoint delegates to the convention, which will be held at Guelph, next month.

CAPT. WILLIAMS HAD CLOSE CALL

Was on the Chemong Stage When Horses Ran Away.

Capt. Williams, of Port Hope, who is visiting friends in this city left on the stage yesterday for Chemong to see his daughter, who is spending her vacation there accompanied by her husband, Mr. C. Walbridge, of Madoc. The only other passenger on the stage was a relative of the driver. While going down the Findlay hill the horses ran away and one of the front wheels of the vehicle was wrenched off. The veteran captain clung pluckily to his seat and after the vehicle had been dragged some distance on three wheels, the driver succeeded in stopping the horses. No one was injured, but Capt. Williams says it was one of the closest calls he has ever had, and as he is troubled with heart weakness he is considerably upset as a result of the accident.

With the assistance of some friendly farmers the stage was fixed up again, but on the trip back the captain preferred taking chances in an automobile.

EXCITING RUNAWAY

Mr. A. Peters Had Narrow Escape From Serious Injury.

A thrilling runaway occurred at 11 o'clock this morning by the new wharf on George street. A fiery light bay team belonging to Mr. Kelly, of Bridgenorth, ran amuck on George street above the C.P.R. crossing. After rushing down the street they caught up with Peters' delivery rigb. With Mr. Peters driving. Instead of turning out, they ran one on each side of the wagon, and the pole came over the top. If Mr. Peters had not ducked, the pole would have crushed in his skull. Mr. Thomas Lane and Harry McDonald at this juncture stopped the wild career of the team, but the rig was badly damaged, necessitating extensive repairs.

NEW CHAIRMAN OF F. W. AND L. COMMITTEE IS ALD. GILLESPIE

Several of the City Fathers Decline the Honor— Ald. Johnston Appointed Chairman of Manufacturers and Power Committee.

The astonishing modesty of the members of the City Council was never demonstrated until last evening, when several of them refused to accept the honor of being head of the Fire, Water and Light Committee. No one seemed anxious to occupy the position, lately vacated by Ald. W. J. Johnston, whose resignation was accepted after the Council had expressed extreme regret for the course he had seen fit to pursue.

Ald. Johnston's decision to not reconsider the step he had taken, remained unaltered.

For the remainder of the year, by unanimous vote Ald. G. A. Gillespie was appointed to supervise the actions of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, succeeding Ald. Johnston. By some, the above result was almost a foregone conclusion.

All the members of the Council were on hand, save the chairman of the Property Committee.

When Mayor Bradburn called for some one to move the acceptance of Ald. Johnston's resignation, there was a silence, indicating a reluctance to part with his services on that committee.

Ald. Gordon was the first to break the silence.

"It is a matter of regret, not only to the Council," he said, "but to me personally, that Ald. Johnston cannot bring himself to reconsider his decision. Although I do not agree exactly with him in matters pertaining to conditions at the fire hall, I wish to place myself on record as saying that Ald. Johnston has always shown extreme thoughtfulness, energy and tact in his position, and has often left his own duties to perform work in connection with his official position, and has always conscientiously done his duty. It is therefore with a great deal of regret that I move that Ald. Johnston's resignation be accepted." Ald. Gillespie seconded the motion, and when put to a vote the motion carried.

The Mayor formally conveyed to the retiring chairman the genuine regreat of the Council and himself at losing his services as chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

"You have spent a great deal of time," he said. "In connection with the work you have gone to a great deal of trouble to see that affairs at the fire hall have been attended to in proper order."

Ald. Johnston thanked the Mayor for his kind words. "It is true," he added, "that I have tried to attend to conditions there as far as possible, and I regret that the course planned by me in connection with affairs at the hall could not be carried out. Moreover, if I received one congratulation to-day for the course I have pursued, I have received fifty. I will always endeavor to do the work of the city," he concluded, "to the best of my ability, and I thank the Council for its assistance and advice in the past."

The nominations for the vacated position immediately commenced.

Ald. Gillespie nominated Ald. Gordon. The latter declined the nomination, however, on the ground that his time was limited, and that chairmanships of committees do not go to first year men in the Council. "I am perfectly willing to let some one else wrestle with the Chief." he said, causing a laugh.

"He is so young and modest," said Ald. Morgan.

Ald. Gordon—"I would nominate Ald. Gillespie, a man of many years' experience." Ald. Duffus seconded his motion.

Ald. Gillespie—"I nominate Ald. Brown." The latter evaded the nomination, by saying that he wanted two months' leave of absence in the near future. Ald. Gillespie therefore withdrew his motion.

The motion therefore that Ald. Gillespie be appointed chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee for the balance of the year, carried without a dissenting vote.

Ald. Gillespie—"Well, I don't envy the position of chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, but as it is the wish of the Council, I am satisfied to accept it, and I am willing to do what I can. I am sorry that Ald. Johnston, however, gave it up. Having a chairmanship at the present time, I don't wish to hold two, and I would therefore ask Council to accept my resignation as chairman of the Manufacturers' and Power Committee."

Ald. Duffus and Anderson moved that the resignation be accepted.—Carried.

It was then moved that Ald. Johnston be appointed chairman of the Manufacturers' and Power Committee, replacing Ald. Gillespie.

"I hope the Council aren't making fun of me," said Ald. Johnston, "for I told you, Mr. Mayor, that I didn't wish to accept any chairmanship; I dont want to appear too arbitrary, although I think some of the members think I am too much that way."

Mayor Bradburn—"I don't think they feel that way about it at all, Ald. Johnston!"

The latter was therefore elected unanimously to the office.

MAYOR BEWAILS MUNICIPAL GRAFT

Detroit's Executive Orates on Civic Scandal.

Detroit, Aug. 6—In a public address to the citizens of Detroit, Mayor Wm. B. Thompson, declares for war on the graft system, not on men. He says—

"The last fortnight has witnessed many painful exposures of corrupt practices in our municipal life, which should bring the blush of shame to the cheek of every honest man who dwells within our gates.

"Like the surgeon, who, with merciless, yet merciful, knife, removes the cancer that imperils the health and life of his patient, so the greatest of living detectives, Wm. J. Burns, has sunk the knife of publicity into our cancer of municipal dishonor and dishonesty.

"Now we know that our pride was empty and vain, now we know that during the long years of our fancied immunity from boodling, a graft system has grown up in our midst which ramified into every phase of civic enterprise.

"The poor peanut peddler at the corner stand, eking out a prevarious existence in all kinds of weather, was mulcted of his petty tribute of grimy pennies.

"The big manufacturer who needed a sidetrack into his plant for the convenient conduct of his business had to become a boodler in order to get what was his due.

"The railroad which sought concessions in order to adjust its tracks and warehouses to relieve the pitiable freight congestion that harasses our merchants was ordered to stand and deliver.

"The public utility official who sought special privileges was met, not with sturdy refusal, but with a greedy invitation to barter and chaffer for the privilege he sought.

"Nobody was safe. Everybody had to 'run the gauntlet' of official greed.

SLEPT ON SERENELY

"And meanwhile, you, my fellow-citizens, slept on, serenely and smugly satisfied, that the shame of [illegible] St. Louis, Atlantic City, Philadelphia would never come to our door.

"Now that burning, blistering shame has come home to us. Now we have been rudely shocked into a consciousness of our own civic unworthiness.

"What is our duty in this crisis?

"Some clamor for the crushing of the weak and erring men who have proved faithless in our trust.

"I make no war on men.

"I make war on the system which gave these men the occasion to sell their manhood; the system which gave them protection and encouragement; the system which welded the dishonest and the base, both within and without the city government, into a solid phalanx in which only the genius of William J. Burns could make a dint."

Brantford, Aug. 7.—Brantford took both ends of a double-header with Peterborough here to-day, winning the first by 8 to 4, and the second by 4 to 3. A feature of the game was the batting of Courtney, a home run, three two-baggers and two singles being his share in the two games. Score:—

BALL GAMES AT RIVERSIDE

An impression seems to be abroad that the ball games, on Civic Holiday will be held at the Exhibition grounds.

This is not the case. The games will be played, as usual, at Riverside Park at 10 a.m., and 2.30 p.m., sharp. The clubs will be London vs. Peterborough, and good sport is expected.

Saturday's game, St. Thomas vs. Peterborough, will be called at 3 o'clock p.m., sharp.

BREEZES FROM THE DIAMOND

The local Ball Club, as well as Guelph and St. Thomas, have been after Pitcher Tom Silcox, of the London team, and the Saints have succeeded in landing him. He was not very effective on the London team, but this was probably due to his dissatisfaction with his berth and desire for a change.

The Saints and the White Caps finish up the week here, playing Friday and Saturday, with a double header on one of the two days.

It is rumored that Jim Thorpe, the famous Carlyle School Indian, who won the world's all-round championship at the Olympic games last month will be seen in Hamilton uniform before the week is out.

The Ottawa Club demands $2,100 for Arthur Schwind, the sensational young shortstop of that team. The first call on him has been given to the New York Americans. Young Schwind is the fastest fielder and baserunner in the Canadian League and deserves the climb.

Ottawa Citizen—Has anybody noticed the way that Peterboro Club has been playing of late? They won six straight from Guelph and have been batting every other club to the limit. Ottawa can't afford to take chances against Davie Rowan's aggregation from this on.

Breces from Anywhere but the bottom of the cellar. Anything to pass Berlin.

Dropping the double-header yesterday was rather a serious blow to Peterborough's ambitions to overhaul Berlin, but if the local club can keep anywhere near the stride they have struck in the last two weeks, they may reasonably hope to change places with Barbe Deneau's outfit before the season finishes.

J. J. McCaffery, the Toronto ball magnate, is at present scouting in the Canadian League. He took in the double header at London yesterday.

In yesterday's game with Jersey City, "Bennie" Meyer and "Bill" O'Hara, Toronto's sterling outfielders, were "there" with four safe singles apiece. One of Meyers' was a triple, while O'Hara added a slashing two-bagger to his growing list of double smashes.

The Canadian League pennant may be decided within a week. The Senators have, at present, a lead of 91 points on the Cockneys, but this is none too safe, in view of the fact that the Ottawa club is beginning a hard week on the road, in which they must tackle London, Brantford and St. Thomas.

Fursaedon, one of London's effective slab artists, threw his shoulder out in a game recently, and will be out of the game for the rest of the season.

Harvesting by August 12th.

Winnipeg, Aug. 8.—The crop report yesterday covering the three prairie provinces is most gratifying, the feature being the remarkable progress made in the last two weeks. The grain is filling well. The barley harvest has started at most points. Fall wheat in Alberta is largely in shock, and the old fields of spring wheat are already cut. Harvesting will be general from August 12 to 23, the 15th being the date given when the majority of points will commence.

SUCCESSFUL GARDEN PARTY

Held on the Grounds of Mr. Manley of Lock Street.

A highly successful garden party was held last night on the splendid grounds of Mr. Manley, of Lock St. It was held in the interests of the new Anglican Church known as the Church of England in the Parish of South Peterborough.

The new parish comprises the southern districts of the parishes of All Saints, St. Lukes and St. John the Evangelists, and is being run in conjunction with St. Marks, Otonabee. The immediate purpose of the party was to provide a basis for a fund to build their new church.

There was a large attendance for the evening, about 400 admission tickets being sold. Booths were situated in different parts of the lawn, as tea booths, soft drinks refreshment booths, ice cream booths and a candy booth. The life of the gathering was the genial rector of the parish, Mr. Price.

Towards the end of the party an auction sale of cake was held, at which anyone who wished to buy a home-made cake, had to bid for it.

During the intermission music was provided by members of the congregation, assisted by members of the other parishes. The program was directed by Mr. R. J. Devey, of St. John's Church. Mrs. Perks, Mrs. Wells and Miss Eleanor Hinchliffe rendered very acceptable solos; also Mrs. R. J. Devey and Mrs. S. Evans, the organist of the new church.

THE MODERN BOY AS WE SEE HIM

The boy of to-day jumps from knee-breeches, into "the longs" and has a girl long before his father ever dreamed of such procedure. In fact he is, in his own exalted opinion, miles and miles ahead of what his father was at his age. It is a common sight nowadays to meet a lad just into his teens, walking arm-in-arm with a diminutive, but pert young miss, both with all the assurance of their elders. Almost any evening you will meet them out strolling, whispering nonsensical nothings to each other. The boy is usually said to be in the first and unmistakable stage of what is called "calf love." He is early beginning to feel his oats, and he is going to have a good time. The evolution of a boy is invariably interesting. When he blossoms out in his first "longs" trying to look as if he was unaware of them, there commences a line of boyish evolutions that will ever be the same. The first few jollyings over, he is ready for the next change. It is likely that the cap is discarded and a brand new "Christie" will sit upon his head. Then nothing but button shoes, likely to be tan, come next. The spotted socks of course are not overlooked. In his first choices of the latter he usually chooses a glaring, splashy color, that can be heard around a corner. The cigar, of course, or the pipe, is there, and you have the full fledged stripling, decked out in full, truly a sport in every detail.

He soon has a "steady," discovers that he makes a hit with the girls, and it is then only a matter of time before he is a throughly citified young chap, equipped with a line of slang that would make his fond parents start in their sleep if they heard him.

If he survives this stage, until he reaches his majority, he begins to sober down. He allows his common sense to get a word in, and adopts a saner style.

Look around and see if you recognize these phases in a boy you know. Investigate further and you will probably find that he is averse to labor.

IN MEMORY OF LIVINGSTONE

Centenary of the Explorer to be Fittingly Observed.

David Livingstone was born on March 13, 1813, and consequently next March the world will be holding the centenary of one of the greatest explorers and missionaries that ever lived.

He was the discoverer of the river Zuga and Lake Ngami, for which the Royal Geographical Society made him a special reward. Some years after, during the course of his explorations he came across the great Zambesi. The history of his travels in that region still remain a standard work of reference. In 1857 he severed his connection with the London Missionary Society, and early in the following year became consul at Quilimane, on the east coast of Africa and from there, under government directions, conducted vast explorations into the interior. Perhaps the greatest work that he accomplished was the freeing of the slaves and suppression of the slave trade through the opening up of Africa to western civilization.

The honor of having sent Livingstone as a missionary to South Africa belonged to the London Missionary Society, but the work that he has accomplished has gained the gratitude of the entire Christian world.

The anniversary of his birth will be marked by the centenary celebrations which will take place principally between March 16 and 19, 1913. The London Missionary Society have engaged the Albert hall for an enormous gathering, but other meetings will probably be held all over England, and in many other countries as well.

When Livingstone was supposed to be lost in the wilds of Africa, the New York Tribune sent Henry M. Stanley to find him. Stanley succeeded and the trip made him famous and wealthy.

BERLIN WILL VOTE ON FIVE BY-LAWS

Berlin, Ont., Aug. 6.—The City Council has selected Saturday, Aug. 31, as the date for voting on five different money by-laws, and the question of setting aside seven acres of Victoria Park for Athletic purposes. The by-laws provide for raising by debentures of $15,000 for the erection of a tuberculosis sanitarium; $17,000 for purchase of two new street cars, and an addition to car barns; of $5,000 for establishing a civic abattoir; of $6,000 for the erection of municipal barns, and of $6,000 to defray a portion of the cost for erecting a county bridge across Grand River at Bloomingdale for the Berlin & Northern Railway Company. Mr Charles Cowan has been appointed the Council's representative on the Court of Revision, the members of which will receive $2 per sitting.

BELLEVILLE HAS A NEW OFFICIAL

Mr. Richard Arnott will soon turn botanist for he has now to hunt up "Blue Devil," "Sweet Clover" and "Dandelion", according to a bylaw which has been passed, appointing him inspector of foul weeds at the yearly salary of $25, and declaring these weeds to be noxious to husbandry and gardening within the City of Belleville.

This bylaw was put through in accordance with the statute governing noxious weeds and granting permission to councils to pass bylaws extending the statute to other weeds than those named.

Inspector Arnott's duties are to notify in writing the owner or occupant of land on which foul weeds are growing and in case of neglect to comply to have them cut down, or have the delinquent brought before a Justice.

It is the duty of overseers of highways to see that these provisions are carried out.

Fines upon conviction are $5.00 minimum and $20 maximum.

The bylaw goes into force at once.

BANK BALANCES UNCLAIMED

The Total Amount is Nearly Seven Hundred Thousand.

The Dominion Government has issued a statement of the unclaimed balances which remain in the charter banks of the country, nothing having been heard from the depositors for the past five years or more. Andrews & Co. have $12.45, the Duluth Gold Mining Company has $26.25 and Robert Agnes $1.29, still standing in some one of the several branches of the Bank of Montreal.

In the Bank of Toronto, Sam H. Crowe has $119.87, Martha Robinson $15, N. P. Croft $14.00 and W. Bell $25. Some of the accounts in these cases have been opened nearly twenty years ago.

N. W. Robinson, of Ennismore, is good for $12.97 in the same bank.

The following balances have been standing for five years and over in the Bank of Montreal to parties whose last known address was Lindsay: B. Burke, $457.48; Francis Clark, $8.30; R. Henderson, $47.60; W. Hannah & Co., $11.14; Mutual Life Association, $116.75; W. and H. Jones, $48.00; Jos. Hadden, $15.90; Margaret Brady, $14.34.

EIGHT FARMS HAVE BEEN SELECTED

Ontario Government Makes Another Move to Aid Farmers.

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—For the purpose of demonstrating to Canadian farmers how they may get the best out of the land in the most economic manner, the Commission of Conservation has chosen a number of farms throughout the Provinces for illustration purposes. In each case the Commission has chosen farms whose owners agrees to be guided by the agricultural experts provided. These are F. C. Nunnick, the Commission's agricultural expert; and John Fixter, formerly farm superintendent of Macdonald College. The illustration farms have already been chosen in the eastern Provinces, and both Mr. Nunnick and Mr. Fixter are now in the west arranging for illustration farms in the Prairie Provinces.

In Ontario there are eight farms, in Quebec six, and in New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, and Nova Scotia, three each.

The Ontario illustration farms are as follows: Lanark County, farm owned by W. Hands, of Perth; Essex County, farm owned by Nelson Peterson Ruthven, and farm owned by R. F. Taylor, Essex; Norfolk County, farm owned by A. F. Culver, Simcoe; Waterloo County, farm owned by Paul Snyder, Elmira; Ontario County, farm owned by Thos. Hall, Brooklin; Dundas County, farm owned by Whittaker Bros., Williamsburg.

Meetings will be held from time to time at these points, and will be addressed by experts.

Don't Need Accident Insurance

There is no excuse for refusing to take out Accident Insurance as common as the one that the prospect "Don't Need It."

The average man thinks he never exposes himself to hazards that invite accidents.

Here are some of the illuminating facts in regard to the hazards of ordinary lives.

Is he the man who never goes anywhere, always remains at home? Whereabouts at home does he remain to escape danger? Inside the house? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents nearly 14 per cent occur inside the house. Is he safe there? Hardly.

While at home around the house, amid scenes of peace, is he free from danger? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 13 per cent are met with amid these peaceful surroundings.

Is he safe while walking the streets? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 16 per cent are met with by pedestrians. Hardly safe is he while walking!

A fraction of over 13 per cent of every one hundred injurious accidents are attributable to horses and vehicles. Nearly 7 per cent are attributable to Automobiles and Bicycles. Railroad and Steamship travel are not especially to be commended for possessing elements of safety, as these contribute 14 per cent of every one hundred.

Even while engaged in recreation he is not safe, as its quota amounts to nearly 8 per cent of every hundred. There is only one place where a man is not liable to meet with injurious accidents, and that is—the grave. Sleeping there he is in no danger.

The above shows that everyone needs protection against Accident, and this protection can be obtained at a nominal cost by applying to

GOVERNOR WILSON FORMALLY ACCEPTS THE NOMINATION

The Democratic Candidate Declares For Free Trade, Says That Tariff Reductions Should be Gradual.

Seagirt, N.J., Aug. 7—At 3 o'clock a point was reached in the notification ceremonies this afternoon when Gov. Woodrow Wilson, standing among a group of nine Democratic Governors, had to pronounce the fateful sentence which was to make him formally the Democratic Presidential nominee. He had already spoken the first words of his speech of acceptance, and after a slight pause, he launched with exclamatory effect the direct statement— "I accept the nomination."

Gov. John A. Dix, who was standing immediately at Gov. Wilson's left interrupted the speech of acceptance with a cheer.

Mrs O.P. Overfield, a diminutive member of the Notification Committee, added a woman's treble to Governor Dix's bass, and slowly the enthusiasm spread in a ripple out over the heads of the multitude and surged back again to the speaker's stand as a mighty wave of open air approval.

The cheering that accompanied Gov. Wilson's formal assumption of his duties as a candidate, was not of a boisterous kind.

The most vociferous cheer lasted less than forty seconds. Gov. Wilson time and time again departed from the text to set in place some quiet side-thrust in the humorous tone for which he is becoming famous. Once while speaking of the tariff, he which he is becoming famous. Once stage morals object to.

"The tariff," said Gov. Wilson, "is a dam ——, and you can spell the word," he quickly added, "either way you want to."

The crowd indicated in a series of cheerful comments that it preferred the spelling that had a flavor of profanity to it.

Gov. Wilson had been urged by Ollie James not to read his speech, but to memorize it, as he the notifier, had done. But for all the warning the candidate brought his speech in manuscript form and read it from beginning to end.

The Governor, while declaring for free trade, held that the fiscal policy of the country should be changed slowly, so that the established business interests should not be endangered.

He holds that prices climb faster than the earnings increase, and that this is responsible for the present high cost of living.

FORTY SCOTTISH TEACHERS HAVE ARRIVED IN CANADA

Members of the Educational Institute of Scotland to the number of 70 arrived at Montreal by Allan liner "Scandinavian," from Glasgow, and, on landing, proceeded to the Queen's Hotel. They were joined there by three other members of the institute who had preceded them to Canada and who have been touring in the Maritime Provinces before coming to Montreal.

Mr. Alex. Polson, J.P., convenor of the committee of the institute, who has organised the tour, was seen on board the "Scandinavian," before the disembarkation of his party. He said that the following itinerary had been arranged for the tourists. They will remain in Montreal till 9.15 a.m., tomorrow, when they will proceed to Ottawa, and will leave the capital for Algonquin Park on Friday. The following day Muskoka will be visited, and by Sunday night the party will have arrived at Toronto, where they will remain till the night of the 14th inst., when Niagara Falls will be visited. The first stage of the return journey, will be Hamilton, where a number of the visitors will bid their friends farewell, journeying thence to New York and returning to Scotland from that port. The remainder of the party will return to Montreal, sailing for Glasgow by Allan liner "Grampian" on the 17th. inst.

With regard to the object of the tour, Mr. Polson stated that the majority of the visitors were rural teachers, who were anxious to see something of agricultural conditions in Canada, as well as to enjoy a holiday for themselves. They were often consulted by the neighbors in the country districts, who contemplated emigrating and were desirous of information concerning farming conditions and prospects in the land in which they hoped to find new homes and careers. The teachers were anxious to be better able to answer these enquiries in the future than they had been in the past. Another reason for the tour was that many of their former pupils had already settled in Canada and had been writing to those who had been the instructors of their youth urging them the visit should be paid.

The large party of English teachers, numbering 2.0, who belong either to the National Union of Teachers or to the London Teachers' Association and who landed at Quebec on Sunday from Allan liner "Corsican" have split into various smaller parties, which will tour Canada independently.

A section of 30, under the guidance of Mr. F.W. Goldstone, M.P., for Sunderland, who organized the whole tour as far as Quebec, left yesterday for Ste Anne de Bellevue on their way to Ottawa.

THE MONARCH BIG SHOWS

Amidst a blare of trumpets Peterborough's Turf Club and Athletic Association Carnival will open at the Exhibition Grounds on Monday afternoon next, and continue in full swing for one week, with performances every afternoon and evening. The Monarch Greater Shows, which will furnish the amusement and entertainment will arrive early Monday morning on a special train of twenty cars and a large staff of experts. One of the feature attractions in the Monarch wild animal arena is Mlle. DeVaro and her great troupe of lions, tigers, bears and pumas, and many other ferocious beasts from the torrid jungles. She controls the untamable lion Nero and at the close of her act places her head in the animal's mouth.

Oro Cecil, a woman who by herself has been a big attraction at the Dreamland Bostock wild animal show at Coney Island, is also with the Monarch shows. Kit Gordon, of the famous Gordon Bros., whose act has been a sensational vaudeville feature during the past few seasons, will be seen with his boxing kangaroo.

Col. Joseph G. Ferrari's great museum of wonders is considered the greatest novelty of its kind ever exploited with any outdoor amusement aggregation. He also has a dog, pony and monkey circus that will appeal strongly to the little folks and amuse and entertain the adults as well.

One of the biggest novelties with the show is Minnie Ha Ha, an Australian bush-woman, and one of the strangest creatures ever born. Standing but three feet nine inches in height and weighing 39 pounds she has the strength of a couple of men.

Hinda Ben, direct from Egypt with a large group of Egyptian beauties and dainty Princess Mahara, will show the ways of the Orient.

Professor Heckler's German flea circus represents years of hard labors in training the hundreds of fleas used in the act. The strength of these small insects is wonderful. Although scarcely visible to the naked eye they do feats that show the wonderful strength of their legs and still more remarkable what it is possible to attain in the way of training even insects.

Gay Paree, introducing refined vaudeville features, Cicero's famous Italian concert band, the merry-go-round, ocean ferris wheel and many other attractions and amusement devices will make up what should easily prove the most pleasing combination of its kind that has ever visited Peterborough.

THE CHAIRMAN MEETS THE CHIEF

Ald Gillespie visited the Fire Hall last evening and was introduced to Chief Howard as the new chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

Here's to hoping for pleasant relationships between th gtwo department heads.

It does seem rather peculiar that several of the city dads have backed up in their attittude regarding Chief Howard, since the time they were so unanimous in calling for his punishment, while in Committee of the While.

Fire Chief Howard is an excellent fire fighter. Oh, yes, everybody admits that, but—

Adl Johnston is one of those broad-minded, honest men, who, having once been convinced, that a thing is wrong, allows nothing to shake that conviction.

We wonder if that report is correct, that Chief Howard said he would make some of the aldermen show their hands.

NEW HEALTH REGULATIONS ISSUED BY GOVERNMENT

Health Officer Must Report Tuberculosis Cases Within Twelve Hours of Discovery--Can Vaccinate Everybody in District When Smallpox Breaks Out.

Toronto, Aug. 9.—The new health regulations, which are consequent on the act which was passed during the last session of the Provincial Legislature, were approved of and issued by the Ontario Government yesterday.

The quarantine regulations remain practically as they were, with the exception that cases of measles are to be placarded in future, and the period of quarantine for scarlet fever is now extended to six weeks.

Every medical officer of health is required to possess a complete and fully comprehensive map of the municipality under his control on which he must display the exact location of every individual case of communicable disease in existence.

According to the new orders it is imperative that the local M.H.O. shall report a tuberculosis case within twelve hours of its discovery and have the person or persons placed in the nearest hospital or hospitals and should the person infected be destitute the cost of maintenance shall be provided for by the municipality out of funds appropriated for such purposes by the Provincial Legislature. The M.O.H. is required to enforce the immediate cleaning and disinfection of the premises from which the patient has been removed.

Every person suffering from tuberculosis must report his change of residence to the local authorities, and should he or she be removed to another locality, they must immediately notify the local M. H. O. resident in that area.

The smallpox regulations have been considerably altered and made more applicable to the whole of the province.

The boards have power to isolate persons migrating from an infected locality, prevent passengers landing from a boat or disembarking from a train if they have any suspicion as to their health if coming from an infected area.

The provincial board's inspectors and the inspectors attached to all health boards at ports of entry into the province are privileged to board all trains, boats, etc., and make thorough examinations of persons coming from infected areas. They have the power to order the passengers to produce a certificate of vaccination, and should the party or parties not produce sufficient evidence of ever undergoing the innoculation, they may enforce same or order their return to the point of embarkation.

In every municipality where smallpox is said to exist the council shall issue a proclamation and order the vaccination of every unvaccinated person residing within the district. Any official who refuses to or does not carry out these regulations is liable to a fine of $25.

The sanitary regulations affecting lumber camps have been tightened up generally, and the new order is that the individual apportionment of sleeping space per man shall be 600 cubic feet, instead of 500, which was in accordance with the old order of things.

HON. ROBT. ROGERS BUSY IN THE WEST

Minister of Interior in Touch With Labor Situation.

Winnipeg, Aug. 9.—In the course of an interview yesterday, Hon. Robert Rogers, Minister of the Interior, said: "I am keeping in pretty close touch with the labor situation in the west so far as it relates to the need of harvest help and the heartiest co-operation of the Interior Department and its staff in meeting the demand may be relied upon. I have remained over in Winnipeg for a few days to attend to this matter particularly, and I am giving it my personal attention. In former years the Interior Department took little more than a passive interest in the question of the supply of harvesters. This year, and in the future, every effort will be put forth by our Department to help in providing for the constantly increasing demand for farm help coming from all over the west during harvest time.

"At least 50,000 men will be required to harvest this year's crop in the three prairie provinces. The city of Winnipeg will probably provide about 6,000 of these. The one-cent a mile rate from Winnipeg to all parts of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta is already having a good effect, and I anticipate that this number of harvesters will be sent from the city. The great bulk, however, must come from eastern Canada and the border states on the other side of the line. Special effort will be made to attract an unusually large number of farm workers from the eastern provinces, including of course, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. I am inclined to consider favorably advertising in the United States for harvest help. Possibly from 8,000 to 10,000 good men might be secured from Kansas, Iowa, Indiana and Illinois, where the harvest is rather earlier than ours.

"In any case special efforts will be made by the Interior Department to deal with the harvest situation and I am confident that in the next few weeks, the railway companies with whom we are co-operating in this matter and ourselves will be able to pretty fully meet the anticipated demand."

O. & W. President to Retire.

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 9.—President Charles S. Mellen of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad yesterday made the following statement in relation to a report that he was to succeed Mr. Fowler of the New York, Ontario & Western Railroad, which is controlled by the New Haven:

"Mr. Fowler has given notice he will not accept re-election as a director at the annual meeting next month. This will necessitate the election of a new president from the board of directors next month. It is premature to discuss who will be Mr. Fowler's successor until after the annual meeting."

OVER ONE HUNDRED MINERS ARE LOST

The German Village of Bochum is Plunged in Gloom

Bochum, Germany, Aug. 9—An explosion of black damp and coal dust yesterday morning in the Lorraine shaft of the coal field in the Village of Gerthe, four miles from Bocum, cost the lives of 103 miners, according to the official report. Two others were severely and 23 slightly injured. Death was practically instantaneous in all cases. The cause of the explosion has not yet been definitely ascertained, but it is thought that a blast reached a big pocket of gas.

The emperor has donated 15,000 marks to aid the families of the victims.

The day shift of 650 men had just descended into the workings and were distributing themselves along the various levels when a serious fire damp explosion occurred.

The detonation was heard at the surface, and the officials on duty immediately formed rescue parties of the men belonging to the night shift, who rushed back to the pitmouth together with the villagers.

The rescue crews, which did such good work at the time of the French mine disaster at Courrieres, near Lens, on March 10, 1906, when 1,230 miners were killed, arrived here early yesterday afternoon, but were unable to penetrate the galleries, owing to the flames and the poisonous gases.

The wives and families of the doomed miners were gathered around the pit head all day, but were unable to learn any details, as the officials of the mine refused information.

New Zealand Reform.

London, Aug. 9.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The high commissioner of New Zealand states that a New Zealand states bill has been introduced this session providing for the acquisition of land for settlement purposes by settling such land on a deferred payment system. The ballot system will amend the order to check speculation. It also provides for the compulsory purchase of land when it is necessary to build railways.

The second ballot is to be repealed and another method substituted whereby small bodies of men will be enabled to receive loans at a low rate of interest for bridge work and road construction. Among other proposals is one which provides for an elective or second chamber.

Unionist Elected.

London, Aug. 9.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The Northwest Manchester bye-election caused by the retirement of Sir George Kemp, resulted as follows: Sir John Randles (Unionist) 5,573, Gordon Hewart (Liberal) 4,371.

The Liberal majorities in December, 1910, and January, 1910, were respectively 445 and 783. Joynson Hicks in 1908, running as a Conservative candidate, defeated Winston Churchill by 429. Churchill's majority in 1906 was 1,241.

Yesterday's election caused great excitement, a boat load of voters return-

TWO WERE KILLED IN WRECK; ONE MAN DEAD FROM SHOCK

Train Jumped Track Near Boston—Three Met Death and Over Forty Were Seriously Injured at Noon Yesterday.

Boston, Aug. 9.—Two enginemen and a passenger were killed, a spectator dropped dead and forty or more passengers were injured shortly before noon yesterday by the derailing of an inbound train on the Plymouth division of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, in Dorchester.

The dead are: William J. Tirrell, jr., engineer, South Braintree; Frank Campbell, fireman, Cohasset; Mrs. Frank Jenkins, passenger, Atlantic; Michael Daley, spectator, Dorchester.

The train, made up of a locomotive, three passenger coaches and a luggage car, was rushing along at 35 miles an hour through Dorchester, and had reached a sharp curve opposite the Crescent avenue station, when the locomotive jumped the rails.

Two of the passenger cars followed the engine off the rails and bumped over the sleepers for 100 feet or more.

The locomotive then plunged off into the marsh land and half buried itself. The momentum of the train carried two of the passenger cars over the engine, the projections of which ripped open the sides of the cars and tore out the seats along one side. The third passenger car and baggage car remained on the rails.

The bodies of the engineer and firemen were found buried deep in the debris about the engine and badly mangled.

One woman, Mrs. Jenkins, was scalded by steam so severely that she died after her removal to Grace Hospital.

Railroad officials declined to express any opinion as to the cause of the accident, saying only that an investigation was being made.

Cobalt Special Wrecked.

Cobalt, Ont., Aug. 9.—The Cobalt Special, which left Toronto at 8.30 Wednesday night, crashed head-on into a freight train 33 miles north of North Bay at 7.30 yesterday morning, killing Fireman Carmichael of the special, who jumped, and injuring several others.

Engineer Smith of the passenger train was injured, while Express Messenger James Casey had his leg broken. No passengers were injured.

This is the first fatal train wreck that has ever occurred on the T. & N. O. Railway since it commenced operations nine years ago.

RAILWAY PASSES BOUGHT AND SOLD

Probe in Affairs of I.C.R. Show Big Illegal Traffic.

Montreal, N.B., Aug. 9—The enquiry into the alleged illegal issue and distribution of Intercolonial Railway passes, which has been going on at intervals for some time, was resumed yesterday morning before Commissioner G. Hazen Adair of Sussex.

Elmer W. Ferguson, formerly a member of The Transcript office, received passes. In June or July of 1909 he received two passes from Dr. C. A. Murray. One of these he sold and one he gave away. He received a second pass later from Dr. Murray He sold passes to Tilman Legree, J. A. Lea and a Mr. Messervey, who have previously testified to getting passes from Ferguson. Witness said he did not pay Murray for passes, nor did he remember telling anybody that he was to "divide" the money from the sale of passes with Murray.

At this stage Frank A. McCully asked the privilege of appearing for Dr. Murray.

The commissioner said he could not allow everybody mentioned in evidence to have counsel present, but Dr. Murray would later have the privilege of testifying and then could have counsel.

Witness said he accompanied Ray Vye to Dr. Murray's office, and the latter paid Vye about $270. This money it was understood was for Vye, who was leaving town. Witness declared Murray had said that Vye could stay away till matters were smoothed over; that he would go to Ottawa and see about calling off the investigation. Murray remarked to him that it was right that Vye should go away, as he was the guilty party, and that he in leaving town assumed the responsibility.

Continuing, witness said Vye had admitted to him that he had taken passes from The Transcript office. Witness was not present at the time.

Ferguson told of an enquiry begun at the time by the Intercolonial Railway authorities and said that statements made by J. T. Hawke in The Transcript were substantially correct, except that he (Ferguson) did not participate in any theft. Ferguson denied ever admitting that he sat in his office and allowed Vye to steal property from his employer. Vye at the time was employed in the Intercolonial Railway office.

ULSTER MAY REVOLT.

It is Said Orangemen May Organize Provisional Government.

Manchester, Eng., Aug. 9.—The Guardian (Liberal) says there is reason to believe that a series of Orange meetings scheduled for Ulster in September are to be used to organize a provisional government, and for an attempt to seize the Belfast postoffice as a symbol of Ulster's determination not to submit to the Home Rule Unionists.

The newspaper also predicts that an attempt will be made to create an uproar in Parliament when the closure of the Home Rule bill is moved.

There seems to be no doubt, adds The Guardian, that the opposition intends to defy the chair and create such disorder as to prevent the session proceeding.

Military Airman Exhibits.

London, Aug. 9.—Sixty members of the House of Commons, a score of peers and a large number of foreign naval and military attaches, on invitation of the army council, went to Salisbury Plains yesterday to witness the military aeroplane competition flights. Stormy weather, which for several days has retarded the tests, prevented flying until evening, when the wind dropped to about 27 miles an hour. Several aviators then ascended, the visitors loudly applauding their skill and daring. Only British and French machines are competing.

To Patrol Steamship Lanes.

Washington, Aug. 9—Representative Levy of New York presented a resolution to the House yesterday, providing for an international maritime conference in Washington on April 13, 1913. This will be almost one year after the sinking of the Titanic, which occurred on April 15, 1912.

The conference is to consider an international patrol of North American steamship lanes, an international wireless system and an agreement on life-saving appliances of ships in deep sea travel

French Aviator's Long Flight.

The aviator was not hurt. He experienced no difficulties in crossing the frontier.

UNITED STATES FEAR THAT C.P.R. MAY CONTROL CANAL

The Senate Seems Determined to Discriminate Against That Company's Ships—In Case That is Done England May Retaliate.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The extent to which the Canadian Pacific Railway might control traffic through the Panama Canal gave the Senate occasion for much debate when the anti-railroad section of the canal bill was reached late last night.

Little objection developed to the proposed plan to prohibit any railroad owned ship from engaging in American coastwise trade through the canal. The plan adopted by the Senate committee, however, to attempt to restrict the operation of foreign-owned railroad ships, proved the subject of wide difference of opinion.

Senator Simmons proposed to strike out all reference to the foreign railroad ships. Senator Bristow urged adequate control of American coastwise traffic, so that the transcontinental roads could not control rates in the canal, but he did not believe the Canadian Pacific's ships would prove a menace. If they were permitted to engage in American coastwise trade, he said, they would immediately be subject to American laws.

The Senate finished practically all the canal bill except the railroad ship section before the recess at the end of the afternoon session. With the evening session last night, it was believed a final vote would be had on the bill to-day.

It will not be necessary for Secretary Knox to advise the British Government of the action taken by Congress in exempting American vessels from paying tolls on the Panama Canal unless Great Britain chooses to make specific enquiry on that point. It is scarcely expected that it will do so, satisfying itself by taking notice of the proceedings in Congress, as was done at an earlier stage of the legislation.

Although there has been no formal statement of the views of the administration in regard to the matter of tolls for American shipping, since the pending canal bill was reported from the House committee on inter-oceanic canals, it may safely be inferred that there has been no change in their position since, in public speeches, President Taft and Secretary Stimson both asserted the right of the United States to remit the tolls or grant rebates to American ships.

Students of the situation point out that Great Britain could reduce the tolls of the Suez Canal to a point that would divert to the Suez a great share of the prospective business of the Panama Canal, and cause considerable financial loss to the Panama Canal.

WOMEN ESCAPE FROM THE MERCER

It is Thought That They Were Helped Away by Visitors.

Toronto, Aug. 9.—Allowing visitors to visit the inmates of the Mercer Reformatory is believed to have been responsible for the escape of three women from there, two of whom are still at large. Shortly after the escape of the women a telephone message was received telling of a woman whose peculiar actions had attracted attention. This proved to be one of those who had escaped and on her were found two files, a screwdriver and a strap. The woman recaptured is somewhat weak-minded and she is believed to have been the tool of the other two, both of whom have previous records. It is thought the women secured the files from visitors who secretly passed tools to them. As a result the institution will now be closed to all visitors.

JUNIOR OIL KING TRAPS THE POLICE

Young Rockefeller Ran a Decoy Dive in New York.

New York, Aug. 9—The Tenderloin got a real shock when it became known that one of the chief aids to District Attorney Whitman in his campaign to obtain evidence of police graft and the existence of the "system" is John D. Rockfeller, jr., social settlement worker and Sunday School teacher, who, backed by his father, the Standard Oil King, operated a pretended disorderly house in the heart of the white light district to get evidence against the police department and the white slave traffic Whitman admitted that Rockfeller's experiment was wholly detached from the murder of Rosenthal, whose assassination precipitated the present upheaval, having been begun a year ago.

But the evidence produced by the Standard Oil decoy resort in Forty-Fifth street, so coincides with the police graft evidence which resulted from the investigation of the Rosenthal killing, that it may be used in the prosecution of Charles Becker, now facing an indictment for first degree murder.

HAVE A SLIDING SCALE

The Rockfeller experiment was begun in the interests of social reform and its evidence was not submitted to the district attorney until the trail of the Rosenthal murder pointed to the police department.

It is asserted that the Rockfeller detectives obtained evidence that ordinary disorderly houses pay $600 a month to the "system" more pretensious houses pay more, and there is a sliding scale for houses of lesser prosperity.

BROCKVILLE MAN BREAKS FROM JAIL

Frank Grey Under Sentence to Central, Escapes.

Brockville, Aug. 9.—Frank Grey, under sentence to the central prison for the theft of several bicycles in Brockville and vicinity, made his escape from the jail yard yesterday afternoon and all efforts to find trace of the prisoner have failed. Gray and another prisoner named Summerby, also awaiting removal to the Central, were allowed the freedom of the jail yard about four o'clock for exercise. During a heavy rainfall, the men stepped into a small enclosure before which Turnkey Hayes paced. Summerby says Gray went back into the yard, and ten minutes later he was nowhere to be seen. A rope made of sheeting dangled from the bars of an upper window told the story. By means of it Grey hauled himself hand over hand to within reach of the jail wall, which he successfully scaled. The turnkey states that when the men entered the yard there was no sign of the rope. Summerby, the other prisoner, gave the first alarm of the escape.

Gray was sentenced to one year and 260 days, and was afterwards given an additional three months for a previous attempt to escape.

RAFFLES GOT $350,000

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Jacob F. Guthrie, confessed "gentleman burglar" and forger, last night was book at the Central Police Station on nine charges of burglary and two of forgery. He was arrested last Saturday night and since then $350,000 worth of art goods, valuable curios, etc., stolen by him have been recovered and much of it has been identified.

When Guthrie is arraigned before Judge Sabath to-day a dozen or more of his victims, leaders in Chicago social circles, will be called as witnesses. It is said that his relatives have retained counsel for him. The police believe he will plead insanity.

Two Severely Scalded.

Quebec, Aug. 9.—A serious accident occurred last evening whereby two men were severely, if not fatally, scalded on board the steam yacht Semiramis, lying at the Cornwall Louise dock.

The Semiramis, which is owned by Mr. C. B. Gordon of Montreal, president of the Dominion Textile Co., was to leave with some members of Mr. Gordon's family on a cruise. Just after steam had been raised one of the steam pipes blew out, the escaping steam badly scalding Mr. Belanger, chief engineer, and Albert Marcoux, fireman.

MR. WILSON HEDGES

The American politician once he is nominated for high office, finds himself confronted by a condition rather than a theory and developing remarkable circumspection, proceeds to handle the tariff question with the caution of an individual who holds a live coal in his palm. Professor Wilson formulating new economic ideas for his college class is not the same Governor Wilson, who, as candidate of the Democratic party, would reach the presidential chair with the trade question as the main issue. He is now less the radical and more the politician inspired with a natural ambition to win the race in which he is entered.

In his speech of acceptance Candidate Wilson makes it clear, even by the aid of quasi profanity, that he regards the tariff as the chief of all economic evils as the progenitor of all natural ills, the father of trusts, the cause of high cost of living, the friend of the rich and the thinly disguised enemy of the poor.

So much he has always believed and preached. But his proposed remedy for the alleged rampant evil has been modified the better to fit in with the platform that his party constructed at the Baltimore convention. He would go slowly, feeling his way like a man groping in the dark. From his own lips we have the following:

"We do not ignore the fact that the business of a country like ours is exceedingly sensitive to changes in legislation of this kind. It has been built up, however ill-advisedly, upon tariff schedules written in the way I have indicated, and its foundation must not be too radically or too suddenly disturbed.

"When we act we should act with caution and prudence, like men who know what they are about, and not like those in love with a theory. It is obvious that the changes we make should be made only at such a rate and in such a way as will least interfere with the normal and healthful course of commerce and manufacture."

Twice the party which Candidate Wilson leads has been in power since the days of Lincoln. Twice that party tinkered with the tariff and on each occasion business was stagnated and the country plunged into the worst panic that ever convulsed a nation. The cost of living was not high in those dark days, but the means to live were barely visible. With the purchasing power of the people removed the price of commodities tumbled, seeing that there were few purchasers.

Neither in Canada nor the American Republic can any party be found with courage enough to face an election with free trade as their creed unless the question is so hedged about with qualifications and conditions as to practically nullify the issue. Governor Wilson is shoaling himself in political guile. He has learned from his elders that to hedge is often the safest policy.

A VISING THE FARMERS

When the farmer of Ontario is not made the unwilling object of sympathy from some designing politician who has no higher motive than a desire to annex the agricultural vote, he is pestered with advice from the same quarter as to the best methods of conducting his business. In nine cases out of ten this originates in the sanctum of some newspaper, the editor of which probably knows as little about farming as Nicodemus did of a subject upon which he sought enlightenment. Only a few days ago that horny-handed son of the soil, W. F. Maclean, M.P., of the Toronto World, while attending a picnic at Port Credit, set out to capture any rural approbation or suffrage that might be lying around loose by advising the assembled farmers as to the best means for the working out of their temporal salvation. The farmers, who as a class neither look for sympathy nor seek advice, simply suffer and endure.

The Ontario agriculturist is all right. He has the telephone, free mail delivery in a great many places, or what is equally as good, a post office near his home, and if he desires to invest in the luxury of an automobile, he can do so, and pay for it on the spot with a check on the local bank. If he is anxious to acquire knowledge of the most modern methods of working his land, the services of Government experts are at his disposal, and he may be forgiven if he is inclined to listen to these rather than to the airy nothings, which ever and anon gush from the swelling bosom of the scheming politician, or that appear from day to day in the columns of an over-solicituous press.

One day the professional orator tells the farmer that he is the victim of the Beef Trust, and that if that octopus could be destroyed the price paid for farmers cattle would be higher. Next day the object of all this solicitude is advised to go more extensively into the raising of stock, so that he may reap the rich harvest that is here for the trying.

The Globe suggests that the raising of cattle be carried on to a greater extent, as it is a line of rural industry which is less likely to be affected by the scarcity of labor, probably having an idea in the innocence of its ignorance that a cow or a steer does not require the most careful and intelligent attention throughout the entire year, but that the animal roams wild in the summer and hibernates during the winter months after the fashion of the bear. Another Toronto paper will not rest content until a law is passed making it illegal to slaughter a calf, whether the object of such slaughter is to increase the visible supply of milk by the removal of a consumer, or to cater to the public's predilection for veal as a comestible.

In the face of all this confusion of thought and conglomeration of unsolicited advice, what is the farmer to do? What he really does is to pay no heed, but to continue along his own chosen pathway. The truth of the matter is that the raising of stock in Ontario, which follows as an adjunct to the dairy business, has of late years fallen off to an alarming extent, in spite of the inducement offered by unparalleled prices, and this falling off is entirely due to the lack of labor throughout the country. With reference to the implied threat that he is to be compelled to follow a certain line of industry, and to withhold his hand from the blood of the firstlings of his flock, the farmer entertains no anxiety. He may not be a skilled legal luminary, but he generally has sufficient hard sense under his headgear to know that such a proposition is preposterous.

NOTE AND COMMENT

In Toronto to say of good lawyers that it is actually necessary to go to London for a corporation counsel.

The Progressives adjourned their convention with the singing of the Doxology. When the votes are counted next November the "Dead March in Saul" will be a most appropriate selection.

"I am doing the Lord's work," says Roosevelt. The colonel is getting modest. A few weeks ago he seemed to think that the affairs of the universe were run for his own special benefit.

The article in Roosevelt's new organ favoring a reform of the currency in order to give greater elasticity is a sop thrown to the remnant who still pin their faith to the old free silver fallacy.

Balances unclaimed for a certain length of time have hitherto become the property of the banks, but it is now proposed to introduce legislation by which all such sums shall in future revert to the people through the Government.

THE MARKET

possible surprise in the government crop report had considerable to do with making the wheat market advance today. Closing prices were unsettled ⅛c to 1c above last night. Latest trading left corn with a net gain of ¼c to 2c; oats up ⅛c to 1⅛c, and provisions irregular, strung out from 12½c decline to a rise of 2½c.

The Liverpool market closed to-day ⅛d higher than yesterday on wheat, and ⅛d to ¼d higher on corn.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, Aug. 8.—There was another active inquiry for Manitoba spring wheat over the cable to-day, but the adjustment of prices with the stronger feeling in the Winnipeg market left buyers and sellers much as they were the previous day. Bids continue at just about the market and buyers showed no disposition to advance their offers. As a result little or no business was done from Montreal. Oats were also in good demand and with bids more in accord with local sellers' views a fair amount of business was transacted. Butter continues easy with receipts fairly large and the western trade slow. Cheese is firm and a good business in moderate sized lots is being done with foreign centres. Buyers, apparently in the hope that a lower level of prices will be reached are not taking more than necessary for immediate requirements, but locally the situation is considered firm, both on account of the shortage in exports for the year to date and the fact that stocks in store are only about half of what they usually are at this time of year.

SEYMOUR POWER COMPANY WILL BUILD TO PETERBORO

The Corporation That Figures so Prominently in the Liberal Press Had a Contract With the Laurier Government Which is to Continue in Force.

At the last regular meeting of the Havelock Town Council a communication from the Seymour Power Co., was read to the effect that they could not run a line into Havelock at present under a cost of $12,000, and would prefer to wait next year when their line would be constructed to Peterborough, and when they could build a far shorter line than at present. They also offered to supply the town with a steam plant at a rental of $25.00 per month. They also intimated that if the town wished to pass a by-law granting them a franchise, that the best time to do it would be at the next municipal elections. The letter was received and fyled.

The line to Peterborough referred to is one which is contemplated by the Seymour Power Company to be built on the east side of the river up from Campbellford. The company for efficiency and emergency reasons intend to have a regular power loop, so that in the event of a break-down at any particular point on one side of the river, they can transmit power on the other line. It is definitely known that the line will be constructed, although operations have not yet been commenced.

This is the company which is at present receiving so much free advertising from the Liberal press and which has unduly excited a local contemporary by reason of an agreement recently made between the Minister of Railways and Canals and the power people. The point which the party press seeks to establish is that the power company was unduly favored by the minister and that in the deal the public-owned power plant of Campbellford got the worst of it. Throughout the entire country the discussion has been carried on.

An agreement was made between the Seymour Power Company and the Department of Railways and Canals of the late Government whereby the power privileges on the Trent river were leased to the company. Under this agreement in case any of the manufacturing concerns now getting hydraulic power from the dam at Campbellford and having a valid claim against the Government for the withdrawal of such power, the Seymour Power Company bound itself to supply at cost electric power to reimburse the industries concerned for the loss of their water power.

The dam at Campbellford was removed and the present Government has announced its intention of abiding by the agreement made between its predecessors and the Seymour Co. Campbellford feels agrieved that the municipal plant was not given the contract to supply the power taken away by the removal of the dam, but the Department having the matter in hand feels itself bound to abide by the contract entered into by the Laurier Government.

Campbellford can thank the former and not the present Minister of Railways and Canals for its alleged grievance.

THE SWISS PRESIDENT.

His Powers Are Quite Limited, and So is His Salary.

The president of Switzerland is so hedged about by the constitution that, except for official purposes and to facilitate the exchange of courtesies and of amicable understandings with foreign nations, he has no more standing than the other six members of the council of which he forms a part. He is elected for one year, has no official residence, and his chief business is to sign the documents of the bundesrat or council of seven. His salary is in our money equal to about $3,000 per annum, and there is no provision for private expenses, such as traveling or entertaining. He is expected to live in the capital of the country during the year he holds office. His associate members in the bundesrat get $2,000 a year, and they are elected for three years, their votes having the same force as that of the president.

As a rule, the president of Switzerland is before election a member of this council and is elected to the highest office without opposition, but in 1889 he had a rival, and, though he won in the election, he was unable to support what in his country is looked upon as an affront and committed suicide before his inauguration.

In this connection it might be well to note, too, that Switzerland is the one country on the globe where it costs nothing to die, as in certain cantons rich and poor are buried at the expense of the state.—Harper's Weekly.

A Chance of a Lifetime.

"Have you any cheering news?" asked the boarding house landlady when her husband got home.

"Dearie," he cried, "I have more than that. I have a happy surprise."

"Huh! Are you sober?"

"Better than that, dear heart."

"Well, tell it to me. Did you earn two bits spading up somebody's peony bed?"

"Aw, say! This is the real thing."

"Tell me the worst."

"You know that milliner you got a $00 hat from?"

"I do. Don't tell me she's dead."

"Better than that. She's coming here for two weeks' board."

"Henry, you can have that trip to Monte Carlo you've been wanting."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A PECULIAR WOMAN.

The Born Parisienne, Her Moods, Her Smile and Her Charm.

The Parisienne is not and never has been representative of the Frenchwoman, although she might be described as the distilled essence of all that is French.

She is too volatile to be typical of the women of France. She is also bizarre, and the Frenchwoman, broadly speaking, never is. She is gay and morbid at one and the same moment. She is eternally young, yet born with the cynical wisdom of ages. She is brave to the point of folly. She is free from any taint of provincialism and in a way stands on a small pinnacle apart from the rest of womankind with a smile that has some fellowship with that of the sphinx. Her charm is world renowned and indisputable and of a peculiar kind.

She is not beautiful, and she is never merely pretty, but charm runs in her blood, and it is as natural for her to use it as it is for the sun to shine. Everything about her is witness to this attribute, and she herself accepts it as a law written by unseen hands, unchangeable as that which rules the "orderly procession of the stars" and powerful as that which brought her into the world and will one day send her out of it.—Pall Mall Gazette.

JAPANESE TEAPOTS.

All Sorts of Shapes and Sizes In All Manner of Materials.

In Japan teapots may be had in any shape, in any design, at any price. One model is a huge caldron-like affair that will hold three gallons, while others are so small that a thimbleful may be said almost to make them overflow.

The Japanese have teapots in the shape of birds, beasts and fowls. Fishes and frogs have lent their forms to others. A beetle design is very popular, as is one depicting a fat, squirming eel. Buddha himself has been pressed into service as a model. Swans, correct to the last curl of neck and feathers, form teapots so small that they can be hidden in the palm of the hand. There are lotus bud pots and pots in the shape of teahouses.

All manner of materials are included in the composition. Inlaid silver, hammered copper, iron exquisitely wrought and all the different kinds of Japanese pottery have been used in the manufacture of teapots. Several favorite designs bring $100 apiece, but so cheap is artistic handiwork in the far east that many others may be bought for a few cents.—New York Press.

A Blow From a Lion's Paw.

A man entered a London theater in the early morning and found to his horror that four lions, which were housed there, had broken from their cage. One gave him a blow with its paw, then took him in its mouth. The blow from a lion's paw is said to be, after the stroke of a whale's tail and the kick of a giraffe, the strongest thing in nature, so that the victim was dead when the keeper went to the rescue. Only one lion had concerned itself with the man and was now sitting over him as a dog sits over a bone. Two of the lions were playing on the stage with a "property" garland, and the fourth was seated in the royal box, placidly surveying the gambols on the stage and the terrible banquet in the auditorium. The murderer relinquished its prey immediately its master appeared, and all four bolted for their den like children detected in some misconduct.—St. James' Gazette.

What's in a Man.

A man has 500 muscles, 1,000,000,000 cells, 200 different bones, four gallons of blood, several hundred feet of arteries and veins, over twenty-five feet of intestines and millions of pores. His heart weighs from eight to twelve ounces, its capacity is from four to six ounces in each ventricle, and its size is 5 by 3½ by 2½ inches. It is a hollow muscular organ and pumps twenty-two and a half pounds of blood every minute. In twenty-four hours it pumps sixteen tons. It beats about seventy-two times a minute. In one year an average man's heart pumps 11,680,000 pounds of blood.

Forced to It.

"May I ask," inquired the interviewer, "why you paint none but nudes?"

"Certainly," replied the painter. "The styles change so rapidly in clothing that a picture would be out of date almost before the paint is dry."—Chicago Post.

"How long did your honeymoon last?"

REUNION ASSOCIATION IS PERFORMING GOOD WORK

Guarantors Are Needed, But Some Deserving People Have Already Been Assisted.

Although not much has been heard of late, regarding the Imperial Reunion Association, nevertheless the organization is working quietly, but effectively, and consummating the purposes for which it was formed.

While a sufficient number of guarantors have not yet come forward, there are enough already to enable any immediate demands being fulfilled.

A man at the present time has received word that his wife is coming to join him in this country, through the instrumentality of the Association. LONDON'S LIGHT AND POWER RATES WILL BE REDUCED

Increased Patronage by Private Consumers Amounts to $20,000 for the First Seven Months of This Year.

London, Ont., Aug. 8—Hydro-electric power, as managed by London's Commission, is proving such a financial success that a reduction in rates will be possible next year. As an evidence of the growth of the city's business the first seven months of 1912 show about $20,000 greater revenue from private consumers than for the twelve months of last year.

London's Hydro-electric system waterworks and parks are all under one Commission, of which Mr. Phillip Pocock is Chairman, and the results of a business administration are shown by the revenue statement issued by the Chairman to-night. In the year ending December 1, 1911, the total receipts were $78,892.18, while from December 1, 1911 to July 1, 1912, the Commission has had a revenue of $85,694.50. The latter includes $17,500 collected from the city for street lighting and $9,525.10 for pumping. In regard to the latter item, Chairman Pocock says the Commission will save the city $500 by the use of electric power.

The most encouraging part of the statement is that the consumption by private customers has increased at a rapid rate as shown by the following table of comparisons—

Revenue collected from private consumers in first six months of 1911 and 1912.

Month	1911	1912
Jan.	$427.70	$9,153.55
Feb.	537.84	8,561.31
March	1,186.12	7,181.46
April	3,145.25	7,526.35
May	3,067.60	7,682.62
June	3,392.60	7,739.65
Totals	$11,457.12	$47,8[illegible]

The total collected from private consumers in 1911 was $36,933.22. The Chairman is confident that the total receipts for the present year will aggregate $135,000. On the revenue of last year, a surplus of six thousand dollars was declared, so that there is no doubt but this year will see a big gain.

ARGUMENT FOR MUNICIPALIZATION

The success of the Utilities Commission in making the Hydro-electric Department as well as the waterworks pay so well, is conforming the belief among the citizens that the municipal ownership of the street railway would meet with general favor, as would also the electrification of the London and Port Stanley Railway, either or both of which questions will be submitted to the ratepayers at possibly the next municipal election.

A WAIL FROM ANTRIM STREET

Citizen Complains That Garbage Pail Was Confiscated.

A resident on Antrim street complained that when the garbage collector called at his place the other day, he took the garbage receptacle a wooden pail tightly covered, away with him in his waggon, and refused to leave it when requested to do so.

Sanitary Inspector Spence, said, this morning, that on investigating the complaint, he was told by the collector that the pail in question was in the last stages of dilapidation that it permitted the unsavory contents to leak all over him, when he picked it up and for that reason he confiscated it. Inspector Spence holds that the aggrieved householder has no option in the matter and must insist upon a compliance with the Provincial Act. He is inclined to the opinion that citizens have no cause to complain, if all receptacles not coming up to the required specifications are carried away by the collector.

TWO YOUNG MEN FINED $5.75 EACH

They Raised a Disturbance While Under the Influence of Liquor

Two young fellows created a disturbance at the corner of Hunter and George last night, while under the influence of liquor. Their disorderly conduct was cut short when P. C. Sills hove in view, and although one of the noisy ones put up a stiff fight, it was no use. The officer took the two men to the station, where they spent the night.

This morning, Acting Magistrate Adams, dispensed punishment in the shape of fines of $5.75 for each.

One of the lads was Harry Peters, who is employed at garbage collecting. He was married and it was not his first appearance before the Magistrate.

The other lad was Brock Wright also acquainted with police court proceedings.

Their actions last night attracted a crowd of two or three hundred, and the police officers state their language was disgraceful.

REGINA CLAIMS THAT A LOCAL MAN CAN BEAT OLDFIELD

President of the Fair Offers to Bet $1,000 With Barney's Manager But the Wager is Not Taken—Half Mile Record Disputed.

Barney Oldfield, the fastest boy on the American continent when it comes to benzine buggies was in the city yesterday on his way to Regina from Calgary, where he gave some speed trials last week. At Regina he intends to give some speed exhibitions to-day, and but for the fact that he would have broken up his itinerary he would have stayed over in Saskatoon for the big fair. As it was he evinced a desire to make some exhibitions at the exhibition track this week, but the fair board did not think it advisable being so close to the fair and the track in such a delicate condition at the present moment.

He has just signed contracts for a number of state fairs in the United States, where he states he is going to go after the records of the fellows who have been burning up the gasoline since he was in the game. "I'm going after a lot of those fellows who get their reputations by 'breaking Oldfield's records' he said to a friend.

"I have always believed that I held the Canadian record for a half-mile track but the American Automobile association keeps no records of half-mile tracks and now I see (and Barney picked up a Toronto paper) that Disbrow claims to hold the Canadian record at 1.09, which he made at Toronto last Saturday.

"I've got the heaviest-engined car in the world, with one exception. Christie has never yet been driven to its top speed. Just what it can really do is a problem, but I know it to be the fastest car in the world. The only car that is heavier engined is an Italian Fiat which is now owned by a Russian Prince.

"Christie was never able to let the car out when he owned it and I have not yet fully tested its capabilities. It is only four cylinders but it has the largest auto engine in America.

Barney closed yesterday for the Minnesota State fair at Hamline, Minn., near Minneapolis, and at that fair he will meet Disbrow, the driver who has been touring Eastern Canada. Barney is guaranteed several thousand dollars on one express condition—he must set a lower mark for an exhibition mile than any other driver the fair can secure. If he fails he does not get a cent.

That is a pretty stiff contract, yet it is the same terms which Barney offers the Michigan State fair, another of the famous trio of big fairs the third being Illinois. At the Michigan fair, Barney would have to go up against the best drivers in the world, for Michigan is an automobile state. Disbrow was offered a [illegible] contract for this fair but one condition was that he would have to [illegible] a faster mark for a mile than any other driver who might compete.

[illegible] Burman went to the Michigan [illegible] fair last year and was anything [illegible] pleased to have Kullick in his [illegible] Ford to out and make a faster [illegible] than Burman did in his big [illegible] horse-power Benz. Oldfield says [illegible] he is quite ready to meet the [illegible] driver or any other man in [illegible] world.

[illegible] the majority of those in the [illegible] stand at the Regina Fair, Saturday night, the widely advertised automobile races, were disappointing. In the first place they followed too closely an interesting series of horse races, and could not stand the comparison, and with the noise and dust eliminated, the spectacle was decidedly dull.

Again, a half mile horse track is no place for a speeding car, and that fact was proven beyond doubt, as what ever speed the cars are capable of they are unable to show it, on account of the sharp unbanked turns. The finishing touch however, was the disputing of Barney Oldfield's record breaking time for a mile by those in the grand stand, many watches catching the miles in 1.18, and 1.16 which the judges announced as 1.11 and 1.08. The discrepancy was too great to allow for the possibility of a mistake being made, and Mr. Bole, the president of the exhibition association went so far as to state that the announced time was a deliberate attempt to hoax the public. When Mr. Oldfield's manager, who acted as starter, and announcer came into the stand to explain to Mr. Bole that he was not responsible for the time, Mr. Bole replied: "We do not propose to have this fair wind up in a fake, and that is what is being done.

"I am prepared to bet one thousand dollars, that we have a local man, who can beat Oldfield's time and he comes here with the reputation of being a world beater."

The manager beat a hasty retreat, nor did he reappear to accept the proffered wager.

LOOK OUT FOR BOGUS MONEY

Toronto Detective Department Issues a Warning.

The Toronto Detective Department issued a statement last night warning the public of Toronto of the circulation of a large number of one and two dollar Dominion bills. The citizens of Hamilton are also being warned. The discovery has been made that during the past few days someone has been distributing the bogus bill wholesale in the two cities.

While easily passed if the receiver is not suspecting anything of the kind, the bills can be detected by anyone who looks out for them. They have been made on the photographic plan, but can be detected by coloring. In the making the bills have turned out a very light and and faded-looking green, and the printing has come out very light. The paper is also of thinner and poorer quality than the genuine bills.

The German turbine cruiser Goeben yesterday developed a speed of 32 knots.

BID FAREWELL TO EARTH'S VANITIES

Seventeen to Take Final Vows, Eleven to Take the Veil at Mount St. Joseph.

The second retreat of the Sisters of the St. Joseph Community commenced last night at the Mount St. Joseph. Forty-seven Sisters, seventeen Novices, who have made their required Novitiate, and eleven Novices are making the retreat, which is being preached by Rev. Father O'Gorman, of the Jesuit Order in Montreal. It will close on August 17th, on which date all the Novices will make their final vows and the Postulants will receive the Holy Veil.

The profession is a very impressive ceremony, as, by it, the young ladies signify that they wish to withdraw entirely from the world, and give up all that women, in a sense, hold dear, and dedicate themselves entirely to the cause of their religion.

Many visiting priests, as well as the relatives and friends of the young ladies will be present at the ceremony.

THE DUTCH FARMHOUSE.

Family and Cattle Find Quarters Under the Same Roof.

The typical Dutch farmhouse is square, one storied, with a pyramid shaped roof. The space between the apex of the roof and the ceiling of the dwelling part is generally used as a storehouse for winter food for the cattle. The living room door opens into the stable, for the cattle are invariably housed under the same roof as the family. The houses vary little in their furnishings. One always sees bright strips of carpet, a highly polished center table, where the family Bible is displayed, and a glass dresser, with its shelves filled with rare old brass and delft ware. The most curious thing about the houses are the sleeping quarters—unique and certainly unhealthy from the modern viewpoint, which requires plenty of fresh air in the bedrooms.

The cheesemaker's family sleeps in beds built in cupboard-like recesses in the wall and as far from the window as possible. There is a door similar to that of a cupboard, and this is kept closed during the day in order that the bed may be hidden from view. The stuffy condition of this walled in bedroom can be readily imagined. The linen is always snowy white, and the whole makeup presents an attractive appearance even to the decorated strap suspended from the ceiling and used to assist the occupant of the couch to rise. The visitor is always welcome at the cheese farms, but the visit must be made early in the morning if the cheesemaking is to be seen.—Mrs. C. R. Miller in Leslie's.

Cocaine.

Travelers in Peru and countries where coca grows chew the leaves of this plant for the purpose of allaying the sense of hunger and the feeling of exhaustion that accompanies it. At first the leaves were thought to possess food elements, but now it is known that the cocaine they contain merely allays the irritability of the nerves that produce the sense of hunger. Cocaine is an alkaloid made from the coca leaf, which has the effect of completely destroying the sensibility of nerves. The discovery of this active principle of the coca leaf explained fully and satisfactorily the effect produced by chewing the leaves.

Trouble.

ST. THOMAS AND "PETES" ARE PLAYING AT RIVERSIDE PARK

Rain Interfered With Canadian League Schedule—Band on Saturday at Riverside.

Rain prevented the playing of all scheduled Canadian League games yesterday, except the double-header between St. Thomas and the Hamilton Red Sox. The "Petes" were to have played Brantford completing the series.

This afternoon, the White Caps stack up against St. Thomas in the first of two games. The visitors arrived at noon, going to the Oriental.

Guelph are at Hamilton to-day, Berlin at London, and the leaders at Brantford.

On Monday, Civic Holiday, a double header will be pulled off at Riverside Park with the London Cockneys morning and afternoon.

The 57th Regiment band has consented to brighten the games with a musical program, on Saturday afternoon; game called at two o'clock.

MIDLAND LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

C. G. E. and Oshawa Football Teams at Oval To-morrow

The big football game of the season comes off to-morrow, when Oshawa pit their forces against the C.G.E. in an endeavor to wrest from them the Midland League Championship, and, incidentally the "Stratton Cup" which has been held two years by the Peterborough boys.

Needless to say, they will find the present holders in no way inclined to make them any presentation, as the local champs are bent upon winning the Cup for the third successive year.

A fine game should be served up and the C. G. E. are confident of their ability to pull out ahead.

The team will be picked from the following: Evans, Hull, Gribb, Knight, Ward, Pagett, Vickers, Follis, Moraity, Mason, French and Davey, all of whom are asked to be at the grounds about 2.30 p.m.

Mr. Ernie Brummell will handle the game.

BREEZES FROM THE DIAMOND

Herbert, the big right hander for the Senators, had the London team at his mercy in his shut-out game there on Wednesday.

A witty catcher has invented a way to stop Ty Cobb on bases. His scheme is, with Cobb on first, to make a bluff throw to second and then hold the ball and tag the Georgian "peach" as he slides into home.

Marty O'Toole is beginning to show a little of his salary class. The "million dollar beauty" had the McGraw outfit bewildered in his win on Wednesday.

A brace of wins for the local club from the Saints on Friday and Saturday would make a fitting curtain raiser to the double-header with London on the holiday.

Toronto and Jersey City met for the last time this year on the Skeeters' grounds, and the game worked itself into the following climax:— The ninth innings, the Leafs two runs behind, two out and the bases loaded, with Meyer up; two strikes and three balls. Bing, a triple smash to deep right centre. Score—Toronto, 6; Jersey City, 5.

While all the other teams throughout the circuit were watching the rain, St. Thomas was busy trouncing the Hams in both games of a double-header yesterday.

BISLEY MONEY FOR CANADIAN TEAM

The amount of money won available for division among the competing members of the Canadian team at Bisley was £212 5s, which allowed an average of £12 8d per man, or almost £1 more than last year. This year's sum is a record. Other cash prizes won by the Canadian team amounted to £223 0s 7d, so that the total cash won this year was £465 5s 7d. The following list shows the amount won by each member: Corporal Mortimer £127 13s 4d; Lieut. Blackburn, £48; Sergeant Armstrong, £38 16s 4d; Lieut. Forster, £13 10s 2d; Sergeant Battershill, £20 5s; Private Mitchell, £19; Col. Sergeant Stoddart, £1[illegible]; Private McPherson, £16; Sergeant Major McDougal, £15 4s 6d; Lieut. Steele, £14; Lieut. Richardson, £12 16s 6d; Sergeant Regan, £10 7s 4d; Sergeant McInnes, £9 15s 7d; Private Auld, £6; Sergeant W. Davidson, £5; Sergeant Major Dymond, £4 4s 2d; Captain Kennedy, £2.

MUST GO FEET FIRST

Swedes Object to American Style of High Jump.

The failure of George Horine, the phenomenal California high jumper, to win the Stockholm event, is explained. Horine, who clears something like six feet, eight inches, has a style of jumping to which the Swedes object—that of diving over the bar head first. The Swedes ruled that the feet of the jumper must be the first to go over the bar, and thus the American boy had no chance for the honors.

ANXIOUS TO WIN

Cornwall is anxious to win Saturday's game from the Ottawa "Caps" and thus cinch the N.L.U. honors. Five hundred enthusiastic fans will accompany the team to the capital city.

REAL ESTATE MAN'S CASE WAS REMANDED

J. S. Meyerholz Will Have Hearing in Belleville August 16th

John S. Meyerholz, who was tried before Judge Huycke the other day and acquitted on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences, on a real estate deal, was taken to Belleville Wednesday, to answer to a similar charge in that city, where he is well known.

Meyerholz was arraigned in the police court in Belleville yesterday, but as the complainant was out of town the Crown Attorney asked for a remand until August 16th. This request was granted by Aldermen Alford and Ackerill, who sat on the bench.

As Magistrate Masson is away from the city, the acting magistrates can only give a preliminary hearing to the indictment, after which, if the evidence warrants, there will be a committal for trial by one of the county judges.

Bones as a Barometer.

The merits of bones as indicators of fair or foul weather have been vouched for by the captain of an Italian steamer carrying a cargo of bones from the South American port of Buenos Aires to New York. When the ship was sailing toward a storm recently, the skipper stated, the bones creaked and moaned, and when fair weather was ahead they were silent again.—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

Less Elaborate.

"I can remember when you didn't dress for dinner," said the old time friend.

"I always dressed for dinner," replied Mr. Cumrox, "although I admit it was simpler in the early days. Then dressing for dinner consisted merely in rolling down my shirt sleeves."—Washington Star.

THE PRIVATE INTEREST MADE SLY MOVE ON ELECTION EVE

President German of the Welland Electric Company Issued Circular to the Property Owners.

Every municipality that proposes to vote on the question of Hydro-Electric light and power will be interested in the methods that are employed by the private interests to head off any movement that may crowd them from the field. Just before the vote was taken in Welland, President W. M. German, president of the Welland Electric Company, sent through the mails the following circular, which was received by a large percentage of the property owners:

"If the by-law is carried the Council intends to spend the money in constructing a new lighting plant in opposition to the existing local company. The Council has refused to make a contract or negotiate with the local company. The local company is prepared and has offered to hand over its plant and property to the town for what it is actually worth, or what arbitrators to be chosen will say it is worth, or the company will make a contract with the town to supply electric lighting in the town for any number of years the Council may choose to fix, at the price the Council is proposing to charge. The Council rejects both of these propositions, vote to largely increase the debt of the town, which is now larger than it should be, and thereby increase your taxes, which are now higher than they should be.

"The annual fixed charges against the town will be:

Interest on $45,000, cost, at 4 1-2 per cent...	$ 2,025
Maintenance...	1,000
Management...	3,900
Cost of power...	4,200
Total annual expense.........	$11,125

"There are only eight hundred and forty people in the town who are using electric lighting, and with only that business divided between two lighting companies both are bound to lose money.

"If this by-law is carried, the town will have an annual loss on the operation of its lighting plant of from $1,500 to $2,000.

It was close to election day when when the circular was issued, but the Welland Telegraph managed to get the following reply into the hands of its readers before they went to the polls:

The manifesto, if the author had faith in his position, would have been but early or late the task of riddling it full of holes is not difficult. In the first place Mr. German cannot say the Council intends to build a new plant, nor that the Council has refused to negotiate with the local company. The offer of the local company was properly referred to committee for consideration and will be dealt with in due time. Only in a technical sense will the carrying of the by-law increase the debt of the town. The enterprise is revenue-producing and consequently does not impair or even effect the borrowing power of the town. In statements of the town's indebtedness the $45,000 light debentures will not be included. Not long ago, as solicitor for the town, W. M. German informed the Council, when the paying by-law was under consideration, that Welland's borrowing power still ranged from $250,000 to $300,000. To state that taxes will be increased is untrue. All charges are to be met out of the lighting rates. Mr. German's power estimate is $4,200. The engineers of the Hydro-Electric Commission estimate $2,800. Who knows best? Had the Hydro-Electric engineers any interest in placing the figure lower than it really ought to be? Had Mr. German any interest in placing it higher than it really ought to be? Light users in Welland are 840—so about one-half the houses are electric-lighted. Ald. McKay reports Mr. Page's statement and Mr. German's corroboration that there were over 1,400. Which is correct? "The town will have an annual loss of from $1,500 to $2,000," who said so? Who said there were going to be two lighting companies in this town?

HEALTH OFFICER IS SATISFIED

Toronto, August 8.—There will be no fine levied by the Provincial Board of Health upon the municipality of Ottawa if present indications are to be accepted. The reason is because the threat of such a proceeding brought the desired result.

In his office this morning Dr. McCullough smiled when asked if he was going to enforce his position in this way.

"Why there is no necessity," he replied. "They have come around at last and accepted my ruling."

Dr. McCullough stated that he had received word that the council meeting last night was prepared to carry out his instructions to the letter and proceed with the construction. He showed copies of the Ottawa papers to show that even those influences which had been brought to bear against his authority were realizing the wisdom of the stand of the Health Board.

"How do you account for the lessening of typhoid cases?" he was asked.

"It is just as I said," he replied "I said that they would diminish in two weeks. The treatment of the water was responsible for this."

In view of the means of carrying the water from the plant to the city, Dr. McCullough was asked if he had stipulated a tunnel or a pipe.

"I made no stipulation as to that," he replied. All trouble with the epidemic he now believes at an end.

WILL PRAY THAT FEVER MAY ABATE

Ottawa Pilgrims to the Shrine to Petition for Deliverance.

One of the chief objects of many of the pilgrims who left Ottawa on the Canadian Pacific Railway to go to the shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre Que., Tuesday, was to pray that the typhoid fever epidemic should leave the city and should not touch beloved relatives.

Altogether there were over 1,400 from Ottawa and district and they embarked on three special trains. The excursion is an unusually large one, it is stated, chiefly on account of the typhoid epidemic.

THE HALT AND LAME MADE ABLE TO WALK

Miracle Reported From the Shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre.

Quebec, Aug. 8.—A miracle is reported at the famous shrine of Ste. Anne de Beaupre yesterday afternoon by some three thousand pilgrims from Hull, who make a yearly visit to Ste. Anne's.

A young lad of eight, Paul Savard, of Cummings Bridge, near Hull, who came on the pilgrimage in a crippled state, able to walk only with the aid of crutches, recovered the use of his limbs and left the crutches at the shrine.

The cure is said to be one of the most complete and self-evident ever witnessed here.

MURRAY CANAL WILL BE DEEPENED

Engineers and surveyors from the Department of Public Works, Ottawa, have been engaged of late taking soundings and measurements of the Murray Canal. It is understood that they will report to the department upon the advisability of deepening and widening the canal, so as to make it possible for deep-draught vessels to use the Bay of Quinte ports.

PEAT AS FUEL

The Missing of That Article Will Become Private Enterprise.

Ottawa, Aug. 9.—The mines branch of the Government Department of Mines, to-day announced that its demonstration of the commercial possibilities of peat as a fuel in Canada, has been successfully completed and that henceforth the activities of the branch would be applied in another direction probably the economic production and testing of fuel, concerning which the department already has a man in the west. The peat industry in Canada will now become a matter of private enterprise.

There are two big plnats under construction, one at Alfred, Ont., and another at Farnham, Que., which are expected to supply Ottawa and Montreal and possibly other cities with cheap fuel. Their capacity is about 30,000 tons per year.

STAMPS IN ROLLS

Request of Business Men Granted by the Government.

Word has been received that the Post Office Department has agreed to issue stamps in one and two cent denominations in the form of rolls as well as in sheet form. There will be five hundred in a roll, and an extra charge of six cents per roll will be made to cover the cost of manufacture.

This will prove a great boom to industrial firms both as regards the saving of time and the prevention of pilfering. The action of the Department is due to repeated representations made by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association. The new rolls will be available about the first of September.

PORTFOLIO OF MINES RUMOR -SAYS MAY BE CREATED

Action Is Expected at Coming Session and the Post May Be Given to a Western Member—Mining Interests Are Said to Be Eager For It—Hon. Robert Rogers Is Also In Favor of the Change.

Ottawa, Aug. 10.—A new Minister with a new portfolio will, it is understood, be created by the Government at the coming session. The new portfolio will be a Department of Mines, and the west will in all probability get its fourth Minister in the Borden Cabinet. Mining interest have been bringing strong pressure to bear on the Government to have a separate department organized to deal with this particular industry, which, owing to the unprecedented growth and development of mines throughout the Dominion during the past few years, cannot be competently and efficiently looked after by the other Ministers, who can scarcely cope with the tremendous amount of work involved in their own departments.

At present the mines branch is under the supervision of the Minister of the Interior, but it is understood that Hon. Robert Rogers is strongly in favor of the creation of a new department of mines, which, of course, would embrace an additional Minister with a separate portfolio.

A 1000-MILE TRIP FOR BOY

Washington, Aug. 10.—Nine-year-old Stanley Stewart and his mother of England, appealing for permission to cross the threshold of the United States to join other members of their family and become American citizens, were deported yesterday.

A special medical board at Quebec pronounced the little fellow feeble-minded. The mother must return to England with him as an accompanying alien, but three other children were admitted to go to their father at Omaha, Neb.

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska made the thousand-mile trip from Washington to Quebec to see if the sundering of family ties could be prevented. He is said to have been satisfied that no other course was open.

Caught a Big Tuna.

Halifax, Aug. 10.—A despatch from St. Ann's, C.B., says Lieut. Ramsay of the staff of the Duke of Connaught landed a 500-pound tuna Thursday. His Royal Highness is fishing from five to six hours each day. J. K. L. Ross has only landed one tuna in three years and the present success is remarkable.

Yesterday His Royal Highness' party had splendid luck. His Royal Highness himself had some exciting sport and had a monster on his line for over an hour but lost him. The largest tuna yet caught was landed by hook Thursday night in St. Ann's Bay by Lieut. White, commander of the Earl Grey. The fish is said to have weighed over 700 pounds and was twenty feet long.

EXCITEMENT IN WELLAND

Alleged Ballot Stuffing Is to Be Thoroughly Probed.

Welland, Aug. 10.—Great excitement prevails in this town regarding the voting impersonations in the Hydro-electric contest here last Tuesday, and active steps are being taken to probe the matter to the bottom. It is claimed that nine ballot-box pluggers were imported from Buffalo and that they gave the names of non-resident voters who were on the list. In a number of cases, however, they were refused ballots. Later, however, alarmed, most of the pluggers left town quickly. One man was arrested. He gave his name as Samuel B. Morris of 73 Aldridge street, Buffalo. One man was chased to the electric railway depot, but got away in the car. Word was telephoned to Thorold and a man was arrested, but he proved to be the wrong man.

Morris had a brief preliminary hearing yesterday and was remanded without bail till August 13.

Provincial Inspector Greer is in town investigating the matter and securing additional evidence. It is claimed that votes were purchased.

The citizens are indignant, and are firmly demanding that those responsible for the importation of the pluggers from Buffalo be punished.

Toronto, Aug. 10.—"The Government is instituting a thorough investigation of all the circumstances. This investigation is proceeding immediately and upon its conclusion I will be prepared to make a statement on the matter."

Such was the brief statement of Sir James Whitney when interviewed yesterday concerning the serious reports submitted to the Attorney-General relative to alleged personation and electoral improprieties resorted to in an effort to defeat the Hydro-electric by law in the town of Welland.

SEVEN MORE DETROIT CITY FATHERS ARE ARRESTED

Fresh Crop of Graft Charges Results In a Wholesale Round-Up — The Nine Previously Charged Are Now Confronted With New Evidence Which Is Said to Cover Events For Years Back.

Detroit, Aug. 10.—Sixteen aldermen were arrested yesterday as a new development of the municipal graft scandals first brought to light several weeks ago. The nine aldermen recently arrested on a similar charge are also included among the twenty new arrests.

It is said that the arrests yesterday are based on entirely different evidence than that procured by Wm. J. Burns and his operatives a few weeks ago, which led to the arrest of nine aldermen and the secretary of common council committees, who are now at liberty on bail on charges of receiving and conspiring to receive bribe money for giving the Wabash Railroad certain city property for building purposes.

The latest arrests are alleged to be based on evidence obtained by the prosecutor covering the city administration for years back.

The prosecutor stated yesterday that he has struck many new instances of graft, but he refused to say whether the evidence was obtained, as it has been rumored, from confessions made by aldermen previously arrested. He declared that several of the aldermen would be arrested on more than two charges.

The superintendent of police early in the forenoon sent out nearly every detective on the force to arrest the aldermen, and the prisoners were immediately locked in cells at police headquarters.

Eight of the aldermen also face the original charges as follows:

Andrew J. Walsh, Louis Brozo, L. E. Tossy, Frank J. Mason, Thomas E. Glinnan, Martin J. Ostrowski, David Rosenthal, John L. Theisen. The new arrests: William H. C. Hindle, William Koenig, who is a candidate for mayor; George E. Ellis, Thomas Lynch, Patrick O'Brien, Joseph Merritt, Wm. Zoeller, Richard Watson and Stephen D. Skrzyski.

Several of the officials were released on bonds soon after their arrests. The newly-arrested were required to furnish $5,000 bonds and those formerly taken into custody were released upon furnishing surety to the amount

Refused to Kneel—Arrested.

Ferrol, Spain, Aug. 10.—A mass was celebrated Wednesday at the marine arsenal chapel and at the moment of the elevation of the Host Pablo Carces, a marine, refused to kneel.

He was promptly arrested and when questioned said that his conscience would not permit him to kneel with the hundreds of others who were present. Pablo when he joined the marines declared that he was a Protestant. He has been placed in prison, and the captain-general has ordered judicial proceedings against him. He will be court-martialled.

FERGUSON ACQUITTED

Moncton Reporter Released In Railway Pass Case.

Moncton, N.B., Aug. 10.—Elmer W Ferguson, the Moncton newspaper man, who was arrested Thursday at the instance of Dr. Murray, whom he (Ferguson) accused of giving him Intercolonial Railway passes, was yesterday acquitted in the police court by Magistrate Kay.

Ralph Freese, lawyer for Ferguson, insisted that the arrest had been made to intimidate witnesses in the inquiry into the misuse of passes on the Intercolonial Railway.

Mr. Freese said that Ferguson had been threatened with arrest while giving his evidence about the doctor on Thursday. The doctor had been offered the opportunity to follow Ferguson and refute his statements, but instead of that had him arrested. Ferguson knew a warrant was out for his arrest before he completed his evidence.

The magistrate said that it was evident that his court was being used to interfere with the proceedings in an important inquiry.

When the inquiry was continued yesterday morning, Jasper Steeves, a clerk in the C.P.R. office at St. John, being examined, swore that he got a blank pass from Dr. Murray. Witness said the pass was between Montreal and St. John, and he gave it to a man named Connel. Dr. Murray said that if anybody asked him where he got it he was to say a man named Vye gave it to him. Vye had agreed to accept responsibility and had left town. There was trouble over the pass and

MISHAPS TO BATTLESHIPS

Newport, R.I., Aug. 10.—Accidents reported yesterday to the big battleships Nebraska and Connecticut, engaged with the Atlantic fleet in manoeuvres at Narragansett Bay, will keep both ships out of further drills for some time. The Connecticut has a broken crankshaft, but a more serious mishap was reported to the Nebraska, which ran on an uncharted shoal four miles west by south of Point Judith light yesterday. The nature of the damage to the ship could not be learned from the naval authorities, but it was said that after the Nebraska remained in the manoeuvres for a short time following the accident, it was decided to send her to Boston for repairs.

M.P.'s Indemnity Taxed.

Ottawa, Aug. 10.—There is considerable interest in Ottawa in the decision of Judge Johnson, of Vankleek Hill, that the sessional indemnity of E. Proulx, M.P., was subject to income tax assessment. The judgment is regarded as a precedent and probably all Ontario members will now have their sessional indemnity subject to income tax. The case will probably be appealed.

Vancouver, Aug. 10.—Angered by the action of the United States Senate in discriminating in favor of American vessels in formulating rules for the conduct of the Panama Canal, British Columbians are talking boycotting the Panama Pacific Exposition in San Francisco in 1915.

A. B. Erskine, president of the Vancouver Board of Trade, issued the following statement yesterday:

"A special meeting of the board will be called to discuss whether the people of this city and province will withdraw from participation in the San Francisco fair. I see that the British Government is considering a similar course.

"I am convinced that this is the only dignified thing to do in view of the action of the United States Senate in repudiating American treaty obligations. The exposition would mean much to us locally, but the issue at stake is too big for minor selfish considerations to weigh heavily."

This was in reference to the unusual request as to the disposition in the McGill Library of the ashes of his body after cremation, which has just come to light in the filing for probate of the will of the late Richard John Wicksteed.

Met With Mishap.

Boulogne, France, Aug. 10.—Andre Beaumont, the French aviator, reached here from Havre in his hydroaeroplane at 3.45 yesterday afternoon, having flown along the coast from Havre on his way to London, but was prevented from continuing his journey owing to his machine colliding with a fishing boat which carried away one of its wings.

THEY CANNOT BE COERCED

English Suffragettes Issue a Defiant Manifesto.

London, Aug. 10.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The Women's Social and Political Union, headquarters of the militant suffragette movement, issued a statement yesterday regarding the sentences on suffragettes pronounced by the Dublin court on Wednesday.

The union defies the authorities calling the sentences an outrage which was not devised as a punishment to fit the offences, but to terrorize other women.

The judge's hint that the sentences would be remitted if the women's militant tactics were abandoned, constitutes, says the statement, a bribe which could not be accepted without disloyalty to the cause. It continues: "Coercion may prove effective in dealing with the unionist leaders and other rebels of the present day, but it will never subdue the members of the Women's Social and Political Union.

"While demanding the release of their comrades, they reserve the right to continue the use of militancy until the Government abandons its present policy of trickery and evasion."

SIR. GEO. ASKWITH IS COMING OVER

London, Aug. 10.—Sir George Askwith, chairman of the industrial commission of the Board of Trade, and famous as a "strikebreaker" and successful mediator in industrial disputes during the past few years, is to be sent shortly by the British Government to investigate the working of the Industrial Disputes Investigation Act in the Dominion.

Sir George Askwith's trip to Canada indicates that the Government is determined to attempt to remedy by legislation the conditions which have kept the British Isles in a constant state of industrial warfare for the past eighteen months. He is undoubtedly the best-informed man in the United Kingdom on industrial questions, and he enjoys the confidence of both capital and labor.

INCREASE IN IMMIGRATION

Ottawa, Aug. 10.—During the three months, April 1 to June 30, of the current fiscal year, 175,341 immigrants arrived in Canada. Of this number, [illegible]98 arrived at ocean ports, and [illegible]3,343 from the United States.

These figures show an increase of 15 per cent. as compared with those for the corresponding months of last fiscal year, which were 109,316 at ocean ports, and 43,802 from the United States, making a total for the three months, April 1 to June 30, 1911, of 153,118.

During the month of June this year, there were 45,888 arrivals, 32,140 of them having been at ocean ports, and 13,748 from the United States, as against 40,008 for June last year, 27,973 of whom were at ocean ports, and 12,036 from the United States.

Young Turks Active.

New York, Aug. 10.—A Constantinople cable says: "The Young Turks began leaving Constantinople by the score yesterday, most of them for Salonika, where leaders are organizing to fight the Military League. Young Turkish agents are in the field, endeavoring to rally the people, and especially the soldiers, to that organization's banner.

The leaders think that nearly half of the army will support them rather than the Military League. The Young Turks are full of fight. Niazi Bey, first man to declare war on Abdul Hamid, will be their military leader

American Ships Will Escape Tolls But Vessels Under Railroad Control Are Entirely Prohibited From Using the Waterway — Sharp Debate Marks Passage of the Measure Yesterday by the Senate.

Washington, Aug. 10.—The Panama Canal administration bill providing free passage to American ships, prohibiting railroad-owned vessels from using the waterway and authorizing the establishment of a one-man government when the canal is completed, was passed by the Senate last night by a vote of 47 to 15. The provision for free tolls, which was fought out in the Senate Wednesday, was endorsed again just before the passage of the measure.

Attached to the bill as it passed the Senate were two important amendments directed at trust or railroad control of steamship lines.

The first by Senator Reed, would prohibit ships owned by an illegal industrial combination, from using the canal; and the second by Senator Bourne, would force railroads to give up water lines that might otherwise be their competitors, if it were proved that they were stifling competition.

Opponents of the free toll provision for American ships, against which Great Britain made formal protest, carried their fight up to the last moment of the bill's consideration. Just before its passage, Senator Root moved to strike out the section giving free tolls of American coastwise vessels; Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia, moved to strike out the provision for free tolls to American ships in the foreign trade. Both of these motion were defeated by overwhelming votes.

As the bill passed, it would permit American coastwise vessels to pass through the canal free, without conditions; while American foreign trade ships might pass through free if the owners agreed to sell the vessels to the United States at a fair price in time of war or emergency.

The great fight of the day centred about the provision to prohibit railroad-owned ships from using the canal. The broad terms of the original House bill, which would have required every railroad in the country to dispose at once of any steamship lines with which it might otherwise compete, were not accepted by the Senate. This was modified so that railroads would be prohibited only from owning steamship lines that may operate through the Panama Canal.

The Bourne amendment, however, later adopted by a vote of 36 to 25, restored much of the vigor of the anti-railroad provisions of the House bill. It provided that if the Interstate Commerce Commission should find that any railroad had an interest in a competitive line of steamers, and that such interest was injurious to the welfare of the public, the commission might compel the railroad to dispose of its steamer connections.

Mr. Brandegee, chairman of the inter-ocean canals committee of the Senate, made an ineffective fight on the rigid provision against railroad ships. After the amendments had been adopted to the House bill, he moved that the whole paragraph relating to railroad control be stricken out. This motion was defeated 45 to 18. A subsequent proposal by Mr. Brandegee, to permit any ships to use the canal, giving to the Interstate Commerce Commission power of control over them also was defeated.

The Reed amendment, against trust owned ships, was called up for a second vote before the bill passed, and was adopted on final passage by a vote of 36 to 23.

The completed canal bill finally was passed with Senators Burton, Crane, Gallinger, Lodge, Root and other opponents of the free toll and anti-railroad features of it, voting against it.

In the form in which it returns to the House, the bill adds to the general scheme for operating and governing the Panama Canal, provisions for the admission to American registry of any foreign-built ships owned by Americans, provided they are operated wholly in the foreign trade.

U. S. Action Regretted.

London, Aug. 10.—In regard to the rejection of Senator Burton's amendment to the Panama Canal Bill, yesterday morning's Post says it is to be regretted that this decision has been reached, since nothing can be plainer than that the discrimination in favor of American vessels using the Panama Canal is a violation not only of the pledges made by the United States to the British Government at the time the treaty was negotiated.

Neither legally nor morally, The Post says, can discrimination be exercised against shipping under the British flag unless the United States violates the good faith that it pledged itself to observe under the terms of the treaty.

The Daily Mail, in an editorial on the Senate's vote, says:

"That idea would put back the whole world by a century, and might have far-reaching consequences beyond the question of the proposed exemptions forbidden by the Hay-Pauncefote treaty."

The Daily Mail adds that other powers might repudiate treaties which they regard as favoring the United States and injuring themselves. Beyond question the exemptions proposed, says The Mail, are forbidden by treaty, but if there is any real doubt as to the interpretation of the document we are willing to refer the issue to The Hague tribunal. A power which in such circumstances should refuse such arbitrament thereby declares itself wrong."

OVER-WORKED KIDNEY

Cause, Rush of Blood, Fullness, Dizziness

J. T. Chetland, the well-known railway [illegible] of [illegible], found the strain always resting upon men of his occupation vastly intensified by a tendency of the blood to rush to his head, and often at times when clearness of vision and great steadiness were demanded. Finding some difficulty in bending—a stiffness with pain having settled in his back, it occurred to him that his kidneys might be at fault. "This was a happy idea, for by it I not only got rid of the pain but many other troubles as well. I took a full dose of Dr. Hamilton's Pills and was glad to note that some obstruction of the kidneys, which I had lately noticed, was at once relieved. The flushed appearance of my face gave way to a more rational color and there was a perceptible improvement in my appetite. Dr. Hamilton's Pills certainly act splendidly upon the blood, removing heat and fulness and that sort of dizziness that makes a man at the throttle wish when it seizes him that he were elsewhere."

No medicine gives such unquestionably good results for stomach, liver, and blood troubles as Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they are mild, certain and always curative. Refuse any substitute. All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c per box, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

A LIBEL ON DOCTORS

Toronto papers have given currency to a story to the effect that Harry Tinsley of that city, because he had no money, could not secure the services of a physician for his sick wife, and was obliged to sit by her side and watch the unfortunate woman pass away without medical attendance.

This story is not only a reproach to Toronto as a civilized city, but it is a libel upon members of what has come to be generally regarded as the most charitable and unselfish profession in the world. No one in Toronto or any other Canadian city, where charitable institutions are to be found in every section, is deprived of medical assistance in such cases. If his wife suffered without aid, and passed away unattended, the husband alone was to blame, because he evidently failed to report the case to the proper authorities. It was within his power to have the dying woman removed to a hospital, where she would have received the attention which her condition demanded.

No men, probably, do so much without hope of compensation as do the members of the medical profession. As a class they are famed for lack of business instinct. Every reputable physician, when called to a case, seldoms stops to consider the probability of the patient being able to pay his charges. If every doctor in the land was able to collect the fees which he honestly earns, there would be more wealthy members of the profession to-day.

The unfortunate failed in his duty probably through ignorance of the means by which assistance might have been procured.

POWER AT CAMPBELLFORD

The Seymour Power Company, that we read so much about these days, under Campbellford date lines and in the columns of Liberal organs that are in stress for means of assailing the Dominion Government, made a contract with the Laurier administration. This agreement provided for a possible contingency that has arisen and now that Hon. Frank Cochrane decides that such agreement is binding, and proposes to recognize it, he is attacked on all sides as a friend of private corporations rather than individuals, of private interests rather than interests owned by the municipality.

It may be too much to expect fairness in a debate on the part of those who are inspired solely by partisanship but the facts, badly warped and twisted in the discussion, are in their original form so plain that he who runs may read and understand.

The Laurier Government gave the Seymour Company certain rights on the Trent River. At that time, factories in Campbellford were getting power from the dam at that place, but the Government foresaw that it might soon be necessary to remove the dam to make improvements in which case the Campbellford industries would be left without power. To provide against such a condition the government entered into an agreement with the Seymour people to supply the factories of Campbellford with power at cost in the event of the removal of the dam, and with this understanding the company went into business.

The dam is to be removed and Hon. Frank Cochrane has decided that the agreement referred to is still binding on all parties. Campbellford has a power and light plant of its own and argues that the factories should be supplied by the municipality rather than by the private corporation. Hence the pinching of the shoe. The contract, however, that is responsible for the trouble, let it be borne in mind, was entered into by the former minister of railways and canals, and not by Mr. Cochrane, a point persistently overlooked by the papers, that are doing their utmost to make political capital out of the situation.

Campbellford is not without its soreheads. Every community contains one or more of that cult after a general election, so that it may be a matter of small difficulty to uncover the source of all this partisan agitation.

While a local contemporary has on more than one occasion devoted considerable space to discussing the Campbellford situation with characteristic devotion to its party nothing has ever tempted it into making the slightest allusion to a question of much greater local interest—the lease of the power at Burleigh Falls.

JOHN D. JUNIOR

John D. Rockefeller, jr., student of social problems, bible class teacher and incidentally the son of his father the oil king, has adopted a new role by taking upon himself the prerogatives of a detecter of crime in the metropolis of his country. He went fishing for whales striving to entangle the police in the meshes of his net and after the fashion of Detective Burns inveigle men into sins of commission by holding out financial inducements.

Young Rockefeller has read his bible to very little purpose if he thinks he can find in the sacred volume any warrant for such a line of action. The means employed are not always justified by the end in view. Where is he told in Holy Writ to make sinners of mankind or tempt his weaker brother to do wrong? How does the keeping of a decoy resort of sin, a pretended traffic in the shame of fallen women comply with the injunction laid upon us all to shun the very appearance of evil?

No one can, with propriety apologize for the New York police. That organization has for years been steeped in every form of corruption until now their shame smells to the very heavens. They are certainly bad enough without any so-called social reformer, who by the accident of birth finds himself possessed of a fortune, is enabled to choose his own variety of mental relaxation. If the young prospective heir to almost incalculable millions aspires to do good there are other ways open to him, other worthy objects on which he can spend his time and fortune with widows and orphans starving on all sides of him opportunities for the relief of distress and for the suppression of the vice which want always breeds. The Master whom he professes to serve, while He never failed to tear the mask from hypocrisy did not tempt into deeper sin those already only too prone to wonder that He might denounce the transgressor from the housetops. To cause a man to stumble by blinding him with the dazzle of gold has no warrant either in human legislative enactment or in divine decree.

The needle's eye obstructs the following of this self-constituted reformer. He may be able to work his way through, but in order to do so he will find it necessary to get down on his knees after the fashion of the camel.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The German peril is not worrying the man who has an empty coal bin.

London is so well satisfied with the Hydro-Electric that the citizens are anxious to have the street railway owned by the municipality and will probably vote on that question at the January election.

Under the new regulations no health officer can complain of lack of scope in his work or power to prevent the spread of contagious diseases in the community under his control.

THE MARKET

Latest Quotations in Grain Dairy Products, Live Stock Etc

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Government figures to-day on the total yield of wheat in the United States this season turned out to have been correctly estimated beforehand by speculators here. The market, which was largely of a waiting character, finished steady ⅛c to ⅜c under last night. Corn closed a shade to ⅛c lower, varying from ⅛c to lower, oats varying from ⅛c and ⅜c lower to ⅛c rise, and provisions at 2½c to 12½c advance.

The Liverpool market closed to-day unchanged to ⅛d higher on wheat and ⅛d to ⅜d higher on corn.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, Aug. 9.—The demand for Manitoba spring wheat over the cable today was lighter and the adjustment of prices resulting on the decline in the Winnipeg market left buyers and sellers as far apart as on the previous day. Bids most of the week have been about one cent out of line and practically no business has been done. On the other hand the demand for oats continues good and a big business was done with the United Kingdom at full prices. The local trade continues fairly active with prices firm.

KING GEORGE DEALS A BLOW TO THE FIVE O'CLOCK TEA FAD

The British constitution is being shaken to its foundations. The Radicals have been relegating the House of Lords to the political lumber room; the ladies have been pulling the noses and slapping the faces of Cabinet Ministers, in the name of equality, and the domestics—abetted, it must be admitted, by mistresses who know better—have been "demonstrating" against an Insurance Act that is bound to prove of very great benefit to them.

And now comes King George himself and adds to Britain's topsyturvydom by casting discredit upon another British institution far more potent than the House of Lords—afternoon tea.

Tea in the country is an institution in the city of London, it is a rite. The merchant in his counting-room, the financier in his gilded office, the civil servant who has not been able to escape to the club before five o'clock, suspend business while the lady secretary brews the tea and butters the bread. Then, with a solemnity that freezes the smile of scorn on the lips of the outer barbarian, the sacred tea is passed and the constitution saved. The spectacle of tens of thousands of men, who are leaders in the affairs of the Anglo-Saxon world stopping business in the middle of the afternoon to sip tea and munch crackers fills the colonial visitor with wonder, but he soon becomes accustomed to it, and, if his visits to England are frequent, sometimes drops into the habit himself.

A shadow falls upon the five o'clock tea table. Twice lately has King George declined his five o'clock and society trembles. Doctors are found who declare that to take a heavy afternoon tea, between luncheon and dinner, does a healthy young or middle-aged person far more harm than good. It is not the tea itself that is harmful, for there is nothing better than a cup of tea as a refresher. What the doctor objects to is sitting down in the middle of the afternoon and making a regular meal of tea, bread and butter, sandwiches, cake, jam, and pastry. So the iconoclastic King has good medical support for his crusade against four meals a day. Will five o'clock tea survive the royal frown? It may, but its position will never again be an assured one. By and bye the Briton's mid-afternoon meal may become only a survival lingering in remote parts of the country, and visitors from the outer Empire will be shown a five o'clock function in the city as they are shown the Beefeaters at the Tower or the changing of the guard on the Horse Guards Parade.

Explaining the Matter.

"I want some hose for my husband."

"What kind, madam?"

"Garden hose."

"I beg pardon. Did I understand you to say that you wanted garden hose for your husband?"

"Yes, young man. That's what I said. I want some cheap, thick socks, size 11. My husband has already spoiled several pairs of his best silk hose while working on his onion bed."

Golf Ball May Cost Eye.

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—Horace G. Gamble, professional at the golf grounds of the Athletic Club of Philadelphia, may lose his eyesight as the result of the explosion of a golf ball with which he was experimenting.

Gamble and D. C. Glegg, formerly chief milk inspector of Philadelphia, became interested in a ball of English manufacture, which was extremely "lively." They screwed the ball fast in a vice and Gamble struck it with a hammer. The liquid with which it was filled flew in Gamble's eyes and burned his eyeballs.

Assaulted by Police.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 10.—The St. John police force is due for a general shake-up, according to H. R. McLellan, commissioner of public safety. A prisoner charged with drunkenness and resisting the police was so badly wounded by a beating on the head with batons that several stitches were needed.

SAVED THE SCENE.

Fechter's Presence of Mind When the Stage Ocean Broke Loose.

"Fechter once staged a melodrama," said a theatrical man, "in which the grand feature was a ship in a storm at sea. The sea was a vast expanse of green baize with a runway in the midst, invisible to the audience, through which the gallant vessel was to careen. The storm was produced by a lot of boys under the baize, who agitated it by flopping their arms and bodies vigorously. In the midst of this furious upheaving while the dust arose from the briny deep and the crackling thunders reverberated from great sheets of tin, rattled with equal fury back of the scenes, the ship came on, bobbing and rolling, with Fechter as captain standing in the bow issuing stentorian orders to his men through a speaking trumpet.

"On the crucial first night, when the turning of a hair might damn or save the piece, just as the vessel reached the center of the stage, one of the stormmakers split the baize over him and suddenly a perspiring, bewildered boy stood up in the midst of the green sea waves. Of course all the chances were for the everlasting ruination of the play, but before the audience appreciated the situation Fechter took it in hand.

"'Man overboard!' he bellowed, and, swooping down, he grabbed the astonished boy and dragged him aboard."—Chicago Post.

Hard Metals.

In one respect the diamond has always stood pre-eminent in the mineral world—that of hardness. Other substances have rivaled it in beauty, and at least one, the ruby, outranks it in cost, but none in the whole list equals it in hardness. Since the invention of the electric furnace, however, which is capable of producing a heat equal to 7,000 degrees F., at least two products have been prepared which have supplanted the diamond even in hardness. Experimenters have succeeded in producing titanium in the electric furnace. In its pure form it is much harder than steel or quartz, and when combined with silicon, to form a silicide of titanium, or without boron, to form a boride of titanium, it surpasses the diamond itself in this quality.—Harper's.

GUARD BABY'S HEALTH IN THE SUMMER

The summer months are the most dangerous to little ones. The complaints of that season which are cholera infantum, colic, diarrhoea and dysentery, come on so quickly that often a little one is beyond aid before the mother realizes he is really ill. The mother must be on her guard to prevent these troubles or if they do come on suddenly to cure them. No other medicine is of such aid to the mother during hot weather as is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the bowels and stomach and are absolutely safe. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Who?

Who taught the raven in a drought to throw pebbles into a hollow tree where she espied water that the water might rise so as she might come to it?

Who taught the bee to sail through such a vast sea of air and to find the way from a flower in a field to her hive?

Who taught the ant to bite every grain of corn she buried in her hill lest it should take root and grow?—Bacon.

Of Course Not.

"I don't eat enough to keep a bird alive."

"You couldn't, my dear, proportionately speaking. Science tells us that a bird eats two and one-half times its own weight every twenty-four hours."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Never write letters, young man, that you'll regret in after life."

"You speak as from experience?"

Drowning at Ridley.

St. Catharines, Aug. 10.—A sad drowning accident occurred at Twelve Mile Creek Thursday night when Allan, the seven-year-old son of J. Williams, physical instructor at Ridley College, and caretaker of the St. Catharines Rowing Club, was drowned in the creek.

He had been bathing along with three other children, who, on returning home without him, aroused the suspicions of the lad's parents. The police were notified and finally gained information from lads who had accompanied him that Williams had been drowned. An all-night search and again yesterday failed to find the body.

SHE FAINTED WITH THE AGONY

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Her Kidneys

Miss MAGGIE JANNACK

MOUNTAIN, ONT., DEC. 14th. 1910

"I desire to let the world know the great debt I owe "Fruit-a-tives" which saved my life when I had given up hope of ever being well again.

For six years, I suffered from dreadful Kidney Disease. My legs and lower part of my body were fearfully swollen. The pain in my side and legs would be so bad that I would faint with the agony.

Five different doctors attended me and all said it was Kidney Disease and gave me no hope of getting well.

A kind neighbor visited me and mentioned the case of Mrs. Fenwick who had been cured of a sickness like mine. I took "Fruit-a-tives" and in a short time, I began to feel better—the swelling went down—the pains were easier—and soon I was well.

I have gained over 30 pounds since taking "Fruit-a-tives"—and my friends look upon my recovery as a miracle."

(Miss) MAGGIE JANNACK.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c.—or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Swiss Anarchist Arrested.

Zurich, Switzerland, Aug. 10.—Louis Bertoni, editor of The Reveil, and leader of the anarchists in Switzerland, was arrested yesterday, nominally on account of a recent speech in which he justified regicide. It is conjectured, however, that his detention is more likely to be connected with the attendance of the German emperor at the Swiss army manoeuvres.

The Swiss police are said to be in deadly fear of anarchists and take advantage of every opportunity of trying to corral all the militant "comrades" before the arrival of Emperor William.

BEAUTIFUL EYES

are made beautiful by long, silky lashes and well defined, lustrous brows. Eyes, like diamonds, depend on their setting. The beauties of the face are lost if the eye brows are thin and scanty, and the lashes are thin and scanty. Parisian Lash Lustre grows beautiful, soft, silky lashes. It has done so for society women throughout Europe, and it comes here well recommended to do the same for you. Parisian Lash Lustre is not a dye or colorator, but a scientific preparation for beautifying the eye lashes and brows. Our guarantee goes with every box of Parisian Lash Lustre. A two weeks' treatment will bring beauty to your eyes that you have never before possessed. By mail, prepaid, in opal boxes on receipt of price, fifty cents. B. V. TO BEAUTIFY A CEMETERY

Capt. C. B. Williams, of Port Hope who has been visiting in the city for several days, is collecting a fund to be devoted to the improvement of the cemetery of St. Mark's church in Port Hope. That church is one hundred years old, but the cemetery, filled as it is, with the graves of Canadian pioneers, has been neglected. Capt. Williams suggested that needed improvements be made and he has the written authority of Rev. Canon Montgomery to solicit subscriptions.

A large number of Peterboro people have relations buried in St. Mark's churchyard.

MONARCH SHOWS ALL NEXT WEEK

The Monarch Greater Shows Will Provide Good Clean Entertainment All Next Week on the Driving Park, Exhibition Grounds

Perhaps the most outstanding features of the Monarch Greater Shows, which will furnish the fun and excitement for the Turf Club and Athletic Club's Carnival, which opens next Monday, and continues for one week at the Driving Park, is the clean, moral tone of everything presented. This is something that always appeals to lovers of this form of amusement. Another feature that will at once emphasize itself will be the order maintained on the grounds. The usual annoyances and inconveniences have been entirely eliminated by the Monarch Shows and the attractions, individually and collectively, will be found all that was claimed for them in advance. Not only are the Shows clean and moral, but they are the strongest aggregation of attractions ever combined in an outdoor organization and sufficiently varied to suit all tastes. The free performances will be well worth witnessing. The Driving Park will be a blaze of brilliance, and thousands of incandescent lights will be used on the gaily decorated fronts of the various theaters. The various riding devices, such as the Ocean Wave, Ferris Wheel and Twentieth Century Merry-go-round will also be brightly lighted. There are a dozen shows, in addition to the various amusement devices. With the bands playing, the singing and dancing, the shouts of the spielers and the laughter of the pleasure seekers, the Carnival grounds will be a "roit" of merriment throughout the week.

HARNESSING ALL THE FLEES

There will be one attraction at the Turf Club Civic Holiday sports and exhibition that has no equal, and that is the great German Flea Circus. No doubt many have heard or read of this remarkable show, but few have seen it. Can you imagine it possible of harnessing tiny insects as fleas, and having them draw miniature vehicles and go through regular circus stunts. The finale of the performance consists of a groupe of fleas attired in costumes, dancing to music. A remarkable lecture accompanies the performance delivered by Prof. W. Heckler, a noted German naturalist. The whole must be seen to be appreciated, as it is visible to the naked eye.

Householders who can furnish rooms and board to Normal school students will confer a favor by sending their names and addresses to the Principal on or before August 15th, after which date the boarding house list for the session 1912-1913 will be made out.

THAT GIRL MINNIE HA-HA

There will be on exhibition at the Moose Carnival, to be held here all next week, one of the strangest of all human beings, Minnie Ha-Ha, the Australian Bush Girl. She is the only one that represents her peculiar race of people alive in America. Stands three feet nine inches in height, weighs 39 pounds, and when angry has the strength of two men combined. The many moods of Minnie Ha-Ha are a source of continued interest. One moment she is quiet and gentle, mimicking all sorts of people and things, and the next moment she displays spiteful, weird and vindictive feelings, being turned by the slightest circumstances.

She really understands all that is said in her presence in English. Her own language, that of the Australian Bushmen, she has forgotten, so long is it since she was brought to this country.

She relishes being on exhibition, and, as this will be her first appearance in this city, there is no doubt but that That Girl Minnie Ha-Ha will be the leading attraction at the carnival.

All Union barber shops will be open until noon Monday Geo. Brousseau, Sec.

RELIGIOUS WORKS ON THE PUBLIC LIBRARY SHELVES

Library Committee Has a Delicate Task in Making Selections for Their Department—Some Patrons Look for the Works of Ingersoll and Paine and Grumble When They Cannot Find Them.

Article Number Four.
RELIGIOUS LITERATURE.

The Public Library cannot be said to be other than modestly equipped in the matter of theological literature. The majority of readers, however, if the question was fairly put to them, whether or not they considered a dearth of theological works a serious defect in a library, would probably answer in the negative, for they are so little asked for in any library that many consider their usefulness as very much open to question. But, little used as they are, there are always cavillers to be found at such writings, and librarians are pretty sure to come across them wherever they exist.

As examples of the genus, and in order to show how difficult it is for any library committee to satisfactorily cater to the public in this regard, one or two instances may be cited. Complaints have more than once been made that Col. Ingersoll's works as well as those of certain other notorious infidels find no place on our shelves. The funny part of it is that persons seeking such works make straight for the theological department, as if they expected to find Paine's Age of Reason cheek by jowl with Farrar's Life of Christ or Spurgeon's Sword and Trowel. How they can entertain such an idea, save in the belief that in the spiritual, as in the material world, virtue is always shadowed by vice, and truth by error, it is hard to conceive. When they discover that the Library does not possess books by these authors, they go away saying unpleasant things about the ineffectiveness of the institution.

Others, again, have been known to assert that actual harm is accomplished by the spectacle of tomes upon tomes of diverse religious beliefs presented through the agency of a library. They argue that if religious books were confined to the inculcation of simple Christian precepts, nothing could possibly be said against them, but that as most theological works are written for purely controversial purposes, they merely serve to accentuate the unhappy divisions among Christian bodies as well as to add fuel to the flames of bigotry and intolerance.

It is quite outside the writer's province to enter into the pros and cons of such a statement, save to say that if there was once foundation for such an argument the present tendency of the churches to draw together in the bonds of unity seems to effectually dispose of it. There have been periods in the history of mankind when almost every day saw some new form of belief, promulgated by an irresponsible fanatic and even at the present time the religious world is not altogether free from pestiferous onslaughts on its [illegible] All these forms of belief have their own literature, some of it quite extensively circulated and read. But when we have the writings relating to the churches that have stood the test of centuries, why should libraries be expected to incur the expense of books dealing with such ephemeral monstrosities as some that could be named? Their purchase can only be justified on the ground of affording food for speculation to the alienist or psychologist and on that ground alone. Figuratively speaking, these so-called divinations, inspirations, and messages may be looked upon as the product of so many privately owned theological brickyards, manufactured in most cases from motives of self-interest or self glorification and occasionally perhaps, from a really ardent desire to benefit one's fellow man.

It matters little however as to the main object for which these books are written when the effect is the same. They each and all go to the erection of a Tower of Babel that was started ages before the Christian era and towards the completion of which men will be found devoting their time, talents, and energies till the dawn of eternity.

The United States at the present time harbour many perverts to such writings, who are enjoying a lease of life that would be allowed in no other Christian country and these in their turn are sending out literature and missionaries to the four corners of the earth in order to add to their numbers.

Taking all these things into consideration therefore, it would seem preferable that in a library of moderate dimensions like ours, books should be purchased dealing in general terms only with religious subjects, and that people should seek for a more minute and exact exposition of creeds and doctrines in the churches to which they belong. One can find in our library anything from the doctrines of the recognized churches to the tenets of the Shakers or the bloody rites of the ancient Mexicans. Altogether, it can probably provide general information concerning over 200 forms of belief including many that have long since passed into the limbo of disuse and semi-oblivion. It will be seen therefore that even in this department, the Peterborough Library is well equipped to meet most demands.

WOMAN DIZZY PARTLY NUMB

Doctors Did Her No Good—Testifies How She Was Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Zanesville, Ohio.—"Last fall I had female weakness very bad, and was nervous and run down. I was dizzy and had numb feelings and my eyes ached. I took doctor's medicines but they did me no good, so I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and now I feel stronger and better. I have told other women what Mrs. Pinkham's medicines have done for me and give you permission to publish this letter for the good of others."—Mrs. HULDA ERICKSON, 506 Maysville Avenue, Zanesville, Ohio.

More Proof.

Burlington, Iowa.—"For years I suffered a great deal from female troubles. I had awful pains and felt sick nearly all the time. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and heard that it had helped other suffering women so I felt sure it would do me good. Sure enough it did. The first bottle helped me and now I am a strong and well woman. I would not be without it in the house."—Mrs. ANNA HIGGINS, 1125 Agency St., Burlington, Iowa.

There need be no doubt about the ability of this grand old remedy, made from the roots and herbs of our fields, to remedy woman's diseases. We possess volumes of proof of this fact, enough to convince the most skeptical. Why don't you try it?

BIG FISHING NEAR COCHRANE

One hundred and sixty trout in an afternoon between six rods. How is that for a happy hunting ground, you disciples of Isaak Walton? A report has just been received by the Grand Trunk Railway stating that this record was recently made on a stream along the line of the National Transcontinental in the vicinity of Cochrane, also that trout fishing of the finest kind may be enjoyed in a stream two miles down the Matagami River from Matagami townsite. Matagami is only a mile and a half from the Goldfields Hotel at Timmins, which is in turn but a hundred yards from the Timiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway Station. In addition, there is also said to be excellent trout fishing at Wawewatin Falls, upstream from Matagami townsite. There is in all thirty-five miles of navigation on the Matagami River and the trout take to bait better than any other lure. An especial attraction of this district from the sportsman's point of view is that it is easily accessible by rail and is available from a good hotel. Incidentally an opportunity is afforded of visiting the famous gold mines of the district.

HORSE RACES, AVIATION AND BASEBALL THE ATTRACTIONS

No Need to Leave the City Monday in Quest of Amusement—Program of the Civic Holiday Events—Entries for the Horse Races Show That Several Stars Will Start.

There will be entertainment for everybody on Civic Holiday, next Monday, from baseball games at Riverside Park to horse racing and aeroplane performances at the Exhibition Grounds. No one need leave the city in quest of amusement. The members of the Peterborough Turf Club have gone to heavy expense in the arrangement of a program and the last detail has been completed.

The entertainment at the Exhibition Grounds will begin at 1 o'clock, so that those who attend will have an opportunity to get back to town early in the evening. The town early in the evening. The great attraction will be the flights of Aviator Hemstrought, one of the most famous bird men of the day, who will fly through the air at a speed of sixty miles an hour, making two trips into space and landing each time in front of the grand stand. The flying machine, which weighs 800 pounds, has reached the city and Mr. Hemstrought's manager is putting it together to-day. The bird man will arrive in the city this evening.

Entries for the horse races have just been completed and the members of the Association are well satisfied with the list. Three owners of fast horses have telephoned the committee that they have mailed entries and these will be accepted if the postmark on the letters show that they were sent before the time announced for the close of entries. The following horses have been billed to start in the different events:

2.35 Class, half mile heats, for horses without a record.—A horse unnamed, owned by George Curtis, Lindsay; Silver Pete, grey gelding, W. A. Fanning, Lindsay; Nook Alcove, bay stallion, H. Kendry, Peterborough; Hazel Brook, brown mare, Wm. Elmherst, Keene.

Free for all class—Luke Vernon, brown gelding; L. C. Bennett, Port Hope; Kara, chesnut mare, J. Waters Port Hope; Susie Heal, black mare, W. G. Whittim, Peterboro; Zemma, chesnut mare, W. Towers, Dunnville.

2.18 class—Harry Direct, bay gelding, Dr. T. Johnston, Peterborough; Lady Sphinx, chesnut mare, George Powell, Belleville; Patterson, bay gelding, W. W. Jones, Peterborough; unnamed horse, Geo. Curtis, Lindsay; Axtell jr., brown gelding, Herb McKendry, Peterborough, Lulu Chimes, bay mare, J. McKivor, Peterborough, Clara Wilkes, bay mare, J. Millenbank, Fisherville.

The races will be conducted under the rules of the National Trotting Association, three heats in five, the prizes to be divided, 50 per cent to first, 25 to second, 15 to third and 10 to fourth, so that the horse taking the latter place just saves his entrance money.

The members of the Turf Association, who have charge of the arrangements are J. M. Brooks, president, A. Rountree, secretary, R. Denne treasurer, R. J. Munro and D. R. Dennis.

The London and Peterboro baseball teams will play two games Monday at Riverside Park, one at 10 a.m. and the other at 2.30 p.m. The last game will be finished in time to enable the fans to go to the exhibition grounds to witness the aerial performances of Bird-man Hemstrought.

The Monarch shows will give exhibitions at the park on Monday and following evenings.

PETERBORO SCALPED THE SAINTS IN YESTERDAY'S GAME

Won From St. Thomas by a Score of 3-2—Sensational Fielding Was the Feature of the Contest the Petes Making Four Double Plays.

The Rowanites were plainly too many for Dad Stuart's aggregation yesterday, and the conflict came Peterboroughwards to the tune of 3—0. Fast, clean snappy fielding characterized the game, there being six double plays made, four of which the local boys accounted for. Tracey, the effective slab artist for the Caps, had a good number of the visitors scalps. Running catches by Brant and Beard were a sensation. The visitors outhit the locals 6—4, but the Caps' air-tight fielding warded off the danger. The score:

"WANT ADVERTISING" WILL SERVE YOU when new employment must be found—and haste is imperative. A work-wanted ad that is really urgent will not often fail of results—although, of course, some persistency is often necessary. Testing the Measures.

The standards of measurement which are still in use in England are examined only once every twenty years, and an examination has just been completed.

This ceremonial consists of unearthing and examining the contents of an extraordinary box buried in the masonry which forms the public staircase of the House of Commons, and thereby checking the weights and measures used in Great Britain.

To get at the box, which is of oak, masons had to pull down part of the wall of the staircase. Then, after the casket had been exhumed and its unique contents examined with infinite care by a band of scientists, it was put back in the cavity of the wall, which then was built up and will not be disturbed again until May, 1932.

That box contains two pieces of metal. One is a cube of platinum measuring only one inch along each side and weighing a pound. The other is a bronze rod, 38 inches long, with two studs of solid gold to measure off the yard. Two lines cross these gold studs, and at a certain temperature and pressure of the air, the distance between these fine lines is the standard of British measures.

When the ceremony of examining the standards comes off they are not touched by hands, but are held in special tongs. One of the most delicate balances known was used in weighing the cube.

Witch's Cauldron.

An attraction at Frensham Church, four miles south of Farnham Station, England, is an old witch's cauldron of great antiquity. As a matter of fact, an account of it appeared in The Gentleman's Magazine of 1793. This cauldron is a huge copper vessel with a diameter of 33 inches and a height of 18 inches, its rounded bottom resting on a great iron tripod, giving it a height of 28 inches. Legend tells how the ancient cauldron used to belong to Mother Ludlam, an old hag who had the reputation of doing her worst in the way of brewing storms. Ultimately a bold person of Frensham carried off the vessel, placed it in the church, washed it out with christening water, and thus crippled old Mother Ludlam's power.

On Epsom Downs.

A famous novelist once took a distinguished foreigner to Epsom Downs to see the Derby run, but the foreigner was even more interested in the wonderful crowd of people than in the horses. As the pair strolled about they passed one or two men dressed as sailors who were not, to the novelist's experienced eye, the real article, but were, he suspected, pickpockets in disguise.

LOCAL OPTION WORKS WELL.

(Bowmanville News.)

"How is Local Option working in Bowmanville?" is a question often asked by visitors to this town, as well as by people one meets when away from it. Only one honest and truthful answer can be given. Local Option is working splendidly and no opinion is ever to the contrary, unless it may be a growl from a sucker who hasn't been completely weaned. The excellent hotel accommodation provided by the Bowman and the Balmoral for the travelling public has done very much to favorably advertise Bowmanville all over the Dominion. Commercial men express to local merchants their satisfaction with the service and the rates. Of course old-time 25-cents a meal and a quarter for a bed no longer obtains, but local condition have nothing to do with that. Rates have been advanced in all first-class hotels. We have heard only praise for Bowmanville hotels under present management, and no local business man of ordinary standing and sound moral sense has of late years been heard to complain because local opinion was carried here. Such a sight as a drunk and disorderly man on Bowmanville streets is a rarety indeed. Yes, Local Option is an unqualified success in Bowmanville, and Police Magistrate Horsey and Chief of Police Jarvis say so, too, and they are in a position to know.

"Though scoffers ask, where is your gain?
And mocking say, your work is vain,
Such scoffers die, and are forgot,
Work done for God, it dieth not.

Press on, press on, nor doubt or fear,
From age to age this voice shall cheer.
Whate'er may die or be forgot,
Work done for God, it dieth not.

CURE FOR HARD TIMES,
THREE BEERS A DAY, OR

1 Barrel of flour,
50 Pounds of sugar,
20 Pounds of corn starch,
10 Quarts of beans,
Twelve-pound hams.
1 Bushel sweet potatoes.
3 Bushels Irish potatoes.
10 Pounds of coffee,
10 Pounds of raisins,
10 Pounds of rice,
20 Pounds of crackers,
100 Bars of soap.
8 Twelve-pound turkeys,
16 Bunches of celery,
10 Pounds of prunes,
4 Dozen oranges.
10 Pounds of mixed nuts.

FOUR BIG BARRELS HEAPED UP and in the bottom of the last barrel a purse with two pockets. In one pocket a five-dollar gold-piece marked "A dress for mother"; in the other pocket a ten-dollar bill marked, "To buy shoes for the children."

Workingmen everywhere! look at that list.

What is it?

That's what three beers a day for a year would buy.

Do you hear that, drinking men?

Three beers a day would buy that whole list, and a five dollar dress for mother and ten dollars' worth of shoes for the children thrown in. Every drinking man in Greater New York that buys three beers a day could send to his home such a Christmas donation every year.

Fathers, look at that list!

Show it to mother.

Show it to the children.

Ask them how they would like such a donation for Christmas next year.

Three Beers a Day Will Buy It!

Workingmen everywhere! look at that list!

—Rev. J. B. Dunn, D.D.

The world drinks over a million dollars' worth of liquor every hour. The world's beer gathered into one body would make a lake four miles long, a mile wide, and six feet deep. That lake would be large enough to drown every man, woman and child in England, Canada, Australia and the United States. Canada owns quite a slice of that beer lake itself.

Don't Need Accident Insurance

There is no excuse for refusing to take out Accident Insurance as common as the one that the prospect "Don't Need it."

The average man thinks he never exposes himself to hazards that invite accidents.

Here are some of the illuminating facts in regard to the hazards of ordinary lives.

Is he the man who never goes anywhere, always remains at home? Whereabouts at home does he remain to escape danger? Inside the house? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents nearly 14 per cent occur inside the house. Is he safe there? Hardly.

While at home around the house, amid scenes of peace, is he free from danger? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 13 per cent are met with amid these peaceful surroundings.

Is he safe while walking the streets? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 16 per cent are met with by pedestrians. Hardly safe is he while walking?

A fraction of over 13 per cent of every one hundred injurious accidents are attributable to horses and vehicles. Nearly 7 per cent are attributable to Automobiles and Bicycles. Railroad and Steamship travel are not especially to be commended for possessing elements of safety as these contribute 14 per cent of every one hundred.

Even while engaged in recreation he is not safe, as his quota amounts to nearly 8 per cent of every hundred. There is only one place where a man is not liable to meet with injurious accidents, and that is—the grave. Sleeping there he is in no danger.

The above shows that everyone needs protection against Accident, and this protection can be obtained at a nominal cost by applying to

BY-LAW GOVERNING FIRE HALL WILL PROBABLY BE AMENDED

Ald. Buller Favored Giving Chief Howard Authority to Engage or Discharge Men—Other Business.

The method at present in force of engaging or discharging men at the fire hall will be altered, if Council passes a motion amending the by-law introduced at the Fire, Water and Light committee meeting last evening.

The motion was as follows:

"That clause F., of Section 7, of by-law No. 1020 (being a by-law to provide for the government of the Fire Department, be amended to provide that the Chief shall have power to suspend any member of the Department, and before doing so shall immediately report to the chairman; and such suspension shall be confirmed or disallowed by the Mayor and chairman, and that he shall with the approval of the Mayor and chairman first obtained, have authority to discharge any member of the department; but every member so employed shall not be retained more than two weeks, without the approval of the chairman."

The motion seemed to meet unanimous approval, Chief Howard himself stating that he was perfectly satisfied. As will be gathered from the context of the motion, the greater portion of the responsibility rests with the Chief, and he will be expected to exercise his judgment to the best of his ability.

Ald. Buller and Ald. Anderson moved and seconded the motion, which is expected to go through Council without any objections being raised.

Ald. Buller was responsible for the introduction of the recommendation by remarking that the present by-law should be so amended, to give the Chief full charge in hiring or discharging the men at the fire hall.

It was remarked that Ald. Graham was to introduce a notice of motion similar to Ald. Buller's suggestion.

Mayor Bradburn—"Would you have the chairman consult with the Chief?"

Ald. Brown—"I think the chairman should have a voice in the matter."

Ald. Gillespie—"The only drawback would be that, as the brigade is even now under strength, and with new men coming along for employment, you would have to call the committee together before any new man could be appointed."

Ald. Anderson—"That plan would be too cumbersome."

Ald. Gordon remarked that when the responsibility is placed upon the Chief, the question arose, was it right to relieve him of any of it, by having him secure the assistance of the chairman.

The latter intimated that he wished the responsibility of hiring and firing the men to rest with the Chief alone, and he desired the men to understand that they were not to come to him with complaints.

Ald. Gordon—"They say this department is peculiar in itself."

Ald. Buller—"It sure is a hard hitter."

From further discussion which occupied a considerable space, the motion, as outlined was evolved and which gave satisfaction to all present.

Those present at the meeting were Ald. Gillespie, chairman; Mayor Bradburn, Ald. Anderson, Gordon, Brown, Buller and Fire Chief Howard.

William Thomas, 476 Aylmer street made application by letter to be taken on the brigade strength. He will be notified to appear before the chairman and the Chief, who were given power to act in making the appointment.

A letter from G. N. Gordon, on behalf of residents on Victoria Avenue, asking for the installation of a light on that street, was left in the hands of the chairman.

Mr. J. J. Turner, sr., wrote to the committee relative to making the directions for sending box alarms more explicit. He considered that the instructions were not clear enough and that at the time of a recent fire at his factory, an employe did not understand how to properly send in the alarm.

Mr. Turner's letter contained some useful suggestions, which the committee were disposed to considerable advantage.

Chairman Gillespie will investigate and endeavor to see what can be done.

Chief Howard submitted his regular half-yearly report, containing statement of fires, which has previously appeared in these columns.

A letter from W. A. Munro, in respect to outages, was left over until Mr. Munro can be present in person.

A number of ratepayers on Stewart street, at the end of Smith and Edinburgh, requested the extension of lights in that vicinity.

A set of wheels, belonging to the exercise wagon of the fire hall, at present at Fitzgerald's wagon factory, were ordered to be given a coat of paint.

BIGPOLICE COURT LIST

Peter Garrison Heavily Fined for Carrying Loaded Revolver.

A man named Lavergne Killingbeck was charged with being drunk and disorderly this morning. P.C. Brown's evidence was that he was using filthy language and acting in a noisy manner.

He was assessed $2 and costs, to be paid in ten days.

When Joseph Reynolds' name was called there was no answer. He was with the bunch with whom Killingbeck was keeping company when arrested.

The fine was the same in his case.

William Fallon failed to answer to his name.

Detective Newhall swore that an information was served him. Fallon was one of the crowd of disorderly ones.

Peter G. Fairbairn, charged with using violent language towards his wife vowing he would blow her brains out, at the same time flourishing a revolver, pleaded "not guilty" to the charge.

G. N. Gordon appeared for the prosecution and V. J. McElderry for the defendant, which the assault occurred. On the day of the assault she told her husband she was going to Havelock with her brother-in-law, and she said she would not go. Her husband told her that if she got in the rig with her brother-in-law, he would blow her brains out. To enforce his threat, he drew a revolver from his breast pocket. On a couple of occasions before he had threatened to shoot her, if he caught her with any other man.

She admitted, however, that she was not afraid, that he would do her any harm. Her confession immediately closed the case as far as the court was concerned.

The only occasions on which she was afraid of him, was when he was in a rage.

A man, past middle age, pleaded guilty of being drunk and was assessed $2.

Michael Larone was charged with having no visible means of support. He was remanded for a week.

Aubrey Millard was charged with having committed an assault upon Herbert Reid.

The latter is a youth of about 14 or 15 years of age. The youngster became incensed, because Millard's son called him names, and he slapped his ears. The father forthwith pursued the lad and chastised him with a carpet slipper.

It was shown that the complainant had not been behaving himself in the neighborhood, and that he had threatened Mrs. Millard.

It was simply a case of neighborly disagreement, and the case was dismissed.

Peter Garrison, when charged with carrying a revolver, said that he had it, because he had a big wad of money upon his person. His excuse did not have any weight with the Magistrate.

Garrison was prepared to pay costs of $10.38 in the case. The revolver was confiscated. A fine of $20 was imposed for carrying the weapon.

OTTAWA IS INDIGNANT AT UNITED STATES ATTITUDE

Panama Canal Bill as Passed by the American Senate Provokes Protests From Canadians.

Washington, Aug. 13.—A determined fight is to be made in the conference on the Panama Canal bill against the granting of free passage in the canal to American foreign-bound ships. The conference committee had its first meeting yesterday and continued the discussion of the measure at a night session.

Senator Brandegee, who opposed free tolls provisions in the Senate, is understood to stand with Representatives Adamson and Stevens of the House conferees in opposing what they consider a violation of treaty rights, and too great a concession to foreign-bound shipping. It is believed from the preliminary conferences on the measure that the free toll provision for American coastwse shipping will be retained.

Little progress was made in the first session of the conference toward an agreement on the Bourne amendment, to divorce railroads from control of competing steamship lines, and the Reed amendment, prohibiting trust-controlled ships from using the Panama Canal. Both Houses have endorsed the plan to prohibit railroad-owned ship from using the canal; but the Bourne and Reed amendments are new matters as far as the House is concerned.

The British Government, according to advices from the State Department yesterday, has made no further representations to the United States regarding the proposition to allow American vessels to use the canal free of tolls, since the note of Charge Inness, July 8 last. It is now awaiting, it is said, the enactment of the legislation into law and the adoption of regulations to put it into effect in order to have a sufficient basis for a more formal protest against what it regards as a clear breach of an existing treaty.

In recognition of the superior right of Great Britain to address the United States Government on the subject, by virtue of the existence of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, other European nations, and even Japan, have refrained from approaching the State Department, notwithstanding that their interests is equal to that of Great Britain by reason of their right to claim equal treatment for their shipping under the favored nation clauses in existing conventions with the United States.

Indignation In Ottawa.

Ottawa, Aug. 13.—Ottawa is watching closely the Panama Canal bill, and there is considerable quiet indignation over the action of the U. S. Senate in discriminating in favor of American shipping. However, there is a feeling that judgment should be withheld until the bill is approved by President Taft. It is felt that drastic criticism would only make matters worse. There is also a feeling that there is a good deal of politics in the action of the U. S. Congress and that they are playing to the gallery and particularly to the Irish-American vote. With the elections over it is believed that Congress will be inclined to take a more reasonable attitude.

No action by Canada is likely for some time; certainly not until Mr. Borden returns.

HAMILTON CASE STILL A MYSTERY

Inquest Into the Death of Miss Zeipe Adjourned For Post-Mortem Examination.

Hamilton, Aug. 13.—W. Shotter, 244 York street, the confectioner from whom James Bruce bought the candy which he said he gave his wife Sunday afternoon, and which it is believed caused the death of Miss Zeipe, when interviewed by a reporter last night, clearly remembered selling chocolates to Bruce last Saturday night. Mr. Shotter said he understood Bruce to ask for ten cents worth of chocolates, and that he did up that quantity in a paper bag. When the confectioner passed the bag to Bruce, he stated he found 15 cents lying on the counter. When asked if he wanted 15 cents worth, Bruce replied in the affirmative, but when Shotter proposed to put up the other five cents worth, Bruce, according to the confectioner's story, picked up the five-cent piece and the candy and remarked, "Oh, never mind, this will do."

Mr. Shotter stated that Bruce had often purchased soda water and ice cream at his place, but had never bought candy before Saturday evening.

A press representative bought ten cents worth of the candies and three reporters each ate one of the candies last night without experiencing any ill effects.

The candies shown to and purchased by the reporter are apparently the same kind as those purchased by Bruce and given by him to his wife. The candies left in the bag from which Miss Ziepe ate a few minutes before she was seized with convulsions, exhibited no evidence of having been tampered with.

There were no startling developments yesterday in the case.

Coroner Remmie convened a jury yesterday at 12.30 p.m. to view the remains of Miss Zeipe, and adjourned the inquest until 8.15 p.m., August 20th. In the meantime a postmortem examination of the remains will be made and the stomach and its contents together with the candy and cherries from which Miss Zeipe ate shortly before her death, will be sent to the Attorney-General's Department at Toronto for analysis.

James Bruce the husband of the patient, Miss Zeipe was visiting when she was seized with the fatal illness, maintained his attitude of silence in regard to the alleged poisoning. He will be arraigned in police court on Tuesday morning on the nominal charge of vagrancy on which he was arrested Sunday night, but a remand will likely be asked for until after the inquest into Miss Zeipe's death.

C. W. Bell was engaged yesterday to look after Bruce's legal interests.

No word has been received from the relations of Miss Zeipe and no arrangements have been made for the disposition of the remains.

O'Neil was 26 years of age and unmarried.

Tornado In Quebec.

Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 13.—A terrific wind and electrical storm swept the Eastern Townships Sunday night, tearing up trees, blowing down barns and destroying crops. Bombarding Managua.

Washington, Aug. 13.—The United States Minister at Managua has protested to General Mena, head of the Nicaraguan rebels, against his threatened bombardment of Managua. The city is filled with non-combatants and women and children.

Despite the armistice and the protest, the Nicaraguan insurgents began the bombardment of the capital at noon. The firing continued all afternoon, shrapnell shells bursting over the city, with occasionally machine gun firing on the lines. A number of women and children have been wounded.

The foreign consuls and diplomatic representatives as well as foreign residents have raised their national flags on their houses.

A proclamation has been issued by the Government warning the people to leave the town.

LINER CORSICAN STRUCK AN ICEBERG IN A HEAVY FOG

Damage Slight and Above the Water Line—The Vessel is Proceeding on its Way to Liverpool.

Montreal, Aug. 13.—Word came to Montreal last night from Captain E. Cook of the Allan liner Corsican that his vessel struck an iceberg yesterday afternoon in the vicinity of Belle Isle. The Corsican was proceeding slowly, and the damage, which is reported as slight is above the water line. The vessel will proceed on her voyage to Liverpool. The message from Captain Cook, which came to the Allan Line office here, is as follows:

"Corsican struck an iceberg this afternoon at 4 o'clock while going very slow. Stem injured above waterline, and ship is making no water. Will proceed on voyage."

Earler reports that the Lake Champlain and the Scandinavian were proceeding to the assistance of the injured vessel are without confirmation. The signal service report shows that the Scandinavian was some 300 miles away at the time of the accident. The position of the Lake Champlain is not definitely known, but she passed Belle Isle at 8 a.m.

The exact position of the Corsican when she struck is not stated, but the accident is thought to have occurred some hundred miles east of Belle Isle, judging by the latest reports from the signal service. The signal service report from Belle Isle shows dense fog prevailing, and this is probably the cause of the collision with the berg, and also accounts for the fact that the vessel was proceeding slowly. The Corsican carried 25 first-class, 62 second-class, and 200 steerage passengers, and sailed from Montreal for Liverpool last Friday morning at nine o'clock.

ANOTHER GRAIN BLOCKADE FEARED

But the Threatened Tie up in the West Will Not be so Serious This Year.

Ottawa, Aug. 13.—While it is hoped that a repetition of last year's grain blockade can be to a great extent avoided this season, it is nevertheless feared in Government circles here that it will be practically impossible to prevent a tie-up on a smaller scale.

Hon. Dr. Roche, who returned to the city yesterday from a two months' stay in Manitoba, expressed the opinion that it will be difficult to prevent a blockade, although he is hopeful that with the Government directing every energy towards its prevention it must necessarily be on a much smaller scale than that of last season.

Schooner Wrecked by Fog.

Machiasport, Maine, Aug. 13.—The loss of the Machias schooner, Addie Fuller and the damaging of the two-masted British schooner, Crescent, during a thick fog Sunday night, became known yesterday. The Fuller, bound from New York for Eastport with coal went ashore at Little River-head in Cutler. The crew of six men reached shore safely. The Crescent, which was bound from Maitland, N.S., for Vineyard H[illegible] struck on Averys Rock. She was [illegible] later and towed here.

Bulgarians Aroused.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Aug. 13.—The excitement of the Bulgarian people over the massacre of Bulgarians by Mussulmans at Kotschma, 50 miles to the southwest of Uskup, on Aug. 2, continues without abatement.

The Bulgarian press is clamoring for war against Turkey. The inhabitants of Southern Bulgaria are extremely bellicose. They are holding meetings of protest against the massacre in which 140 Bulgarians were killed, and demonstrations against Turkey are being organized in all parts of the country.

Old Chapel Revived.

Napanee, Aug. 13.—There was a fine gathering of Methodists at Mecca on Hay-Bay, to reopen the old chapel erected by U. E. Loyalist pioneers in 1792. Many people assembled from all points on the Bay of Quinte.

The Toronto Conference sent greetings by President Locke. Ministers of the Bay of Quinte Conference, DeMille, Garret, Boyce and Sexsmith took part in the service. Addresses were given by John N. Lake, Toronto; Fred L. Hooper, Napanee, and Geo. A. Ruttan of Adolphustown, of the trust board of the old church.

It is planned to set out trees to make this historic spot on the Bay of Quinte an attractive camping ground for the Methodism of all Canada.

TO TAKE THEM BACK

Walter Davis and Alice Walsh Will be Returned to West.

Toronto, Aug. 13.—The man and woman arrested by the police on Saturday night as members of the gang that robbed the Bank of Montreal at New Westminster last September were brought up in the police court yesterday morning. They were charged under the names of Walter Davis and Alice Walsh, with having brought into Toronto money known to have been stolen from the Bank of Montreal. Through their counsel, T. C. Robinette, K.C., the couple entered a plea of not guilty and they were remanded for a week without bail.

A telegram was received by the detective department yesterday morning stating that the authorities of New Westminster were sending on a man, who would take the two prisoners back to the coast.

Clerk Has Confessed.

Detroit, Aug. 13. All doubt that the alleged confession of Edward Schreiter, clerk of the common council, was the basis for the sixteen arrests made in the councilmanic "graft" cases last week, was removed yesterday afternoon when Prosecuting Attorney H. Shepherd, in an interview, told of Schreiter's confession.

THE LOYALTY OF CANADIANS

London Times Says the Irish Vote Here is Disappearing as an Organized Force.

London, Aug. 13.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The London Times, anent the lukewarmness for the Irish home rule which its Canadian correspondent asserts is the feeling of the Dominion, says: "Hatred of England and hostility to the British Empire which are characteristic of the Irish Nationalist have never flourished in Canada as on the other side of the border. The deep sentiment of Imperial loyalty in Canadian people has told against such demonstrations, so also has the presence of a great body of immigrants from Protestant north Ireland. But though the Irish vote in Canada has been far less bellicose than in the United States, it has not been an influence favorable to Imperial solidarity and we rejoice in its disappearance as a distinct and organized force."

Frankfurte Is Safe.

Rotterdam, Holland, Aug. 13.—The North German Lloyd steamship Frankfurte, which collided with the German steamer Barmen on Sunday, off the Hook of Holland lighthouse, while on the voyage to Canada from Bremen, with 1,200 emigrants on board, entered the Hook of Holland yesterday, towed by four tugs. Of her passengers 460 were still on board, the remainder having been transferred to the Dutch steamer Juno.

Immediately after the collision the Frankfurte shipped large quantities of water, but, according to her officers, she was in no danger of sinking.

The Barmen, which was on the way from Rotterdam for Bremen, has also arrived at the Hook of Holland.

Law Student Drowned.

Edmonton, Alta., Aug. 13.—J. W. S. Duncan, aged 21, a law student, who came to Edmonton from Lethbridge a month ago, was drowned at Lake Wabamun west of here yesterday morning by the swamping of the canoe in which he and Don Kent, a companion, were paddling.

Schepps Contradicts Rose.

Hot Springs, Ark., Aug. 13.—"Jack Rose has told things unnecessary in his confession to the New York prosecutor, and has tried to get me 'in bad,' but I will not stand for it. When I get back to New York I mean to tell Whitman the entire truth. He can't give me the worst of it."

Thus declared Sam Schepps, arrested here for alleged complicity in the Rosenthal murder. He denied vigorously that he made a confession.

District Attorney Whitman wired acting Mayor Pettit of Hot Springs, yesterday urging that in no circumstances should Schepps be turned over to any New York officer unless that officer is armed with credentials from the prosecutor's office.

MEXICAN REBELS COMMIT MURDER

Insurrectos Hold up Train and Slay Fifty-Six.

Mexico City, Aug. 13.—Thirty-six soldiers and more than twenty passengers were slaughtered by Zapatistas in a canyon one kilometre north of Ticuman, 110 miles southeast of Mexico City, Sunday, when a passenger train southbound from this city, was attacked from ambush. Only meagre details had reached this city yesterday. So far as known, only a part of the train crew escaped.

The first news of the assault was sent to Mexico City by Conductor Marin and Collector Dominguez, who, although wounded, had managed to make their way to Yautepec, 12 miles away. They were forced to steal through the Zapastista lines and did not arrive at the telegraph station until yesterday afternoon.

After a murderous rifle fire had ceased, the rebels swarmed down the hillside and set fire to the three cars composing the train. A few of the wounded had crawled out on to the right-of-way, thus escaping the fate of those unable to leave the cars, which were burned. According to reports, the leaders of the rebels made absolutely no efforts to refrain their men from acts of brutality greater than any that has yet marked the campaign in the south: The wounded, pleading for their lives, were struck down without pity and even looting was held in abeyance until the slaughter was complete.

Not satisfied with robbing their victims in an ordinary manner, the fingers of the men and women were chopped off with machetes, that rings they wore might be more quickly obtained. Ornaments were torn from ears of women and their bodies were otherwise mutilated.

Among the passengers were two newspaper men, and they were among the killed. They were on their way to interview Zapata, the chief of the rebels.

WERE BADLY BURNED

Silesians Had Never Heard of Such a Thing as a Fire Brigade.

Montreal, Aug. 13.—Never having heard of a fire department Mrs. L. Schoop and her boarder, Armis Bebry, two Silesians recently arrived, tried to put out a fire in the kitchen of a house on Leber street. The blaze was caused by the explosion of an oil stove.

Mrs. Schoop continued to throw water on the flames even after her clothes and hair were in flames.

When the neighbors rushed into the building both the woman and Bebry were found unconscious on the floor.

Answering the questions as to why they tried to put the fire out themselves instead of turning in an alarm, Bebry explained that they did not know what a fire engine was, never having seen such a thing in the country they came from.

The injured man and woman were given only a fighting chance of recovery at the General Hospital, to which they were conveyed.

Orientals Hire Female Help.

Saskatoon, Sask., Aug. 13.—After five adjournments, Crown Prosecutor McKenzie has received instructions from the Attorney-General's Department at Regina, to proceed with the prosecution of two Japanese and one Chinaman, charged with a breach of the provincial law prohibiting Orientals from hiring white female help. This is in the nature of a test case and will come up next Monday in the police court.

To Make Olympic Safe.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 13—Shooting, she claims, to protect her honor, Mrs. J. R. Allen, a widow, 22 years of age, yesterday killed Wm. Shoffer, a few years her senior, in the hall of her home. Immediately afterward Mrs. Allen surrendered, and was admitted to $10,000 bail.

GRAIN BOARD AND RAILWAY COMMISSION GET TOGETHER

The Work of the Commission Will be to Enhance the Authority of Board—Jurisdiction of Both Defined.

Ottawa, Aug. 13.—A conference with a view to determining and defining the exact and respective jurisdictions of the Dominion Grain Commission, and the Board of Railway Commissioners over the matters pertaining to the handling of western grain so as to prevent overlapping was held by representatives of the two commissions yesterday afternoon.

One of the principal matters discussed was the distribution of cars. In this connection complaint was made in the Dominion millers case before the late Justice Mabee at Toronto to the effect that in the supply of cars the C.P.R. discriminated against grain ordered for local milling purposes, in favor of grain for export, and an application was made to the board asking that the board see to it that such discrimination be discontinued. Acting Chairman Darcy Scott, who computed the hearing reserved judgment until the commission could ascertain whether the matter was one which under the western grain act came under the jurisdiction of the newly-created Grain Commission.

At yesterday's conference it was decided that, should any overlapping of jurisdiction take place, the Grain Commissioner be assigned first ruling, and that the Railway Commission should merely use its powers to enhance the authority of the railway companies.

"The Grain Commission is fresh from Parliament," said Mr. Scott, "and its rulings must go first, and we are satisfied that it is a thoroughly competent body to deal with all matters pertaining to the handling of grain. But should we find that its orders are being disregarded, then we shall see that they are carried out with due despatch."

FOR A BETTER FIRE BRIGADE

The proposition to amend the fire by-law so as to give Chief Howard the power to engage and to discharge members of the brigade, subject to the approval of the Mayor and the chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, can be regarded neither as an experiment nor as a radical move. It means the adoption of a system which obtains in every large city in the country and which has proved satisfactory. There can be no proper discipline maintained in any body of men where the chief officer is deprived of the power to discharge a man either for incompetency or insubordination. There is always friction and discord in such cases.

It cannot be said that the proposed amendment, if finally adopted by the Council, will mean any injustice to the men or give the head of the brigade undue authority over them. In case a man is discharged he has the recourse of an appeal to an impartial tribunal. He cannot be separated from his position without a fair hearing of both sides of the case, and this eliminates the possibility of the danger that he might be ousted for purely personal reasons.

Under the proposed new system the chief will have power to fill a vacancy, but the new appointment must be confirmed by the Mayor and chairman within two weeks in order to be final. The members of the committee will thus be relieved from the importunity of candidates for places on the brigade, and what is of more importance, to the public the chief will have an opportunity to test a man's fitness for the new duties before recommending his permanent appointment. In every respect the innovation can hardly fail to prove satisfactory to all concerned and to increase the efficiency, of what is now generally considered one of the best fire-fighting brigades in the country.

THAT TRIP TO THE NORTH

When Mr. Rowell made his hurried trip through New Ontario, accompanied by a band of press agents, specially selected with the end that the Opposition leader might receive all possible glorification, he had a one-sided view of the situation, or else, in his addresses and interviews since his return he is withholding part of the information which he acquired. He speaks in glowing terms of the resources of the country but has not one word to say regarding the obstacles that nature has placed there on the pathway of settlement and civilization. Mr Rowell should remember that other people have made similar trips through the north, but with a different object than the one which inspired his tour. Their sole purpose was to study conditions as they exist and not merely to add to a secret fund of political capital.

As he travelled over the Government railway, Mr. Rowell must surely have noticed the almost insurmountable difficulties that are met with in constructing the main lines and branches of that system, how, in some places, heavy grades have to be overcome and in others the road-bed has to be blasted through walls of solid rock. From North Bay to Cobalt, a distance of approximately one hundred miles, there is not visible an acre of land that would appeal to the most optimistic pioneer and that the settlement is sparse in such regions, consisting entirely of small lumber villages, is certainly not the fault of the Whitney Government.

Mr. Rowell visited some of the farms of settlers in out of the way communities, and received new inspiration in his self-imposed task of representing the farmers of the province as a downtrodden class, neglected, if not altogether ignored, by the Government. William Thompson, a settler near Matheson, has had publicity suddenly thrust upon him. He plunged into the wilderness in advance of the railway, for though the road was built to Matheson no trains were running that far, and Mr. Thompson made part of his journey by hand car. From Matheson he carried his world's goods a mile and a half through the woods and over rock and muskeg to his home. No public highway has yet been constructed to the Thompson farm, no expenditure of public funds has been made for the benefit of one individual, and this circumstance is made much of as a reproach to the Government. If such a road had been built at a heavy outlay, Mr. Rowell would have looked upon it either as a bad business move, or a political favor, rather than a work carried out in the interests of the general public.

Like every true farmer Mr. Thompson was ambitious to own a pig and he had a porker crated and expressed to him from North Bay, the cost of the shipment being $6. We are left in doubt as to how the pig stood the trip, or how it made its way from the railway to the farm over the trail through which Mr. Rowell and his party floundered. All we hear in connection with Mr. Thompson's laudable enterprise is a cry of excessive freight rates, of a rapacious government squeezing the life blood from a settler. The fact that a whole carload of porkers, would probably cost no more than the express charges on a crated squealer, is not discussed. Of a very truth Mr. Rowell is learning the ways of the politician whose cause is desperate when he resorts to such arguments as he uses in in this case.

Everyone must deplore the conditions that are to be met with in the north. There are difficulties in the way of settlement for which Nature alone is responsible and these conditions must be reckoned with by the Government. It costs money to build highways and railways but vastly more money is required for such work in the north than in either Old Ontario or the prairie provinces. And yet it was Mr. Rowell's political friends in the Senate that cheated the North out of a two million dollar Dominion subsidy for the extension of the T. & N. O. road. Mr. Rowell himself vigorously opposed the appropriation of $5,000,000 by the Provincial Legislature for the benefit of the country in whose welfare be now professes so much solicitude.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, Aug. 12.—Apart from oats the export trade in grain continues very slow. There was a fair amount of enquiry for Manitoba spring wheat to-day, but the cables lacked the snap of a few days ago, and foreign buyers showed no disposition to close up the ground between their bids and the prices local exporters are asking. The trade at the moment has taken on a waiting air, buyers quite evidently being unwilling to increase their commitments, while the trend of the Winnipeg market remains uncertain. On the other hand there was another big demand for oats during the day and a good business was reported.

Very little is doing in the flour trade either for foreign or district account. All attention is now directed to the new crop, and the elements of uncertainty remaining in the western situation in the meantime restrict the volume of business in flour.

JUNIPER ISLAND REGATTA SCORES IMMENSE SUCCESS

Thousands of Visitors Patronize Big Annual Aquatic Event — Claude Rogers Won Dinghy Race — Keene Struggles for Cup Trophies.

POPULAR EVENING DANCE

Immense crowds, glorious weather, and keenly contested events, marked the annual Stoney Lake Regatta, held yesterday, off Juniper Island, under the auspices of the Stoney Lake Cottagers' Association. From the moment the cheery rays of the sun burst out to dispel the previous gloom, the success of the affair was never for a moment in doubt.

Regatta Day is always a big day for the cottagers. The summer youths at the Lakes, who forbore all summer to don their white ducks, did so yesterday with the obvious object of captivating the hearts of the fair sex. Cupid sallied forth upon the waters in many an attractive guise, and discharged his arrow with unerring aim.

FINE WEATHER

All the beauteous influences of Nature seemed to have been brought to bear upon the occasion, and to assist the committee in the charge of the day's program. Though the previous days and the morning, presaged rain, the afternoon witnessed the disappearance of the clouds, and the bursting of the hot and beaming sun upon the multitudes who had assembled at the island.

Juniper, while much frequented during the summer, is never such a thickly populated centre, or so decidedly popular, on other occasions of the season as on Regatta Day. The success of yesterday's regatta was pronounced by competently qualified judges to have broken every record. Every available craft from the majestic lake vessels down to the dinghy and canoe, brought its quota of passengers. Everybody looked happy and all appeared to be genuinely enjoying the day.

THE SCENE WAS PRETTY

The scene was in every sense representative of summer gaiety. The summer beau was at the very height of his popularity, as was also of course, the summer girl. In addition to the large number of tourists, visitors, campers, and others, who flocked to the island, the crowds from the city eclipsed in size, any invasion of former years. At one time the Juniper Island wharf had half a dozen crafts tied up, while of small boats, skiffs, and canoes, there was no scarcity.

The Stoney Lake Navigation Company had an extremely busy day. The officers and crews of all their vessels, handled their passengers with the utmost courtesy and despatch.

A splendid breeze favored the sailing events, serving the double purpose of cooling the atmosphere to a pleasant degree, and assisting the navigators. This advantage was utilized with great success in the dinghy sailing, canoe sailing and open sailing, and provided just sufficient excitement to keep the crowds of spectators on edge.

Contrary to the custom of previous years, there was no float off the island, the events being started and finished by a gun from the judges' stand. Towards the latter part of the aquatic program, however, an imposing and extremely pretty effect was presented when dozens of launches were arrayed where the float usually was, each gaily adorned with flags and bunting.

Mr. Fred Roy, the photographer was present, and secured some splendid pictures, which included some exciting finishing scenes, of the latter there were dearth, nearly every event being fought out right to the finish.

WAR CANOE RACE

The battle for speed supremacy between the war canoe of the Y. M. C. A., and the St. Paul's church young men, developed into a beautiful exhibition. It was finally won, after a terrific struggle by the latter, who had a little advantage in weight, although no better trained. The "Y" boys jumped into the lead at the start, but were gradually overhauled, although they worked like Trojans, every foot of the course. They were nosed out at the finish by a good half length. The two canoes, each manned by uniformed crews, paddling in unison, made a very inspiring and pretty sight, with the sunlight glittering upon their dripping blades.

The open sailing was the plum of the regatta. It was won by Mr. Harold Knapman in his yacht "Cygnet." He won easily from Mr. Je Eakins.

The dinghy race was captured by Mr. Claude Rogers, who becomes the possessor of the Hon. Geo. A. Cox cup. Mr. Vega Elliott, the previous cup holder, came in second.

The "Water Baby" owned by Mr. G. L. Guillet, won the cup trophy in the motor boat race. There were only three entries, the "Water Baby" of Stony Lake; "Cupid" of Sturgeon Point and Mr. Boyd's launch from Bobcaygeon.

The "Water Baby" is constructed on the hydroplane plan. Although only equipped with a 12 h.p. engine, it was able to out-speed the others in a most popular manner.

At eight o'clock again the pavillion was literally packed to witness the presentation of cups, medals, trophies and other prizes. The honor of bestowing the gifts rested with Hon. J. R. Stratton, assisted by Mrs. Stratton. As each winner walked forward and received his or her award, they received an ovation from the assemblage.

Mr. Stratton made a few neat and appropriate remarks previous to the presentation of the gifts, congratulating the winners and also the losers for their efforts in causing the regatta to have resulted so successfully.

The spacious and attractively adorned pavilion was then cleared for dancing, which was continued until the wee small hours, and a day of enjoyment termined all too soon for many.

The Regatta Committee, composed of the following worked indefatigably for the success of the occasion, and saw their efforts crowned with success:

J. R. Knapman chairman; Keith G. Leech, sec.; Messrs. Ross Cameron, W. Vincent, R. Rice, J. Henderson, E. V. Moore and Hon. Laurance Graham.

MINICOLO WON THE MOTORCYCLE RACE EASILY

He Made Five Miles in Nine and Three Quarter Minutes.

There were only two starters in the motor cycle race at Exhibition Park yesterday, Joseph Minicolo, with an Indian machine, and Bert Garside, mounted on a O. C. M. The terms of the contest were that Minicolo was to go five miles while his opponent made four. The men started together, Minicolo, easily distinguished as he wore the uniform of the 57th Regiment.

Minicolo drew away right from the start and at the middle of the second lap overhauled the other rider and passed him again going at a terrific clip even as he made the turns. From that time to the finish there was no doubt as to the result, Minicolo held on to the end, and completed the tenth lap about a quarter of a mile ahead of Garside on his eighth.

The winner made the five miles in 9 minutes and 45 seconds, or at the rate of a mile in something less than two minutes.

Let the Buyer Beware

FOR centuries the principle of "Let the Buyer Beware"—"Caveat Emptor"—ruled the world of business. In fact, it was not a principle—but rather a lack of principle—yet it held sway everywhere until a decade or two ago.

When a merchant quoted a price, he made it high enough to stand almost unlimited whittling, and yet be profitable—to him. When he spoke of quality, his fingers were crossed, and you were not expected to believe him—unless you wanted to very badly.

Buying was a haggle—unless you were a hardened haggler you came out second best in every deal. "Caveat Emptor"—it was up to you. There was no confidence between buyer and seller.

Business—once an aggregation of deals—has become the living embodiment of ideals.

Advertising has helped, because Advertising creates confidence in the buyer and proves the seller's confidence in his wares. Confidence has eliminated the haggle.

You see business confidence is a good deal like capital, in that it accumulates like savings. The grocery-consumer's confidence in a town will be on deposit chiefly with a few capable square grocers; and dry-goods confidence, jewelry confidence, and so forth, are massed in the same way.

The retail merchant doesn't lock this confidence in his safe. He deposits it in turn with the wholesaler, who passes it on to the manufacturer. And the manufacturer, to make the circle complete, must give confidence to the consumer.

The manufacturer with goods to sell must draw upon all these reserves of confidence. He must demonstrate his own fairness in dealing, his integrity in maintaining quality, his willingness to put principle before profit.

Advertising is the means through which the manufacturer makes this demonstration to you.

Advertising has given personality to commodities, so that you now recognize your "friends" among soap, tea, or collars, as readily as you recognize your human acquaintances.

Advertising fathered the "money back" principle, and has made buying a pleasure instead of a duel of wits.

Advertising has spread the one-price policy—erased "Caveat Emptor" from the language of business, and made buying safe to entrust to a child.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or through the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Bldg., Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—write if interested.

EDWARD HAYES KILLED; ROBT. SHEARER INJURED

Fatal Accident to Workmen at Mill of Peterborough Lumber Co. Early Monday Morning.

Early Monday morning people about the streets were shocked to hear of the death of Mr. Edward Hayes and serious injury to Mr. Robert Shearer. Just as work started up at the Peterborough Lumber Co's mills across the river, within a few minutes after the occurrence, the ambulance was called and also the conveyance used on such sad errands, and the body was removed to the undertaking rooms of Lane & Eano, Hunter street, while Mr. Shearer was taken to his home, George street, north of Dublin street. Mr. Shearer refused to go to the hospital, preferring his home. Medical assistance was called and everything done to bring relief from the excessive pain.

Mr. Shearer is the superintendent at the mill, having charge of the plant, manufacturing and yard operations. The lath mill, or plant for that purpose, was being run by Mr. Hayes, on a contract, he undertaking to get out the product, using the companys' appliances and machinery. He has been with the company for the last six years and was a thoroughly experienced man in his business. The lath mill is driven by a 14 inch belt from the line shaft, which is supported on bridge-trees and on the floor posts. This belt is thrown in and out of use by an idler, or tightner, it being so arranged that the lath mill could be shut down without interfering with the other parts of the plant. Running on an idler the belt was necessarily a loose one, or very slack, when not in use.

On Saturday afternoon as the mill shut down, Mr. Hayes decided to tighten the belt, saying that they were losing power. He cut about 8 inches from the length of the belt, and laced it up. On Monday morning he essayed to put the belt on the driving pulley, but failed, and was told by Mr. Shearer that it was too tight. He bought a short piece of rope and bound the belt to the rim of the pulley, as is often done. This rope broke, and with the remark that he would settle it, fetched a stout piece of considerable length, several of the men say about forty feet long. With this the belt was tied, and the engineer told to turn over the engine to throw on the belt. As the shaft started to revolve Mr. Hayes was caught in the rope as it wound on to the shaft, and drawn around the shaft, entangled in the rope. Mr. Shearer had been helping in the work and was standing close to the pulley, which was about four feet in diameter. As the unfortunate man came around with the shaft he caught at Mr. Shearer, who was drawn into the danger zone, and though he grabbed at a post to resist, was pulled around the shaft and also entangled in the rope. The belt on the pulley caught his foot and ankle, breaking the bones in the arch of the foot, tearing the calf of the right leg and bruising him in the side. The engine was stopped on the instant, and so firmly was the body of Mr. Hayes entangled in the belt and rope that both had to be cut before he could be released. Mr. Shearer was thrown to the floor and stunned.

Mr. Hayes expired a moment or two after being laid on the floor. The hips and thighs were terribly crushed and dislocated and twisted. It was all over in an instant. Consternation spread throughout the mill and work was at once suspended.

Deceased was a man of sixty years of age, a citizen of the town and city all his life. He followed the lumbering and mill business from early manhood, being employed in a number of mills and on various works.

Coroner Dr. T. N. Greer was at once notified, and it was decided to hold an inquest, and during the afternoon a jury was empanelled, and attended at the rooms of Lane & Eano. Coroner Greer opened the inquest and the jury were sworn. Messrs. John Shannahan, James May, Dennis Sullivan, F. H. Dobbin, T. H. Williamson, Thos. Ward, R. Martin, R. G. Clifford, H. Adamson, Fred Sanderson, H. Clayton, Patrick Sullivan. Mr. Dobbin was chosen foreman. The jury viewed the body and decided that a post-mortem examination would not be necessary, as the cause of death was so apparent.

The coroner adjourned the inquest until Friday evening, 16th, at the Council Chamber, and directions and permission was given that burial might be carried out.

Mr. Hayes leaves a widow and nine children, six boys and three girls, four of the former being married. The boys are Edward and Alex., of Toronto; Bert, of Edmonton; George, of 657 Reid street, city; Frank and Nelson, at home. The girls, all of whom reside at home, are Miss Lillian, Ethel and Pearl.

The deceased came to Peterborough from the Province of Quebec forty-seven years ago, when he was 15 years old, and has resided here ever since. He was for forty years an employee of several of the Lumber Companies. During the winter months, when the mill was closed down, he was usually engaged in the making of square timber, a business which requires expert knowledge.

The only society of which he was a member was the T.A.S., of this city.

The funeral will be held Wednesday morning from St. Peter's church, where the Rev. Father McColl will conduct religious services. The remains will be interred in St. Peter's cemetery.

The T.A.S. will meet to-night at 8.45 to make arrangements for the funeral of the late Brother Edward Hayes, 826 Water street.

HE FLEW THROUGH THE AIR WITH THE GREATEST OF EASE

Birdman Hemstrought Made a Mile a Minute Among the Clouds and Remained in the Air for Thirty-Two Minutes—Accident to Machine Prevents Second Flight.

Everybody who went to the Exhibition Park yesterday, wanted to see that greatest of all modern marvels, a man flying through the air, and they saw it. Mr. B. Hemstrought did all that he was advertised to do, and would have exceeded the terms of his contract with the Peterboro Turf Association, but for an unfortunate accident to his machine.

The wonderful aeroplane, of which so much has been heard and so little seen in Peterboro, was taken from the packing boxes and put together in front of the grand stand at the park. It was certainly a simple looking contrivance, considering its powers, as it was inspected by hundreds, while Mr. Hemstrought and his manager were getting it into flying order. When about three o'clock, it was moved along the ground to a different part of the enclosure, interest in the horse races suddenly waned and all eyes were upon the bird-man, the young aviator who knows nothing of physical danger.

Mr. Hemstrought took his seat on the machine as calmly as if he was sitting down in a rocking chair, manipulated a few levers and the mechanism began to move. First with a puff like an automobile, it started slowly along the ground, upon its rubber tired wheels, then it slowly rose and glided gracefully in the direction of the clouds. There was a fresh breeze blowing at the time, but this did not seem to effect the flyer. Mr. Hemstrought rising at an easy angle, headed in a westerly direction, and was soon four or five hundred feet above the fields outside the park. Horses and cattle peacefully grazing in the country, hearing the whining and seeing the aerial monster, fled in a panic for shelter. Round and round the machine went circling back and flying over the park again, sometimes pointing straight up, sometimes down and more often maintaining a horizontal position as it flew.

It would be hard to estimate the speed attained by the bird man, but it is safe to say that he cut in two the records made on the earth below him by horse or motorcycle. It is hardly fair to the machine to compare it to a bird, for no member of the winged fraternity can sail through the air, with so little apparent effort, or maintain its flight with such ease.

Opinions differed as to how high the aeroplane went, but it was at times so far away that it looked like a mere speck against the clouds. Probably, at times, Mr. Hemstrought was 1000 feet above the earth. The machine seemed easy to control in spite of the wind. Sometimes the bird-man described small circles in the air, sometimes he headed the machine at the grand stand as if he meant to alight among the spectators, only to sheer off, and pointing the prow upward, made once more for the clouds.

Leaving the park for a time, he flew over the city and took a birds eye view of Peterboro in earnest. A good many of the residents who remained at home, heard the whirring of the motor, and detected the aeroplane in the distance.

Mr. Hemstrought remained in the air exactly thirty-two minutes and his final descent was the best part of the spectacle. Gradually reducing his speed he alighted at the place from which he had flown without so much as an apparent jar. But one of his tires was punctured by contact with the earth and a second flight was out of the question as it was found impossible to repair the injury.

The bird-man's contract with the company called for two flights, each of fifteen minutes duration. Seeing that he had on the single trip remained up for more than the time agreed upon for the two aerial trips the Association released him from all further obligations when he explained to them the nature of the injury to his machine.

When the announcement was made to the spectators there was not heard a single murmur of complaint.

SAYS THERE'S NO DANGER

Mr. Hemstrought is one of the youngest, as well as most daring of the Curtis students of aviation. Although only about 22 years of age, he has made some of the greatest flights on record. He is no stranger in Canada, having given a number of exhibitions in Eastern Ontario. Before coming to Peterboro, he was at Lake Orion, where he accomplished the difficult feat of rising from the surface of a body of water.

"The aeroplanes of to-day are perfectly safe," said Mr. Hemstrought, yesterday. It is only when an aviator tries some stunt with which he is not familiar that accidents happen. There is no use in a man getting "gay" in the air or anywhere else. If the engine goes wrong on a flight all the aviator has to do is to let the machine glide gradually to the ground. This is perfectly easy to do as all the people saw me descend to earth this afternoon, when I shut the motion off and let the planes bring the machine gently to the earth again."

6,500 PEOPLE PAID TO SEE THE RACES

The Civic Holiday Celebration Was a Financial Success.

There were 6500 paid admissions to Exhibition Park yesterday. The members of the Peterborough Turf Association were a trifle more than satisfied when they cast up their accounts last night, seeing that they are likely to come out of the venture without financial loss. It is probable that the threatening weather prevented a still larger attendance. The only drawback was the condition of the track, due to the recent rains. But for this much faster time could have been made both by the horses and the motor cycle men.

FIFTY THOUSAND MEN REQUIRED

Farm Laborers' Excursions—This Year's Wheat Crop Will be the Largest in the History of Canada.

The wheat crop of 1912 will be the greatest ever harvested in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, thus requiring the farm laborers of the East to recruit and assist in harvesting the World's greatest bread basket.

The Governments of the respective Provinces state that fifty thousand men will be required for this year's harvest. These will have to be principally recruited from Ontario, and the prosperity of Canada depends on securing labor promptly. The Canadian Pacific, on which Company will fall practically the entire task of transporting the men to the West, is already making special arrangements for this year. Excursions from points in Ontario to Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, will be run and special trains operated, making the trip in about thirty-six hours and avoiding any change of cars or transfers. This will be a day shorter than any other route.

THAT GIRL MINNIE HA! HA!

Peterborough naturally has been curious to know more about the widely advertised Minnie Ha Ha, and yesterday being her first appearance here she was visited by many of the best citizens, principally ladies and children. That Minnie is a good feature was proven by the length of time everybody remained to see her. This unusual "personage" is known as Minnie Ha Ha; she is looked upon by students of nature and those who delve into the annals of the past ages as "the missing link." Scientists declare that Minnie Ha Ha is the last of a family of near humans, who with a little evolution would have developed into creditable members of society.

S. A. BAND WERE TREATED WELL

Their Visit to Fenelon Falls Was Extremely Enjoyable and Successful.

The Salvation Army Band are highly pleased with the warm reception that was given them in Fenelon Falls. The band visited there Saturday, where they passed a most enjoyable and successful week-end. They travelled by special car, which largely added to pleasure of their trip. The musicians feel under obligation to Mr. B. A. Rose, Grand Trunk passenger agent, for the comfortable travelling arrangements of their visit.

The band was in almost full strength, and their musical programs were plainly appreciated. The people there were extremely kind, doing everything in their power to aid the musicans. Immense crowds turned out to hear their playing, especially their evening program.

Fenelon Falls desire to have the Army Band make their visit an annual proceeding.

MONARCH SHOWS HERE FOR WEEK

The Monarch Greater Shows easily proved their claim last night of being the biggest Carnival combination ever seen in Peterboro. The music of the organs aided in affording one of the liveliest times the City has ever known. The big wild animal arena was certainly a feature, and was crowded all afternoon and evening, the spectators being held spellbound all through the show. Mlle. DeVare, a woman who has no fear, is wonderful, and her great group of lions, tigers, leopards, pumas and bears, and the famous lion Nero who has the bad reputation of having killed five trainers, presents a splendid program. Capt. J. G. Ferari's museum of wonders is a show that was well patronised, as well as Ferari's big pony, dog and monkey circus pleasing the children as well as the grown up people. The flea circus was said to be one of the most interesting and instructive shows. The streets of nations, with its big beauty show, and Hamda Ben and Princess Maharah, depicting the peculiar costumes of their own nation, was pronounced to be the finest show of its kind that has ever been in the City. Another big novelty is that girl Minnie Ha Ha, hundreds paid her a visit last evening. The Carnival will continue for the rest of the week, afternoon and evening. Big success yesterday afternoon at Driving Park.

A.O.U.W. members at Guelph will ask for an injunction to prevent the proposed increase in rates.

WHITE CAPS MOW THEM ALL DOWN AS FAST AS THEY COME

TwoFrom St. Thomas and Two From London Their Record on the Home Field—Fine Games at Riverside Yesterday Before Large and Admiring Crowds.

Dame Fortune is certainly smiling on our beloved White Caps. To allow us to walk away with the whole pie in the St. Thomas series, surely tickled the local fans, especially since that "Railroad Town" has been springing surprises on the first division teams of late, but to annex both games on a holiday from the high priced London aggregation, before about 2,000 fans—well, either "Troutie" had a few horseshoes concealed beneath his pad, or else it is just the natural result of Mr. D. Rowan's careful and skillful coaching and all of yesterday's fans were satisfied it is the latter. Yes, Mr. Rowan's bunch can certainly play ball, as is demonstrated by the fact that in their last fourteen battles they had labelled their opponetns ten times with the Indian sign.

In the morning of the holiday, the weather man frowned a little, but that is as far as it went, but to cinch matters the Rowanites salted a lead before the fifth innings and held it until the end. The first innings of the a.m. struggle was anything but encouraging as three jubilant Londonites romped across the plate in their half. This only served to stir up the Caps, and the requisite "pep" came to the surface in the Pete's half, in which they neatly evened up the score.

The remaining eight innings, while being devoid of sensational features, was baseball—good inside baseball, with all that the term includes, clean batting, snappy fielding, accurate throwing and enthusiastic rooting. Incidentally the Mayor was a rooter at both games.

The local 3rd base custodian lent a flash to the struggle in the third innings, when after spearing Fox's lightning grass cutter, that fairly screamed for admission to the outfield, he slipped in the mud, but without rising threw the runner out at first. Indidentally some of the locals fattened their batting averages, "Troutie" getting 3 clear safeties, Schwartz a pair of timely doubles, while Johnnie Barthold combed Reitzman for a triplet of singles..

Hanson, the local "Jeff Tesreau," held the reins tight throughout and with the air tight support awarded him, emerged smilingly from his 9-7 victory. Reitzman and Fitzpatrick opposed him on the rubber, the former being replaced in the eighth.

AFTERNOON GAME

The afternoon game proved equally satisfactory to about the same number of fans. Even the bird man paid a flying visit from the Exhibition Park, and spiralling around in his three thousand foot altitude, for a few minutes, slid gracefully back home, satisfied that Mr. J. Tracey did not intend accompanying him on a balloon ascension.

As in the first game, the Cockneys opened up with a fusillade of raps and a assault, Messrs. Lindebirne and Dinsmore completed the circuit for 2 runs. The Petes were blanked in their half and London forged ahead another notch in the 2nd, when Neal scored on Barthold's throw to Byrne to get Smith. Score 3-0.

The Caps were slightly nettled, and after Swartz had grounded out, and Trout's high foul was caught, the Honorable Mr. Beard rapped a beautiful single to left, and by a Cobb stunt reached third on Byrnes' single to right. Nicholls, after playing his team mates for every kind of a ball in the dictionary, finally leaned on one for two bases, scoring Beard and Byrne; Tracey struck out. Score 3—2.

The visitors were shut out in the third, while in the Petes' half after Brant walked and Barthold sacrificed, Schwartz scored Brant with a sizzling single to centre. Trout took one in the ribs, Beard hit through second, scoring Schwartz, and Trout scored on a low throw to second to get Beard. Byrne grounded out via the short-stop route. Score 5—3 Nothing happened in the 4th, but in the 5th, with men on, Dinsmore drove a savage one straight at Tracey, and Neal scored when the ball struck him on his way to the plate, but Smith was nipped when he tried to score on the same slip-up. The Caps scored up in their half on singles by Barthold and Trout, and a sacrifice by White. Score 6—4.

In the 6th London was kept off the danger territory by Nicholls' fine fielding, the Cockney pick-up covering half the infield for two vicious drives.

The seventh and eighth innings made no difference to the score board, although Byrne lost a chance in the last of the 8th, when he overslid the bag after stealing second.

The visitors made an apparent rally in the ninth, which opened with clean singles by Burbaur and Kelleher, but Boyle, Smith and Fox flied out. Score:

SATURDAY'S GAME

Peterborough swept up the series with St. Thomas in an eleven innings struggle on Saturday, when the Caps emerged with the long end of a 4—3 contest. Osborne, the elongated local twirler, had the Saints guessing for eight innings, and succeeded in keeping the six hits safely scattered, while his team mates bombed Clemants for twelve safeties. "Ozzie" retired at the end of the eighth, although apparently in no serious danger, and Hanson who replaced him, allowed but one bingle in the next three innings. Newashe, the big Indian first sacker for the visitors, guarded the bag as if his feathers were at stake, the big Mowhawk accepting twenty-three chances without a slip-up. Schwartz' one hand flying stab of a hard drive in the second was the feature of the game. Score:

C.G.E. TEAM WON LEAGUE

Are Midland League Champions —Shut Out Oshawa 4-0.

The local champs. on Saturday set about Oshawa in such good style that the visitors were never in the picture, and were beaten 4—0 in a game that was always interesting, if not brilliant. The main feature of the afternoon play was the splendid performance of Pagett, the C.G.E. captain, who notched three fine goals for his side, and made himself generally conspicuous. The "Stratton Cup" has been won three years in succession, and now becomes the property of the Club. The boys are to be heartily congratulated upon a fine record.

Losing the toss, Oshawa were set to face the sun in the first period and did not flatter at any time.

The locals had the whip hand throughout, and Mr. Pagett obliged with a brace of beauties which made the score 2—0 in favor of the champs. at half time. After the breather it was the same tale, and when Pagett scored again (and completed the "hat trick") his clubmates overwhelmed him. They stood him on his head in the middle of the field to see what kind of "shooting boots" he had on. Following a good run by Vickers, the fourth counter was registered by Mason, who made no mistake with a fast drive. The game was pleasantly contested throughout, and Mr. E. E. Brummell refereed the game to general satisfaction. Oshawa never looked like holding their own after the first fifteen minutes, and their visions of championship honors faded rapidly away. They may do better on another occasion. Evans in goal had a sinecure. Hull was the best back on view, and Pagett was out on his own among the half-backs. Ward and Knight worked hard and successfully, and of the forwards Moraity and Vickers were seen to most advantage, although they were all workers. The local champs are still in the running for the Peterborough County Championship, which they have won twice already and should they prove successful again that will be the sixth championship they have brought to the town in three years.

C. G. E. line-up was follows:—

Goal—R. Evans.

Backs—D. Gribb, W. Hull.

Half-backs—A. Ward, A. Pagett, G. Knight.

Forwards—A. French, R. Moraity, B. Mason, T. Vickers and F. Davey.

OUTSIDE HORSES WON THE BIG PART OF THE MONEY

Splendid Racing at the Driving Park Yesterday—Horses From Lindsay, Port Hope and Fisherville Take First Places in the Different Classes.

Everybody said that it was the largest crowd that ever assembled at Exhibition Park. The entire enclosure swarmed with pleasure seekers, the grand stand was filled until there was not so much as standing room left, and the fence around the race track was lined with young and old, while, as the number that gathered around and patronized the different entertainments offered by the Monarch Shows, made up a respectable holiday assemblage of itself.

The horses were delayed until after 2 o'clock so that the track might recover from the effects of the recent heavy rains but when the horses started the course was slow and heavy, especially along the rail so that the pole horse kept about twelve feet away from the fence to avoid the mud. If anyone should think that the time made by the horses was nothing out of the ordinary, they should remember under what conditions the races were run and allow about ten seconds for the state of the track, and the fact that even the inside horse by keeping away from the mud near the rail, went more than a mile in every heat.

Dr. J. A. Sinclair, of Cannington, was the starting judge, and a fair man for that important position never handled a bell or made an announcement through the megaphone. He was patient with the drivers who persisted in scoring ahead of the pole horse and though he often called them up before the stand and read them a lecture, he levied no fines on any of the men who handled the ribbons. Acting as judges with Dr. Sinclair, were H. A. Holmes, of Lindsay, John Carew, of Lindsay, R. J. Munro and D. B. Dennison. Secretary Rountree acted as general master of ceremonies, the busiest man on the grounds and V. de Boissiere was clerk of the course.

The first event on the program was the 2.35 trot or pace, half mile heats, and the four horses that started for the purse, furnished some of the best exhibitions of speed of the afternoon. In the second heat there was a run in that might have resulted fatally. Noble Alcone, H. Kendry, bay horse, that wears spreaders, while in action just as he was making the first turn, struck his knees, swerved and came in a heap to the ground. The driver shot over the fallen horse's head and measured his full length on the course. Silver Pete, owned by W. A. Fanning, of Lindsay, bringing up the rear, ran into the wreckage and over the driver before the latter could rise. No one was injured but the Lindsay man's sulky was ruined. The two horses were allowed to make the circuit in order to hold a place, Alcone jogging around, and Silver Pete being led to the wire. In spite of this shake up, Mr. Fanning brought his horse first under the wire in the next three heats and so pulled down the biggest share of the purse.

That the horse race is not always won by the swiftest nag, was demonstrated in the free-for-all. Mr. Tower, Dunnville, had in Zehena, the fastest horse of the day, but all he could do was to take third money. In spite of every chance given him by the judges, he could not get the mare away from the wire without any trouble. In nearly every heat, far in the rear she went into the air but in spite of this handicap when she settled down to business, she kept steadily forging to the front. With anything like a good start, she would have won in straight heats, without turning a hair. Mr. Tower is among the best known horsemen and is considered one of the best drivers in the business. In the fourth heat of the race, the judges called Mr. Tower into the stand to ask him if another driver had not forced Zehena into a break by an improper use of his whip, but the Dunnville man refused to lodge a complaint saying he had been too busy to notice anything of the kind.

In the fifth and most exciting heat of this race Zehena started several lengths behind, and broke as the word was given, but the driver had her going steadily at the turn, and she steadily drew to the front collaring the leader on the second lap, and sailing under the wire an easy winner. It was one of the finest bursts of speed ever seen at the Driving Park.

Dr. Johnston's sturdy little pacer, Harry Direct, was the horse picked by local horsemen to carry away first money in the 2.35 race, but Harry failed to come up to the expectations of his admirers, because he worked under a disadvantage. The doctor intended to drive the horse himself, but owing to the muddy track, decided to put a lighter man on the sulkey, so Ben Dunsford held the ribbons. Still, in spite of the handicap of a new driver, the black pacer was game all through, showing his training by keeping his feet in every close quarter. In the last heat, he crowded the winner to the wire the two horses under the whip, finishing in a whirlwind of speed.

Altogether it was one of the best entertainments of the kind ever offered in Peterboro, and the program was carried through from beginning to end without a hitch. The spectators remained until the last heat was finished and every one was satisfied that they had received the worth of their money. The horses were a fine collection of flyers, equipped with all modern paraphernalia for racing. The members of the Peterboro Turf Association were congratulated on the success of their venture. In spite of the heavy outlay required, they will break more than even when the accounts are balanced. All the outside financial aid they received was $142, which came to them in the shape of voluntary contributions. They never asked the city for a cent, and their enterprise has resulted in the saving to the city of thousands of dollars, which would have been spent in other places, but for the excellent entertainment furnished at the Park.

The Association announces that one of the best racing cards ever offered in Peterboro, will be put on during the coming winter.

A bottle containing a message, thrown overboard from a Japanese vessel in mid-ocean, exactly where the steamship lane from Victoria to Tokio crosses the 180th meridian has been picked up at Prince Rupert recently. The sender was the Captain of the ship, whose object was to discover the direction of the tidal current at the point referred to above. The importance of the discovery rests in the fact that it proves the tend of tide from the steamship lane in mid-Pacific is practically straight for Prince Rupert, a fact which should materially accelerate navigation between Canada and the Orient in the future when Grand Trunk Pacific steamships are plying from the Pacific terminus of this new Transcontinental line.

Important Figure in Rosenthal Murder Is Rounded Up.

The Man Who Is Said to Have Ridden In the "Murder Car" and to Have Paid Off the Murderers, Is Taken at Hot Springs, Ark.—If He Confesses It Will Complete Attorney Whitman's Case Against Gang.

Hot Springs, Ark., Aug. 12.—Sam Schepps, wanted in New York in connection with the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was placed under arrest in this city late Saturday night. He is guarded by an officer who, it is reported, is holding him pending advices from the district attorney's office in New York.

"I am ready to go back to New York without any requisition," said Schepps, "but I want to know that everything is all right."

"I am the keynote to the situation in New York, and if they want me to treat the district attorney's office right they will have to treat me right."

Schepps said yesterday that he has not decided whether he will join with Rose, Vallon and Webber in a confession. The alleged go-between added that he would make up his mind on that question while on the way east.

The arrest was made through a detective agency.

New Impetus to Investigate.

New York, Aug. 12.—The arrest of Sam Schepps in Hot Springs has given a new impetus to the Rosenthal case. It is considered the most important development since the confessions of Jack Rose and "Bridgie" Webber led to the indictment of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker as the alleged instigator of the murder. Schepps has been wanted badly by the district attorney to complete the evidence he has of the assassination plot.

One of the most interesting features in connection with the arrest of Schepps is that the police authorities here appear to have had no hand in the capture. Late last night, nearly 24 hours after the arrest of Schepps, Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty was in ignorance of the capture, except for enlightenment given him in newspaper despatches.

Schepps, it is charged, was in the conspiracy to murder Rosenthal; rode in the grey automobile in which the slayers were carried to and from the scene of the shooting, and paid off the gangsters after they had completed their work. While Schepps has been missing from his home since July 16, the day of the murder, it is said that he was in the city up to and including July 18. He was the go-between, it is alleged, for Police Lieutenant Becker and Jack Rose, when the latter was in hiding in Harry Pollok's house in Riverside Drive. When Rose surrendered Schepps dropped out of sight and no trace was found of him until he was rounded up in Hot Springs.

It is said that Schepps was furnished with $1,000 for the purpose of paying off the assassins.

Schepps' assertion at Hot Springs that he is the "keynote to the situation" here did not appear to Mr. Dougherty to be an exaggeration. There is little doubt in the commissioner's mind that Schepps can furnish about all the information that is now needed to round out the case. No confession from the missing fugitives, "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louis," is needed.

Rose To Go Free.

New York, Aug. 12.—"Jack" Rose, it was learned yesterday, has received absolute immunity.

It became known that when Rose confessed before the grand jury a stipulation granting him his freedom as soon as he has completed his testimony at the trial of the case was signed by the district attorney and Judge Mulqueen, with the approval of the grand jury.

Aviator Springs Surprise.

London, Aug. 12.—Thousands of people lined the banks of the Thames yesterday to await the arrival of the hydro-aeroplane in which the French aviator "Andre Beaumont" (Ensign Jean Louis Camille Conneau of the French navy) had announced that he intended to fly up to London from the mouth of the Thames. Great enthusiasm was aroused when an aeroplane carrying two passengers appeared in view and alighted on the river near Westminster Bridge.

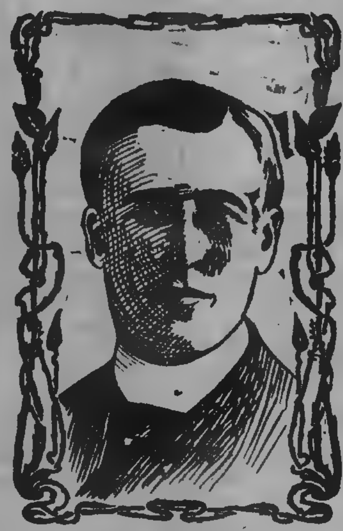
It was later learned that the machine was not Beaumont's, but that of an English flying man, F. K. McLean, who had flown from Eastchurch, Kent, a distance of about fifty-six miles, accompanied by a mechanic, for the purpose of welcoming Beaumont. His flight lasted ninety minutes.

HALDANE'S SUCCESSOR

COL. SEELY HAS HAD WIDE EXPERIENCE IN THE ARMY.

Great Britain's New War Minister Is One of the Most Promising Men In the Ministerialist Timber of Liberal Party—He Is Very Radical and His Appointment Strengthens the Advanced Cause.

Col. Seely, who has just been appointed British War Minister in succession to Lord Haldane, is comparatively young for that high office, being only forty-four years of age. He served with distinction in the South African War, and has always displayed a very considerable knowledge of matters military. He is not very popular with his political opponents, partly by reason of his rather too self-complacent, "I know it all" kind of manner, and partly because they regard him as a renegade. For he was once a Tory and sat in Parliament as such for the Isle of Wight. But, like Mr. Churchill, when the tariff reform banner was raised by Mr. Chamberlain, Col. Seely had his doubts of the wisdom of that policy, and ultimately changed sides. Since then, he has become more Radical than many of the Radicals, and his promotion must be regarded as strengthening the advanced section of the Cabinet. He is a man of very wide information and has something of Mr. Churchill's acquisitiveness. He has since his conversion to Liberalism, held two minor Ministerial appointments as Under-Secretary for the Colonies and Under-Secretary for War. He is a good and improving debater, and each succeeding session sees his Parliamentary power increase.



RT. HON. COL. J. B. SEELY.

A Note on Dickens.

"Spiers and Pond," who took the first team of English cricketers to Australia, were so gratified at the financial success of that speculation that they tried another venture and offered Charles Dickens $100,000 for a series of readings at the Antipodes. The letter in which Dickens [illegible] the offer is published in Notes and Queries recently. It was dated July 19, 1862, written from Gad's Hill Place, and addressed to Mr. Felix Spiers. Dickens acknowledged the liberality of the proposal, and concludes "with great respect for the open and plain dealing of your house." In the course of half a century "house" in this sense has practically disappeared. "Firm" has taken its place.

At one time Dickens had serious thoughts of emigrating and settling in Australia, the idea being doubtless fostered by the news of the success of two of his sons out there, Alfred Tennyson and Edward Bulwer Lytton. He had just returned from a laborious reading tour in America. His health had been impaired, and large business arrears had accumulated in London during his absence. These appear to be the reason why he declined the handsome offer of Spiers and Pond, who were then the proprietors of the most popular restaurant in Melbourne, and had not yet invaded London and captured most of Ludgate Hill.—London Chronicle.

An All Round Athlete.

One of the best-known Yorkshiremen of his time has passed away in the person of Mr. Digby Cayley, of Whitwell Manor House, near Malton, England. Hardly any branch of outdoor sport escaped him, and whatever he took up he excelled in. In his prime he was one of the best shots in the country. Mr. Cayley, who was 78, was a hard and consistent rider to hounds; devoted to the line and rod (some of his salmon catches in Scotland have been phenomenal); he was a splendid cricketer; in his young graduate days at Cambridge he could handle the gloves with art and success against the most noted puglists of the time, and he was no duffer at billiard. But his most remarkable characteristic was his penchant for telling stories. This gift, for it is a gift, earned for him early in life the sobriquet of "Cracker"; it followed him from Cambridge, and stuck to him all his life.

Station Dispute Settled.

Montreal, Aug. 12.—Acting Mayor Church of Toronto declared Saturday, at the conclusion of a conference with Vice-President McNicoll and J. W. Leonard of the C.P.R., that the dispute between the Canadian Pacific and the Grand Trunk Railways over the station and viaduct project in Toronto had been practically settled. In a very few weeks a few legal difficulties regarding the land will be closed up, and work will immediately start.

BLOCKADE ON LINE.

Derailment on the C.N.R. Causes a Bad Tie-Up.

Parry Sound, Aug. 12.—The Canadian Northern Toronto-Sudbury line was literally tied in knots on Saturday as a result of a badly derailed engine at Sparrow Lake.

The trouble commenced when train No. 3, which leaves Toronto at 10 a.m., was delayed about five miles south of Washaga as a result of the engine breaking its walking crane. As soon as it was learned that the damage was serious, a telegram was sent to Parry Sound for an auxiliary engine. This was at once despatched to the rescue but met with a bad derailment at Sparrow Lake. In the meantime the train No. 3 engine was temporarily repaired and it managed to draw its load to Sparrow Lake, where its course was blocked by the derailed engine.

After nine hours' wait the passengers, together with those of No. 5, which left Toronto at 1.30 p.m., were transferred to the southbound train which was re-directed to make the north run. No. 5 made the return journey.

On Saturday the Sudbury line carried one of the largest crowds in its history and as a result of the tie-up the boats on the lakes changed their time tables to accommodate the passengers.

Girl Saves Brother.

Brockville, Aug. 12.—Nellie Massey, aged 14, displayed great pluck Saturday afternoon when her brother Alfred of three years fell into Tunnel Bay from a boat house platform where the water is 12 feet deep. Notwithstanding that she was unable to swim she plunged headlong after the boy and both would have been drowned had not the accident been witnessed by two women, who called to the father of the children at his home a short distance away. Though unable to swim himself he went into the water and reaching the tots clasped in each other's arms managed to bring them to the platform, where the women pulled them out. They also assisted Massey, who with his offspring had a close shave, the younger child being very much exhausted.

More Arrests Likely.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 12.—It was admitted yesterday that Prosecuting Attorney Hugh Shepherd has in his possession the confession of three of the eighteen city officials now under arrest in connection with recent developments in the local aldermanic graft scandal. Two of the confessions are said to have been made by aldermen and the third is accredited to an official.

Prosecutor Shepherd said yesterday that more arrests are likely to be made to-day. He said that he has uncovered matters of such importance within the last few days that he has sent for Detective Burns to appear here personally for a conference. Burns' operatives have been in the city ever since the investigation was begun several months ago.

I.C.R. Baggagemaster Killed.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 12.—Fred. McKinnon, Intercolonial baggagemaster at Norton, was killed on the railway track a short distance above the station early Saturday morning. The train ran over him, cutting off both legs. Just how he came to bek struck by the train is not clear, as the body was not discovered until some hours after the last express had passed.

Women After Churchill.

Montreal, Aug. 12.—The police were warned Saturday that the suffragettes have determined to make Montreal a centre for their operations during the forthcoming visit of Mr. Asquith and Mr. Winston Churchill.

A suffragette recently released from Holloway jail has arrived in Montreal and has been joined by some others from New York.

Shipbuilders Protest.

Washington, Aug. 12.—The House, in requesting a conference Saturday on the Panama Canal bill, named as its managers Representatives Adamson, Sims and Stevens of Minnesota. The Senate named Senators Brandegee, Bristow and Simmons.

That the Panama measure will not pass to final enactment as law without further fighting against the amendment permitting American registry of foreign-built ships owned by Americans was indicated late Saturday when telegrams of protest were received from the Newport News chamber of commerce and other civic bodies in shipbuilding centres.

Lineman Electrocuted.

Toronto, July 12.—William Andrews of 342 Westmoreland avenue, one of the best known linemen of the Toronto Hydro-Electric System, was instantly killed shortly before 12 noon Saturday by coming in contact with a live wire.

He was working on the line being laid up Carlow avenue at the time. The strength of the current was so great that a hole was burnt completely through his left foot. He was about 30 years of age and a man of fine physique and build.

England's Last Tollgate.

The distinction of being the last tollgate in England is now claimed by a gate in the Cambridgeshire Fens, one and a half miles from Chatteris, on the main road to Somersham. The gate stands in the middle of a section of about two hundred yards, once privately owned, and was erected over 200 years ago.

It was eventually purchased by a London company for the price of $10,000. The tolls range from 8 cents to 25 cents, except for Chatteris residents, who only pay one toll per day for an unlimited number of journeys through.

WORKS LONE HANDED

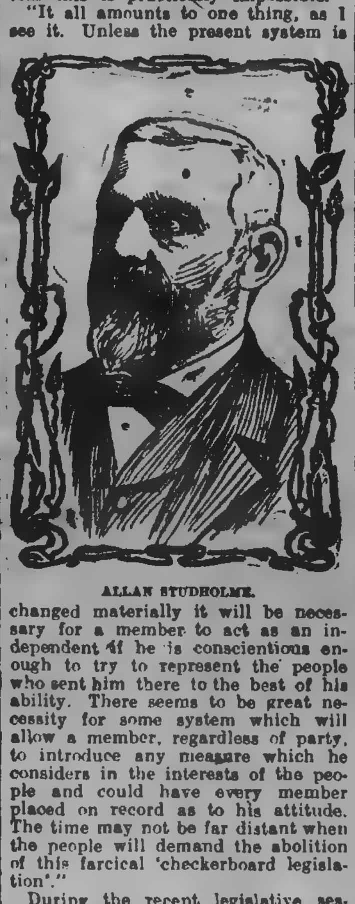
ALLAN STUDHOLME IS ONTARIO'S SOLE LABOR LEGISLATOR.

The Only Laborite In the Provincial Legislature Is an Interesting Figure—He Has No Use for Party Politics as at Present Constituted—It Has Little Place for Initiative In Securing New Laws.

Perhaps the most interesting figure in his own way in Ontario politics is Allan Studholme, M.P.P., Labor's only representative in the Legislature. Mr. Studholme represents East Hamilton and was elected after a bitter and spectacular fight in which the Premier himself made a special trip to Hamilton to speak against him. But it was of no avail, as the labor interests in Hamilton are particularing strong and were loyal to the "Little Stove Mounter," as he calls himself.

Mr. Studholme is strongly of the belief that the present party political system is wrong in its effects. He does not base his contention on party lines, for, as he frequently declares, he does not care if you are "Grit or Tory." It is his belief that the interests of the people who elect a member, or, more properly, those residing in the constituency which he represents, should invariably be given first consideration, regardless of political faith. And right there is the point of his whole argument, for he states that under the present system this is practically impossible.

"It all amounts to one thing, as I see it. Unless the present system is changed materially it will be necessary for a member to act as an independent if he is conscientious enough to try to represent the people who sent him there to the best of his ability. There seems to be great necessity for some system which will allow a member, regardless of party, to introduce any measure which he considers in the interests of the people and could have every member placed on record as to his attitude. The time may not be far distant when the people will demand the abolition of this farcical 'checkerboard legislation'."



ALLAN STUDHOLME.

During the recent legislative session Mr. Studholme kept both parties guessing all the time. He insisted on acting independently in every matter and never minced his words in expressing his opinion of either party.

He is a strong supporter of woman suffrage.

Unmusical South Africa!

If there is any truth in the report of M. Paderewski's treatment at the hands of some South African citizens, South Africa must be in a bad way both artistically and morally. It is one thing to be indifferent to art. However lamentable it may be for a man to be deficient in any appreciation of music or painting, it cannot be said that his deficiency is a moral defect. But when he carries his lack of appreciation into the artist's camp, and wantonly insults what he does not understand, he is as culpable as the atheist who makes a mock of the pictures and statues of the God and the saints in whom he does not believe. The South Africans who could see nothing in Paderewski's piano-playing were entitled to their ignorance, but they cannot be defended for requesting the pianist to "stop that noise" when he was playing ("very gently," according to his account) aboard ship. "I don't mind telling you," Paderewski is reported to have said to an interviewer, "that in Port Elizabeth a group of men behaved in a most insulting manner. One of them came up to me in the street and took hold of me by the lapel of my coat. He put his face close to mind and said, 'You're Paderewski, aren't you?' He then went off without waiting for an answer, and he and his friends roared with laughter." Some South Africans, comments an English newspaper, are not educated up to Paderewski.

Big Flood of Immigration.

Calgary, Alta., Aug. 12.—Dominion Government statistics show during the three months, April, May, June, 175,341 settlers arrived in Canada, 53,343 from the United States.

Last year's total for the same period was 153,018, with 43,000 from the United States.

Struck by Car, May Die.

Windsor, Aug. 12.—An unidentified man, about 40 years old, thought to be Gilbert Delaney, was struck by a Sandwich, Windsor and Amherstburg street car at Aylmer avenue and Sandwich streets late Saturday night and sustained injuries which may cause his death.

The flies that are now in your kitchen and dining room were probably feasting on some indescribable nastiness less than an hour ago, and as a single fly often carries many thousands of disease germs attached to its hairy body, it is the duty of every housekeeper to assist in exterminating this worst enemy of the human race.

EARTHQUAKE SERIOUS

Disturbance In Turkey Will Cost a Thousand Lives.

Injured Will Number Five or Six Thousand More—Outbreaks of Fire Have Occurred Bringing Up the Property Damage to an Immense Sum—Dardanelles the Centre of the Shock.

Constantinople, Aug. 12.—Reports here yesterday indicate that the great earthquake which was felt through a great part of Turkey was accompanied by much heavier loss of life than at first stated. The newspapers on Saturday estimated the number of victims at a thousand killed, while the injured are said to number from five to six thousand.

The details of the earthquake, which are coming in slowly owing to the interruption of the wires, indicate that the seismic disturbance was widespread. Several hundred persons have been killed, thousands are homeless, and outbreaks of fire have occurred in many of the towns and villages. Great destruction has been caused by the upheaval.

The entire district between Constantinople and Adrianople felt the shock severely. Fugitives from Myriophito report 300 killed and 600 injured. The town was still burning when they left.

Ganos-Hora has been wiped out, 80 persons being killed and 30 wounded. The wrecked buildings took fire and most of them were burned to the ground. Shar-Koi was completely destroyed and two nearby villages were engulfed. Adrianople suffered little damage, but Tchorlu was partially destroyed by the earthquake and fire.

The centre of the disturbance appears to have been in the region of the Dardanelles. Eye-witnesses have arrived here from that section and give harrowing accounts of the havoc wrought. The majority of the houses in Gallipole are in ruins and the people are camping in the fields. Tchanak-Kalessi is in an equally bad plight, but the loss of lives in these towns is small, although the injured are many.

The shock was felt on the warships anchored in the Dardanelles. It was first attributed to Italian torpedo boats. The captain of the American steamer Virginia reports that the lighthouse at Ganos-Hora, in the Sea of Marmora, has disappeared and that the villages in the surrounding country are in flames. He was unable to anchor and render assistance owing to the violent movement of the sea.

Steamers Collide.

Amsterdam, Aug. 12.—The North German Lloyd steamship Frankfurt, bound for Montreal from Bremen with 1,200 immigrants on board, collided with the German steamer Barmen from Rotterdam for Bremen, while off the Hook of Holland lightship, and is now proceeding to the Hook under tow.

Wireless despatches received at Scheveningen last night from the North German Lloyd liner say that all her passengers are on board, and that the vessel is in no danger.

Soon after collosion the Frankfurt began shipping large quantities of water, but the timely arrival of two steamers calmed the passengers, and the disabled vessel was taken in tow.

British Columbia Wood.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Wood pulp, print paper and paper board, manufactured from woods of British Columbia from which the export restrictions were recently removed by the council of that province, will be admitted to the United States free of duty under the one operative clause of the Canadian reciprocity pact.

A Huge Apartment House.

An immense block of flats is to be erected at Clapham Junction, England, with the idea of simplifying the housekeeping problem and doing away with the need for a separate staff of servants. In the basement there is to be a large fruit and vegetable market designed to cope with the requirements of the district. About the market will be an arcade containing large shops. The upper floors will be divided into 200 dwellings, ranging in size from five to two rooms, and 300 bachelor apartments of one room each. Each dwelling will have its own telephone and its own bathroom. At the top of the building and extending over its entire area will be a glass-covered roof-garden, with skating rink, children's playground, and bandstand. The centre of the building will be occupied by club premises, a restaurant and other public rooms.

"PILLS LIKE A FYLE"

So Harsh and Drastic are Many Pills as to Seriously Injure Health.

In a letter written from his home in Valencia, Mr. Marsh Selwyn does service to thousands by drawing attention to the injuries inflicted upon delicate people by drastic purgative pills. "For a long time I suffered from constipation. This condition compelled the use of pills. Like many another, I made the unwise choice of using pills that were like lightning in their activity. I began to be filled with intestinal disturbances, constant rumblings, gas in the bowels and diarrhoea. I grew pale and emaciated. Then the doctor told me drastic irritating pills had caused catarrh of the bowels, an almost incurable disease. Explaining my situation to a friend, he advised a trial of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I speedily experienced the healing and curative effect they exert on the stomach, liver and bowels. The intestines, freed from irritating drugs, rapidly regained natural tone, the bowels acted as if nature and not Dr. Hamilton's Pills were at work. I know it will be of value to thousands to know that a pill as mild and curative as Dr. Hamilton's is available to the ailing."

For bowel disorders, sick headache, constipation, liver and stomach derangement, there is no pill so invariably sure to cure as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Refuse a substitute. Sold in 25c boxes, all dealers, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills Are Mild--Never Gripe

WOMAN'S INSTINCT.

MY wife can tell them at a glance—
The bargains at the store.
The prices look alike to me
Though one is less or more.
In wandering through the market place
When what I seek is found
I pay them anything they ask;
My wife she looks around.

She tramps about from store to store
From morning until night,
And not a penny will she spend
Unless the price is right.
She knows the worth of everything.
She never is afraid
To tell them they must cut the price
If they would have her trade.

If there's a bit of china ware
Marked down to ninety-eight
That cost a dollar bill before
She grabs it while you wait.
She saves a penny here and there
Most every other day,
And why it is we have no more
I really cannot say.

My wife she has the bargain craze.
The price they ask I pay,
And if it seems beyond my means
I simply walk away.
I only buy the things I need.
On them I pay the freight.
She has the attic stored with trash
She bought at bargain rate.

Gaynor's Assailant Dying.

Trenton, N.J., Aug. 12.—James J. Gallagher, who shot Mayor Gaynor of New York City on the deck of the Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse, two years ago, is said to be dying in the state hospital here. A report from the hospital physicians says that he is in an advanced stage of paresis and not likely to live long.

Gallagher, who is serving a 12-year sentence for his crime, was removed from the state prison to the hospital here in January, owing to his weakened physical condition. Saturday was the second anniversary of the shooting.

May Go to Germany.

London, Aug. 12.—Premier Borden, before sailing on the Victorian on the 20th, contemplates a trip to Germany if the arrangements are found to be feasible. He may endeavor to combine diplomacy with a holiday, discussing at Berlin trade possibilities between the two countries, with the suggestion of a Pan-British friendliness, and the holding out of a Canadian olive branch to Germany. The visit may be arranged for the last week of this month, if time permits.

PERILOUS EEL FISHING.

Pitfalls For the Mud Walkers on the English Coast.

From time immemorial in England that strip of land along the edge of the sea which is covered at high tide, but left bare at the ebb, has been common land. There is nearly always one figure to be seen upon it, working his way to and fro along the windings of the smaller creeks and over the mud, walking with careful, measured tread and never resting long upon either foot. This is the eel-spearer, who, with mud pattens firmly laced to his feet, tows behind him a box about two feet six inches long and slightly rounded at the bottom.

This man knows every square inch of the mud for miles and has earned a living upon it for years, his sole stock in trade being his mud pattens, his spear and the box that slips after him. When his tide is over he slings this box, with twenty or thirty pounds of eels in it, upon his spear across his shoulder—his pattens hanging in front—and so trudges to market.

The special skill, the local knowledge required to travel safely over these mudlands is not unlike that needed by the mountain guide. There is mud which, too soft to go upon in winter, will carry well enough in summer, when the long sea grass is tough and forms a surface coat upon it. And there are pits deep and soft, like crevasses hidden by snow, into which the unwary may sink at one step up to the waist or deeper.

To get out of these a man must, by cutting the lanyard or untying the knot which fastens them, first get rid of the pattens which suck him down. Then, extending himself horizontally, with his spear held across in both hands, as one would extend an oar in water, he may find it possible to draw himself out. But it is only a chance, and when out he has but his eel box and spear with which to regain the shore. Experienced mud walkers, however, by carefully sounding before them with a spear or an oar for the most part avoid falling into such traps.

Glasgow Is Second.

Scotland is once again to the fore. Some months ago Birmingham—proudly spoken of as the best-governed city in the world—by adopting an extension project known as the Greater Birmingham Scheme, which brought within the limits and jurisdiction of the town certain outlying districts, increased her population from 570,113 to 840,732 and her area by thousands of acres, and ousted Glasgow from the position of being the second city in the United Kingdom.

But Glasgow also set to work and inaugurated a plan for a Greater Glasgow, and there were great rejoicings a few days ago when it was announced that a Select Committee of the House of Commons had decided to pass the preamble of a Bill to extend the boundaries of the city, adding a quarter of a million to the population, and bringing the total up to 1,030,000. The city now has an area of 30,000 acres, whereas previously the area had been just over 20,600. Greater Birmingham still leads in point of size, but its population has been eclipsed by that of Glasgow.

The fourth city in the United Kingdom is Liverpool, which has a population of 746,566 and an area of just over 19,500 acres. By the way, some idea of the cost of extending the boundaries of a town may be gathered from the fact that the Glasgow scheme cost nearly $500,000.

Vanishing Lake.

A lake called Dunkirk, at Northwich, England, which was formed many years ago, began recently to empty itself, many millions of gallons of water disappearing, presumably into some old salt workings hundreds of feet below. Rumbling noises like thunder were heard during the night. The lake covers an area of two acres, and the water has already sank twenty feet. The lake is fed by a brook. The Maerjelen Lake, at the foot of the great Aletsch Glacier, in the Canton of Wallis, Switzerland, temporarily vanishes about the end of August every three or four years. The water returns during the following winter and spring. Scientists state that the phenomenon is due to meteorological causes. Owing to the melting of the glacier wall the lake attains a maximum level once in three or four years. The pressure of the great volume of water causes fissures to appear in the wall until it becomes as porous as sponge. Most of the water eventually flows into the Rhone, and disastrous floods are caused in the Rhone Valley in consequence. The man who first arrives in the valley with the news that the lake is emptying itself is rewarded with a pair of shoes.

A Lucky Parliamentarian.

The appointment of Mr. Henry Webb as one of the Lords Commissioners, in succession to Sir Arthur Haworth, occasioned general surprise. Mr Webb has hitherto not attained to any prominence in Parliament, and he owes his preferment largely to the fact that he occupies a safe seat. But there is no doubt that he will justify his promotion.

Born at Hereford, and educated at Lausanne and Paris, he is forty-six years of age, though he only entered the House of Commons a year ago. If his political experience is not great, the same cannot be said of his business experience, for he is a director of several coal companies. He is also keenly interested in agriculture and possesses a model farm.

An Error In English.

Even the greatest authors now and then make a little slip in their English. Thus Sir Walter Scott in his "Legend of Montrose" has this sentence: "But ere Montrose could almost see what happened Allan McAulay had rushed past him." The "almost" should come before "ere" in order to express the author's meaning.

A.O.U.W. members at Guelph will ask for an injunction to prevent the proposed increase in rates.

Woman's World

Mrs. Pitzer Delegate to Democratic National Convention.

MRS. ANNIE HAMILTON PITZER.

Scores of men the most prominent politically in the nation will go to the Democratic national convention to be held in Baltimore June 25, enthusiastically supporting the candidacy of Champ Clark for the nomination for president of the United States, but no one of these men will be so enthusiastic or cast his vote with such deep feeling as Mrs. Annie Hamilton Pitzer of Colorado Springs, sister-in-law of the speaker and national delegate from the Second congressional district of Colorado.

Mrs. Pitzer, whose maiden name was Anne Hamilton Bennett, is a native of Missouri and lived in Columbia, Boone county, for many years. Her husband was a prominent lawyer in the state, and after his death, about twenty years ago, she and her daughter removed to Colorado Springs, where they have lived ever since.

While Mrs. Pitzer desired to go to the Democratic national convention to vote for her brother-in-law for presidential nominee, she also has another purpose—a very strong desire to show the other delegates from all parts of the country that women who vote and believe in woman suffrage are neither masculine nor monsters. And one need only look at Mrs. Pitzer to know that she is neither of these.

"If there is one thing I wish to do more than anything else," says Mrs. Pitzer, "it is to show to men who are prominent in national politics what woman suffrage really is. I am a true suffragette in every sense of the word, and I am just as all the other suffragettes want to be, although owing to interference they cannot always be so.

"Universal suffrage is coming sooner or later," concluded Mrs. Pitzer, "and, while I may not live to see it, I am going to do my share toward securing it, and I consider whatever I may be able to do in Baltimore as one step toward accomplishing what I have set out to do."

Women's Sense of Humor.

In an article on women writers as humorists in the Woman's Home Companion Jeannette L. Gilder says:

"Some foolish person has said at some time or other that women have no sense of humor. Of course it was a man who said this, for men don't know women, though they think they do. Women know women better, and they know that the sense of humor is very keenly developed in their own sex. If it were not for this saving sense women could not stand a great many of the burdens that are put on their shoulders. I have in mind a woman whose life was one tragedy after another, but whose sense of humor saved her from despair. She would probably have gone mad if she had not been able to see the humorous side of situations that in themselves were anything but humorous. So widespread has this idea become—that women lack the sense of humor—that a great many people come to regard it as a truth, but I can soon prove, as far as women writers are concerned at least, that some of the most humorous books published today are written by women."

Via Wireless.

When the ship the President Lincoln left New York recently two girls on board decided to send a message to their home by wireless. This is what reached the puzzled family of the girls:

West ill eat. GRACE AND JULIA.

It looked formidable. There certainly was the word "ill," and the rest of the message looked as though the illness must be too serious for sane talk. The wireless man was just about ready to get busy with a frantic return message for particulars of the "illness" when a newspaper man in the family solved the puzzle.

"I've read proof before this, and I think this copy needs a bit of correcting," he said as he drew a line straight down the middle of "west" and joined its last two letters to "ill."

The relieved family read then, "We still eat," and knew that the girls had merely intended to give reassurance that seasickness had not interfered with their happiness to date.

"If the Titanic messages were as bad as that I don't see how wireless helped much," commented the man.

A man believed to be Gilbert Delouney, was probably fatally hurt by a street car in Windsor.

Points for Mothers

Children's Play Clothes.

Dutch play clothes are the privilege of smart children, but the pretty garments which are shown in a number of the big shops can be reproduced at home for half of the store cost—that is, as far as the imported article is concerned, for there are some domestic imitations which are quite cheap. The novelties include frocks, aprons, bonnets and coarse stockings, with which are worn the usual leather sandals. Everything is very Dutch in effect, substantial and amusing, and the sizes of the various articles are two to six years of age.

Little frocks of striped drill, tan linen or white drill trimmed with a border showing designs of Dutch children can be had as low as 65 cents. If the dress is banded with embroidery it will cost from $1.25 to $1.95. In style the frocks are much like the square necked aprons or else they are in the form of high, long sleeved smocks, with front pockets made of trimming. The aprons are square or round necked, with the armhole cut very deep and the gay bordering used only about the neck, armholes and pockets or else all around. The same drills, linens and crashes are used for them as for the frocks, but of course they are only used to protect the usual nice little gown, as over a Dutch dress they would be superfluous. A number of the bonnets, which are short at the back and show turnback front flaps, are of the same textures as the frocks and aprons. Others are of coarse white linen.

These frocks and aprons can be made of ordinary denim, prettily worked at the edges with a herringbone in colored thread, or dish towel linen could be used, this ornamented with a banding of the Dutch figured calico, whose bright colors would be very effective against the brown of the garment. Again a brilliantly colored calico, with figures or without, might form the banding, for all that is needed are gayety of color and durability. Home knitted stockings would fill the place of the coarse hose offered for play, although the ribbed stockings young boys generally wear are quite good enough.

The Untrained Mother.

Probably the idea of training children aright started with Moses. Solomon prodded it along a little.

But no one seems to have given any admonitions about training the parents.

No doubt all the rules for bringing up children were laid down by the parents themselves, so, of course, they complacently think they are quite capable of rearing children properly. But many parents need training quite as much as the children. And many a young boy or girl whose life is wrecked is primarily not to blame for it. The real cause lies not with his or her willfulness or deception, but with the parents, who lacked the training that fitted them to guide the lives of others.

"Has Helen drunk her hot water this morning?" asks Helen's father. Helen hesitates and gives a shrewd glance at her mother. And the mother, because she knows Helen dislikes the hot water and that the practice is only a fad with the father, says, "Yes." In later years Helen's mother tearfully wonders how Helen can deceive her so. "I'll admit I have spoiled her," says Helen's mother, explaining to a trained nurse Helen's willfulness. And, having said this, the mother complacently thinks it is all sufficient. But this explanation will not remove from the daughter's path all the trials and hardships and suffering that "spoiling" will entail. Even then she was suffering as the result of it. And if Helen ever does remedy it herself in later life it will only be through years of earnest effort and much sorrow.

Interest the Boy.

Give him a plot of his own in the garden, or, lacking space here, perhaps there is an available space just over the back fence or in a vacant lot close by your home where the small lad can dig away to his heart's content, plant some vegetable seed and reap the profits from his efforts in due season.

The idea does not make an instant appeal to the small boy at first, but persuade him to stick at it for a few days or a week, and it will soon hold attractions that will get him out early in the morning to do his digging.

Lettuce, parsley, radishes, string beans, scullions, bush lima beans, beets, corn and tomatoes may all be raised with little skill, and if he is successful with his little garden patch he will find a ready market for the produce among the neighbors after giving mother the equivalent to the cost of the seeds, plants and implements.

Such an occupation is not only a source of health, but it encourages the boy in industrious ways.

An Outdoor Game.

A splendid way to get children out doors is to get them interested in the "architect." A stony vacant lot or open field is the playground, and the children vie with one another in gathering large pebbles, with them making "good size" bungalow plans upon the ground. This done, the pebble plans become make believe houses for the little folks to play in. Children seem to keep up interest in this simple game for months.

THE MAELSTROM.

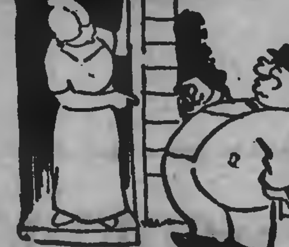
Tides and Winds Cause the Whirl and the Hole in the Sea.

"What of the maelstrom that is between two of the Loffoden islands, off the coast of Norway? Where the water sinks there must be a subterranean passage or an outlet farther north," writes a correspondent.

In answer we reply that there is no opening in the ocean's floor. The whirling motion is caused by tides and winds. The water rushes in channels between the islands, whose configuration aids in twisting. The current runs during six hours from north to south and then six hours from south to north. This reversal and friction against rocks set up the whirling motion. "Suction through a hole in the bottom of the sea" does not exist. Winds in from the ocean when in the right direction increase the rotation of the water which, in the center of the whirl, is about twenty fathoms in depth, but just west of the straits the soundings show depths of from 100 to 200 fathoms.

Many modern ships, in the absence of winds, have traversed the troubled wastes, but they keep away when the wind is blowing against the changeable currents, especially at high tide, when the danger is very great. Many fables regarding the maelstrom have been handed down from ancient times, from medieval also, and moderns still invent them. Of course ships have been wrecked there as well as elsewhere.—New York American.

Driven to It.



"I hear that you have adopted a baby, Mr. Green."

"Yes."

"But what led you to take such a step at your time of life?"

"Because I got so blamed tired of hearing my friends tell all the smart things their babies say."

COLOSSAL JUPITER

A Wonderful World That Has Not Yet Solidified.

THE GIANT OF OUR PLANETS.

It Would Require Thirteen Hundred Earths Rolled Into One to Equal In Size This Seething but Slowly Cooling and Contracting Globe.

It is probable that all the millions of suns constituting the universe have their planets, but the only planets we can see are those belonging to our sun, and of these Jupiter is the chief. It would take 1,300 earths to make one Jupiter. Put a big jack marble, about an inch in diameter, beside an ordinary school globe ten or twelve inches in diameter and you will see how small the earth would look if placed beside Jupiter.

The surface of Jupiter is about 120 times as extensive as that of the earth. If we suppose it covered with continents and oceans of the same shape and relative size as those of the earth we can make some interesting comparisons between distances on Jupiter and distances on the earth. For instance, the American continent between New York and San Francisco is about 3,000 miles across. On Jupiter it would be about 33,000 miles across. The Pacific ocean stretched to the scale of Jupiter would be 120,000 miles broad, and the swiftest ship yet built driven continually at top speed would require six weeks to cross it.

If the city of New York occupied the same relative space on Jupiter that it does on the earth it would be 175 miles long from the Battery to Yonkers line, equal to the actual distance between New York and Baltimore. Everything would be stretched in similar proportions. The avenues would be a thousand feet wide and office buildings several thousand feet high. The height of the Metropolitan tower would be nearly a mile and a half.

One naturally thinks of the inhabitants. Would they be constructed on the same Brobdingnagian scale? If they were, an ordinary man on Jupiter would be about sixty feet tall. Some of the big Broadway policemen might measure seventy feet in their stockings.

But a man seventy feet tall would on the earth weigh at least 200,000 pounds, while on Jupiter, where the force of gravity is more than two and a half times as great as on the earth (2.65), his weight would be 530,000 pounds!

This is evidently more than flesh and blood could bear, and, accordingly, it has generally been assumed that the inhabitants of immense worlds like Jupiter (if there be any) must be smaller instead of larger than those of the earth, for otherwise they could not even stand erect. If we suppose the proportion of size to be inverse to that of the force of attraction, or the gravity, then an average inhabitant of Jupiter ought to be but little more than two feet tall.

These considerations, however, do not affect the area of the geographical features of the planet; but, on the contrary, they make it possible to calculate for Jupiter an almost incredible population. If Jupiter had continents of the same relative size as ours, containing the same number of inhabitants per unit area, it could hold, without being any more crowded than the earth, a hundred and eighty thousand million inhabitants. But if the inhabitants were mere dwarfs the number might be increased to a thousand thousand millions without straining the productive energies of the planet to maintain them.

These calculations have been given merely in order to make the size of Jupiter as compared with the earth more strikingly apparent and not because there is any reason to think that Jupiter actually has any continents or oceans or any inhabitants resembling men and women. The fact is that Jupiter appears to be a globe which has not yet solidified. It is, as I have said, 1,300 times larger than the earth, but it is only 316 times heavier, which shows that its mean density is only about a quarter of that of the earth. As far as the telescope shows Jupiter is an enormous globe of clouds, without anything solid about it. There may be a solid nucleus, but if so it cannot be seen.

Jupiter is a planet that is cooling off and contracting and getting ready to solidify and to receive the gifts that are bestowed in due time upon all newborn worlds which are intended to support inhabitants. To watch it with a telescope, to see its vast clouds boil and gyrate and change their hues and its four moons run rapidly around it, as in play, throwing their shadows on its broad surface and darting into and out of the mighty cone of invisible darkness that it projects into space behind it—moons whose motions will be studied with all the eagerness of a new felt thirst for knowledge when Jupiter shall have become the abode of intellectual life—this is to peer behind the scenes of creation and to discover the true place of the earth in the evolution of worlds.—Garrett P. Serviss in New York American.

Don't Need Accident Insurance

There is no excuse for refusing to take out Accident Insurance as common as the one that the prospect "Don't Need it."

The average man thinks he never exposes himself to hazards that invite accidents.

Here are some of the illuminating facts in regard to the hazards of ordinary lives.

Is he the man who never goes anywhere, always remains at home? Whereabouts at home does he remain to escape danger? Inside the house? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents nearly 14 per cent occur inside the house. Is he safe there? Hardly.

While at home around the house, amid scenes of peace, is he free from danger? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 13 per cent are met with amid these peaceful surroundings.

Is he safe while walking the streets? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 16 per cent are met with by pedestrians. Hardly safe is he while walking!

A fraction of over 18 per cent of every one hundred injurious accidents are attributable to horses and vehicles. Nearly 7 per cent are attributable to Automobiles and Bicycles. Railroad and Steamship travel are not especially to be commended for possessing elements of safety as these contribute 14 per cent of every one hundred.

Even while engaged in recreation he is not safe, as its quota amounts to nearly 8 per cent of every hundred. There is only one place where a man is not liable to meet with injurious accidents, and that is—the grave. Sleeping there he is in no danger.

The above shows that everyone needs protection against Accident, and this protection can be obtained at a nominal cost by applying to

PASSED STOLEN BILLS.

Man and Woman May Be Implicated in Western Robbery.

Toronto, Aug. 12.—After a search lasting more than a month for the man who during that period has been passing bills that were stolen in the New Westminster robbery of the Bank of Montreal, the Toronto detective force had their efforts rewarded by a capture Saturday night.

The man, known by the name of Walter Davis, alias Walsh, is charged with being one of the gang who perpetrated the daring daylight bank robbery in New Westminster in September last when the Bank of Montreal lost three hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

The arrest occurred on Saturday night in the rotunda of the Palmer House. A visit to the hotel later in the evening resulted in the arrest there of a woman going under the name of Alice Davis, alias Walsh, who claims to be the prisoner's wife.

Missing Bank of Montreal bills to the extent of $2,020 were found in possession of the two prisoners. In addition, bank bills other than those of the Bank of Montreal, but believed to have been obtained in exchange for some part of the stolen money, brought the total amount found in the possession of the two up to $9,225.

About a month ago the Toronto detective department learned that a number of the Bank of Montreal bills that had been taken in the New Westminster robbery were being circulated in Toronto. Detective Tipton was detailed to the case, and he obtained from the head office of the bank at Montreal a list of the numbers and series of the lost notes. These lists were distributed among a number of the Toronto hotels, tobacconists, druggists and other places where much money is handled daily, and where an attempt might be made to pass some of the stolen money.

Shortly after the authorities heard from McKinney's Hotel, Front and Jarvis streets. They reported that a man bought a drink there and passed one of the stolen Bank of Montreal notes, but that he had immediately left on getting the change without waiting to finish his drink. This immediately aroused the suspicion of the detectives, but the authorities were unable to locate him and it was feared that he had left the city. The description given of this man does not tally with that of the man arrested.

Encouraged, the detectives distributed a much larger number of the lists of the stolen bills among the hotels and merchants of the city.

Attacks Bonar Law.

London, Aug. 12.—Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, in a long letter issued last night for publication in to-day's newspapers, makes a passionate attack upon A. Bonar Law, denouncing in the strongest language the Opposition leader's incitement of Ulster to resist home rule.

Mr. Churchill compares Mr. Bonar Law's doctrines to those of Ben Tillett on Tower Hill, when the strike leader prayed with thousands of dock strikers that "God strike Lord Devonport dead." Mr. Churchill declares that such doctrines disqualify the Conservative leader and those who support him from the discharge of official responsibilities and are doctrines by which every lawless or disruptive movement in any part of the Empire can be justified and from whichever street bully with brickbat and every crazy fanatic fumbling with a pistol may derive inspiration.

ANCIENT BOOKS.

Rare Relics of Bygone London Are on Exhibition.

Many curious English books and broadsides are now on exhibition at the Stationers' Hall, London, where Lord Balcarres opened an extensive exhibition arranged by the International Association of Antiquarian Booksellers. Our ancestors, it seems, were always being kept up to their duties by royal proclamations and appeals, so excellently printed that Lord Crawford has been able to lend a large number on this occasion. Thus, in 1660, two books written by Jno. Milton were called in and suppressed by the King. For they were said to contain "sundry treasonable passages against Us and Our Government, and most injurious endeavors to justify the horrid and unmatchable murder of our late dear Father." Now, Milton had "fled or obscured himself," and so all copies were to be delivered up to mayors or district officers within 10 days; otherwise they would be seized and the names of the offenders notified to the King. All copies seized or delivered up were to be publicly burnt.

In 1673, again, the King was extremely annoyed by the conduct of people at his London theatres. "Divers persons," he said, "do rudely press, and with evil language and blows, force their way into our theatres—the Theatre Royal, Bridges St., and Duke's Theatre, Dorset Garden—without paying the prices established." So he commanded that the money be paid in every case in advance, and that the doorkeepers should insist on seeing the ticket of those who enter. Nor would he allow people to sit on the stage any longer. "'Tis impossible," he complained, "to command those vast engines which move the scenes and machines, if any but those who belong thereunto be suffered to press in amongst them," and he ordained that in future no person of whatsoever quality might presume to stand or sit on the stage or come within any part of the scenes. The attendant soldiers were to execute his orders in the matter, and no doubt they proved very efficient "chuckers-out."

The Fire of London naturally produced a crop of such appeals. Plate, money, jewels, household stuff, goods, merchandise, and building materials were being purloined from the ruins. So the King ordered that "the finding of any goods thus exposed shall not excuse any person, who shall wilfully and feloniously take them, from the penalties of the law, and even from that of loss of life." All goods previously taken in ignorance had to be returned within eight days to the Armoury in Finsbury Fields. Another "Great Fire" broadside proclaims a general fast in "England, Wales and the town of Barwick-on-Tweed. Wednesday, Oct. 10, is to be set apart to implore the mercies of God, upon pain of incurring the utmost severities of the law, and in all churches and chapels collections for the sufferers by the Fire are to be made, and then sent up to London to be administered by the Lord Mayor and the Bishop of London."

In 1626, again, he is found complaining of the smuggling of tobacco. "The immoderate desire of taking tobacco," he proclaims, "has so far prevailed in this our kingdom so that it cannot of a sudden be suppressed, and the difference (or at least the opinion of difference) between Spanish or foreign tobacco and tobacco from the plantations of Virginia and of our own Dominions, is such that our subjects can hardly be induced totally to forsake the Spanish tobacco, which is secretly brought in in large quantities." Therefore he restricts Spanish imported tobacco to 50,000 pounds weight to be delivered at the Port of London. It is not only the history of English printing between 1477 and 1800 which is illustrated by the present exhibition, with its Caxtons, Wynkyn de Wordes, Pynsons, Richard Fields, and other exemplary impression of books, but the history of the customs and lives of our remote ancestors.

A New Anaesthetic.

The abolition of pain resulting from injury or operation is promised if the new anaesthetic process described in The London Lancet fulf[illegible] discoverer's claim.

Dr. F. W. Forbes Ro[illegible] announces in The Lancet, and from the fact that it receives publicity in that Conservative publication, the claim of Dr. Ross may be considered to have received orthodox approval. Moreover, Dr. Ross has met the professional requirements by giving his discovery to the public.

Speaking of the new boon to humanity Dr. Ross said:

"What I wish to make known is the discovery of the wide application of a prolonged local anaesthetic of incalculable value to humanity. I know, and I wish the world to know how to kill pain following the severest bodily injury from accident, or during and after the severest surgical operations.

"By the use of this anaesthetic it is possible to-day for a surgeon to guarantee to a patient freedom of pain after an accident or following an operation. I have found an absolutely harmless and non-poisonous antidote to physical pain and shock, and this antidote can be used without the least fear of local or general detriment to the sufferer."

Thumbs In Social Customs.

Few persons realize how important a role the thumb has played in the social customs of the people. Erskine records that among certain classes of people in Scotland the final settlement of a bargain was always signalized by the licking and joining of thumbs. Selden says that kissing the thumb was a characteristic of servility. The clergy, the rich and the great were in receipt of this honor from tradesmen. From remote times the practice of licking the thumb has been regarded as a solemn pledge or promise, existing, according to Tacitus and others, among the Goths, the Iberians and the Moors, and it may also be traced through successive periods down to the present time.

PRIESTS ARE PUNISHED

Fathers of St. Marie College Scattered Among Dioceses.

Letter Is Read In Churches Announcing the Verdict of Highest Roman Catholic Court That the College Project Must Be Abandoned, and Its Sponsers Do Penance For Flagrant Rebellion Against Authority.

Montreal, Aug. 12.—Events moved rapidly yesterday in the struggle between the priests of the Ste. Marie Monnoir College at St. John's, and the ecclesiastical authorities who interdicted them for refusing to remove their institution from that town and return to the diocese of Ste. Hyacinthe, where they were located under Bishop Bernard's jurisdiction some years ago, before a disastrous fire destroyed their buildings and caused them to decide in favor removing to some more favorable site.

Yesterday a letter from the Sacred Consistorial Congregation at Rome, a court of last resort, was read in all the churches throughout the diocese of Montreal and Ste. Hyacinthe, preceded by a brief joint episcopal note from Archbishop Bruchesi and Bishop Bernard, fully supporting the rulings of the two prelates, rulings which were supported by the apostolic delegate at Ottawa, and condemning in the most severe terms the priests who have opposed their ecclesiastical superiors.

Following this, an authoritative announcement was given out that the priests had decided to submit to the ruling of the holy see; that the Mr. Edward, whose claims against the college had resulted in the civil court order, declaring that the priests must not leave St. Johns until these claims had been duly settled, had agreed to accept $56,000, permitting the priests to go where they chose, and that the priests, following their submission would be rehabilitated and their suspension lifted.

The college will be abandoned and the priests scattered among other dioceses in other capacities. This will leave the field at St. Johns open for Archbishop Bruchesi's educational institution.

The letter from the consistorial college refers to the petition of the priests, dated July 11, against the decrees of Archbishop Bruchesi, Bishop Bernard and the apostolic delegate, and declares absolutely against the pretensions of the priests. The decision was unanimous and it was afterwards confirmed by his holiness the pope.

The letter (translated from the Latin text), continues in part as follows:

"Following this decision, the priests must be considered suspended in all places," and referring in particular to the necessity of their abandoning their college, says:

"As such a prolonged and stubborn resistance on the part of these priests to the orders of their bishops, to the sentences duly and legitimately accorded, and even to the notices and commands of the holy see is a thing absolutely condemnable — and as on the other hand they have resorted to futile pretexts, which they themselves could have avoided, in order to refuse obedience, it follows therefore that these priests must be considered in absolute rebellion against the legitimate authority of the church, and as such absolutely unworthy of having the education of children committed to their care by the faithful of the church."

The letter concludes: "And only after a suitable penance for the very grave scandal caused to the faithful and after manifesting signs of repentance for their sins, shall they be rehabilitated in the exercise of their holy ministry."

The bishops are also told to warn the priests that if they persist in their attitude, they will incur even greater punishment.

Want Better Schools.

Montreal, Aug. 12.—Active preparations are being made for a week's educational campaign to be undertaken throughout the English-speaking sections of Quebec, under the auspices of the Protestant committee of the council of public education. This movement is non-sectarian and non-political, and it is being joined in by the various religious leaders, the political leaders and the educational authorities of each district, where meetings will be held, and in this way it is hoped that the campaign will prove of real and lasting benefit in bringing home to the people of the various counties the need of a better educational system, and especially the necessity of spending more money so as to secure a better qualified class of teachers.

Belleville Factory Burned.

Belleville, Aug. 12.—On Saturday afternoon this city was visited by a disastrous fire, which destroyed a large sash and blind factory owned by Ald. Alford of this city, and operated by C. F. Mills and J. Peck.

A large quantity of manufactured articles were burned, also much lumber piled in the yards.

Other buildings close were damaged, including the new armories, the roof of which was damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars. The loss of the factory and contents is estimated at about $20,000. The proprietor had but $1,200 insurance, and Peck & Mills $1,600 on contents.

Borden Visits "Bobs."

London, Aug. 12—The Canadian Premier has spent the week-end with Lord Roberts. His last two public engagements will be receiving the freedom of the city of Glasgow, in recognition of his services to the Dominion, and attending the launch of the new steamer of the Canadian-Australian line on Friday, when it is hoped that Mrs. Borden will perform the christening ceremony.

Wheat harvesting in Saskatchewan will begin towards the end of week.

OLD SHEFFIELD PLATE.

None Made Now Even In England by the Ancient Method.

"Old Sheffield plate" is not manufactured in England at the present time—at least not the real old article in the real old way. The method formerly used was to braze or weld a thin sheet of silver on either side of a thicker sheet of copper and then to roll this combined metal to a sheet of the thickness required, which would result in a sheet of copper coated on both sides with an actual surface of silver.

The process of electroplating is much cheaper and quicker and has superseded the old method to such an extent that articles manufactured by the old process would now cost quite as much as the same articles in sterling silver. In some parts of England, the United States consul at Sheffield says in Consular and Trade Reports, unscrupulous manufacturers do not hesitate to produce copies of old patterns by the electroplating process and then palm them off on unsuspecting purchasers as genuine.

A Sheffield company successfully prosecuted two leading dealers in the United Kingdom for selling this imitation ware as "old Sheffield plate," and it has been decided by the courts that the term "old Sheffield plate" means articles made from metal consisting of silver fused upon copper and not copper electroplated and that any dealer applying the term "old Sheffield plate" to an article made in any other way than by the fusing process is guilty of fraudulent description and may be proceeded against.

There is any quantity of electroplate made which would be entitled to the name of "Sheffield plate." The decisions of the courts referred to have particular reference to the term "old Sheffield plate," which today is the only safe description under which to buy plate if one expects to secure genuine examples of the old process.

MODERN WAX CANDLES.

Most of Them Are Made From Ozocerite, a Mineral Product.

It is a mistake to assume that in these days of electricity, gas and oil the wax candle has been practically discarded. Large numbers of them are today manufactured and sold.

It should be added, however, that the wax candle is now very different from the article of olden times. Formerly many such candles were made of beeswax, but aside from the fact that these are now occasionally used in churches the bee plays no part in the manufacture of present day wax candles. The principal ingredient employed is ozocerite, a mineral wax obtained from the earth at depths varying from 400 to 600 feet.

In our own country this mineral wax is mined in California and in Utah. In Europe it is found in Wales, Roumania and Galica.

Ozocerite in its natural state appears in translucent dark brown thin films, which on being refined resemble beeswax.

The wax mines situated in Galicia present some features of curious interest. The entire wax fields are only fifty acres in extent, but more than a thousand shafts have been sunk in that limited area, and nearly 10,000 men are at work there.

The veins of the mineral are frequently sixteen inches thick, and it is dug with shovels and hoisted from the shafts by windlasses.

Many uses are made of this wax besides molding it into candles, and fortunes have been made by the men interested in these strange mines, the value of the crude product being about 8 cents a pound at the mouth of the mine.—New York Tribune.

Four White Fetlocks.

In France in former times a horse that possessed four white stockings had the privilege of being free from toll. There is a passage in one of the works of Frederick Mistral, the famous poet of Provence, to the following effect: "By the rule of the road there was an old custom, which was respected by all, that the carter whose leader had four white stockings, whether going uphill or downhill, had the right not to leave the road—that is, the narrow paved part when the rest was in a bad state—and thus arose the proverb, 'Who has four white feet can pass everywhere.'"

Dickens' Tip to Andersen.

It is told of Dickens that he once chanced on this Persian proverb: "When the shah's horses were being shod the beetle stretched out his leg." Immediately he sent it to his friend Hans Christian Andersen, saying: "Here is a subject made to your hand. Write a story on this theme." And Andersen sat down and wrote the famous story, "The Beetle Goes on His Travels."—Woman's Home Companion.

CORSICAN IS NOT GOING ON HER INTENDED VOYAGE

Injured Liner Remains in the Vicinity of Belle Isle and The Lake Champlain Stands by in Case of Need.

Montreal, Aug. 14.—The last report issued by the signal service at 11 p.m. last night states that the Allan liner Corsican, which was injured in a collision with an iceberg at 4 o'clock on Monday, is still in the same position, 120 miles east of Belle Isle, and has not proceeded at all since the accident. The Lake Champlain has not continued her journey and is still standing by the injured vessel. The fog is less dense than it has been in the vicinity of the vessels.

No further word from Captain Cook has been announced from the Allan Line offices since his message of the morning which said that the vessel was only slightly injured above the water line and was making no water and that she would proceed to Liverpool as soon as the fog lifted.

The continued presence of the Lake Champlain beside the injured ship, and the fact that the vessel is not proceeding at all, has given rise to some anxiety among shipping experts here.

Look-Out Man Saw Berg.

Montreal, Aug. 14.—The Allan Line office here yesterday morning received a further message from Captain E. Cook of the Corsican, which collided with an iceberg in the Straits of Belle Isle Monday, in which he gives more details of the accident.

Captain Cook says that the look-out man saw the berg and the engines were at once reversed. However, a collision occurred, though the impact was slight, as the Corsican was traveling very slowly when she struck.

The Corcisan, her master said, was slightly damaged above the water line, but would be able to proceed to Liverpool, her destination, without assistance. Information to this effect had been sent to boats making for the Corsican. Nobody was injured in the collision.

GENERAL BOOTH CRITICALLY ILL

Veteran Salvationist Asks Those Who Love Him to Pray For Him.

London, Aug. 4.—The condition of General William Booth, the commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, who was operated on in May last for the removal of a cataract from his left eye, and who is now totally blind, is growing worse. Bramwell Booth, chief of staff of the Salvation Army, and a son of the aged Salvationist, prints the following announcement in The War Cry, the Salvation Army organ:

"I deeply regret to say that our beloved general is not so well. His doctor reports: 'I regret that the improvement in the general's health has not been maintained.'

"The general's heart is not strained and if only his sleep were restored he would quickly regain much that is now in danger of being lost. The general, speaking of his own weakness and pain last Saturday, said, 'Ask the people who love me to pray for me'."

HORSE SHOW AT COBOURG

Peterborough Owners Carry off Some of the Prizes.

Cobourg, Aug. 14.—Never before in the eight successful years of the Cobourg Horse Show Association, has the indefatigable labor of its officers and committee been crowned with such success as at the great exposition that opened here yesterday. He would then issue loans in ten-dollar negotiable bonds to the public of Montreal and the province. These bonds could be used like bank notes.

SAME OLD TRICK TRIED IN HALTON

Farmers in the New Oil Region Approached by Swindlers.

Toronto, Aug. 14.—Two imitators of J. Rufus Wallingford are trying to work an out-and-out "skin game" among the farmers of Halton County, so the provincial police have been informed. Supt. Joseph Rogers issued a warning to farmers and descriptions of the two operators to the police of Ontario yesterday.

Oil was recently discovered in Halton County. Last week two men representing themselves as oil magnates called upon several farmers. They offered staggering sums for property and all the owners had to do was to sign an agreement to release the farms at a certain date for, say, $15,000 or $20,000, and probably the land was not worth any more than half the amount offered. These would-be swindlers had drawn up the agreement in such a way that they could make big money out of an unsuspecting farmer. After a farmer had signed the document the operators were able to tear off a corner of the paper and have in their possession a promissory note for any sum they wished, and the farmer's name was attached.

STEPMOTHER AND FATHER IN JAIL

Stratford, Aug. 14.—William Thos Bugg and Bertha Bugg, respectively father and stepmother of the five-year-old boy who was brought to the Children's Shelter a mere skeleton from alleged starvation, are now in jail here awaiting a hearing on the charge of neglecting their legal duty to provide the necessities of life.

The parents are on the customary eight days' remand, and will probably appear in court in a day or so.

Will Close Brockville Church.

Brockville, Aug. 14.—At a meeting of officers and members of Calvary Baptist Church a resolution was passed disbanding the organization, consequent upon the closing of the ministry at the pastor, Rev. A. H. Barker, two weeks hence. The congregation was an offshoot of the first church, which split two years ago upon the retirement of Rev. S. J. Robin as pastor, his followers going with him and organizing a new church.

ATTORNEY WHITMAN GETS AID FROM NEW YORK BANKS

Financial Institutions Furnish a List of the Police Officers Who Have Large Sums on Deposit.

New York, Aug. 14.—Powerful banking interests, acting through the New York clearing house committee, came to the aid of District Attorney Whitman yesterday in his efforts to lay bare the alleged corrupt alliance between the police and the gambling fraternity, founded on graft and blackmail. A virtual command was given by the committee yesterday to all banks in the clearing house to furnish the district attorney with a record of deposits they have received from any of the high police officials whom the district attorney suspects of having been a collector of blackmail from the disorderly element of the city.

As a result, records showing that within the last eight months Police Lieut. Charles Becker, charged with the murder of Herman Rosenthal and accused of gambling graft, has made bank deposits of $58,845 in his own name or that of his wife, were placed in the hands of the public prosecutor.

These deposits, the records show, were first made in November, 1911, shortly after Becker became head of the strong arm squad of gambling raiders, and continued all during the time that Jack Rose says he was collecting graft for Becker and until after his arrest.

The district attorney has been promised records of Becker's deposits in four other banks, which did not have time to go over their accounts yesterday, and he has also discovered that Becker has an unknown amount of stocks, bonds and other securities locked up in two separate safe deposits vaults. That the total value of the police lieutenant's assets will be found to approximate $200,000 would be no surprise to the district attorney. Becker's salary as a police lieutmenant was only $2,250 a year.

It became known last night that the district attorney is holding for presentation to the grand jury in due time evidence by which he expects to convict four police inspectors on the charge of collecting blackmail from gambling houses and disorderly resorts. Thus far the state's investigators have uncovered bank accounts of two of them totaling $75,000. The prosecutor expects, however, with the aid of the clearing house officers, to unearth the bank accounts of all but four of them, which are expected to disclose some surprisingly large fortunes, in one case an accumulation of nearly a million dollars.

Schepps Spirited Away.

Hot Springs, Ark., Aug. 14.—Sam Schepps held here as a material witness in the Rosenthal murder case has been hid by federal officers to whom he was given into custody last evening. After holding him three day, the time limit of the law, the police turned him over to Fred Johnson, postmaster and deputy United States marshal, and Johnson declines to say where Schepps has been taken.

He announces that he will resign unless an adequate response appears before next September.

STREWN WITH DEAD

Streets of Mexican City Filled With Bodies of the Slain.

Mexico City, Aug. 14.—Two hundred dead were lying in the streets of Ixtapa last night after Genefevo de la O's band of Zapatistas halted on its march to Toluca, the capital of the state of Mexico, only 15 miles north. The town was garrisoned by about 100 rurales.

Fighting occurred around Tenancino earlier in the day and the six hundred federals quartered there defeated the rebels. The latter then concentrated their efforts on the smaller garrison of rurales at Ixtapa. At the end of the fight all the rurales were dead and the total of 200 included many of the townspeople as well as Zapatistas. The rurales fought desperately.

The spoils taken include 14,000 rounds of ammunition. The town was looted.

Sentenced to Prison.

Cairo, Egypt, Aug. 14.—The trial of three youths who were arrested on July 2 for being concerned in a plot to assassinate Viscount Kitchener, the British agent and consul-general in Egypt, took place yesterday and resulted in all of them being found guilty.

One was sentenced to 15 years' hard labor, while the other two were sent to prison for 15 years without hard labor.

It was stated during the hearing that the reading of seditious literature had incited them to the conspiracy.

CONGRESS CARRIES WOOL BILL OVER MR. TAFT'S VETO

Twenty-one Republicans Bolted and Voting With the Democrats Secured the Required Two-thirds Majority

Washington, Aug. 14.—By the narrow margin of five votes the House yesterday passed the wool tariff revision bill over President Taft's veto. The vote, 174 to 80, was made possible only by the defection of 21 Republicans, who voted with the Democrats. The announcement of Democratic success created a wild scene in the House and amid great confusion the Republican leaders protested that Speaker Clark must count as voting ten members who answered "Present" to their names, a ruling which would have defeated the Democratic program by overcoming the five-vote margin and making impossible the recording of the necessary two-thirds vote of the House. This the Speaker declined to do.

Less than an hour after the wool bill had been repassed in the House, the conferees on the sugar tariff bill met and disagreed. This action is expected to mark the end of sugar tariff consideraion in the present session.

While Democratic and Progressive leaders of the Senate do not believe the wool bill can be passed in that body over the Presidents veto, they will continue to demand for action on the cotton tariff measure. The vote on the wool bill came as a surprise to the Republican leaders of the House, When they discovered that defection from their ranks was to be expected, it was too late to prevent it.

Not in the memory of the oldest members of the House has a tariff measure ever been passed over the President's veto by the lower branch of Congress.

When Speaker Clark announced the vote and declared the bill again had been passed, "the President's veto to the contrary notwithstanding," there was a wild outburst of applause from the Democratic side. The tumult was increased by the demands of a half dozen Republicans that the ruling was unconstitutional. When a semblance of order was restored Representative Gardner of Massachusetts urged that the constitution provided that a two-thirds vote of the House was necessary and that the ten members voting "present" should be counted, for they had recorded their presence in the House, Representative Olmsted of Pennsylvania, one of the foremost Parliamentarians in Congress, supported the contention.

LIBRARIAN DEAD

Errol Bouchette Succumbs to Typhoid Fever at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Aug. 14.—Errol Bouchette, F.R.C.S., clerk of the Parliamentary library and one of the best-known of Canadian litterateurs, died yesterday afternoon at a local hospial from typhoid fever. He was in his 49th year and had been ill only a few days. Deceased was a son of the late R. S. M. Bouchette, one-time Canada's commissioner of customs, and was born in Quebec.

The late Mr. Bouchette was for many years actively connected with the Canadian press as editor and correspondent, being in charge of L'Electeur at Quebec for some time. He was a contributor to many papers and magazines and was actively connected with the work of the Royal Society of Canada, being secretary of the French section.

Montreal's Assessment $680,000,000.

Montreal, Aug. 14.—Reaching the enormous total of $680,000,000, the assessed valuation of Montreal property for the current year, shows an increase over the assessment of 1911 of $159,000,000. Deducting from this great total the exemptions of church property, civic and government holdings, the taxable property amounts to $495,000,000, while last year the total was $381,148,206.

FIREWORKS KILL FIVE ITALIANS

Auburn, N.Y., Aug. 14.—Five are dead as a result of explosion of dangerous fireworks which were being prepared in the Italian colony yesterday morning for a celebration of the Feast of the Assumption by the congregation of the Church of St. Francis di Assissi. The dead are: Cosimo D. Carmelengo, of Fairview, N.J., manager of the fireworks, and Mrs. Mary Cheche and three children, Emma, 11; Armando, 9; and Carmela, 7. Fire Marshall Coneybear is positive that prohibited explosives were used and found a strange bomb in the ruins. The dead were killed outright and fragments of the bodies were found in many places.

Men and Twine From U. S.

Winnipeg, Aug. 14.—Hot and clear weather throughout the Canadian West sees harvesting very general to-day. Much new wheat is on the market and generally graded higher than usual.

The binder twine famine is almost as acute as the labor scarcity, but men and twine are being rushed in from the United States.

Mayor Gave Life For Fiancee.

Lanigan, Sask., Aug. 14.—Miss Elsie McFarlane is in a critical condition to-day as the result of her narrow escape and the death by drowning in Watrous Lake, near here, of Mayor R. L. Hood of Lanigan, to whom she was to be married to-day.

Mayor Hood dived into the water and succeeded in reaching the girl and supporting her until help arrived. He was so exhausted that he sank when Miss McFarlane was lifted into a boat which came to their rescue.

STOLEN BILLS FOUND IN LONDON

Some of the Missing Funds of New Westminster Bank Turn Up.

London, Ont., Aug. 14.—Are members of the gang who are connected with the bank robbery in New Westminster last February working quietly in this city distributing part of the "swag," as is being done in Toronto?

Some of the bankers are inclined to think that such is the case for since the report in yesterday afternoon's Free Press, to the effect that a $10 bill of the stolen money had been turned into the Bank of Montreal, several other bills have been passed in the receiving teller of the Bank of Toronto, while going through a deposit of one of the bank's regular customers, discovered two five-dollar bills, which were among the stolen money. He immediately notified the Bank of Montreal in this city, which in turn communicated with the Toronto authorities and they were instructed to send the bills to Toronto at once.

London detectives are of the opinion that the ten-dollar Bank of Montreal bill which turned up in London, one of those stolen from the New Westminster branch of the bank, came in from some other place and was not passed here at all.

The bill in question came to the Bank of Montreal here from the Molsons Bank. The Molsons Bank receives all the American money which is taken in by the Michigan Railroad Co. and forwards it to Detroit, while the Canadian money collected in that city is forwarded to the branch here. Therefore it would be quite possible, Detective Egelston thinks, that the bill could have been presented at any place on the Michigan Central line.

It is the opinion of the detectives that no one in London had anything to do with it.

WELLAND'S SCANDAL

Attorney General's Department Takes a Hand in the Case.

Welland, Aug. 14.—Yesterday's hearing of the impersonation charges lodged against Samuel B. Morris of Buffalo, in connection with the voting in the Hydro-electric bylaw, marked the first appearance of the forces of the Attorney-General's Department in the case.

Four charges were read and in each case M. Macoomb declined to plead, while in each case Mr. Bayly asked for enlargement until Tuesday, Aug. 20.

Morris broke down as he was being led back to the cells.

WILL RESIST BILL SAYS BONAR LAW

London, Aug. 14.—Mr. Bonar Law in a letter to the press has lost no time in replying to Mr. Winston Churchill's onslaught.

After asserting that such a charge as the First Lord of the Admiralty made might with some plausibility have been directed against Mr. Churchill's father, who held that Ulster would be justified in resisting home rule by force, the leader of the Opposition accuses the Government of having, by a course of political trickery, manoeuvred itself into a position in which it thinks it can carry home rule not only without the consent but against the will of the majority of the electors of the United Kingdom.

Mr. Bonar Law concludes by saying that if the Government attempts without first obtaining the sanction of the electors, to drive Ulster out of the union, the attempt will be resisted not only by the loyalists in Ireland, but by an overwhelming majority of the people of Great Britain. But he says the attempt will not be made.

Detective Coming For Davis.

Vancouver, Aug. 14.—J. G. Fraser, San Francisco manager of the Pacific division of the Pinkerton Detective Agency, and Constable Tom Walker of New Westminster, left yesterday for Toronto to bring back Davis and his wife, who are charged in connection with the Bank of Montreal robbery.

LIVER LAZINESS

Those Who Lack Energy and are Unsuccessful Should Read This Closely.

"I am only thirty years old, yet for almost two years I have felt more like seventy-five. I have found it difficult to sleep at night and in the morning feel so depressed and heavy that effort was difficult. My hands were always clammy and perspiration on slight effort would break out all over me. It was not unnatural that I should begin to brood over the chance that I should soon be unfit to do my work, and this dread made my sleepless nights perfect misery. After repeated trials of medicine and mixtures Dr. Hamilton's Pills gave me the first gleam of hope. From the very first I could see they were different in action from other pills. They didn't gripe and acted as naturally as if nature and not the pills were cleansing my clogged up system. My spirits rose, I felt much better, the sluggish action of the system gave way to normal activity. Dizziness and headaches ceased, appetite, good color, and ambition to work returned and have remained. I am like a new man and I thank Dr. Hamilton's Pills for it all."

This was the experience of J. E. Parkhurst, a well-known grocery dealer in Jefferson. Follow his advice, use Dr. Hamilton's Pills for your stomach, kidneys, and liver, and you'll enjoy long life and robust good health. All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills, in yellow boxes, 25c. per box, from The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

YELLOW AID FOR ROOSEVELT

The Montreal Witness says— "The Roosevelt policy runs so closely on the Hearst lines that it is expected by some that the Hearst papers will be switched from Mr. Wilson and thrown into the Roosevelt column."

Mr. Hearst with his millions of money and his string of yellow journals, has long ceased to be regarded as an element of influence in any great public question in the American Republic. He has tried valiantly to force himself into recognition, but without avail. He has been tried in the balance and found waiting. His lurid sheets, every copy of which is suggestive of nothing so much as a contagious disease placard, may be read by the lovers of sensation and by those who gloat over the morbid details of scandal either in public or private life, but in the problems of the day their united voice is refused serious hearing.

Mr. Hearts's millions, backed by the frenzied clamor of his publications, could not buy for him the Democratic nomination for president some years ago, the mayoralty of New York, or the governorship of that state. Thwarted in his ambitious, Mr. Hearst turned sulky after the manner of Roosevelt and formed a party of his own. Here again his money and his journals availed not, and the new party failed in obtaining either a foothold in the arena of politics or serious thought from the organization it was designed to overthrow.

We can all remember how Mr. Hearst, during the reciprocity campaign last fall, flooded Canada with free copies of his papers and how much the violent language and flaring statements to be found in the saffron journals, defeated the scheme which Mr. Hearst held of so much moment to his own country. Any party, even that headed by the disgruntled Roosevelt, is safer and gains in reputation without the extravagant support which Mr. Hearst may tender.

CONQUERING NATURE

C. W. Post, of Battle Creek, Mich., is seeking relaxion from his long years of arduous labor in the invention and manufacture of breakfast foods which, if they possess no other merit, are at least harmless to the digestive organs of humanity. He now has entered upon a conflict with the forces of Nature by producing rain by artificial means, dynamite being the chief stock in trade required in the venture.

Mr. Post has a ranch in Texas, where by reason of frequent and prolonged drought, the hard-hearted earth, to use the language of the old time school book, lacking the rain's soft persuasion, frequently refuses to yield a single green blade. It was this circumstance that led Mr. Post into making wholesale purchases of dynamite and exploding quantities of it, creating within a radius of twenty miles a din so terrific and so persistently prolonged that the heavens were finally overcast and gave up moisture, offering of its stores, as it were, in exchange for peace and silence.

Elated with the victory, Mr. Post repeated his experiment on the outskirts of his home city in Michigan. Over two tons of explosives, distributed in three pound charges, at intervals of one-eighth of a mile were blasted into space, charge after charge in quick succession, until the very earth rocked and the affrighted populace trembled. For five long hours the battle raged until the clouds gathered and the rain descended, without the usual summer shower accompaniments of thunder and lightning. All this, too, was accomplished in the face of the prediction by the official weather maker of the United States that no rain would fall upon Battle Creek or its environs on the day the experiment was made.

With the instinct of the man who is seeking glory and advertising, Mr. Post claims originality in his new enterprise, but neither the principle or the application of the principle is new. Ever since the invention of artillery it has been observed that a prolonged battle, distinguished by heavy cannonading, is invariably followed by local showers. Artificial rainmaking along the same lines as those followed by the Battle Creek man was attempted in the arid regions of the southern and southwestern states, and the experimenters had the sanction and assistance of the government. The system, however, was finally abandoned. It was considered too costly, and any rain fall that resulted was entirely local in extent.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Good for the Hamilton reporters. Three of them ate candy to ascertain whether it contained poison, thus evincing the true spirit of journalistic enterprise.

The town of Bancroft, near Belleville, evidently knows a good thing when it is held before its eyes. It has decided to ask the Hydro-Electric for power.

A truck load of Dominion five dollar notes reached Toronto last Saturday. That must have been the day when the members of that high priced base-ball team received their wages.

The Toronto Star says the American statesmen have no conscience when they deal with the canal question. That's true enough, and moreover, if those statesmen ever did possess such an article, it was probably made of rubber or some other conveniently elastic substance.

One of the indicted Detroit aldermen staggers around under the family appellation of Sebrzycki. When the police court clerk is compelled to call upon the city father to stand up and plead, he gives vent, when he reaches the name to a sound like a sneeze and lets it go at that.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, Aug. 13.—There was a falling off in the enquiries for Manitoba spring wheat over the cable to-day, and foreign buyers were slow to advance their offers proportionately to the higher level of prices in Winnipeg. Bids were even more out of line than they have been recently—about two cents a bushel—and business consequently was at a standstill. There was another good enquiry for oats and a fairly active business was done at full prices. Flour is very quiet. Butter and cheese remain about the same, and quotations are unchanged. There was some demand from the west for butter, improving the situation in that respect, and a fairly active enquiry for cheese for export, with a fair amount of business reported.

How to Pack a Trunk.

A woman who is constantly traveling and yet who finds it most necessary to economize in space as well as in pennies has found the following plan for packing her one trunk a most excellent one: At the bottom of the trunk she has a partition made large enough to carry one large or two small hats. This is strongly made, so that it cannot easily be broken. At the side of this partition she places a wooden box filled with sawdust, in which are her bottles of medicine. Here, too, she lays her shoes, each pair carefully rolled in linen covers. On one set of shoes she puts her pair of rubbers, and inside the shoes she places her boxes of pills or powders which would not go into the box of medicine.

Then she has six or eight pieces of heavy cardboard cut to exactly fit the trunk. These she covers with linen or chintz, so that they look exactly like large envelopes, with straps or strings to fasten down the flaps. In these huge envelopes she pins her dresses, skirt waists, etc. Two or three dresses can usually be put in each envelope. Everything is kept absolutely flat, and nothing can be pushed to one end of the trunk when it is stood on end.

At the top of the trunk is a shallow tray, in which she puts her laces, ribbons, veils and gloves, etc. The underwear is rolled and placed around the edges of the trunk or is folded flat and laid between the envelopes.

Bathing Suit From Ball Gown.

An evening gown of white messaline was cleverly made into this dainty bathing suit. The skirt was widened with panels of striped taffeta, and the white messaline forms a bib over a bodice of the striped silk.

OF WHITE MESSALINE SILK.

For the Table.

An asbestos pad for the table may be made in this way: Get enough asbestos paper to cover the table with double thickness. From a couple of old sheets cut two pieces the size of the table. Baste the asbestos paper between them and quilt it on the sewing machine, using a long stitch. This is necessary, as the paper tears and pulls apart easily. Put this pad on the table, under your silence cloth, and there will be no marks made on the polished surface by hot dishes.

Kitchenettes.

Pewter is best cleaned by washing it with hot water, rubbing it with fine sand and when dry polishing it with leather.

Matting splinters easily when swept with a bare broom. To preserve it either clean it with a soft brush or cover the broom with a gray canton flannel bag.

Down to Earth.

"Sometimes I feel sure," said Bilkins, "that I once sat on a throne and waved a scepter."

"And now," remarked his cheery wife, "you are going to stand on the back porch and wave a rug beater."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

OLD ENGLISH EXECUTIONS.

Breakfast For the Guests Invited to See the Hanging.

Executions, when criminals were hanged in the Old Bailey in London, had certain customary sequels. The governor of Newgate, for instance, always gave a breakfast to those friends he had invited to see the hanging, and by established custom deviled kidneys always formed the principal dish, although, as John Hollingshead had related, nearly every one was obliged to swallow a glass of brandy first.

Another function described in "London In the Sixties" was the reception held afterward by the hangman at the Green Dragon, in Fleet street, where he took refreshment with his admirers and sold the fatal rope at the rate of sixpence per inch.

In the good old times nearly every criminal who was executed was credited with a confession and "last dying words," whether he uttered them or not. According to Case and Comment, these were printed in thousands by Mr. Catnach of Seven Dials. And sometimes an offender was reprieved on his way to Tyburn and had the pleasure, like Lord Brougham, of reading his own obituary notice.

Many of these broadsides, printed on a peculiar whitey brown paper, can still be obtained in the neighborhood of the Dials at certain quaint little shops that seem to have defied alike time and the "improvement acts." You can see them in the window alongside of old ballads, forgotten comic songs, children's toys and bottles of sticky looking sweets.

An execution which never came off was that of Edward Dennis, the public hangman, who in 1780 was sentenced to death for complicity in the Gordon riots. He was respited and resumed his occupation. So thoroughly did Dennis regain favor that in 1785 the sheriffs of London presented him with a gorgeous official robe "as a testimony to his excellent mode of performing business." Dennis found this robe not only inconvenient when at work, but rather conspicuous at other times, so he sold it to Old Cain, a well known charlatan of the day. Decked in the hangman's robe and a pasteboard crown the fortune teller cut an imposing figure.

EGYPT'S ANTIQUES.

Sterner Measures Have Been Made for the Smuggler.

The news that the Egyptian Government is bent upon preventing the commercial exploitation of the antiquities of the Nile Valley is welcome indeed, and the proposal to inflict heavier punishments upon the antica smuggler is a move in the right direction, says a writer in The Near East." There are, of course, vast quantities of spurious "antiques" manufactured in Egypt, and the export of such things can do no harm whatever—except to the purse of the luckless purchaser of the forged scarab, charm, figurine, or what not. But too many genuine treasures have already found their way out of the country into the cabinet of the private collector, and have thereby been lost to the scientific world. And any move that will tend to put a stop to such a state of affairs is to be encouraged.

It is not only the mere collector who indulges in the smuggling of antiquities. The scientist and archaeologist, it is to be feared, have quite often fallen a victim to temptation also. The European and American museums contain hundreds of specimens which have found their way out of the East by devious routes, and doubtless at the present moment there are hundreds more such specimens lying hidden away in museum storerooms until the day arrives when it will be "safe" for them to be put on exhibition. Considering the generous way in which the excavator is usually treated by the Department of Antiquities in Cairo and in Constantinople, too, this state of affairs is, it must be admitted, hardly creditable to Europe and America.

Sometimes the antiquity smuggler finds his lapse from virtue land him in a strange predicament. A case in point occurred some years ago to a certain well-known scholar who had been wintering in Egypt and had acquired, partly by excavating, partly by purchase, a very valuable collection of papyri. As the time drew near, the thought of passing his treasures through the Gizeh Museum became more and more distasteful to him, and eventually, alas! he succumbed to temptation. The bulk of the papyrus was packed in cases and duly forwarded to Gizeh, but some dozen of the choicest specimens were kept back, and, carefully pressed, were stowed away in his writing-case. The museum authorities treated him remarkably liberally, hardly any of his specimens were retained.

His cases were soon all sealed up and handed over to the forwarding agents, and he set off for Alexandria—it is to be feared with a light heart and conscience!—carrying his precious burden with him. Justice, however, was upon the smuggler's track, though in somewhat strange garb. Arrived safely at Alexandria, he hastened on board his steamer, and there, at last, with a sigh of relief, he deposited the writing-case on the cabin table with much other hand baggage. Leaving it there for a few minutes while he went off with a steward to see his state-room, he failed to find it on his return. And he has never seen it since. Indeed, he never cared to inquire after it too closely, fearing, not unnaturally, that he might be called upon to describe its contents!

Making Cheese In Olden Days.

Cheese was made by the old time farmers in the summer on the co-operative plan by which four cattle owners, owning, say, fourteen milk cows, received all the milk night and morning, according to the daily yield of their little herd. Thus given two families having five cows each, one with three and one with one, supposing that the average yield per cow was the same, in two weeks two owners would make five cheeses each; one would press three and one only one cheese, but this one would be as good and as large as any of the rest.—National Magazine.

Mrs. Marshall begs to acknowledge the beautiful and expressive floral tributes from friends and acquaintances and also from the following organizations—

We also beg to thank the following quartette for conducting the song service, Messrs. Fleming, Skitch, Lee and Huycke.

"We cannot, and we will not say
That he is dead; and he is just away,
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming, how very fair
It needs must be since he lingers there,
And you, Oh you; who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return
Think of him as faring on, as dear,
In the love of There as the love of here."

FAMOUS PICTURE TO BE EXHIBITED

"Shadow of the Cross" Will be Brought Here to Assist the Children's Aid Society.

Beginning Monday, Aug. 19th, the famous painting "The Shadow of the Cross," will be on display in this city for several days. The picture has a wonderful attraction throughout the world, and will be brought to Peterborough for the benefitr of the Children's Aid Society.

The location of the exhibition will be announced later.

The "Shadow of the Cross" was painted by Harruy Hammond Abe, in Sept. 1896, who, turning his attention to religious subjects, commenced painting a full length figure of Christ. At first he did not succeed in attaining his ideal. One day, however, the artist was suddenly impressed with the realization that he had at last conceived the idea sought. Immediately rising, he painted the wonderful countenance of Christ, which is shown in the painting.

Not long afterward, the artist having to go to his studio for some sheet music, was astonished to discover, on entering, that his picture could be distinctly seen in the dark, and that Christ appeared to be walking in the pale moonlight, while behind and above him could be seen a cross.

The picture was purchased by a Washington physician and taken to the capital city, where it was viewed by thousands. Scientists have tried every known means of explaining the wonderful phenomena, but without success. Recently it has been taken from city to city, and the proceeds from its exhibitions are always devoted to some charitable cause.

Further particulars regarding the appearance of the wonderful picture here will be announced later.

Instead of seeing ourselves as others see us, most of us would rather impress others as we see ourselves.

BUILDING HAS INCREASED

Permits for Peterboro Show Big Gain for July.

Peterborough increased $19,882 in the amount of building permits issued in July this year over the same month in 1911. Winnipeg issued the largest amount in permits in July; Toronto came next, and Vancouver leads in percentage increase.

MAYOR BRADBURN SENT A TELEGRAM THAT HELPED

Saskatoon Gets a Branch of the Quaker Oats—Peterboro Will Profit by Increased Advertising—The Name of This City to Appear on Every Package Turned Out by Western Factory.

Mayor Bradburn was not there, but his influence was felt. He sent a telegram to Saskatoon, at the request of the Industrial League in that city, in which he landed the Quaker Oats Company as a valuable adjunct to the commercial life of any city. Mayor Bradburn said in his dispatch—

Peterboro, Aug. 4 12

F. S Cahill,
Saskatoon, Sask.

Reply to telegram, Quaker Oats Company one of best manufacturers. This concern employs large number hands we have. Has greatly benefitted Peterboro'

W. H. BRADBURN,
Mayor.

This telegram was sent a few days before the people of Saskatoon voted on the proposition to grant concessions made the Quaker Oats people and to raise money for the purchase of a site for the proposed new branch Evidently the message from Peterboro's Mayor had the desired effect for both propositions submitted were almost unanimously supported by the electors. The agreement made by the city officials with the Quaker Oats Company, was ratified by a vote of 710 to 34, while the by-law providing for a site was carried 701 to 40. Throughout the city and entire province of Saskatchewan there is general rejoicing over the result.

Mr. John Stuart, second vice-president of the Quaker Oats Company, who looked after the installation of the branch in Peterboro, is now in Saskatoon. He has announced that work on the branch in that city, will be commenced within a week.

"We are going to start work," said Mr. Stuart, "just as soon as the contractors can get the completed plans and I expect that the engineers will start with them from Chicago very soon and be here in about a week's time.

Our plans have been augmented fifty per cent. within the last month after we have made a second careful survey of the territory we are to serve. At first it was our intention to put both our oatmeal mill and our flour mill into the old building for the present but we forsee a great demand for flour and will erect a special mill to house the machinery for making our oatmeal products. Our buildings for the present will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000 and we will start on our elevator as soon as possible. From the very first we will employ in the neighborhood of 100 hands, but there will be quite a number of girls in this total who will look after the casing of our package goods."

The opening of a branch in Saskatoon means a great deal for Peterborough in the way of advertising, as the name of this city will appear on every package turned out by the western establishement: that of Saskatoon to be also placed on the products manufactured here. At present the Peterboro branch exports about 90,000 packages a year which are distributed in every country in Europe. The Australian trade is to be supplied from Saskatoon, so that the name of Peterborough will be carried to every quarter of the globe.

THAT GARBAGE RECEPTACLE NOW

Sanitary Inspector Spence Issues a Last Warning to Citizens.

"Swat the fly" has become a household maxim but "swat the person who encourages the fly" by leaving garbage exposed, is the motto of Sanitary Inspector Spence. The inspector says that in spite of repeated warnings, residents are ignoring the by-law calling for garbage to be kept in a tightly covered receptacle. He has of late been calling upon the fruit stores, who seem to be the worst offenders and has given them till next Saturday to provide sound, tightly covered vessels for the reception of their fruit and vegetable refuse.

Mr. Spence states that after Saturday next, wherever he finds garbage in an unsuitable and uncovered receptacle, or exposed in any manner, he will prosecute the offenders without further notice.

The by-law states that the "receptacle for garbage shall be of galvanized iron or other suitable material approved of by the Sanitary Inspector, which shall be furnished with a tight cover and while garbage is in said receptacle, keep it tightly covered." In view of the Inspector's decision, it is up to the citizens to do their part to save a lot of unnecessary unpleasantness, by obeying the letter of the by-law.

A big crowd took in the trip, which was pronounced an unqualified success in every way.

ALD. BROWN GETS TWO MONTHS

Leave of Absence From City Council—Special Meeting of The City Fathers.

Owing to the absence of a couple of the City Council members, no action was taken at a specially called meeting last night, when a couple of questions of paramount importance were discussed.

Ald. Duffus also inquired if any action was being instituted towards laying a pavement on Frederick Ave. A petition is on the Council fyle for same, although not properly signed. Until this is attended to, the paving will remain at a standstill.

The building on Hunter street erected by T. Rutherford for Isaac Eastwood, contrary to instructions of the Council, was also discussed, but no action taken. Practically the same grounds of objections as introduced at past council meetings were presented. Council was strongly opposed to allowing the building violation to be overlooked, as it would leave them open in the future to criticism.

Ald. Brown, chairman of the Legal Committee, asked for two months' leave of absence, as he contemplates a western visit. The request was granted.

OBITUARY

Watson R. Handley

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Watson Handley, which occurred at one o'clock Sunday morning, after a short illness. The deceased, who was seventy-eight years old, had been troubled with heart trouble for about six months, but was out and about only as recently as last Sunday, when unfortunately he was taken ill with paralysis. He was born in Sedbergh, England, and came to Canada some fifty years ago, and with his wife, who pre-deceased him some twenty years ago, settled in Mount Pleasant, where he remained until his death. The late Mr. Handley was a member of a family that has been represented in Sedbergh for generations, and was held in high esteem amongst all classes.

In politics Mr. Handley was a staunch Conservative. He was a member of the Methodist Church and his figure will be missed in future services and in the village generally. All who enjoyed fellowship with the late Mr. Handley could speak only in terms of love and respect of his kind, gentle and charitable disposition. He enjoyed the comforting friendship and high regard of hosts of acquaintances who unite in mourning his passing. Surviving him are two sons, Arthur, of North Dakota, and John, of Mount Pleasant, and three grand children; also four brothers and one sister in England.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence at Mount Pleasant to Emily Cemetery and was largely attended. The Rev. Mr. Butler officiated.

Mrs. S. Washbone

Mrs Simon Washbone, of Trenton, Ont., died at the house of Mr. Wm. James, 269 Thomas street, yesterday. The deceased lady had been ill for a long time and came to this city for a rest and change, but she suffered a relapse, from which death resulted. The remains have been shipped to her relatives at Trenton for interment.

WHITE CAPS KEEP STEADILY WINNING GAME AFTER GAME

Won From London Yesterday for the Third Time by a Score of 8-1—Only Three Hits off Osborne—Hamilton Here for the Rest of the Week.

The Caps gave a farewell shove to Mr. Bartlett & Co's toboggan yesterday afternoon and slid the Cockney aggregation back another notch. The London outfit have been considered aspirants for the league championship, but the snappy locals yesterday made them look like a bunch of languid school-children receiving a trouncing for laziness. As a fan remarked, they had nothing on them but their clothes and these they wore rather indifferently. Their efforts to stop the Petes' dash upward were decidely feeble, right from the box to the outfield, while the Rowanites dished up nine innings of pennant-brand ball and walked away with their eleventh win, in the last fifteen games, by a score of 8—1.

Osborne allowed London only three scattered hits.

Hynes, who is rated as one of the Marquards of the Canadian League, did the heaving for the visitors and he was found hard and often by the Petes' swatsmen, while "Ozzy" who opposed him, kept the three meagre hits, collected from his offerings, widely scattered. The only bright spot in the visitors' work was a fast double play in the seventh, when with Trout on 1st. Beard lined to short and both runners were nipped, short to second, to first.

Osborne had eight strike-outs to his credit, while Hynes had to be satisfied with half of that number. The Caps had the lid down tight all the way and but for Nicholl's booting a fast drive in the seventh, would have had errorless ball. On the other hand the visitors had seven slip-ups which did much to help the Petes run out ahead. The crowd was only a dribbling of the holiday attendance, about three hundred paying admission to the grounds.

In the opening session London was blanked, but the locals notched one on singles by White and Schwartz, a low throw by Boyle helping come. For an innings and a half the hitters were retired in the one, two, three mode, but in the 3rd Osborne opened with a single to right and went to second when Hynes heaved Brant's grounder to the outfield in an endeavor to double. Barthold's grounder was also bungled and with the bases full, White's long fly to centre and Schwartz's sacrifice scored Osborne and Brant. Score 3—0.

There was nothing doing in the fourth. The visitors in their half of the fifth made a show of a rally, when with two out, Fox, after leaning about ten dollars worth of balls, singled, advancing to third on Boyle's double. Neale died, however, Byrne to Barthold. For the Petes, Barthold drove wide to Kelleher and both runners had a neck and neck dash to the bag, Johnnie beating him by an eyelash. White drew a pass and two more runs were added to the local's list on Schwartz's single and Trout's fly to centre. London failed to get to first in the next and the Caps made it 7—0 on singles by Byrne, Brant and Barthold.

London's only effort in the next was a single by Kelleher, while for the locals, after Schwartz had grounded out, Trout and Beard were nipped by the only double play of the game.

The Cockneys showed a flash of their old time Bowerman form in the eighth when singles by Neale and Linneburn together with Nicholl's error, deprived "Ozzy" of a shut out. Score 7—1.

Byrne grounded wide of second and advanced on Linneburn's wild throw to get him. Gilhooly fumbled Nicholl's grounder and Byrne scored on "Ozzy's" sacrifice. Nicholls was tagged going to third and Brant grounded out to second. London had nothing back in the ninth, Smith, Kelleher and Fox making easy outs.

Hanson can pitch, he can bat, he can field, run bases and hold his head in a pinch. What more do you want for your money?

◆

Maxwell's pitching and Bemis' batting featured in the Leaf's game yesterday with Newark. The ex-Giant pitched a shut-out battle, allowing but two puny hits, while Bemis slammed the pellet for a double and a homer, each time with a man on.

There is a rumor afloat that the Canadian League might be extended next year. A Toronto team has been suggested, the majority of whose home games to be played while the Leafs are on the road. Other cities of a respectable size ought to consider a similar plan.

◆

Jimmy Callahan, the Chicago American "come back," took back his $8,000 offer for Arthur Schwind, the sensational young shortstop of the Ottawa Canadian League Club, concerning whom the major league magnates have been deliberating of late. Callahan's offer was too tempting a bait for the Senators and they jumped at it, only to find it supplemented by a trade of players for Schwind.

The gait that the local ball club has struck lately is of the variety that would win two or three pennants and a post season thrown in. Here's hoping they can keep it up long enough to pass two or three of the outfits higher up.

Ty Cobb, the Detroit's batting terror, was stabbed th eother day as he was entering the depot on his way from Detroit to Syracuse. Three men made the assault on him, one of which is believed to be a man to whom Cobb administered a threshing sometime ago in the Club House following a quarrel.

On account of the unusual severity of the weather during the past three weeks, the date for the competition of the first round of the city singles tennis championship has been extended to and including Saturday, Aug. 17th. It is hoped that all players will take advantage of this extension, and finish their matches on the earliest possible occasion. Schedules are posted at the Y.M.C.A. Bowling Green and Golf Club.

The steamer Empress left this morning for the upper Lakes, where she will resume her regular trip from Lakefield to Stoney Lake.

The steamer Beaver came in last evening from "Little Mud Lake," with a large scow of wood for the Peterborough Fuel and Cartage Co.

On one of his periodical trips of inspection Superintendent Phelan, who looks after the thread of wire which keeps Northern British Columbia in touch with all the other centres of Canada, is now in the Prince Rupert district. The telegraph is one of the little known and seldom heard of services of the Government, but it has been a vital factor in the building up of the northern portions of British Columbia, and the Yukon territory nevertheless. This Government line covers a territory which the ordinary commercial companies would never dream of operating in, not only because the business originating there is small, but on account of the difficulties of installation and maintenance, during which practically all the elements must be battled with year in and year out. Fire in the summer months, wind in the equinoctial seasons of spring and fall, and snow throughout the long winter.

If it is to be a FURNACE Let it be a BUCK Furnace

It is a fact that there is no name more eagerly sought nor more highly prized than the name "BUCK" on the furnace of the house for rent or for sale. It adds a tangible value to the worth of the property, and presents an added inducement in the eyes of the prospective buyer. To have a Buck Furnace in your home is to insure not only that your home will be uniformly and comfortably warmed at a minimum of fuel expense, but that the sound sanitary principle upon which it is constructed will act as a permanent safeguard of the good health and cheerfulness of the household.

Our furnaces are installed under the supervision of an EXPERT who has made a special study of this work. You are thus assured of a MAXIMUM of comfort and service, at a MINIMUM of labor and expense.

BEAUTIFUL EYES

are made beautiful by long, silky lashes and well defined, lustrous brows. Eyes, like diamonds, depend on their setting. The beauties of the face are lost if the eye brows are thin and scanty, and the lashes are thing and scanty. Parisian Lash Lustre grows beautiful, soft, silky lashes. It has done so for society women throughout Europe, and it comes here well recommended to do the same for you. Parisian Lash Lustre is not a dye or colorator, but a scientific preparation for beautifying the eye lashes and brows. Our guarantee goes with every box of Parisian Lash Lustre. A two weeks' treatment will bring beauty to your eyes that you have never before possessed. By mail, prepaid, in opal boxes on receipt of price, fifty cents. E. V. MADE A NEW EGYPT

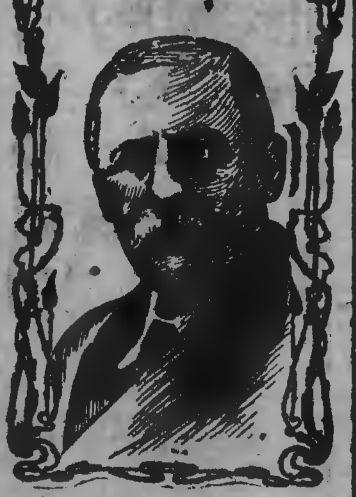
LORD CROMER PERFORMED A HERCULEAN TASK.

The Englishman Who Performed the Miracle of Rehabitating the Land of the Pharaohs Had for His Assistant Lord Kitchener—One of the Greatest Feats in the History of the Empire.

By his fruits you judge a man's capacity. When Lord Cromer, after sixteen years in the British Army, entered the service of Egypt, there was none bold enough to predict that he, and he alone, was the man to save the country. He was simply a Commissioner of the Egyptian Public Debt. It was as if he had been engaged as a professional mourner to attend the obsequies of a dying nation. He had served but two years in this humble capacity when someone at home thought that possibly the corpse might, after all, retain a flicker of life, and that Baring might be the man to fan it into activity.

So he was given the position from which the Sultan sought to lure him, that of Comptroller-General. A mighty bad position faced him. The mystery and miracle of the land never palled upon the imagination. Egypt consists solely of the two banks of the Nile. It is as if England were centered about the two banks of the river Thames, with all the rest of the land barren, sterile desert, the home of wild beasts and birds and reptiles. Upon the bank lived—there and in Cairo and Alexandria, some seven million people. Under the Khedives the country has simply gone to ruin. At headquarters money was poured out like water upon absurd and wicked schemes, and such ready money as could not be wrung from the natives had to come from loans, and the interest and repayment in respect of these had to be exacted from the suffering fellaheen.



LORD CROMER.

The system was something like that of the Eskimo dog team. You touch up one dog with the whip and he bites his neighbor, which, in turn, passes on the castigation, and the punishment runs throughout the team. And so it was in Egypt. Money was demanded at Court of the various officials, who applied threats of degradation to the tax collector, who, in turn, threatened or administered torture to the natives. And the placid Nile from which the gift of life and substance came, went on rolling down her mud and silt, the only free thing, save air, that came to the poor of the land.

Lord Cromer had barely got himself seated in the saddle of his new mount before he was carted off to India to assist in straightening out some of the tangle of the financial skein there. He was away three years before he was allowed to return to bring relief and salvation to the suffering land of Egypt. But it was all for his good, for he went back as Agent and Consul-General, and so remained to the end.

He had truly a Herculean task before him. He had to sweep out corruption and knavery from high places; he had to reduce debts, to restore the financial credit of Egypt, whose very name stank in the nostrils of Europe at the time. He had to rescue the people themselves from starvation, to give them bread enough and shelter and justice, conditions which the land had scarcely known since Joseph was its ruler. How he did it requires a couple of volumes to tell. But he did it. He was the great outstanding figure of what the late Lord Salisbury called our own age of Heroes.

There were not only civil problems to grapple; there came those terrible and sanguinary wars in the Sudan, which province had slipped back from relative civilization to barbarism of a peculiarly terrible character. Lord Cromer saw Gordon go up to Khartoum to bring away the Egyptian garrison in order that the Sudan might be abandoned.

Kitchener did the fighting and the military planning, but the actual responsibility for the war of recovery and regeneration lay with Lord Cromer, Lord Cromer of whom Kitchener said: "He is the master of us all!"

Well, this indomitable man worked practically day and night at his task of purifying Egypt. He cleansed the high offices, he rendered the home of the fellah safe, and secured to him his daily bread. He tackled the Nile and made her yield increase such as has not been known since the great days of twenty or thirty centuries ago. He redeemed the financial credit of the land.

A Lover of Tea.

De Quincey was a notable tea toper. In his picture of a winter evening in his cottage among the Cumberland hills he mentions the tea equipage on a table beside the fire and behind the table a fair tea maker, whose duty it was to fill an almost endless procession of cups. De Quincey declares that he drank tea from 8 o'clock at night to 4 in the morning and claims the infusion as "the favorite beverage of the intellectual."

Starfish.

Starfishes commit suicide. When one is caught in a net it dissolves its corporation into a dozen or so of fragments, and the pieces escape through the meshes. In time each becomes a perfect animal. To preserve the starfish whole it must be plunged into a bucket of fresh water before it has time to take the alarm. Fresh water is instant death to it, and thus only can some varieties of the starfish be preserved.

A Long Excuse.

The magazine writer rolled in late at night and found his better half sitting up awaiting his coming.

"What have you got to offer this time?" she demanded.

"I can give you a 1,200 word story," was the reply of the writer, whose answer was dictated by force of habit. —New York Press.

Not an Epicure.

"Don't these parvenues make you sick?" asked Chapley of his vis-a-vis at the Spilldorf.

Don't Need Accident Insurance

There is no excuse for refusing to take out Accident Insurance as common as the one that the prospect "Don't Need It."

The average man thinks he never exposes himself to hazards that invite accidents.

Here are some of the illuminating facts in regard to the hazards of ordinary lives.

Is he the man who never goes anywhere, always remains at home? Whereabouts at home does he remain to escape danger? Inside the house? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents nearly 14 per cent occur inside the house. Is he safe there? Hardly.

While at home around the house, amid scenes of peace, is he free from danger? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 13 per cent are met with amid these peaceful surroundings.

Is he safe while walking the streets? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 16 per cent are met with by pedestrians. Hardly safe is he while walking!

A fraction of over 13 per cent of every one hundred injurious accidents are attributable to horses and vehicles. Nearly 7 per cent are attributable to Automobiles and Bicycles. Railroad and Steamship travel are not especially to be commended for possessing elements of safety as these contribute 14 per cent of every one hundred.

Even while engaged in recreation he is not safe, as its quota amounts to nearly 8 per cent of every hundred. There is only one place where a man is not liable to meet with injurious accidents, and that is—the grave. Sleeping there he is in no danger.

The above shows that everyone needs protection against Accident, and this protection can be obtained at a nominal cost by applying to

A WEAK ATTEMPT TO CREATE MORE POLITICAL CAPITAL

The Question of Power at Campbellford and the Government's Attitude in the Matter—A Full and Fair Statement of the Case by a Resident of the Town Interested.

When the discussion of the Campbellford power question was first taken up by the Liberal press, a local contemporary branded the action of the government as a deadly blow at public ownership and later followed this up by an attack on the Minister of Railways and Canals, insinuating that he was actuated in the matter by purely political motives. The point of the whole matter, the fact that the lease held by the power company was made by the Laurier Government was consistently ignored.

The Toronto Globe published a one sided and partisan statement of the case. The Review sent this statement to a citizen of Campbellford, asking for a fair expression of the facts, as they really exist, and the following communication was duly received in reply—

"The Dominion Government, in order to complete the Trent Canal through Campbellford have been obliged to remove the dam in the town, which supplies power to several factories. The Government have arranged with the mill owners that they will supply the mills free electrical energy in place of the hydraulic power that is taken away from them. The Seymour Power Company have a lease of a water power about a mile from the town and one of the terms of its lease was that in case the Government were obliged to supply power to the mill owners at Campbellford that the Seymour Power Company should deliver that power to the Government at actual cost. When the time came for the Government to remove the dam, they naturally called upon the Seymour Power Company, who, as I say, in their lease were obligated to give the power at cost.

"There can be no reflections whatever on the action of the Government in this matter, as the Seymour Power Company are not making one cent of profit out of it, and the town of Campbellford, I feel quite sure, would not be willing to sell power to the Government at exactly what it cost them.

The clipping that you sent is most unfair and most of the agitation that is being carried on in Campbellford, as far as I can learn, is being done so with political motives.

"I may also add that the Northumberland Paper Company, which owns a water power below the town, and which power will be benefited by the wiping out of the Campbellford dam, has offered to supply the Government with the power for the mill owners free in consideration of their not having to pay a water rental for the increased power that they get, and I think eventually that this is the way the matter will be finally settled, that is, that the Government will get the power absolutely free of cost.

FIVE PERSONS INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT AT WHITBY

Car Filled With Toronto People Upset and all Are Hurt; Two Perhaps Fatally—Another Accident Near London.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—Five Toronto people were injured, two perhaps fatally, when a motor car in which they were riding turned turtle about a mile and a half west of Whitby. The injured:

Henry R. Pill, 351 Manning avenue, right side of chest crushed, collar bone broken, three ribs fractured and internal injuries; condition serious.

Mrs. W. Johnson, 191 Robert street, injured back and internal injuries; condition serious.

Wm. Johnson, 191 Robert street, right foot crushed and right ankle broken.

Mrs. W. H. Sleigh, 341 Manning avenue, right ankle broken and severe bruises over body.

Mrs. Henry Pill, 351 Manning avenue, severe bruises and suffering from shock.

The accident occurred about twenty-nine miles east of Toronto, and the injured had to be taken care of in a near-by farmhouse until a motor ambulance could get out there from Toronto. The accident happened about one o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The motor containing the five passengers, and being driven by Mr. Pill, was going along the roadway at ten miles an hour, when, in attempting to pass a motor cyclist by going to one side of the road, the motor car skidded. This caused the car to plunge down a six-foot-deep ditch to the side of the road, and the car turned a complete somersault.

All five of the occupants were thrown from the car. Mr. Pill, the most severely injured, was pinned under the side of the car, as was also Mrs. Johnson. Mr. Pill was caught across the chest, and Mrs. Johnson had the car's weight across her abdomen. Mr. Johnson and Mrs. Pill each sustained a broken ankle.

The escape from serious injury by Mrs. Pill was miraculous. She was sitting in the back seat of the car, between Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Sleigh. Mr. Johnson was sitting beside Mr. Pill, the driver. When the car turned turtle, although all the other occupants were caught by the side of the car, Mrs. Pill fell directly under the centre of it. The only thing saving her from being fatally crushed was the space under the car caused by the depth of the ditch.

Auto Accident Near Arkona.

London, Aug. 15.—A serious automobile accident occurred near Arkona Tuesday night, in which Mr. William Dillon, liquor dealer, of Sarnia, received serious injuries, and a friend who was with him had a narrow escape.

The two men were coming to Arkona from Sarnia, and when about a mile and a half east on the town line they met a rig at a point where the road is very narrow and bordered on each side by a deep ditch. In endeavoring to turn out, the automobile went into the ditch and turned over, pinning Dillon underneath, and immediately took fire. The other man was thrown clear. People in a neighboring farm house heard the crash and saw the flames bursting out.

It was ten minutes before Dillon was extricated and he was badly burned. His recovery is doubtful.

The car, a large Cadillac, was completely destroyed.

CANADIAN PACIFIC WILL INCREASE STOCK ISSUE

Railway Will Ask Permission to Raise Its Authorized Capital by One Hundred Million Dollars Before Oct. 1—Price Not Known.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—The Canadian Pacific Railway Co. has filed notice at the Secretary of State's office here, that it will, before Oct. 1, make application to the Government for an increase of its authorized capital from $200,000,000 to $300,000,000. So far as can be learned here the Government has not been given any definite information, as to the price of the issue, but from other well-informed quarters it is stated that arrangements will be made for the issue of $70,000,000 within a short time, and the balance when and as required.

It is also said that the intention is that the "rights" attaching to the issue shall be equivalent to 10 per cent. to holders of the existing stock, and that, it is said, explains the sharp rise which has recently occurred in the market quotation for the company's shares.

Should the increase be authorized by the Government it means another nice melon cut for the holders of the stock at the present time. It is yet doubtful as to what attitude the Government will take on the matter, particularly in view of recent developments in connection with the western freight rates inquiry.

In any case no definite action of any kind will be taken until Premier Borden's return, as it is realized that the matter is one of the utmost importance to the general public.

In some quarters here the view is expressed that the company is evidently anxious to largely increase its capital stock before the conclusion of the rates inquiry now in progress. The acting chairman of the Railway Board has declared western rates to be excessive, and has called upon the railways to qualify them. The defence of the railways will doubtless be that the present rates are necessary to pay the interest charges. The addition of $70,000,000 to the capital stock of the company, will go a long way to help out and straighten this argument.

The annual meeting of the C. P. R. shareholders is on Oct. 1, and if the company is to carry out its plan the Government will have to sanction its application before that date.

CANADIAN BOAT WINS THE CUP

The Toronto Yacht Carries off Honor at Chicago.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Patricia, the crack Canadian sloop yacht, sailed by Norman H. Gooderham of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club yesterday won the fourth and deciding race from the American yacht Michicago, sailed by Roy Barcal of the Chicago Yacht Club, for the S. O. Richardson cup. The race was won by eight minutes and thirty-five seconds after the American yacht had secured, on the first time around the course, a lead of almost eight minutes which, considering the results of former races, constituted a lead that seemed impossible for the Canadian to overcome. Patricia's elapsed time was 4:14:52.

Minneapolis Firm to Build It.

Ottawa, Aug. 15.—The Government has let the contract for the new state-owned elevator to be erected at Port Arthur. The successful tenderers are Messrs. Barnet & McQueen of Minneapolis, and the contract price is $1,179,500. The new elevator, which will be the same size as the Grand Trunk Pacific's, right near it, will have a capacity of three and a quarter million bushels, and is to be completed by Sept. 15, 1913.

"ROME HAS SPOKEN"

The Pope Refuses Monnoir College Permission to Reopen.

Montreal, Aug. 15.—The final decision from the Vatican refusing to the people of St. Johns and Iberville, headed by Judge Monet, permission to have the College of Ste. Marie Monnoir re-opened, was received yesterday morning in a cable from Rome to his excellency the papal delegate in Canada, and transmitted to the archbishop's palace here.

A few days ago the petition of the priests was refused by the holy see, and yesterday morning's cable was in answer to the people of the locality, who at a public meeting, over which Judge Monet presided, petitioned the papal authorities asking that the college be given permission to exist.

The case is evidently settled now so far as appeals go, and the maxim of the Catholic Church, "Rome has spoken, and the case is settled," put an end to the controversy.

There is now only submission or excommunication left for the priests.

There are now 96 cases of infantile paralysis in Buffalo.

WILL SHARE PROFITS

Hon. Adam Beck Reorganizing Business on a New Basis.

London, Ont., Aug. 15.—Plans are now being formulated by Hon. Adam Beck for merging his four factories in the one joint stock company, with a capitalization of $500,000, the new shareholders in the company to be the senior employes of the various factories.

The Beck Manufacturing Co. now has factories at London, Hamilton and Montreal and is about to build another in Toronto. The Montreal factory has a Dominion charter, with a capitalization of $100,000. Mr. Beck proposes to consolidate all four.

The most interesting feature of the proposal is the co-operative plan to be introduced. The heads of the various departments, the managers and their employes whose seniority by length of service has won for them a status in the company, are all to be presented with a block of the stock, and will be given the opportunity to add to their holdings.

Hon. Mr. Beck believes that the plan will give to those whom the success of the industry is due a chance to share in its prosperity, and will also enable him to lay aside more business responsibilities and give his time largely to Hydro electric affairs.

A.O.U.W. MEMBERS MAKE PROTEST

Meeting in Toronto Decides to Appeal to the Government.

Toronto, Aug. 15.—In protest against the alleged irregularity of the grand lodge of the A.O.U.W. in deciding to raise the scale of assessment, about two hundred members of the Toronto district held a noisy meeting in St. Andrew's Hall last night. There was decidedly no brotherly love shown toward the grand lodge. On one occasion four men on the platform tried to make themselves heard above the hoots and jeers of those gathered in the auditorium. After a session lasting two hours, a resolution was passed authorising the appointment of a committee of five members to lay their objections before the Government. In the same resolution it was also decided to co-operate with the Guelph district, which yesterday issued a writ against Grand Master James McEwing of Drayton to restrain the grand lodge from raising the rates on Oct. 1, which was proposed at a meeting held here on June 21. A campaign was launched for funds to fight the case in the courts.

Cadets Are Cheered.

Melbourne, Aug. 15.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The contingent of Canadian cadets were accorded the warmest welcome on arrival by the citizens of Melbourne, who have undertaken to defray all expenses during their stay at Victoria. Complaints made by the lads as to the reception they received at Sydney roused public opinion here, and the people are anxious that no slur shall be cast on Australian hospitality by giving the lads a splendid time.

CORSICAN IS GOING ON ITS VOYAGE UNDER ESCORT

The Injured Liner After Being Laid up for Forty-two Hours While Repairs Were Made Started for Liverpool at a Speed of Less Than Ten Miles an Hour.

Montreal, Aug. 15.—It is believed here that though the injured Allan liner Corsican is in no danger, her injuries are more serious than at first supposed. It is announced that on arrival at Liverpool the vessel will be fitted with a new stem, and that the operation will take from 10 to 15 days. The announcement yesterday was to the effect that the vessel's regular sailings would not be interfered with.

The latest report from the vessel showed that she recommenced her voyage to Liverpool at ten o'clock yesterday morning after lying to, in almost dead calm, for 42 hours, to make repairs. A report five and a half hours later showed that she had made 50 miles. The Lake Champlain, which was standing by the vessel, recommenced her voyage three hours later and it is believed that the two vessels will cross practically together, the Lake Champlain keeping in wireless touch with the damaged Corsican.

When the news that the Corsican had not recommenced her voyage came to Montreal Tuesday night, with the additional information that the Lake Champlain was in the near vicinity, it was thought that this might indicate nothing, as both vessels might have been held up by the fog which is prevalent in the vicinity of Belle Isle; but the signal service reports show that other vessels, both outward and inward bound, continued their courses and it is surmised that it is not accident but intention that keeps the Lake Champlain in the company of the Corsican.

British Steamer Ashore.

Montreal, Aug. 15.—The Marconi wireless telegraph station at Camperdown, N.S., says that the British steamer Eris of Cardiff, Capt. Corner, owners Turnbull Bros., bound from Rosario, Argentine, for Quebec, via Sydney, N.S., went ashore on Sable Island yesterday morning five miles east of West Light and two miles west of the position of the wreck of the Heimsdale, which went ashore in 1910. A dense fog was responsible for the accident. A moderate southwest wind was blowing. The steamer is too far off to use the rocket apparatus, but the landing is easy and there is a good chance to save her if the weather continues moderate.

Supt. Boutilier of Sable Island was in attendance shortly after the accident with lifeboats, and the captain and crew are out of danger.

The Eric is a 3,900-ton vessel and is loaded with maize in bags.

FEDERAL HEALTH BOARD NEEDED

Medical Association Places Itself on Record.

Edmonton, Alta., Aug. 15.—The concluding session of yesterday's program of the Canadian Medical Association, when Prof. A. H. McCallum of London, Ont., was elected president, marked the end of the forty-fifth convention of the association.

Apart from the pressing expectation that the Dominion soon will have a public health department, as has been urged at this meeting of the association, and at previous meetings, a factor of the greatest importance to the profession at large in the Dominion is that henceforth it practices under one charter with examinations set at Dominion-wide tests.

SUCCUMBS TO HEAT

It is thought death was caused from heat prostration.

Giants and Cubs Fighting it Out at Chicago.

Special to the Review.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—The baseball series commenced to-day between the Giants and Cubs is exciting as much interest as a worlds' championship series. President Lynch has absolutely refused to reinstate second baseman Evers until the time for the game Saturday, when the five days' suspension expires. It is expected that ninety thousand people will see the three games.

Eighteen Years For Allan Gangster.

Wytheville, Va., Aug. 15.—Friel Allen, one of the mountain outlaws charged with complicity in the Hillsville court house murders last March, pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree yesterday, and was sentenced to eighteen years in the penitentiary. Two others have been convicted of first degree murder and two more members of the gang are about to be tried.

INCITING REVOLT.

Unionist Leaders May be Arrested for Treason.

London, Aug. 15.—The Dundee Advertiser, an influential Liberal organ, prints the startling hint that the Government is prepared to take action should the inflammatory speeches and doings of A. Bonar Law, Sir Edward H. Carson and Frederick E. Smith and other Conservative leaders, in inciting Ulsterites to revolt, have the effect of provoking disturbances in Ulster, thus bringing them within the pale of the law. The newspaper recalls that Parnell and his associates were lodged in Kilmainham jail in similar circumstances.

A significant incident in connection with the article is that Winston Spencer Churchill continues his polemic against A. Bonar Law. In a letter issued last night, he charges Sir Edward Carson, M.P., with being a moving spirit in an organization which seeks to establish a provisional government in Ulster, adding: "Whatever Sir Edward Carson's merits as a military commander may be, nobody is a better judge of how near you may go to the edge of criminal conspiracy without actually crossing frontiers which must be guarded by law."

"Mr. Bonar Law may try to scramble out of the mess," Mr. Churchill's letter says in conclusion, "but the consequences of his action will pursue him and those identified with him. He has drawn a blank check of indefinite currency against the whole resources of the Unionist party, which any ruffian or lunatic may present any morning, filled in by the hand of crime."

It is noteworthy that Mr. Churchill sits in Parliament for Dundee and the article published in The Dundee Advertiser may be inspired.

Sir William P. Byles, Radical member for the north division of Salford, in a letter sent to the newspaper last night says: "I confidently predict that Mr. Bonar Law will draw in his horns, for he probably knows that indictments for treason and felony are being prepared in the Attorney-General's office."

ALLIANCE MAN WAS THREATENED

Temperance Worker in Montreal in Danger of His Life.

Montreal, Aug. 15—John H. Roberts, the secretary of the Dominion Alliance, who has been conducting a highly successful campaign against grocers who have been selling liquor in Sherbrooke, Que., without a license, yesterday morning received a letter threatening him with the same sort of death that Rosenthal, the New York gambler suffered, if he continues against the liquor sellers. The letter is addressed: "John Roberts, sneak," and signed "One of the Gang."

Had Gripful of Ore.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 15—Charged with violating the Miners' Act, John Sala, a Finlander, from Cobalt, found with a gripful of ore here, was yesterday sentenced to six months in the Central by Magistrate Fraser. He claimed to have bought the ore from a restaurant-keeper in Porcupine.

George Vaughan was given six months in the Central for fraudulently disposing of goods purchased on the instalment plan.

Because he stole liquor from a local hotel, Fred. Clark got a year in the Central.

MAY BE CASE OF DOUBLE MURDER

Frank Misener Dies in Hamilton From Effects of Assault.

Hamilton, Aug. 15.—Frank Misener, who was an eye witness of the drunken brawl on Jackson street, as a result of which William Mulholland is in jail facing a serious charge, and James Doherty, lies in the hospital with his throat cut from ear to ear, died in the City Hospital last night. Misener, who is 70 years of age, before his death made a statement to Crown Attorney Crear which will have a very important bearing on the case. He said that he saw Mulholland with a razor in his hand and saw him slash Doherty on the throat with it.

Shortly after making the statement Misener was taken to the hospital. He said to the officials that he had been assaulted by Mulholland, having been kicked on the chest and struck on the face. However, Coroner McNichol, after viewing the remains, said that the old man had died of natural causes and an inquest was unnecessary. Nothing is known of Misener's friends.

Doherty's condition is slightly improved.

ENDED HIS LIFE

Windsor Man Suicides Because He Lost His Position.

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 15.—D. A. Waterbury, aged 50, committed suicide yesterday morning as a result of despondency over his dismissal as manager of the Black Jack Stove Polish Co., of this city. He placed a revolver against his temple, firing a shot that caused instant death.

Waterbury was married only a year ago and is said to have become financially involved by living beyond his means.

AUSTRALIA'S EXPENDITURE

London, Aug. 15.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—For several weeks a large hoarding has stood at the eastern end of the site upon which the new Australian offices are to be erected in the Strand with the painted notification. "Australia's Daily Message." Yesterday the blank space below was filled in with the following message: "Australia's share in the defence of the Empire for 1912-16 amounts to about £5,500,000. This will make total about £13,000,000 expended in defence in three years by the King's four and a half million subjects in Australia."

"YOU'LL SUFFER ALL YOUR LIFE"

That's what the Doctor told him

"Fruit-a-tives Cured Him

CHESTERVILLE, ONT., Jan. 25th 1911

"For over twenty years, I have been troubled with Kidney Disease, and the doctors told me they could do me no good, and that I would be a sufferer for the rest of my life.

I doctored with different medical men and tried many advertised remedies, but none of them suited my case.

Nearly a year ago, I tried "Fruit-a-tives". I have been using this fruit medicine nearly all the time since, and am glad to say that I am cured.

I give "Fruit-a-tives" the credit of doing what the doctors said was impossible.

I am now seventy-six years old, and in first class health"

GEO. W. BARKLEY.

In all the world, there is no other remedy that has cured so many cases of so-called "incurable" kidney disease, as "Fruit-a-tives".

This famous fruit medicine acts directly on the kidneys—healing and strengthening them—and ridding the system of the waste matter that poisons the blood.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

STRATFORD'S STREET RAILWAY

Stratford has demonstrated that there is nothing like the Hydro-Electric for cheap light and power and that a municipal plant can be run at a profit. Since the adoption of the system, lighting and power charges have been reduced over forty per cent. and still the present year's business will show a surplus of over $9,000. This, of course, means a further reduction to the consumers.

In spite of this demonstration that public owned utilities are not only best, but cheapest, the Classic City hesitates on the question of following the example of Berlin and Guelph by building and operating its own line of street railway. If one utility under municipal management can be made a success there seems no valid reason why another should not be operated on the same system. Since the Provincial Government refused to release Stratford from its agreement to operate the projected street railway with power from the Commission, and Mackenzie & Mann refuse to take over the franchise unless they can use their own power, the city's hopes for a railway in the near future have gone a glimmering. What Berlin and Guelph have done surely Stratford is not afraid to undertake.

THE U. S. SENATE

The latest from Washington concerning the Panama Canal dispute is that the Senate and the House of Representatives are deadlocked and that the bill is not likely to be passed at this session of Congress. The lower house we are told, insists upon the clause which it inserted in the bill forbidding railways from owning water lines.

The contention of the lower house by far the more representative of the people, would, if adopted, secure the very object which the nation had in view when the work of constructing the canal was undertaken, and that was to obtain for the shippers of the country lower transformation rates by competition between the railways and the shipping interests. If the railways are to be permitted to own boats this expected rivalry would be eliminated and no benefit in the shape of lower freight rates would result.

It is nothing new for the United States Senate to attempt to repudiate treaty obligations, as an investigation of the record of that body will show. But there is a sane check upon their wild flights into disreputable statesmanship. It is clearly set forth in the constitution of the United States that no legislation can be enacted having for its object the abrogation of any lawful treaty or contract entered into by and with the consent of the parties. Before such a measure as the Panama Canal bill could be upheld it would be necessary to revise the constitution by cutting out the clause referred to. Discrimination in the matter of canal tolls would not be recognized as legal by the Supreme Court any longer than the time required to bring the question properly before that tribunal. Besides, there is the last resort of an appeal to the Hague.

The shipping interests of the world are in no danger in spite of the present threatening outlook. The Senate may exhaust itself in giving to the public a pitiable exhibition of national dishonor, but right and justice will eventually triumph. The jingo leaders in the fight against the Hay-Pauncefote treaty are back numbers in statesmanship, the most of them discredited in the sight of their own constituents, and who will be swept from sight as soon as the cumbersome election machinery gives the people an opportunity to set Senator Lodge and some of the rest of the same ilk, can with their naked vision read the hand writing on the wall which bespeaks their finish. Senator Smith, of Michigan, one of the most blatant advocates of discriminatory tolls, we all remember as the chairman of the Titanic investigating committee, and we can recall, too, how during the sessions of that committee the Michigan man shed Anglophopia from every pore.

There is not a respectable or responsible element in the United States upholding the Senate in a course which would disgrace a set of unprincipled horse traders. Every journal of standing in the country is painting the tin horn legislators in their true colors and branding them as men false to every public trust and to every principle of national probity. The press and the public alike are ashamed of this disgraceful play of the lowest variety of the political game, and have branded the sensational tactics as unworthy of the police court shyster.

What would the servile senate say if the tables were turned upon the United States, if England disregarded treaty obligations and denied the ships of the Republic access to the canals of Canada or raised the tolls so high as to render them practically prohibitive? Two wrongs, however never make a right, and no one ever dreams that England would ever descend to such tactics by way of reprisal. The United States has a monopoly in the trampling into the mire of international agreements.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Just watch and see the Hamilton police stumble and flounder in the new murder mystery in that city.

"But this will only continue while Sir James Whitney rules," says the Globe, referring to one of the many alleged grievances. Evidently the Globe will be compelled to suffer indefinitely.

The Hamilton Times says that Mr. Rowell and his friends are now prepared to see that New Ontario gets justice. Does justice mean financial aid, something that the Opposition leader opposed so vigorously last session?

Liverpool Wheat Futures Close Higher, Chicago Lower—Live Stock —Latest Quotations.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Grain prices were weaker to-day, a factor in the decline being fine crop weather. Cash demand was negligible and stronger early cables failed to hold the market. The close was generally steady on the lower levels, with wheat 1-4c to 3-4c off. Last trades left corn 1-8c to 7-8c lower and oats 3-8 to 1-2c lower. Provisions advanced with a good demand, closing from 5c to 7 1-2c higher.

The Liverpool market closed to-day ⅛d higher than yesterday on wheat, and ½d to ⅝d higher on corn. Wheat at Paris closed ¼c higher, Berlin ⅝c higher, Budapest ¼c lower. Holiday at Antwerp.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, Aug. 14.—Cables for Manitoba wheat came a little stronger to-day, and, with the decline in the Winnipeg market, local exporters were able to work some business. There was another active enquiry for oats, with a fair trade reported for export. The local spot situation remains strong. There is no change in the flour trade. Business continues on restricted lines, with little or no export trade and only a fair demand for district account. Butter and cheese are unchanged. Receipts are moderate, and the trend of the market remains the same. Butter continues easy, while cheese is firm and in fair demand for export.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, Aug. 14.—The receipts of live stock at the Canadian Pacific live stock market for the week were 1600 cattle, 2100 sheep, 2125 hogs and 1000 calves. The offerings to-day were 1175 cattle, 1800 sheep, 1025 hogs and 600 calves.

The recent large runs and the lighter demand, usual at this time of the year, resulted in slow bidding, but the market was pretty well cleared off at the close. The cattle offered was for the most part of a poor grade, and prices for the quality were about unchanged. Steers sold at $5 to $6.75 per 100 pounds; cows, $3.50 to $5.50; bulls, $2.75 to $3.75 per 100 pounds. Prices for sheep were also about the same, at $4 per 100 pounds, while lambs brought $ 4 to $5 per 100 pounds, according to quality. Hogs ranged between $8.25 and $8.65. Calves sold at from $3 to $9 each.

NORTH MONAGHAN COUNCIL MEETING

Peterborough, Aug. 10, 12.

Reeve Howden and Councillors Morrow, May and Foster were present.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

A communication was read from Mr. M. Sucee, asking the Council to grant $25 towards the cleaning out of the creek, which runs through his property.

This matter was left over till the next meeting.

Mr. W. J. McCannon applied to the council to have Grandview Ave. and Kenneth Avenue, graded.

The council decided to authorize the clerk to notify Mr. McCannon to remove the stumps from the streets if he wished to have them graded.

Mr. Forster moved a resolution that the clerk shall send Mr. Little a copy of the township solicitors letter, regarding Mr. Little's notice re-culvert, near his property which was removed by the consent of the property owners, some years ago.

Mr May moved an amendment to Mr. Forster's resolution; which was seconded by Mr. Morrow. That the township solicitor's letter, re-culvert applied for by Jno. Little, be published with the minutes.

The letter is as follows—

Peterborough, Aug. 7, 12.

Township Clerk,

Dear Sir—Replying to your letter asking advice in respect to the communication from T. J. Little, we beg to state that the council is not under any obligation to provide an outlet for surface water forming on lands adjoining highways, unless it flows to the highway by a well defined channel.

It is not right for the council to block the flow of water which is carried down by a well defined bank. The question then for the council to determine in the present case is whether there is a defined bank or not. If there is not they can build the road without a culvert.

Yours truly,

PECK, KERR & McELDERRY

The following accounts were presented for payment.

Geo. Ward, re-culvert on Rd. ...	12 00
G. Ward, culvert and repairing	15.25
Robert Sanderson, culvert repairs, etc.	8.20
Peterboro Lumber Co., Edison Avenue, Bridge	19.01
G. H. May, material and labor Edison Avenue bridge	63.67
G. Ward, repairs, Cavan Rd.	3.00
Jno. Scott, removing stones from Harper's Hill	1.00
Municipality South Monaghan Rd. work, 1910	20.00
	$ 142.13

Moved by Mr. Forster seconded by Mr. Morrow that the above accounts be paid.

The council appointed Mr. Jas. C. Morrow to look after the cleaning of the ditch at Springville.

Moved by Mr. Morrow seconded by Mr. Forster, that Mr May be appointed to oversee the building of the culverts at the corner of Park and Lansdowne streets, and at the corner of High street and Lundy's Lane.—Carried.

Moved by Mr. Forster, seconded by Mr. May, that the following committee be appointed to meet a committee from South Monaghan— Mr. Robson, Mr. Morrow, and Mr. May. The object of the meeting is to inspect the boundary road, leading down to the river and to the new wharf at Whitfield's Landing, and to have the same put in proper condition.

The time set for the meeting being Aug. 19th, 1912 at 6 o'clock p.m. sharp at the Orange Hall, corner Fraserville.

Moved by Mr. Forster seconded by Mr. May that the assessors' salary be paid $50.00.

The meeting then adjourned until the second Monday in September.

Lowering the Cost

REDUCED to its simplest terms, the price of an article is the cost of material, labor of manufacture, transportation, distribution, sale, and delivery—plus a profit on each of these.

Let us take the case of a fountain pen to show what price is.

First, the materials must be produced—the rubber in Para—the gold in South Africa or the Yukon—iridium in Siberia.

Then all these must be transported to the factory. There the rubber is vulcanized into holders; the gold refined and stamped into points; the iridium tipped on to the gold; and so on.

The labor operations on a fountain pen run well over the hundred mark, and expensive machinery is required for almost every one of them.

Manufacturing completed, the pens are sold to jobbers and retailers—transported hundreds and thousands of miles. And profits are taken at every step, remember that.

After the wholesale distribution, the retail sale is made—delivery completed, and the pen at last put to its destined use.

Suppose you have paid $2.50 for one of the standard well-known fountain pens. Do you begin to realize what an imposing number of things that $2.50 has paid for? Haven't you a pretty clear idea that, if these operations were applied to the making of one single pen, it would break an oil magnate to buy it?

Is it not perfectly plain that Quantity controls price by one of the simplest of natural laws?

Para rubber by the shipload—gold and iridium by pounds instead of milligrammes—labor of thousands organized and directed—transportation in car lots—and sales by the million—to every schoolboy, stenographer, business man—to every one who writes.

It is all this gigantic expenditure, divided by the countless units of millions of sales, that makes it possible to buy a fountain pen for $2.50. The more sales, the smaller becomes the cost of the unit.

We know that Advertising has raised Quality.

We know it has standardized prices.

And now we see that Advertising increases sales, shortens the road between producer and consumer—and lowers prices.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or through the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write if interested.

PROPOSAL TO ESTABLISH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN SOUTHERN PART OF CITY

People on the Otonabee River Think Riverdale Church Would Answer Requirements—They Desire Dr. Marsh as Preacher—Settlement of Matter Rests With the Presbytery.

People who pass up and down the Otonabee river often inquire about the little church that stands on the northern bank just at Crawford's Grove. Their questions are usually much in this strain.

"Is it used now? To what denomination does it belong? Why don't they hold services there on Sunday?" Queries such as these in nine cases out of ten are not answered, simply because no one seems to know.

For some time however, there has been a strong agitation on the part of the people in that vicinity, known as Riverdale, to have the church renovated and to conduct religious services there regularly, purely undenominational in character. Unless some promise or indication that such steps are to be taken soon, the property will be put up for sale and disposed of as soon as possible.

The Trustees of Riverdale Union Sunday school, held a meeting last night, when the situation was carefully discussed. It was pointed out that Dr. Marsh, at the order of the Presbytery, had discontinued services at Bethany, and for that reason they desired to have him conduct services at Riverdale. If such is carried out the residents will be perfectly satisfied.

But it is generally understood that the Presbytery of Peterborough have a proposition up their sleeve, which so far has not been publicly given out. The Presbytery feel that there should be another church of their denomination in the southern part of the city, on a site which would be both convenient to people living in the extreme southern limits and yet not too far removed from the city. They feel also that the Riverdale church, if organized, would not prove successful, fearing that it would not get the required support which is always necessary to make a successful church. The people down around there feel otherwise, and, as previously intimated, earnestly desire the little church to be again occupied. It has been standing empty for over one year and is in a rather dilapidated condition, the windows having been shattered by stones.

The Presbytery, it is understood have their eye on a site on Park street, which they consider would be a most advantageous location. They have not yet decided upon anything definite. Their idea is to secure a site which would be of sufficient area to allow the erection of a larger church and a manse, if such was found advisable in the future. Neither would they wish the church to be close enough to the Knox church edifice, to conflict with it in any way.

The question as far as known, is stationery and the action of the Presbytery will be eagerly awaited.

One thing is certain, however, as stated this morning, by Mr. Bruce Johnston, reeve of North Monaghan, that, unless the Riverdale people are given an opportunity to use the little church for religious worship, it will be listed for sale immediately.

A. G. FAWCETT APPOINTED

Is Now Superintendent of Waterworks at Substantial Salary

Mr. A. G. Fawcett, who has been acting superintendent of the Waterworks System since the death of the late W. Henderson, was appointed superintendent yesterday at a substantial salary increase. Mr. Fawcett has been carrying out the duties of superintendent very satisfactorily, which resulted in his permanent appointment to the office by the Water Commissioners.

No action was taken on the application of certain hotel keepers for a reduction in the rates until there is a general remission in the rates, and that attention be called to the waste caused by leakages.

An offer of George Mitchell to plough and grade the waterworks land on the east side of the river for $30.00, was accepted, also his offer to pay $7.00 for the old railway ties.

Adventurous Americans

The honor of running the rapids of the Upper Fraser river from Tete Jaune Cache on the Grand Trunk Pacific main line to Fort George for the first time belongs to three adventurous Americans who made the hazardous journey in safety the other day. They made the trip in a 12 foot collapsible canoe passing through waters that have never been traversed even by Indians with far larger canoes. In some parts of the cruise they are said to have averaged a speed of a mile a minute in rapids that were studded with dangerous rocks. On one of these they struck but succeeded in sewing up their craft at the foot of the rapids. Altogether the party was nine days on the river. On at least half a dozen occasions these amateur canoemen were warned that probably death awaited them if they did not take to the portages used by other travellers, but in spite of all they stuck to the river until they reached the Fort.

ANOTHER MIXED MARRIAGE CASE

Husband Repudiates Marriage Not Performed by Priest.

Another argument in favor of a uniform marriage law was furnished in the Montreal police court when a husband appeared before the Magistrate on a charge of non-support. A dispatch from that city says;

Fearing that her husband would deny their marriage, Mrs. M. L. Behaegel, of 118 Wolfe street, appeared before Judge Lafontaine in the police court to-day with her marriage certificate clutched tightly in her hand. Mrs. Behaegel was in court as complainant against her husband, Francis Henri Behaegel whom she charged with non-support.

The couple have only been married since last month and marital difficulties have already brought them into court. Although they are both Catholics they were married by a Presbyterian minister here. The husband, according to his wife's story, has declared the marriage illegal because they were married outside their church and he refused to support her.

The question of the legality of the marriage was not raised in court today and the husband was directed to pay his wife $5 per week.

AUTOMOBILE BY-LAW WITHDRAWN

For One Week Owing to Toronto Exhibition.

The by-law to aid the Canadian McIntyre Automobile Company to locate here, which has passed two readings in Council, will not be presented to the electoral vote on September 5th, as previously announced. Owing to that date running into the week on which the Toronto exhibition will be in progress, the Council came to the conclusion it would be unwise and imprudent to adhere to that date.

The by-law has therefore been withdrawn for one week.

If the by-law carries it will undergo its third reading.

The Canadian McIntyre Automobile Company, under the conditions enacted by the Council, must guarantee to commence operations on or before Dec. 31st, 1912. The concessions asked from the city are extremely mild, and the prospects for such a concern carrying on operations in Peterborough are very bright.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor of the Review.

Dear Sir—I wish to draw your attention to a by-law recently passed in this city, regarding the tying or weighting of horses left standing on the street. I think the law is not enforced properly, and especial notice should be paid to farmers and out of town horses, who are more easily frightened than those used to the city.

The accident to my father, Mr. A. Peters, last Thursday, on George st., which came near killing him, happened through carelessness on the part of the driver, who should have had some one guarding his team or had them securely tied. Its alright for some people to say, "Oh, accidents will happen," but a little more care will save doctor bills and perhaps life.

I think if a law is worth while making, it should be worth while to enforce it.

We also wish to express our thanks for the ready assistance given at the time of Mr. Peters accident.

Hoping this will find space in your paper.

I remain,

BERT PETERS.

CHAPMAN DIED NATURAL DEATH

Former Peterboro Man Was Not Murdered in Toronto.

William Chapman, a former resident of Peterboro, and whose relatives reside in this city, was found dead on the street in Toronto the other day, near his residence. Foul play was suspected and an inquest was ordered.

The theory of the police, that the man was fatally assaulted in a row over a woman, came to nothing. At the inquest held in Toronto last night it was shown that Chapman came to his death by falling down the steps leading to his house.

PREPARING FOR LABOR'S HOLIDAY

J. J. Thompson and Trades Council Committees Will Arrange Details.

The Trades and Labor Council held its regular monthly meeting last evening in Labor Hall. The principal business of the evening was the consideration of the report of the committees, which have in hand the arranging of the program for the big day of sports at Riverside Park on Labor Day.

Mr. J. J. Thompson, the physical director of the Y.M.C.A., who so successfully managed the program last Labor Day, will again be in charge. He has also consented to act in conjunction with the games committee, in arranging for the various events and securing special features for the day.

As soon as all these details have been decided upon, a full announcement will be made.

A good turnout of representatives from the various local unions is assured and a procession will be formed and will march to the grounds.

As last year, valuable prizes will be given away free on ticket coupons

PRIDE WENT BEFORE A FALL

Local Cabby Didn't Know His Vehicle Was on Fire.

It was a case of when ignorance is bliss, with a local "cabby" yesterday afternoon, when a closed hack, of which he was in charge, came near vanishing in smoke. It happened in East City.

The Jehu was sitting stiff and erect upon the box, in the immaculate cabby's attire, silk hat, gloves, and all the other accessories. The cab was stationary in front of a handsome East City residence, waiting for passengers to emerge from the house.

Several young ladies passing by, were surprised to notice smoke curling out of the open windows of the vehicle. Actuated by the proverbial feminine curiosity they peeped in and were startled to see the cushions blazing merrily. Fatally unaware of the blaze, the man on the box, looking like a living statue, continued to observe a complete indifference to all living things.

When the ladies managed to direct his attention to the damage going on, inside the vehicle, his agile efforts to extinguish the flames were amusingly contrasted to his previous rigid deportment. The blaze was caused evidently, by a lighted cigar stub, that had been left on the cab cushions, thereby igniting them.

PETERBORO IS REPRESENTED

W. R. Morris With the Excursionists to New Ontario.

Mr. W. R. Morris is with the excursion of Canadian business men who started yesterday on a tour of New Ontario. The visitors inspected the mines at Cobalt and later left for Haileybury where they spent the night. A discussion was held as to the best means to be employed to encourage settlement and the conclusion arrived at was that settlers should be assisted by loans and furnished with good roads.

The excursionists are well pleased with the resources and the possibilities of the clay belt. Without exception the drive through the farming section astonished the delegates. Mr. H. L. Janzen of Berlin, who was born and brought up on a farm, said: "The soil is immensely rich and practically inexhaustible. When Manitoba and Saskatchewan are exhausted this land will be in full production."

Mayor Schmalz of Berlin said: "To use a manufacturing simile, the land up there is 'all wool and a yard wide.' We had heard of Cobalt, but this is a surprise."

Horse Ran Away

While a traction engine was being unloaded at the rear of Grand Trunk station yesterday, one of the horses attached to a big delivery van became frightened and started off. The van was soon without a pair of shafts and other small attachments. The horse then fell down and badly caulked himself, but on the arrival of the expressman the animal was quickly gotten upon his feet.

WHITE CAPS STRUCK A SNAG IN GAME WITH HAMILTON

Rowan's Pitching Gave the Kolt a Walk-over, But Outside of the Mound the Playing of the Petes Was up to the Standard—Ladies' Day To-morrow.

The Caps, who for the past few weeks have been knocking vigorously at the respective back doors of Berlin and Guelph for admission higher up, received a rather rough jolt yesterday afternoon when Mr. Knotty Lee's fiery Kolts broke into Riverside pasture and fed on Davey Rowan's slants for seventeen large safeties. The brace of games on the holiday, together with Tuesday's contest, wore down the local's firing line and Davey, who stepped into the breach was unable to muzzle the Hams, who swelled their batting averages considerably at his expense.

It was by no means a walk-away, however, as the Caps went after the visitors in truly aggressive fashion and succeeded in cutting away a great deal of the lead piled up against them in the early part of the struggle. Nevertheless the Lee tribe were not to be reined in and the local fielders had a strenuous time of it, chasing hits that were fairly well bunched. The fielding was hardly of the usual variety, the Caps contributing three times to their error list, while a lone slip-up was the only chalk mark on the Hamilton page.

Two fast doubles brightened up the Petes' defence work, Brant and Nicholls, the local Gold Dust Twins, with the help of Barthold choking off two ambitious Kolts in the third, while in the seventh "Nick" scooped up Corns' liner, tagged Daddy Keenan, who was limping to second, and played back to first.

Crystal who opposed Davy on the rubber, had a good assortment which, coupled with the splendid support given him, had the victory tucked away under his belt from the start.

A pair of satches by Cameron terminated two quarter-mile dashes, and one by Swartzmeir, far back in the burdocks, featured in the visitors' work, while Beard and Nicholls shone for the Petes.

The Hams got away with the pistol. Murphy singled to right, Swartzmeir bunted safely and Keenan lined hard to Brant, who booted it to the outfield, allowing Murphy and Swartzmeir to score. Corns forced Keenan at second and Fisher's hit to Brant was mishandled but the hitter was choked at the middle station when he tried to stretch it to second. Killilea flew to White.

Brant drew a pass but was caught napping off first by Crystal who has a rare ability for watching the bases. Barthold singled to left centre, advancing to third on White's single to the outfield and scored on "Peggy" Swartz's liner to short. Trout flew to centre and Beard grounded to the box.

The Hams were unable to increase their lead in the second. Brant's fine running pick up and accurate throw of Crystal's drive, robbing the visitors of a chance to get on bases.

The Caps grabbed another in their half on Nicholl's drive to second a sacrifice by Rowan and a single by Brant which got away from Corns and allowed "Nick" to tally.

The Kolts were checked up again in the third, one of the doubles doing the trick. Score 2—2.

The Petes were blanked in their half and the Lee outfit made it two more in the fourth. Killilea walked, Cameron sacrificed and the former tore around for third and was allowed to stay there on Mr. Pearson's much disputed decision. Byrne apparently nailing him when he was a city block away from the bag. This decision started a volley of crabbing from some of the feverish fans that stuck with "his umps" till the finish.

Byrne drew a pass for the locals, but was marooned on first, while Beard and Rowan grounded out and Nicholls flew to second. Score 5—2.

The visitors picked off another brace of counters in the fifth, on singles by Fisher and Crystal, a beautiful made-to-fit bunt by Cameron, and Nicholls' slip up when Trout's cannon ball throw went through him. The Caps' efforts were fruitless in their half. Score 7—2.

Daddy Keenan sat on one of Rowan's shoots and walked, but failed to advance when Corns' liner was fielded for a double play. Fisher's single to left, Killilea's double to the same territory, and Cameron's slam through the box made it 9—2.

With two out, a single by Byrne, Nicholls' drive to right and Rowan's grounder that was difficult for Cameron to handle, got the Caps' their third run.

The Kolts were checked up in the next session, while the locals annexed a pair on Swartz' walk, a triple by Trout and Beard's long fly to right. Nothing happened in the eighth for the visitors, while the Caps ran up another on singles by Nicholls and White and a pass to Brant, which advanced "Nick." Score 10—6.

In the closing innings Hamilton put the game securely on ice, when Swartzmeir was safe on Byrne's bad heave to first and Keenan had walked, Corns slashed out a triple, scoring both runners, but was tagged at the plate when he tried to stretch his hit into a homer.

The Petes were unable to close up, Swartz, Trout and Byrne grounding out. Score 12—6.

TO-MORROW IS LADIES' DAY

All Fannettes Will be Admitted to Riverside Free.

To-morrow will be ladies' day, at the Riverside Ball Park and a large number of entusiastic fanettes are expected to be in attendance, especially since the weather promises to be fine. The crabbed rooting of a dyed-in-the-wool fan makes a ball player come up on his toes and play the game, but strange to say the shrieks of the fair fanettes when a runner tumbles twenty feet in the dust in a slide for a base, and their merry applause for a play, they hardly understand, has much the same effect. So the presence of the fair sex lends as much "pep" to the struggle as anything else.

Who would be a baseball umpire when he could get a comparative ly peaceful and safe job painting church steeples or working in a powder factory?

CHEMONG REGATTA

Interesting Program for the Event to be Held Aug. 22nd

The Chemong Regatta will take place on Thursday, August 22nd, beginning at 1.30. This year's regatta promises to eclipse all the events of previous years, especially since an excursion will be run from Sturgeon for the occasion. The annual race for the Kawartha Challenge Cup, which was won last year by Mr. G. Hopwood, will be contested, as well as a number of new events, which will be posted later.

The preparations for the regatta are in the hands of a capable committee who are sparing no pains to make it a success.

The Park Hotel is under the management of Mr. R. Davis, who will be able to accommodate the visitors with supper. 'Busses will run to and from the city during the afternoon and all intending to be present are assured of good transportation.

The annual regatta dance will commence at 8.00 p.m. at the hotel pavillion and will last till 12.30. The 57th Band will be in attendance, afternoon and evening.

It wouldn't take long for most people to tell what they think of you.

Don't wait for things to come to you until you are too old to enjoy them.

London, Aug. 14.—(C.A.P. An Irish Duel.

John Eagan, a county judge, and Roger Barrett, master of the rolls at Donnybrook, participated in an affair of honor that has been handed down as a fine example of Irish humor. As quick as the belligerents were placed Barrett blazed away in the air, vowing his honor was satisfied. He would have walked off, but Eagan called on him to stop until he might be shot. "Fire away!" commanded Barrett, halting conveniently near. After taking deliberate aim Judge Eagan lowered his pistol. "No, Roger, I won't be bothered shooting you," he said, whereupon the warring pair shook hands warmly.

Don't Need Accident Insurance

There is no excuse for refusing to take out Accident Insurance as common as the one that the prospect "Don't Need it."

The average man thinks he never exposes himself to hazards that invite accidents.

Here are some of the illuminating facts in regard to the hazards of ordinary lives.

Is he the man who never goes anywhere, always remains at home? Whereabouts at home does he remain to escape danger? Inside the house? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents nearly 14 per cent occur inside the house. Is he safe there? Hardly.

While at home around the house, amid scenes of peace, is he free from danger? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 13 per cent are met with amid these peaceful surroundings.

Is he safe while walking the streets? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 16 per cent are met with by pedestrians. Hardly safe is he while walking?

A fraction of over 13 per cent of every one hundred injurious accidents are attributable to horses and vehicles. Nearly 7 per cent are attributable to Automobiles and Bicycles. Railroad and Steamship travel are not especially to be commended for possessing elements of safety as these contribute 14 per cent of every one hundred.

Even while engaged in recreation he is not safe, as its quota amounts to nearly 8 per cent of every hundred. There is only one place where a man is not liable to meet with injurious accidents, and that is—the grave. Sleeping there he is in no danger.

The above shows that everyone needs protection against Accident, and this protection can be obtained at a nominal cost by applying to

LOCAL LODGE S.O.E. DO NOT FAVOR CHANGE IN SOCIETY

Members Assert That the Order Purely Benevolent in its Object Will Not be Mixed up With the Marriage and Language Questions.

Dr. T. W. H. Young is a delegate from the local lodge of the S.O.E. to the biennial meeting of the order now in session at Niagara Falls.

A dispatch sent out from that town says that there will probably be a marked change made in the attitude of the order from a benevolent to a patriotic organization. An effort will be made to induce the Sons of England to co-operate with the Orange Associations in holding an English language congress in Toronto in Toronto next St. George's Day, in opposition to the extension of the bilingual schools.

The internal economy of the order will probably suffer from changes. The proposal to abolish the office of treasurer, combining with it that of secretary, will meet with strong opposition from the Toronto contingent, among whom are Messrs. Charles Mecca, John Aldrich and David Proctor. E. N. Miller, Aylmer, will be elected to the office of supreme president, and William Randall, now chairman of the board of general purposes, will likely be supreme vice-president. At the same time, it is proposed to elect supreme provincial vice-presidents in order that each province may be represented on the executive boards.

It has been suggested that the marriage question will form a feature of the discussions of the meeting, but a certain section of the delegates are anxious to sidestep this, although it is stated to-night that one of the delegates will precipitate the question by a formal motion. It may, however, come up as collateral to the invitation to participate in the English Language congress.

The reports of the secretary will show a substantial increase over the returns made to the Grand Lodge meeting two years ago; 9,833 new members have been added; $91,000 has been paid out in sick benefits and $112,000 in death claims.

Addresses of welcome were delivered to-day by Mayor Cole and O. E. Deres, president of the board of trade, which were suitably responded to by John Ferguson and Controller H. C. Hocken of Toronto.

E. L. Elcome, one of the most prominent members of the local lodge, said this morning that the dispatch was certainly news to him. No proposition to change the object of the order has ever been discussed in Peterborough. The society is a purely benevolent one, and no attempt to make it patriotic or political is in contemplation.

Mr. Elcome says the society as such has no business mixing up with the marriage law case, the language question or other matters of similar nature.

Special Correspondence.

Bensfort, Aug. 15.—A young unknown person of some seventeen summers came to our village a short time ago seeking employment and was directed to the home of Mr. Alex. Emberson, with whom he was soon engaged. He had spent only a few days when on Sunday in the absence of the family he ransacked the house procuring for himself to the value of some six or seven dollars in jewellery, money and sundries and made good his escape. He was later seen by some residents to the south, but at the time nothing was known of his theft. It is thought that he intended to secure the gold watch presented to Miss Bertha Emberson by Mr. J. H. Burnham a short time ago, but which Miss Emberson was fortunate to be carrying at the time. He posed as an American bound for New York State and it is stated that he had previously stolen a gold watch from Mr. Isaac Pimmott, a former resident of these parts, now residing near Peterborough.

Mr. Wallace Morrison left on Tuesday for the Northwest. All join in wishing him a pleasant trip and safe return.

Miss Margaret Kerr, who has been visiting friends here, left a short time ago for Toronto.

Mrs. Arthur Fletcher, of Saskatchewan, and her brother, Mr. Kidd, of Warsaw, have been visiting Mrs. Fletcher's father-in-law, Mr. John Fletcher recently.

Messrs. Nimmo and Huggins have added to their threshing outfit by purchasing the Sawyer & Massey clover mill, formerly owned by Mr. John Blakeley.

The deaths of the late Dr. Marshall and Mrs. Alfred Dawson are greatly regretted around this part both being widely known and highly respected and much sympathy is extended the sorrowing friends in their hour of trouble.

Our young oarsman Mr. James Hall and Mr. Harold Nurse, crossed the lake on Sunday to Mr. W. Kempt's of Gore's Landing, and we expect now that the rush of work is over, to hear of Mr. Hall doing many more stunts before navigation closes.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett of Peterboro spent Sunday renewing acquaintances in these parts.

Two later deaths in the persons of the late Andrew McClelland, a former resident whose death occurred in Calgary a short time ago, and that of the late David Wood, also widely known in these parts, are also greatly regretted by friends here, and much sympathy is extended sorrowing relatives in these parts.

Mrs. John Buckham and Miss Thorne, who have been visiting friends in the North West, returned home on Saturday, feeling much refreshed after their pleasant trip.

Mr. Everett Wood and Mr. Harry Quinn had a rather unpleasant experience. In returning from Peterboro they missed the steamer and had to return by means of a gasoline launch at a later hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morrison and family, of Peterboro, spent the holiday with friends here.

ABOUT RAILWAYS IN HUNGARY

In Europe the Canadian Pacific is now regarded as the most up-to-date railway in the world.

This is the statement of Mr. Johann Pappe, the director in charge of rolling stock, motive power and shops for the Hungarian State railways, who is now on a visit to Canada. "For that reason," said Mr. Pappe, "I consider it my duty as a railway man, as well as a great pleasure, to go over the system and make myself acquainted with it. That explains my presence in Canada."

Primarily Mr. Pappe's visit to this continent is to attend the annual congress of the International Association for Testing Railway materials, to be held in New York on September 3, but he has come a month earlier than necessary in order to tour the C.P.R. Mr. Pappe said the ponderous locomotives and huge coaches on the railway system of this continent were very impressive for European railwayman. The difference in size could be imagined when he said that while the load per axel here was 25 tons, that in Hungary was 16 1-2 tons, and in Germany 18. He states that the accommodation for the travelling public here is more luxurious than in Hungary, the corridor system of coaches, with the plentiful supply of fresh air, and all the other conveniences, making railway travelling far less tiring.

"Here," he said, "we see the benefits of competition. All the companies are vieing with each other to give the public the benefit of new inventions and betterment in service. In Hungary where all the railways belong to the state, we have no such spur to betterment in service. Consequently we are much less ready to adopt luxurious innovations."

The Hungarian State railways, he said, comprise from 13,000 to 14,000 miles of lines, and the net earnings are $36,000,000 a year, giving a return of four and half per cent. on the invested capital. Railway travel has been about 40 per cent. cheaper than here, but owing to increased naval and military expenditure, the charges had been increased 30 per cent. starting on August 1. Mr. Pappe said he and his fellow directors had been greatly interested in the experiment of the C.P.R. in starting a service of observation coaches on the Austrian railways, and if it were successful they hoped to see this system extended to the Hungarian State railways.

"I have been talking to Mr. G. M. Bosworth on the subject since I came here," he said, "and I have extended an invitation to him to come and see Budapest, when he visits Vienna next October, and talk over the subject further with our Minister of Commerce and Communications, Mr. L. Boethy."

STING OF A SNAKE

Fiery Ordeal That Follows a Kiss From a Puff Adder.

IT IS ALMOST CERTAIN DEATH.

Dramatic Experience of a Man Who Received the Venom Laden Caress and Yet, In Spite of the Doctor's Verdict, Lived to Tell the Tale.

Not many men are alive to tell what it is like to be bitten by a puff adder, one of the most venomous of snakes. In South Africa, where it is found, its bite is believed to be certain death. Nevertheless F. N. Streatfield, formerly resident commissioner of Bechuanaland, not only survived the bite of a puff adder, but told his story in the London Field. He had captured the snake, which was three feet and a half long, in South Africa, and was bringing it home confined in an old cartridge box to present to the Regent's park zoo. He says:

Somehow or other it became known to my fellow passengers that I had a puff adder in my portmanteau, and they begged to be allowed to see it. For a long time I refused, but at last was overpersuaded and fetched her ladyship.

Taking her out of her box and grasping her close behind her head, I explained to the company the marvelous economy of the poison apparatus. I opened her mouth and displayed the fangs, showed the poison glands and how the muscles that raised the fangs at the same time pressed on the glands and forced the poison through the tiny duct.

Having concluded my lecture, I began to put her ladyship back into her temporary home. In getting rid of a poisonous snake you should be sure that no coil is wound round an arm and that its whole body is free. Then when you let go your hold your hands should be instantly snatched away out of reach.

When I was in the very act of quitting my hold some one spoke to me, and I have no doubt that I left my hand within reach of the deadly fangs instead of snatching it away. I must have turned my head toward the man who spoke to me, for I did not see the stroke.

But I felt as if a knife had been sharply drawn across my finger, and, looking down, I saw the blood flowing freely and her ladyship out of her box, trying to make her way across the table. I snatched her back by the tail, caught her by the neck again and got her safely into the box.

When I was struck there were about twenty men in the room. Twenty seconds afterward there was not one. I never saw a room cleared in like time. They simply tumbled over each other. When the prisoner was again under lock and key the company came slowly back, and the doctor appeared.

I asked for ammonia. There was none on the ship, and so I had to take a great deal of brandy. I lanced my finger down to the bone, where the snake's fang had made a wound. Then I sucked the wound vigorously.

I gave my keys and home address to my good friend, W. L., who promised to look after me and to carry out my instructions while I remained insensible. Soon after that I became unconscious.

I had told L. that I should be reported dead, but that I should not be, and that if he could get even a few drops of brandy down my throat when my heart failed it would jog on again, and that by and by I should come to. It was 10 o'clock when I lay down on the smoking room sofa and became unconscious. When I came to again the east was rosy with the morning sun.

Several times during the night the doctor told L. that I was already dead, and if my friend had not obstinately refused to listen to him and insist on following out my own instructions I should have been sent, wrapped up in a piece of canvas, to the bottom of the sea, some 850 miles north of Madeira.

I never felt so ill or suffered such pain as when I recovered consciousness that morning. I ached from the tip of my finger to my shoulder, as if the bone had been redhot iron, and my swollen arm looked like a hard pillow.

They carried me to L.'s bunk, and there I lay for twenty-four hours. Then with the help of a friend's arm I could crawl a few yards. By degrees the pain grew less, and by the time I reached home I had begun to take a little interest in life, but for months I had to be very gentle with myself. I have never since been so strong as I was before and have come to know the meaning of the word "tired," something I did not know before her ladyship took hold of me.

Training a Cow.

T. P.'s London Weekly relates how Major Miles Malony of Ballyduff was amazed one morning to see from his bedroom window a little lad driving a cow back and forward again and again over a ditch and through a fence on his land. Hurriedly completing his toilet, he rushed out to question the little trespasser. "What are ye after with that cow? Is it to kill the beast ye want?" "Kill her! Shure, it's to keep her alive I want." "Keep her alive?" "Shure, it's taiching her to get her own living I am. There isn't a ditch or fince in the barony that'll hold her in afther I've done wid her." Then the major understood. The cow, in fact, was being taught to trespass in search of her own living.

C.P.R. TRAIN BADLY WRECKED THIS MORNING ON LINE NEAR BETHANY

THE INJURED

FIREMAN NEILSON — Slightly Bruised.
D. T. BROWN, Mail Clerk.
W. McKAY, Mail Clerk.
THOMAS BENNETT, Engineer.

Train No, 608 on the C. P. R. line due to reach Peterboro at 10.50 from Toronto, was wrecked on the main line at a point on the other side of Bethany. The train rolled over on its side into the ditch. The engineer, fireman and four others were hurt.

A special engine carried several Peterboro doctors to the scene of the wreck, at 11 o'clock.

Station Agent Dodds and a special wrecking crew left at 1 o'clock for Bethany to clear the track.

The regular train due to reach this city at 11.17, came around by way of Lindsay and Bethany and arrived in Peterboro several hours late.

TRAIN THREE HOURS LATE

The train bearing the transferred passengers of the derailed 10.50 C.P.R. arrived at the local station at 2.30 pm., coming into Peterboro by way of Bethany.

HAMILTON MAN SAW WRECK

Wm. D. McMurdy, a Hamilton man, one of the passengers on the 11 17 C.P.R., said that he saw the wreck shortly afterwards. All the coaches save the last, were thrown from the track and he was told that the engineer and the mail clerk were the only two hurt. The mail clerk was reported to have sustained a broken leg, and the engineer suffered a severe shaking up.

The line will not be cleared until to morrow some time, so Mr. McMurdy stated.

All the passengers going through Peterboro, about 20 in all, so one report says, were transferred on the 11 17 which was following.

None of the passengers were reported injured, although many were bruised and otherwise shaken up.

ENGINEER BENNETT STAYS ON DUTY

Engineer Thomas Bennett, of Havelock, who was at first reported to be severely hurt, sustained only minor injuries and was able to remain on duty.

Fireman Neilson was probably the most painfully injured, so the one reliable report says. Two mail-clerks named D. T. Brown and W. MacKay, were also slightly bruised.

The train consisted of two coaches and the mail car.

ROAD-BED SANDY

The road-bed in the locality where the derailment occurred is said to be very sandy, and whether the rails spread, causing the accident, is a matter of conjecture. The accident, so one report says, occurred around ten o'clock.

The news of the affair was very late in being circulated in the city, the C.P.R. Company of course, being the first to be informed of it. In accordance with railroad regulations, little information was divulged by the C.P.R, officials pending the issuing of the official statement. The Toronto morning papers came into the city on the first train to arrive here at 2.30 p.m.

ONE DIVER WAS DROWNED, ANOTHER BADLY INJURED

While Engaged In Salvaging a Scow Which Was Wrecked Near Port Burwell Some Time Ago, Edward West of Sarnia Is Jammed Under Wreckage and Perishes — Companion May Live.

Port Burwell, Aug. 16.—Pinned beneath a sunken scow about a mile out of Port Burwell, Edward West of Port Huron, Mich., was killed, and another whose name has not yet been ascertained, lies here in a precarious condition.

The men were divers in the employ of the Great Lakes Towing Co. of Cleveland, Ohio, who had been engaged to salvage a scow, the property of the Hogan Company of Port Colborne, which was wrecked here some time ago in forty feet of water with a heavy load of stone.

The men had donned their suits and descended to the floor of the lake directly after dinner. Air was being pumped into the sunken scow. Suddenly heaving, the cumbersome vessel flopped over on its side, pinning two men like rates in a trap.

A rescue party was soon on the scene when informed of the accident, and although the unknown diver was pulled out by his lifeline, every effort to rescue West proved unavailing. The line about the suit of the latter had been snapped in the heaving of the vessel and the location of the disconnected body could not be ascertained up to a late hour last night. The rescue party is still on the scene.

The other man was badly crushed and though still unconscious hope is held out for his recovery.

'Twas Quiet In Belfast.

Belfast, Aug. 16.—For the first time in many years there were no Catholic demonstrations here yesterday in celebration of the Feast of the Assumption. This was due to a manifesto issued by the officials of the Ancient Order of Hibernians advising the abandonment of meeting that had been arranged; and thus to avert the possibilities of conflict with the Orangemen.

Normal conditions have been restored at Belfast shipyards, where for several weeks fights between Protestant and Catholic workmen were very frequent.

ROYAL PRINCES COMING HERE

London, Aug. 16.—It is stated unofficially, but on good authority, that arrangements are being made for the Prince of Wales and his brother, Albert to pay a private visit to the Duke of Connaught in Canada during the summer vacation next year, under the charge of their tutor, Henry P. Hansell.

The Imperial princes are expected to remain in Canada for a month, during which time they will see something of the rising cities of Western Canada and indulge probably in a big game shooting expedition.

The two youths may return home by way of the United States, staying for a few days at New York before embarking on a steamer at that port, bound for England.

Two Views of Darrow.

Los Angeles, Aug. 16.—Two word portraits of Clarence S. Darrow, wholly different, were held before the jury in the Darrow bribery trial yesterday. The first, by Darrow himself, at the close of a remarkable plea in his own behalf, painted him as the life-long friend of the poor and oppressed, ready to sacrifice himself to better their condition.

The other, drawn at the beginning of the final argument by District Attorney John T. Fredericks, presented Darrow as an enemy of society, "inciting class hatred and shedding maudlin tears of sympathy for murderers and dynamiters."

The prosecutor will consume all of to-day in concluding.

CONNAUGHT AT HALIFAX

He Is Busy With a Round of Ceremonial Functions.

Halifax, Aug. 16.—His Royal Highness was pleased with the proceedings at the dedication of the memorial tower Wednesday, and yesterday sent the following message to His Majesty:

"To the King, England:

"On the occasion of the dedication of the tower, commemorative of the first overseas legislative assembly, I send you in the name of representatives of Canada, of its provinces, of Australia, Newfoundland and England, dutiful expressions of loyalty.

(Signed) "Arthur."

The following reply, dated Bolton Abbey, England, was received last evening:

"To H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught Halifax:

"Will you convey to the representatives my sincere thanks for their message and assure them that I much appreciate their expressions of loyalty.

(Signed) "George R.I."

The duke was kept busy again yesterday. In the forenoon he visited the dockyard where his brother, the late King, landed in 1860. In the afternoon he laid the corner-stone of a new science building for Dalhousie University, for which Andrew Carnegie has promised $40,000. Then he unveiled a corner-stone marking the place where Sir John Moore had his quarters in Halifax. The site is now occupied by the Bank of Nova Scotia. Last night he attended a state banquet at Government House. To-day he goes to Windsor.

Scottish Teachers at Kingston.

Kingston, Aug. 16.—The touring Scottish teachers, guests of the city yesterday, were tendered a luncheon at the Frontenac Hotel and given an automobile drive around the city, visiting Queen's University and the Royal Military College. At Grant Hall, they were tendered an official welcome by Mayor Hoag, W. F. Nickle, M.P., and Dr. A. E. Ross, M.P.P., J. B. Walkem, K.C., chairman of the school board, and Dean Ellis of Queen's. Last night the visitors attended a band concert given in Macdonald Park by the R.C.H.A. band.

NON-UNION MEN PUT TO FLIGHT

Serious Labor Riots at Tilbury Docks This Morning.

Special to the Review.

London, Aug. 16—A severe fight occurred to-day between union and non-union laborers at Tilbury Docks. The police force was too weak to deal with the rioters and even men were injured before the non-unionists were put to flight. As the men were fortunately unarmed, there were no serious casualties.

INDICTMENTS IN ROSENTHAL MURDER CASE HELD BACK

Although the Evidence Against These Under Arrest In Ney York Is Sufficient to Indict, Whitman Wants to Hear What Newly-Arrested Man Has to Tell—Private Reward May Have to Be Offered for Gangsters.

New York, Aug. 16.—At the request of District Attorney Whitman, the grand jury yesterday withheld the filing of its pending indictments against the murderers of Herman Rosenthal in order to hear the testimony of Sam Schepps, now on his way here from Hot Springs, Ark., in the custody of Assistant District Attorney Rubin. While the county prosecutor believes that the evidence thus far submitted to the jury is sufficient for the purposes of indictment, he advised the jury yesterday that it would be best to hear the testimony of Schepps, in order to further strengthen the evidence.

The district attorney expects that Schepps, who is said to have been a passenger in the "assassination car" while the murderers of Rosenthal were being rounded up, will add interesting details to the manner in which the murder was planned, which will strengthen the true bills contemplated against "Gyp the Blood," "Dago Frank" Cirofiel, "Whitey" Lewis and "Lefty Louis," the alleged murder crew.

Mr. Whitman also believes that Schepps will be able to throw light upon the manner in which the alleged murderers were paid, which will corroborate the testimony of Jack Rose and "Bridgie" Webber, that Lieut. Charles Becker, charged with instigating the murder, was responsible for the payment.

Schepps is expected here to-morrow and will go before the grand jury on Tuesday as a material witness, unless in the meantime he disappoints the expectations of the state by refusing to tell his story. In that case one more indictment will be handed down that day and the name of the man it would accuse of complicity in the murder would be Schepps.

Reports were current that Webber, who with Rose and Vallon were witnesses before the jury yesterday, had given testimony which conflicted with his previous stories, but it was learned that Webber steadfastly stood by all that he had said regarding Lieut. Becker and other defendants in the murder.

Impatient over what he regards as the "peculiarly unprecedented" failure of any city authority to offer a reward for the capture of "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louis," who to-day will have been at large one month since Rosenthal was slain, District Attorney Whitman declared last night that he himself would offer a reward of $5,000 for the capture of the two men, dead or alive. Although the two men are wanted for the most sensational murder in the history of the city—a murder that has led to revelations of organized graft in the police department—no reward such as is commonly offered for the capture of criminals by the smallest country communities, has thus far been offered, it was pointed out by the county prosecutor last night, for the arrest of these two alleged murderers, either by the police or any other authority representing New York City.

While the district attorney's office is not provided with funds for this purpose, Mr. Whitman said that he expected to obtain the $5,000 from certain public-spirited citizens, which he would formally offer next week if the city authorities do not in the meantime offer a reward.

FINAL ACTION TO BE TAKEN TO-DAY

Panama Bill to Make Last Appearance In Senate.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The Panama Canal bill agreed to on Wednesday by the conferees of the House and Senate will be pushed for final action in both bodies to-day. Opposition is expected from those who oppose free tolls to coastwise ships or who object to other provisions of the bill, notably the railway and anti-trust sections.

Senator Bristow, Progressive, was the only representative of the Republican forces of the two bodies who signed the conference agreement. He will join with Senator Simmons, Democrat, in urging approval of the agreement by the Senate. Senator Brandegee, who declined to approve the completed bill, in conference, is expected to lead the fight against objectionable feature of the agreement.

It is understood that Senator Bristow has made it clear to Republicans in the Senate who oppose the bill as now agreed upon that he will object to any temporary resolution that would carry final approval of the bill over until December. One plan suggested was to give President Taft authority to begin an organization of the canal forces, leaving the general subjects of tolls and railroad control of steamship lines to be settled at the next session.

Representative Adamson, who framed the original canal bill, is expected to have the support of the Democratic forces in the House in approving the conference agreement.

Representative Stevens, the Republican House member of the conference committee, decline to sign the paper,

NAT GOODWIN SERIOUSLY HURT

Los Angeles, Aug. 16.—Nat C. Goodwin, the actor, was seriously and probably fatally injured about noon yesterday at Rocky Point, 12 miles south of Hueneme, by first being thrown from a skiff on the rocks by the breakers, and then being struck by the boat itself as it was dashed ashore.

Goodwin and a woman of his company, engaged the launch Nora, Captain Hyder of Santa Monica, to make a trip up the coast yesterday with a view of locating some land which, Goodwin said, he wished to buy and convert into a summer resort.

The woman had a note, which she told Captain Hyder was for an Indian who lived near Hueneme, and when a spot 12 miles south of that place had been reached, she espied an Indian hut and demanded that Captain Hyder take her note ashore and give it to the Indian. Hyder refused because of the strong tide and rough breakers, but Goodwin, taking off his coat and vest grabbed the note and jumped into a rowboat. At the boat reached the breaker line, it was overturned. Goodwin was thrown on shore and stunned. With the next roll of breakers, the boat was thrown upon Goodwin.

Hyder got Goodwin into the launch and hurried to Santa Monica, where the actor was placed in a hospital. His condition is critical.

Canada Wants Britons.

London, Aug. 16.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—Hon. R. L. Borden, questioned regarding the advertisement, "No English need apply," reported as having appeared in the western Canada press, declared, "I know of none. Emigration from the British Isles is hailed by Canadians and there is no reason why they should not succeed in the Dominion. Men and women were not lost at the pier when they emigrated to Canada, where opportunity walked side to side with every capable industrious man. Men were needed today to settle on the land, while agricultural laborers and domestic servants were in great demand."

Probing Ottawa's Water Scandal.

Ottawa, Aug. 16.—The City Council last night placed City Solicitor McVety in full charge regarding the judicial enquiry to be held to inquire into the causes leading to a leak in the waterworks pier. He can summon any city employes and engage any assistants he considers necessary.

Suicided In Husband's Presence.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 16.—Because her husband accepted a position travelling with a theatrical troupe, Mrs. Roy Johnston committed suicide at her Main street home yesterday by taking carbolic acid. Her husband witnessed the woman's act.

C.P.R. MAY MEET OPPOSITION TO INCREASE OF ITS STOCK

Churchill or Nelson?

Winnipeg, Aug. 16.—Complete profiles of the Hudson Bay Railway to tidewater were put on exhibition yesterday at the Dominion Government Public Works Department here. Much curiosity existed as to how the rival claims of Fort Churchill and Port Nelson for the terminal would be dealt with, but the engineers show the lines to both ports.

It can be definitely stated that no choice between them has yet been made nor will be until Hon. Frank Cochrane returns from his trip north, the main object of it being to inspect both ports and come to a decision.

Australians Buy Our Autos.

Montreal, Aug. 16.—According to figures given out by the New England Shipping Co., Canada's export trade in automobiles to the Antipodes is rapidly increasing. The three vessels of the line which so far this season have sailed for Australian and New Zealand ports from Montreal have carried an average of 162 cars each, while 142 more cars have already been booked to go on the Wavwerq, which does not sail for some time.

During the 12 months ended May 1 last 1,120 Canadian-made cars were carried to New Zealand and Australia by the line.

Hurled to Death by Ferry Wheel.

Montreal, Aug. 16.—Joseph Dubord thought he saw a rope tangled in the paddles of the St. Helen's Island ferry while he worked near the flashing blades at noon yesterday.

He reached out as the blades shot by, caught one and was hurled fifty feet ahead of the steamer, describing an arc high in the air.

He sank to his death while 200 passengers stampeded to the bow of the boat to see him drown

DR. BLEWETT WAS DROWNED

Prominent Educationalist Lost His Life at Muskoka

Special to the Review.

St. Thomas, Aug. 16.—Word reached here to-day that Dr. Blewett, professor of Moral Philosophy, in Victoria University, was drowned in Muskoka, where he was spending the summer. He was a native of Yarmouth township near here, a profound student and one of the leading philosophers in Canada. He was 39 years old.

The Western Papers Are Hostile to the Proposal and Pressure Is Likely to Be Brought to Bear on the Government to Revisit the Issue — They Want Freight Rates Reduced Before Anything Is Done.

Ottawa, Aug. 16.—The Government of Canada is now faced with the responsibility of authorizing a proposed increase of $60,000,000 in the ordinary capital stock of the Canadian Pacific Railway. This is the amount which the shareholders will be asked to sanction at the thirty-first annual meeting of the company at Montreal on Oct. 2.

Formal notice of application has been made to the Government, and an order-in-council will be asked for ratifying the wishes of the directors.

The adoption of a bylaw will, it is stated, be necessary to enable the directors to give effect to the proposed increase, but full and final responsibility of authorizing the increase would appear to rest with the Government.

While it is difficult to gain any expression of opinion from members of the Cabinet, the general sentiment at the capital appears to be that the proposed increase will meet with considerable opposition, especially if any considerable percentage of reduction in the purchase of the new issue is granted to present shareholders. In any case, nothing will be done to decide the matter for some time, and certainly not till the return of Premier Borden.

West Will Object.

Winnipeg, Aug. 16.—Application of the C.P.R. for authority to increase the capital stock by $60,000,000 has aroused tremendous hostility throughout Western Canada and pressure is to be brought on the Government to prevent the issue. When the rumor first circulated a month ago, the press generally pointed out it was another case of melon-cutting since the huge surplus piled up by the company has been causing the officials so much uneasiness to know what to do with it.

There was an impression in Western Canada that freight rates admittedly excessive as compared with those in the States would be reduced. Instead of reasonable reductions the company has fought every effort in this direction, yet their surplus is piling up so fast that they are allowing superintendents at different points homes to live in at the expense of the company, costing in some cases a minimum of $25,000. A point the west remembers first is that provision in the charter which exempts the company from taxation until it is earning ten per cent. net on all investments. Obviously this has been exceeded, but the company finds ways to divert earnings to confuse assessors.

SUGAR DUTIES SAFE

Is there in all the world a man who really will stand out and out, for free trade for tariff for revenue, call it what you will, when a reduction of the duty is likely to touch him in the most sensitive part of his being—his pocket book?

The American Democrat is indigenous to the Southern States. The climate or some other physical environment seems favorable to the production of that variety of partisan. The Democrat believes in free trade, or says he does, but when that policy threatens his own particular line of industry, he is as good a protectionist as the best of them. The southern confines his agricultural efforts to the production of cotton and sugar. He is not interested in the wool industry, and if he can buy his supplies of woolen goods at a low figure, so much the better. Hence he exerts himself for what is practically free trade in these commodities and carries the wool bill over the president's veto.

But when it comes to sugar it is different. That is something he produces himself, and he desires the protective policy to shield him and his industry. Hence we read in Washington dispatches that the Democrat House of Congress will not interfere with the sugar duties, not this session. It is a safe forecast that succeeding sessions will witness the Democrats pursuing the same course.

LET US DROP IT

At irregular intervals religious discussions breaks out in some new form and the columns of the daily press teem with arguments, scriptural quotations and recriminations more or less personal in their nature. The question just now claiming the attention of those who delight in this style of controversy is whether or not there is a place of future punishment where the wicked shall burn for their sins to all eternity.

The first castor shied into the ring was from the hands of a devout local clergyman who pins his faith to the verbal inspiration of the Bible and will not admit anything resembling a figurative or metaphorical expression in the words of Holy Writ. The clergyman spurned all but a literal interpretation of the words of Christ, and in pondering on some of the conclusions at which he arrives frail humanity may be forgiven if it shudders in horror and trembles in dismay.

Of course the argumentative glove was picked up and the Bible students, more liberal in their views, went at the local divine hammer and tongs, his communication eliciting replies from persons so far away as Toronto. Orthodox clergymen so far have not entered the arena and may be depended upon to continue to hold aloof, even though they are assailed by both militant parties to the discussion.

In the interests of harmony, for the good of Christianity itself, would it not be well to let the entire matter drop? Controversies on such subjects if prolonged generally degenerate into what is little more dignified than street squabbles and certainly no good purpose is served by them. Probably three-fourths of the evangelical clergymen of the day have rejected the ancient belief in a literal lake of fire and brimstone, because they consider it not only unscriptural but a travesty on the idea of the Fatherhood of the Almighty. That they do not reject the doctrine, once regarded as essential, from the housetops is no evidence that they still hold to it. If their silence is maintained with the object of averting useless controversy, then that silence is to be commended.

The wise parent does not seek to guide his children in the path of rectitude by constantly threatening them with the terrors of corporal punishment. The obedience that is born of fear is no obedience at all. Nor does the same kind of parent seek to make his youth into an honest man by reminding him that the doors of the penitentiary yawn for all evil doers. The man who refrains from crime from no higher motive is not to be depended upon when the opportunity to do wrong presents itself and the police are out of sight. It is at best a morbid Christianity that is built on the belief that all those who fail in the observance of certain forms and ceremonies are to be submitted, for time without end, to the most awful torture that the human mind can picture.

Rev. G. W. Henderson, formerly pastor of the Charlotte street Methodist Church in this city, but now stationed in St. Catharines, preached to his new charge last Sunday on the subject of "Hell" and held to the old doctrine of material fire. An extract from his discourse will be found in another column. He holds that the minister who fails to warn his hearers of what is in store for the transgressor is derelict in his duty, and that some good elders who find themselves on the left hand side when the final separation is made will wish that their pastor had spoken out fearlessly and plainly.

Just one question. Are all the illustrations used by the Man of Galilee in His inimitable teachings to be accepted in a literal sense, even to the one in which He likened the trouble a rich man is to encounter in his pathway to Heaven to the difficulty a camel has in effecting a passage through the eye of a needle? If so then the man of wealth may abandon all hope when he closes his eyes in the last long sleep.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Eight Toronto policemen have resigned to go west. The wages offered for harvest hands is likely to lure many a man from his home and usual pursuits.

Law business in London must be something worth while when Mr. T. G. Meredith refuses an offer of $15,000 a year to go to Toronto has corporation council.

"Has anyone heard of the prosecution of combines in restraint of trade in Ontario?" asks the Globe. As so often happens, the Globe is barking up a tree in which there is no coon. Has anyone heard of combines in restraint of trade in Ontario.

The disturbance in Mexico has so degenerated that it is no longer worthy to be described as an insurrection. Murderers, thieves and robbers are not entitled to the consideration usually given men who are honestly striving to better their condition by taking up arms against a tyrannical government.

Dr. H. H. Furnace, the noted Shakespearian scholar, who recently died in Philadelphia deserves the gratitude of every lover of the Bard of Avon's works, seeing that he never attempted to force the Baconian theory upon a long suffering public.

The indicted Detroit Aldermen threaten to "get" the council committee clerk who "squealed." Here are the evil effects of the example set by the police of New York.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, Aug. 15.—There was a fair enquiry over the cable to-day for Manitoba new crop wheat for October-November shipment, but offers were about ¾c under sellers' views here, and little business was done. Oats were in good demand, and some business was reported. Flour is quiet with prices unchanged. Export business continues very dull, and there is not likely to be much change in this respect for another ten days, when the new crop outlook will become clearer. The weather in the west at present is on the whole favorable, but the situation still contains many elements of uncertainty. Local and district trade in flour keeps up about as usual. There is a good demand for millfeed and prices rule firm.

Butter and cheese are quiet. Prices have eased off small fractions in cheese at the country boards this week, but quoted prices remain the same. Butter is easy and slow.

NORWOOD MAN HURT IN TORONTO

C. W. Tucker Fell Under an Engine and Lost One of His Limbs.

Cecil W. Tucker, second eldest son of Mr. W. H. Tucker, of Norwood, met with a serious accident in the C.P.R. yards in West Toronto, when he fell beneath the wheels of a shunting yard-engine and had his left leg so badly crushed that it had to be amputated, and in addition he sustained several body bruises as well as internal injuries.

Tucker had been employed as brakeman with the C.P.R. for some time past, but, at the time of the accident, was acting as spare man in the yards. He was summoned out by the call boy at 9 o'clock the evening previous, to go to Lambton yards—a part of West Toronto. As it was raining quite hard he very reluctantly responded to the call. The rain no doubt made the footing uncertain and as he was riding on the pilot of the shunter, he slipped in some manner losing his grasp of the railing to which he was clinging. His foot was drawn under the wheels and he narrowly saved himself from being killed. An ambulance was at once called and he was conveyed to the Western Hospital.

Mr. Tucker left Norwood to see his son. He has returned and reports that while the young man is seriously injured, the doctors have hopes of his recovery.

KICKED TO DEATH BY VICIOUS HORSE

Richard H. Lapp of Valentia Meets Sudden Death

A sad fatality occurred a few miles north of Valentia early Wednesday morning when Mr. Rich. H. Lapp, about fifty years of age, was killed by a kick from a horse, which he was harnessing.

It appears that Mr. Lapp left the house before breakfast to harness the horse, and had the harness partly on. It is surmised that he was passing around the horse in order to put the crupper in place, when the animal kicked viciously striking Mr. Lapp a terrific blow square on the temple. He was knocked back against the stone wall, and when found was in an unconscious condition, from which he never recovered.

It was when Mrs. Lapp called him for breakfast and received no response that she feared something was wrong. She hurried to the stable and was shocked to find her husband in such a bad state. She immediately ran for the neighbors and Dr. Hall, of Little Britain was summoned, who sewed the wound up, and did everything possible to save the man's life. The wound was deep and the temple was badly crushed.

The late Mr. Lapp lived all alone with his wife on the farm, and was well-known in the township. He was an industrious farmer and had lived in the vicinity for years.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, at North Valentia Cemetery.

LION BEARDED IN HIS LAIR

Young Man Distributes Non-union Literature in a Local Printing Office.

He was a young man with a satchel and a look of cherubic innocence, but behind this bland expression, there was a store of gigantic nerve. He drifted into the composing room this morning, and began to distribute among the printers, copies of a booklet setting forth the saving and healing qualities of patent medicines, the reading of which causes us to wonder how it is that death continues to triumph.

The booklets were not printed by union labor, and the printers attaching to each copy the office seal of disapprobation, threw them at the young man with the satchel and the cherubic air, and with all the nerve. Even the devil refused one. He would not gather them up, but left the room seeking for new victims. The booklets were thrown out of the window and were subsequently kicked into the gutter by the young fellow, with temerity enough to grasp the labor problem by the throat and beard the lion in his den.

NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT

A family medicine cabinet that does not contain NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT is about as complete as a watch without a main spring, and worthy of no more confidence. NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT is true—"first aid"—to the injured. There is nothing better for sprains, bruises, cuts, wounds, etc.

There is no liniment we can recommend with more certainty of giving satisfaction. It will relieve pain, reduce swellings, and we know of no better liniment for the treatment of neuralgic and rheumatic pains and swellings, or the stiffening of the joints and muscles.

TWO MORE RURAL ROUTES FOR PETERBORO COUNTY

The Government Proposes to Extend the System Among the Local Farmers—The Territory to be Served by the Courier in Each Division.

Two new rural mail routes are to be established in Peterborough county, to be known as Routes 6 and 7, and they will be put in operation as soon as the contracts are closed. The Government has advertised for tenders which will be received up to 12 o'clock noon, September 27th.

The distance to be covered in Route 6 is fourteen and a half miles and the following territory will be served by the carrier:

The Courier to leave Peterborough P. O. daily, Sundays excepted, as soon as possible after the sortation of the mails due at Peterborough at 11.00 a.m., per Montreal, Smith's Falls and Toronto train east, proceed south-east to road which runs along the river for 1-2 mile when it joins the road allowance between 13th and 14th concessions in the centre of lot 25, thence south on said road allowance 3-8 mile to road running north across the 13th concession from lot 24 to road between lots 26 and 27, the said road also joins the road allowance between 12th and 13th concessions at this point, (distance of road running north across 13th concession is 1 1-8 miles to road between lots 26 and 27.) Thence south on road allowance between 12th and 13th concessions, (distance of 5 1-4 miles to road between lots 12 and 13)—(Keene Station Road), thence west on said road distance of 1 5-8 miles to road allowance between 14th and 15th concessions, thence north on said road 3 1-8 miles to road which runs north-east from between lots 21 and 22 across the 14th concession, joining the road allowance between 13 and 14th concessions on lot 24, distance of said road to road allowance between 13th and 14th concessions is 1 1-4 miles, thence continuing north-east on said road allowance distance of 1 1-4 miles to Peterborough.

The specifications for route No. 7 are as follows—

Courier to leave Peterboro P. O. daily, Sundays excepted, as soon as possible after the arrival of the mails by Montreal and Toronto, C. P. R. train due at 1.10 a.m., proceed east along the Norwood Road 5 3-8 miles to the road allowance between 6th and 7th concession, thence south on said road 3-4 miles to road between Lots 26 and 27, thence west on said road 3-4 miles to road allowance between 7th and 8th concession, thence south on said road 1 7-8 miles to road between lots 21 and 22, thence west on said road 1 mile to road allowance between 8th and 9th concession, thence north on said road 1 5-6 miles to road between lots 25 and 26, thence west on said road 7-8 miles to road allowance between 9th and 10th concession, thence north on said road 1-8 miles to road between lots 26 and 27, thence west along said road 3 1-2 miles to Peterboro.

The courier must be sufficiently educated to be able to sell postage stamps and purchase money orders and postal notes for the box holders.

The contract, if satisfactorily executed, will continue in force for a term, not exceeding four years: the Postmaster General reserving the right to terminate the agreement at any time previous to the expiration of the four years, should the public interest, in his opinion, require it upon giving the Contractor three months' previous notice of his intention.

All expenses on these routes for tolls, ferries, etc., must be defrayed by the contractor, who will not be permitted to transport intoxicating liquors from one point to another on the route during the performance of the mail service.

LAST MESSAGE OF THE DYING LEADER TO CANADIAN CORPS

Commissioner Dees Reaches Toronto From the Bedside of General Booth—No Hope that the Veteran Can Rally From His Present Illness.

Every member of the Salvation Army in Peterborough, officers and privates alike, are awaiting with intense interest news from the bedside of their dying chieftain, General Booth, who is critically ill at his home in London. All are fearing that the worst will happen. On account of the advanced age of the general and the breaking down of his constitution, which followed the loss of his sight, no hope is entertained that he will recover. Special prayers are being offered for the veteran leader by his devoted followers.

Commissioner Rees, who arrived in Toronto from England last Sunday, brings to the Canadian branch of the Army the last personal message which will probably ever be received from the general.

"I am resolved to go on with my work, blind or not blind," were the parting words of the leader to his officer. "It's a great loss, but I'm not going to moan about it. The work must go on and I must work, too. The poor must not be deprived of any help my brain and heart can give them, even though it may be declining strength and declining years. If I have to do a little less you must do a little more. The world must not suffer."

"Alas, what is contained in the despatches this morning is, we are afraid correct," declared the Commissioner in Toronto yesterday. "I was nearly the first to see him after his operation. It was one of his good days and I had a long conversation with him. I don't think there can be any doubt but that the substance of the telegram is correct. We who have been nearest him, have been convinced of it for the past two months.

"The doctors have issued bulletins daily for the past six or seven weeks and have said that his heart is normal, and for a man of 81 this is splendid, that his pulse was good; that his breathing was good, and that this was everything to give hope. Unfortunately there is to us who have been nearest him and have the best known him, while delighted in these bulletins, our own actual observation gave us grounds for serious anxiety.

"The trouble is that for the operation it was necessary to give him anaesthetics. Three days after the operation an inflammation appeared and it was necessary to administer more drugs to deal with that. The result is that these drugs have affected the stomach, and it is unable to deal successfully with food. The functions of the body have been disarranged. Another development is that he cannot sleep.

"For the past 50 years, on principle, the general has tried to discipline himself to do with very little sleep. In his palmy days it was very seldom that he had more than five or six hours sleep, even when he was conducting three meetings a day. Now I should say, it is a very rare thing when he gets more than one hour's sleep a day.

"Yet his brain and his heart are as full of plans for the aid of the poor as ever. He talked kindly as he always does about Canada. Talked with me at length about the work in Canada, he vowed he would come to Canada and he discussed with me the work for the poor, the prisoners, the children and the down-and-outs. And even since that I have received several long letters from him all about the work. Prayers will go up for the general wherever there is a Salvation Army Home and family today. He is regarded by his people not as a general, but as a parent. Letters sent by the commissioner to officers throughout Canada to-day all commend the general to their prayers.

FORMER PETERBORO MAN WINS HIGHER PROMOTION

Mr. R. C. Brown Made District Superntendent of the Manitoba Provincial Telephone System—A Sketch of His Successful Career in the West—Still Hale and Vigorous.

Mr. R. C. Brown, formerly of Peterborough, has been appointed District Superintendent of the Manitoba Provincial Telephone System, with headquarters at Portage la Prairie. His many friends will be pleased to hear of his success. The district of, which he has charge includes the territory from near the western boundary of the city of Winnipeg west to Brandon, and as far north as the telephone system extends, something over two hundred miles.

Mr. Brown has been in the West for the past 35 years. He left Peterborough on June 30th, 1878, with his uncle, George A Stewart, D.L.S., to survey timber limits in the Riding Mountains, in the N.W. Territories. He returned to Peterborough in May, 1879. In July, 1879, he went west again with the late Theodore Clementi as "lure of the west" was too strong for him. In November, of '79 he entered the employ of Walter J. S. Traill, an ex-officer of the H.B. Co., who was then in the grain business at Emerson, West Lynne, and was sent to Portage la Prairie to look after grain interests at that point.

The following June he accepted the position of Deputy Registrar in the local Registry office here, which he held until August, 1889, when he was appointed deputy of the district Registrars under the "Torrens System." This position he held until July, 1894, when he went to Winnipeg to accept a position with the Great West Life Assurance Co.

Still looking for wider scope, on June, 1897, Mr. Brown moved to Dauphin, opening up in real estate, insurance and general commission business.

In 1905 he was appointed local agent for the Bell Telephone Co., starting an exchange of 14 subscribers. Owing to the rapid development of the district and the growing importance of the town of Dauphin, with hard work he succeeded in building an exchange of 500 subscribers.

In January, 1908, the Bell system within the provincial boundaries of Manitoba, was taken over by the government, and Mr. Brown was given supervision over a large territory.

In October, 1910, he was appointed to take charge of No. 2 district, with headquarters at Portage la Prairie, the province at that time being divided into seven districts

Recently the Manitoba Government Telephone System has been entirely reorganized, and instead of seven districts as formerly, there are now three, with headquarters at Winnipeg, Portage la Prairie and Brandon. Mr. Brown has now been appointed superintendent for District No. two, with headquarters at Portage la Prairie, which embraces about one-third of the province, with general supervision over all the commercial traffic and construction work. He has a large office staff, also a large field force.

Mr. Brown served on Dauphin Town Council for eight years, three of which were in the mayor's chair, and served five years on the Dauphin School Board. He also held the position of clerk of the County Court for five years for the Judicial District of Dauphin in conjuncion with his duties as telephone agent.

When the North-West Rebellion of 1885 broke out, he raised two companies for active service and served through the rebellion as lieutenant in "C" Company, 95th Battalion, under Lieut.-Col. Scott, afterwards joining the Manitoba Dragoons as adjutant for two years. He moved to Winnipeg and joined the 90th Rifles. He has always taken a deep interest in sports, being an enthusiastic curler and rifle shot, and was a representative of the Manitoba Provincial team at the Dominion matches at Ottawa eleven different times. He is too busy now to keep up rifle shooting, but still sticks to the "roarin' game."

He has held several chairs in the Masonic Grand Lodge of Manitoba, and was District Deputy Grand Master for two terms.

He is still in his prime, hale and hearty and looks forward to many years of useful work for his favorite western province. He had planned a trip to Peterborough this summer, but owing to the press of business engagements has been obliged to postpone it for another year.

HAMILTON KOLTS TAKE ONE MORE FROM THE WHITE CAPS

Score in Yesterday's Struggle at Riverside Park was 7-5 in Favor of the Visitors—Hanson Had an Off Day, and the Fielding of the Petes was not as Starlike as Usual.

The Kolts nibbled viciously on Riverside grounds again yesterday, and during the repast kicked seven large holes on the credit side of the score board. The struggle was decidedly see-saw and looked as if extra inning periods would be required to settle it, but the Hams threw on extra speed in the ninth and pinched a two-run lead that won the game.

They bunched their hits at critical moments and the Caps' fielding, which of late has been of the stellar variety, contained a few loopholes through which the visitors scored a run or two. Rose, who opposed Hanson at the guns, had a few shades on the big fellow, the latter fanning five and giving three walks, while seven of the Caps whiffed at the south-paws slants and only one drew a pass.

"Hans" was a trifle wild, and when he did groove them the Kolts fell on him hard with the stick. They had the big end of the hitting, again connecting safely for 16 swats, while the locals had to be satisfied with ten. The Caps also threw down a chance or two by loose base running, and the visitors were generally present to take advantage of a slip-up of this nature.

Taking it all round the locals will have to come a shade stronger with the stick and buckle on their usual fighting togs for the rest of the week if they want to split the series with the Burlington Jonahs.

However, the visitors had the break in the luck, a few questionable decisions going their way, and at the same time the local infield had to handle a number of grounded liners that hopped to the outfield at the [illegible] stage. Brant at short got the brunt of one of these from Murphy's bat in the ninth, the ball bounding hard into his face, and it required a few minutes before play could be resumed.

Schwartz in left field pulled off the sensation when he went far back for Corns' hard smash with a man on. A fast relay, Beard to Brant to Byrne, which cut off Schwartzmeir, who was trying to stretch his hit to a triple, also tickled the fans in the same innings, while Crystal in right field for the visitors handled Barthold's short outfly [illegible] in true big league fashion.

[illegible] started trouble in the opening session again. After Murphy struck out Keenan singled to left with Swartzmeir on, advancing the latter to third, both runners scoring on Corns' double. Fisher's single enabled Corns to make the circuit. Killilea sacrificed and Bryne knocked down Cameron's drive, but the runner was safe. Crystal grounded to the box and the preliminary was over.

For the Caps, Brant walked and went to second when Barthold's liner bounded off Murphy's shins. White sacrificed and after Swartz flew out Trout's single scored both runners. Beard's drive to left shoved Trout to third, the latter going to second on a throw to third from the outfield. Byrne slashed a timely single to left, sending Trout and Beard across. Score 4—3.

Nothing doing in the second. In the next also the Caps kept the lid tight and in their session just missed grabbing another when Nicholls flew to deep centre with Beard and Byrne on, but the latter made the third out when he failed to get back to the bag after the catch.

The Petes' only donation in the fourth was a pass to Rose, while in their half Hanson and Brant whiffed and Crystal made a fine running catch of Barthold's effort to right.

The visitors tied it up in the fifth, when Keenan was safe on Barthold's miss, Daddy going to second on a long caught fly from Corns, and scoring when White let Killilea's fly slip through him.

The Caps [illegible] out another notch on Swartz's single, Killilea's fumble of Trout's liner, and Beard's sacrifice.

Swartz and Beard got under outfield hits, and Trootie nailed "Connie" Murphy attempting to steal second.

In the seventh the Kolts trotted across for another when Fisher hit a fast drive through Byrne with Keenan on the third.

Neither team scored again till the ninth, when the visitors leaned on Hanson for a quartette of singles, which, together with a passed ball by Troutie, made the final 7—5.

"Dubbie" Shea, who was put in the breech to bat for Hanson, was struck out, and Brant's double to left was wasted when Barthold flew to left and White grounded to short.

Belleville's $50,000 Dock.

Belleville, Aug. 16.—It is anticipated that work will soon be commenced on the proposed Government dock to be built here. Yesterday D. H. Philps, a Government engineer, was in the city, and in company with the mayor, some city officials and others, inspected the proposed site. The sum of $50,000 towards this work was, through the efforts of E. G. Porter, M.P. for West Hastings, placed in the estimates at the last session of Parliament.

No Clue to Slayer.

St. Catharines, Aug. 16.—An open verdict was returned last evening by the coroner's jury which has been investigating for the past four weeks the death of Arakil Tarpinian, who was found murdered at his boarding house on the morning of July 15 last.

No new evidence was adduced at last evening's session and the jury decided that, from the medical evidence, Tarpinian had been wilfully murdered by a party or parties unknown.

To Protect Seals.

Washington, Aug. 16.—After four hours' debate the Senate yesterday passed a bill putting into effect the fur seal treaties with Japan, England and Russia, for the protection of seals in the Pribyloff Islands. The measure prohibits pegalic sealing, and by a vote of 42 to 16 the Senate placed in it a provision prohibiting land-killing on the islands for ten years.

An ineffective fight against the ten-year closed season provision, which was embodied in a Senate Committee amendment, was made by Senators Lodge and Root. Senators Nelson of Minnesota, Hitchcock, and Shively supported the amendment.

Infantile Paralysis Alarms the Falls.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 16.—Discovery yesterday that there is an epidemic of infantile paralysis here caused excitement on both sides of the river, bringing two provincial health officers from Toronto. It is said there are at least nine cases, the first victim, three-year-old Viola Andrews, dying yesterday morning.

A striking example of the effect of transportation facilities upon population as well as of the remarkable development of western towns is afforded in the case of the settlement of Trochu, situated at Mile 121 on the Tofield-Calgary branch of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. A tri-weekly passenger service from Tofield was inaugurated by the G.T.P. to this point within the past two or three weeks and already the population has risen to 1,000 souls and is rapidly increasing. For years settlers had been obliged to freight in their supplies a distance of 45 miles. Steel has now been laid beyond Trochu to Swalwell at Mile 144, so that only 60 miles remains to be completed before Calgary is reached.

The New York Sun's St. Petersburg correspondent says—"The policy at present decided upon by Russia and Japan leads straight to the partition of Manchuria and outer Mongolia and to the overlordship of those two empires in China proper."

Gas Well in Brantford.

Brantford, Aug. 15.—A gas well, yielding 40,000 feet per day, was struck in the heart of the residential district at A. Bixel's residence on William street yesterday. Drilling operations will be commenced at other residences in the vicinity.

Hospital Nurses Dismissed.

Nelson, B.C., Aug. 15.—The entire staff of eleven nurses of the General Hospital was dismissed for insubordination yesterday. The trouble was the result of threats to resign because a suspended nurse was not re-instated.

PREACHER WHO BELIEVES IN HELL

Rev. G. W. Henderson Formerly of This City Wakes up His New Flock.

Rev. G. W. Henderson, formerly pastor of the Charlotte street Methodist church, but now of St. Catharines, preached to his new charge last Sunday evening on the question of future punishment. The preacher believes in that doctrine as it was taught by our forefathers and in the course of his sermon he said—

"Nothing could have been stronger or more plain than Christ's denunciation of sin, and no words could have been plainer than His with reference to punishment for sin, when He spoke of a place of everlasting torment where the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched. There will be some good elders at the left hand on the judgment day who will be saying they wished their minister had spoken out fearlessly and plainly about Hell and had not tried to gloss over an unpleasant subject. This is the trouble these days. Ministers are not speaking out the truth about these things as they did some years ago."

THE TROUBLE IN BERMUDA

Rev. Canon Mackay Explains the Church Situation in that Island.

Rev Canon Mackay, of Bermuda, who came to Peterborough to preach in St. John's church during the absence of Rev. Canon Davidson on his vacation, after conducting the Sunday's service, has been obliged to give up on account of ill-health. The canon is troubled with heart weakness, and he was almost overcome during the service which he conducted.

Bermuda is at present the scene of a conflict between the Methodists and the Anglicans, which is attracting world-wide attention. The Church of England maintains the cemeteries in the island. Methodist clergymen are not allowed to officiate at the graves of any members of their flock who may be buried there. The Bermuda Methodists were recently given permission by the church authorities in this country to carry the matter into the civil courts to have the restriction set aside.

While he was in the city Canon Mackay explained that the cemeteries were consecrated, and on that account the right to officiate at funerals was denied any but the regular Anglican clergymen.

FINE CONCERT AT YOUNG'S POINT

Local Artists Provided Fine Entertainment.

A most enjoyable concert was held in Reid's Grove, Young's Point last night. Quite a number of the summer visitors at the hotels attended. The program was directed by R. J. Devey. Mrs. R. J. Devey and Mr. Geo. E. Chandler and F. Pratt gave delightful solos. Mr. J. H. McClellan, superintendent of the Trent Canal, and Rev. J. Price of this city, and Rev. Ben Oliel, of Lakefield, were the speakers.

Ice cream was dispensed at various booths situated on the grounds.

Altogether, a very successful social evening was held, and fun and enjoyment reigned supreme.

If so, remember these facts—Zam-Buk is by far the most widely used balm in Canada! Why has it become so popular? Because it heals sores, cures skin diseases, and does what is claimed for it. Why not let it heal your sore?

REGATTA AT KAWARTHA PARK WAS THE BEST EVER HELD THERE

Presentation to Miss Brown The Popular Hostess Who is Leaving for British Columbia,— Program of Concert and List of Prize Winners.

The fourth and most successful regatta was held on Thursday, Aug. 15th, 1912, at Kawartha Park, Clear Lake. The various events were contested with much spirit and enthusiasm. A large number of spectators from various points of Stoney Lake were present and enjoyed the afternoon.

Amongst the prizes were a number of red and blue silk badges, printed in gilt by the Peterborough Review Company, as a donation, which were very much admired by all.

During the rendering of the evening program, a very pleasing event took place in the presentation to Miss B. F. Brown, the popular proprietress of the Kawartha Park Resort of the following address—

Dear Miss Brown—On this Regatta Day, when all the gladness of the holiday season reaches a brilliant climax, and the spirit of genuine enjoyment takes possession of every heart, we cannot but recognise the importance of Kawartha Park and Woodside as the local centres of our recreations and yourself as the one who has done much to make this happiness possible for us all. We are sure no house party at Stoney Lake has been merrier than that which has gathered from one season to another at Woodside, and we are equally sure that no section of the Stoney Lake community has been better served in material comforts and supplies, than that to which you have ministered to several years past. We shall always remember your kindness and courtesy, your hospitality and generosity, your desire to make all your guests feel completely at home, and to do all possible for the comfort of the little colony that has sprung up around the inviting centre you have established at Kawartha Park.

The only touch of sadness connected with this season's pleasures has been the knowledge that you are about to give up your position as directress of Woodside and Kawartha Park. We are sure that no one can be found to fill your place.

We think that this is a fitting time to tell you publicly of our appreciation of all your varied services and we ask you to accept this address and a small gift, which you will receive later, as a token of the gratitude we feel. You may be sure our best wishes accompany them and we hope your future may be as happy as you have always aimed to make our holidays at Kawartha Park.

Signed on behalf of your many friends.

It is a matter of great regret to the guests who have from time to time resided at "Woodside" that Miss Brown purposes leaving at the close of the season to reside in British Columbia.

LADIES OF ALL SAINTS' HAD A HOLIDAY

Conducted Enjoyable Excursion to Gore's Landing.

Those who participated in the delightful sail down the Otonabee on Thursday afternoon per steamer Stoney Lake, enjoyed one of the really pleasurable outings of the season. The excursion was under the auspices of the Womens Auxiliary of All Saints' Anglican Church, with Gore's Landing as their destination. The ladies demonstrated clearly that they have ability to conduct successfully other things than merely household affairs.

The boat left Wolfe street wharf with a splendid crowd, about 1.30 p.m., arriving at Gore's Landing in good time. A pleasant couple of hours was whiled away there, afterwards everybody indulging in a bounteous feed of fish.

The booth operated by the ladies on the boat realized well and in fact the committee report very handsome proceeds from the excursion.

The officers of the Auxiliary are:
President—Mrs. T. H. Hooper.
Treasurer—Mrs. Gilbert.
Secretary—Mrs. Harris.

POLICE COURT

There was little doing around the hall of justice this morning. A prominent local man spent the night in the cells suffering from an over-indulgence in liquor. He has been out on an extended spree, the effect of his irregular life being plainly shown.

Acting Magistrate Armstrong allowed him his liberty until Monday, when he will appear to take the penalty of his misconduct.

Another man was charged with peddling without a license and received a remand until to-morrow.

GOVERNMENT GIVES $50,000 GRANT

This Year the Ottawa Fair Gets The Federal Plum.

Every year the Federal Government grants $50,000 to one leading exhibition in Canada, to make it big in agricultural features. This great fair is called the Dominion Exhibition. Ottawa has it for 1912. The dates are Sept 5th to 16th.

The Dominion Exhibition will assemble on Ottawa's hundred acres of fair grounds, thousands of peerless well-bred animals and the rarest produce of the field in competition for $30,000 in cash prizes Four immense pavilions will teem with manufactured wares, varying from tiny novelties to massive machinery.

Before a grand stand of 12,000 seating capacity will appear clowns, gymnasts, balloonists, musicians, militia, race horses, equestrians, trained elephants and miscellaneous vaudeville stars gathered from two hemispheres Night shows will be spectacular with battle scenes and fireworks.

Five Provinces and two States enjoy excursion rates to the Dominion Exhibition at one-third the usual cost of travel. Freight charges, beyond one hundred miles of Ottawa will be refunded to exhibitors.

The great fair is to run jointly with the twenty-fifth annual Central Canada Exhibition. Prize lists, programs, racing schedules, or "six for one dollar" tickets, will be sent on application to E. McMahon, Manager, 26 Sparks St., Ottawa.

In Northern Ontario

Land at the end of the Transcontinental steel, 200 miles west of Cochrane, is underlaid by a large gravel bed some 18 feet below the surface. This is now being taken out by steam shovels and is used as ballast by the contractors for the road. This also gives the rivers a gravel bottom and clearer waters, that is the case in the Timiskaming district, where comparatively muddy rivers predominate. For miles at a stretch the forest is burnt over near the Transcontinental, making it comparatively easy for the settler to clear his land, while back from the road and up the rivers there is good timber and the best of pulp lands. The general survey of the land is not of the muskeg variety, while the semi-muskag lands make the best of farming soil when cleared. The land west of Hearst is equally good and the gardens planted by men on the N.T.R. show a marvellous growth this year.

MUST PAY THE PIPER

Surburban Reality Men at Moose Jaw Must Fork Out

Moose Jaw, Sask., Aug. 16.—The rural municipality of Moose Jaw has decided to take to itself some of the profits that are being made by the owners of sub-divisions within its boundaries. In other words it is taking full advantage of the taxing powers conferred upon it by the rural municipalities act and, as a result, expects to collect from the owners of sub-divisions about $25,000.

The owners of sub-divisions lying outside the city limits have been enjoying what has been considered a particularly good thing. They have reaped all the advantages resulting from advertising of the fact that their holdings are only a comparatively short distance from the city, while at the same time they have escaped the high civic assessment and the not inconsiderable tax rate. It, however, came to the ears of those composing the rural municipality that certain amendments to the act enabled them to take for municipal and school purposes a little of those good things. They consulted with their solicitor, who said "certainly," and now the secretary-treasurer is busy issuing his tax papers. These paper will be received with mixed feelings by owners who viewed with equanimity the boosted civic assessments of their neighbors.

Mackenzie and Mann Make Offer to Stratford.

Stratford, Aug. 16.—There is confidence here that the street railway power difficulty will be overcome within a day or two. Engineer J. Rothery of the C.N.R., on behalf of the Stratford Railway Company has submitted a proposal to the local Light and Heat Commission, the acceptance of which will mean that actual construction of the system will begin within two weeks. The proposal is that the company will agree to pay for 100 h.p. of Niagara energy at $36 per h.p. for a 24-hour day and for excess over this amount and up to 200 h.p. what is practically $34 per h.p. The Stratford Commission is favorable to the proposal and will at once wait upon Hon. Adam Beck and ask confirmation by the Hydro-Electric Commission.

If this proposal is not accepted the company, it is stated, will withdraw,

POSTAL FRAUD NIPPED IN THE BUD

Addressees Cannot Send Back Parcels That Have Been Opened.

A perfectly new and original postal fraud has resulted in the issue of a notice of warning to postmasters by the post office department, a copy of the notice having been received here.

The officers of the department somehow discovered that a package of third-class matter sent from Toronto was received by the addressee, who opened the parcel, took out what he wanted of the contents, and then returned the balance in the original wrapper, without postage.

The department points out that this is an illegal practice and postmasters are required to see that only unopened packages which have not reached their addresses are returned to senders free.

PATRIOT OBJECTS TO STARRY FLAG

Saskatoon Man Held up a Circus Parade.

Saskatoon, Sask., Aug. 16.—"Pat" Allen, a well known citizen of this city, created a sensation on the main thoroughfare here this morning during the parade of the Sells-Flot circus, when he momentarily held up the procession, and ordered that the American flag be taken from the corner of all wagons, leaving the British ensign alone to float in the breeze.

The dramatic outburst of public patriotism was not viewed in the kindest light by some who crowded the streets, and at intervals Allen was hooted and hissed, though the majority were in sympathy.

The driver of the first train reined up, and hearing Mr. Allen shouting in an angry voice, "Take down that American flag," did as he was bid.

"BREWSTERS MILLIONS"

The attraction at the Grand Opera House, Wednesday night, Aug. 21st, will be "Brewster's Millions," a dramatization by Winchell Smith and Byron Ongley of George Barr McCutcheon's best and brightest story of the same name, with which the majority of booklovers are familiar. The play comes here with Clyde Bates and a number of the original cast that assisted him in winning fame and success during its run in New York

The plot is a decidedly novel one and the play should prove an interesting comedy. The story is of Montgomery Brewster, a young New Yorker, who is left one million dollars by his grandfather. Just as he is starting to enjoy his fortune, he learns that an uncle has died in California leaving him many millions of dollars, but under decidedly startling conditions. It appears that his uncle has cordially hated the boy's grandfather, and in order to show this, leaves his money to his nephew under the proviso that he shall spend every cent left by his grandfather within a year.

He cannot gamble the million away he cannot give it away, he must not do anything with it except spend it purely for pleasure, and if at the end of the year he has one cent left or any personal property or real estate, he forfeits all right to his uncle's fortune, and, of course, has already lost the fortune he squandered.

The troubles of the youth to "blow" $1,000,000 in a year are humorous indeed, and at times rather pathetic. He is allowed to take a flyer in the stock-market and given the right to lose, $30,000 this way, but he makes a like amount instead, and so gets a set-back. Then he is given a like amount to lose at Monte Carlo, but he breaks the bank and nearly breaks his heart. Appendicitis and the doctors finally help him to get rid of all he has left, and the end of the year finds him waiting in bed to welcome the friends who have gone out to throw away his last worn out suit of clothes.

MAN AND WIFE DROWNED WHEN THEIR LAUNCH UPSET

G. R. Jones and Mrs. Jones Are Drowned and Rev. J. D. Fitzpatrick Saves Five Others After Heroic Exertions—Party Tried to Shoot the Rapids on the Severn River and Craft Was Overturned.

Toronto, Aug. 17.—While shooting a rapids in the Severn River, two miles below Sparrow Lake, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, Mr. and Mr. G. R. Jones of 119 Halleton avenue, Toronto, were drowned, and six others had narrow escapes from death. The rapids are located near the Midland Power & Light Co.'s dam, on the Severn River, and are the scene of thrilling trips by adventurous campers during the summer months.

Those who were rescued were the Rev. J. D. Fitzpatrick, owner of the launch, and his daughter, Mary; Percy Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jones; J. H. Robinson, Miss Gladys Robinson and Miss Gladys Plewes.

Mr. Jones was a well-known stenographic reporter and court stenographer. His Toronto office was at 5 West King street. He was about 50 years old. Mrs. Jones also was very well known in Toronto. She was about the same age as her husband. They are survived by two daughters and three sons. The daughters are Bessie, aged 19, and Lena, aged 21; the sons are Ashberry, aged 24; Percy, aged 12, and Harvey, aged 15.

Word of the tragedy reached Toronto last night, but full particulars as to how the six campers were saved were lacking. It was learned that the heroic action of the Rev. Mr. Mr. Fitzpatrick was responsible for the rescue of five of the occupants of the launch.

The party started out early yesterday from Massey's camp, where they were spending their vacation, with the intention of shooting the rapids in a small pleasure launch.

Soon after entering the rapids the launch was caught in an eddy and capsized. The entire party was thrown into the water and commenced struggling. Mr. and Mrs. Jones were caught in the swirl, and were drawn under before any of their companions could render assistance.

Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick, who is an experienced yachtsman, kept his head, and at once shouted to the women not to get excited. He worked strenuously and succeeded in assisting the remaining women and Percy Jones and J. H. Robinson to reach the upturned launch, to which they all clung.

With the six people clinging to it, the upturned launch was swept down the rapids and into the calmer waters of the Severn, where people on shore immediately secured boats and rescued them.

The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Jones were recovered a short time later, and were sent to Toronto last night.

Mrs. Jones had been camping at Sparrow Lake for three weeks with her son Percy. Mr. Jones joined them a week ago. He was to leave there last Thursday, but decided to stay over until to-day on account of the enjoyable time he was having.

On his way up to Sparrow Lake Mr. Jones was in a railway wreck, but was uninjured. He was quite jubilant over his escape.

GENERAL BOOTH IS IMPROVING

Fever Has Abated and He is Now Able to Get Some Sleep.

A special cable from London received by the Review at 11.30 this morning says that General Booth showed a slight improvement to-day. He passed a comfortable night and slept several hours. His fever has abated somewhat.

Gunmen to Appear First.

New York, Aug. 17.—With District Attorney Whitman out of town for the week-end and the grand jury not in session, interest in the Rosenthal murder and its core of police graft centered yesterday in Governor Dix's appointment of Supreme Court Justice Goff to hear the cases in extraordinary session beginning Sept. 3. Justice Goff's selection at this time comes before all indictments in the case have been returned, Becker alone having been indicted so far for murder, but the district attorney's staff regards the return of the other true bills as a foregone conclusion. They will be handed up probably early next week, after the testimony of Sam Schepps has been heard.

First to be placed on trial, according to present plans, are the gunmen. Becker's trial will likely come last. John F. McIntyre, counsel for Becker, is in Baltimore to-day, but he has said that his client is ready to go before the bar at any time.

W. J. Brownlee Resigns.

Montreal, Aug. 17.—W. G. Brownlee, general transportation manager of the G.T.R., has resigned. It is also stated that Mr. Brownlee's former post will be abolished in consequence of his leaving the company, and that divisional superintendents and others, who formerly reported to Mr. Brownlee, would henceforth report direct to Vice-President Kelly, who is in charge of operations.

AUTOISTS WILL WARN EACH OTHER OF TRAPS BY POLICE

Alleging That County Constables Are In the Habit of Waylaying Motorists and Exacting Unfair Fines, the Association Will Post Men on Roads — To Extend System Throughout the Province.

Toronto, Aug. 17.—In several counties within a short radius of Toronto are "traps" where motorists are held up by police officials on charges of excessive speeding and fined various amounts. The Ontario Motor League is convinced that in many cases motorists do not travel in excess of the speed limit and that they are persecuted by the county police, who benefit from the fines imposed. As a protection for its members against these traps, the league announced yesterday that men will be stationed at various points to signal to passing motorists the location of these traps or police officials.

The announcement said that the Ontario Motor League would hereafter endeavor to protect its members from traps on the different highways, because of the fact that many of the members have been fined recently through their operation. "This is a method of prosecution which we deem most unfair, particularly for the reason that, in the vast majority of cases, only the prosecutor's word seems to be the evidence accepted."

"The league is averse to speeding, bu also averse to vexatious methods of prosecutions. We have decided to post a man in the vicinity of traps over the week-ends. He will advise members of the league carrying the official badge on the radiator cap, when they are approaching the trap. You will be signalled by his swinging his arm up and down. As a beginning, men will be stationed this Saturday and Sunday on the Dundas road near Islington, and on the Kingston road near Oshawa. The system will gradually be extended throughout the province."

Atrocities by Mohammedans.

Cettinje, Montenegro, Aug. 17.—Terrible reports were gaining circulation in the capital last night regarding a massacre at Berana. Women and children are reported to have been murdered by the wholesale. Many girls were made captive and carried off by the Mohammedans. The Government has ordered the Minister of War, Gen. Vukotics to proceed to the frontier and to personally take charge of the situation in an effort to maintain order.

Buried Under Earth.

Toronto, Aug. 17.—Buried under 15 tons of earth and remaining buried for 20 minutes before his fellow workmen even missed him, then being dug out and taken to the Western Hospital unconscious but still alive, is the extraordinary experience Armand Chanellad, a French carpenter, underwent yesterday evening.

Senate Backs Taft.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The Senate yesterday voted to sustain the vetoes of the President on the wool and metal tariff revision bills. On the metal bill, the motion to override the President did not even obtain a majority. On neither measure did the vote approach the necessary two-thirds.

Toronto Men Hurt.

Toronto, Aug. 17.—Four Toronto men were injured in a C.P.R. wreck at Bethany Junction yesterday afternoon when the C.P.R. flyer from Montreal jumped the track and went into the ditch.

Onario Neglected for West.

Kingston, Aug. 17.—Three hundred men left here at noon on harvesters' excursion to the west. Farmers in this district are almost begging for men for their work

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS TO GRAND OPERA HOUSE BUILDING

Two Sixty Foot Steel Trusses Installed Above Stage—Vestibule Has Been Repainted White.

The durability and strength of the Grand Opera House building has been greatly increased this year by Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons through the installation of two immense steel trusses which serve to support the weight of all the stage curtains, etc., and the stage roof. No idea of the enormous work, which is involved, can be obtained unless personally viewed. The two steel trusses which were used to replace the wooden ones, placed there at the time of the construction of the Grand, each weigh in the neighborhood of fifteen thousand pounds. They run north and south and are fully sixty feet in length. They are placed at an altitude of sixty feet above the stage floor. The two big trusses had to be raised that distance and then placed in position. A small army of men were engaged on the task which was directed by the Dickson Bridge Co of Campbellford, who are specialists at that form of work. The scaffolding used in the contract represented a cost of over $200, while the expenditure for having the work performed was over three times that figure. The wooden scaffolding, necessary to support the workmen and the immense weight, while it was being jacked up were large 10' & 10' timbers.

The new trusses will more than withstand any strain that in future occasions will ever be placed upon them, thereby assuring the utmost safety and efficiency.

When the doors of the Grand are formally thrown open upon "Brewster's Millions," Aug. 21st., patrons will undoubtedly remark upon the woodwork in the vestibule which has been painted a pure white. A remarkably bright, neat and clean effect has been wrought, which maintains generally throughout the theatre. Other little improvements have also been effected, and when the season commences, the Grand will rank high and even better than the majority of Ontario theatres.

MUST SECURE SEA ROUTES

Glasgow, Aug. 17.—The freedom of the City of Glasgow was yesterday conferred on Hon. Robert L. Borden, the Canadian Premier, by Lord Provost Stevenson.

In accepting the honor, Mr. Borden said: "As the British dominions grow in power, influence, and population greater than these islands, we must realize the need for further modification of our constitutional relations. Certain responsibilities now assumed absolutely by the people of these islands and the Imperial Parliament must be shared in the great overseas dominions. We of the overseas dominions are convinced that the way across the seas must be kept secure. In no other way can the great British Empire keep together. The security of the seas is as essential to the safety of the Empire as is the breath of life to the individual."

Liberals Adhere to Policy.

Ottawa, Aug. 17.—The Free Press says: "On the authority and in the words of one of its most prominent leaders, The Free Press is able to state that the attitude of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberal party to the naval question is as follows:

"We have a policy on this question. We adopted it after mature consideration. The opposition of that day could not resist the temptation of making capital out of it, and roused all the passions of Quebec and all the passions of Ontario against it. These passions they cannot now reconcile. Hence their call for assistance. We will assist them if they frankly adopt our policy or have a better one to offer. But until they have shown their hand we stand on our platform and adhere to our policy."

What F. E. Smith Thinks.

New York, Aug. 17.—The first cabin of the Mauretania, which arrived here yesterday morning, was filled with returning tourists and members of Parliament and there were also a number of members of the British aristocracy on board. Among the latter were the Duke and Duchess of Sutherland, their daughter, Lady Rosemary Leveson-Gower, and her husband, Lord Alastair Leveson-Gower.

In an interview, Francis E. Smith, M.P., a prominent Unionist, declared that the Liberal Government in England was going to pieces very fast. He insisted that it would be shattered completely before the home rule bill could be brought before Parliament. He asserted that the matter of tariff reform was sweeping England.

The Duke and Duchess of Sutherland, their daughter, and the latter's husband, are going to the duke's estates in Canada, where he has many acres of land.

HOW DR. BLEWETT MET HIS DEATH

Toronto, Aug. 17.—While bathing a few yards from shore and within sight of his wife and child, Prof. George Blewett of Victoria University was drowned in Go Home Bay, Muskoka, on Thursday morning about 11 o'clock. Prof. Blewett had been in the water only a few seconds. He waded out about 10 or 15 feet from shore and began to swim. Suddenly he sank below the surface and did not reappear. Mrs. Blewett got into a boat and rowed out, but was unable to find her husband. A few minutes later the body was recovered. Death was due to heart trouble.

The remains arrived in Toronto yesterday afternoon on the Muskoka train. They were accompanied by several professors at the university.

Prof. Blewett was a gold medallist The funeral takes place to St. James Cemetery this afternoon, following a service in the chapel of Victoria University at 3 o'clock.

Prof. Blewett was a gold medallist at the University of Toronto and held a Harvard degree of Ph.D. He was born in North Yarmouth, Elgin County, 39 years ago, and received his early education in St. Thomas public and high schools. After graduating from St. Thomas Collegiate Institute he went to the west, where he stayed three years. He then took an arts course in the University of Toronto, graduating in 1895. He took post-graduate courses in Harvard, Oxford and a German university. Before going to Victoria College he held a professorship in Welley College, Winnipeg. Two years ago he lectured at Yale.

In philosophy the late Dr. Blewett stood first in Canada. He published many volumes on philosophical subjects, which gained considerable prominence in Canada and elsewhere. His best work was probably "The Study of Nature, and the Vision of God," a volume of studies in idealism and mysticism, published in 1907.

To Free Balkan States.

Paris, Aug. 17—The project of Count Leopold Von Berchthold, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister, to secure a gradual autonomy for all the European provinces of Turkey is welcomed in official circles here, but of course the French Government's attitude in the matter will not be divulged until the return of Premier Raymond Poincare from Russia and the French Foreign Office has had an opportunity of discussing the project fully with France's friends and allies.

The new fact of real importance from the French point of view which the suggestion of the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister discloses is the apparent desire of Austro-Hungary for a re-constitution of the European concert which, so far as Balkan affairs are concerned, has been practically in abeyance since 1903, when the Austro-Russian agreement was engineered.

FOUR CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH IN FIRE AT ELGIN

While Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harrison, In the Employ of Thomas Dwyer, Are Milking Fire Breaks Out In Their House and Before Aid Arrives the Four Little Ones, Aged One, Three, Five, and Six, Perish.

Elgin, Ont., The four children of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harrison were burned to death yesterday morning while their parents were in the barn milking cows. Their ages were one, three, five and six years.

The accident happened on the farm owned by Thomas Dwyer, three miles from here, on the Phillipsville road. Harrison is Mr. Dwyer's hired man. He and Mrs. Harrison had gone to the barn to milk, leaving their four children asleep in the house. They had been out only a short time when Mr. Dwyer noticed that the house was burning. He gave the alarm and rushed to the burning building. At considerable risk to himself he rescued the six-year-old boy, who was badly burned and lived only a few hours. The other children were overcome by the smoke, and their bodies were burned beyond recognition.

Ulster Is Determined.

London, Aug. 17.—The Opposition leader in the House of Commons, A. Bonar Law, has not yet replied publicly to the latest broadside of Winston Spencer Churchill, the First Lord of the Admiralty, who denounced the action of the Conservative leaders in inciting Ulsterites to revolt, but there is ample evidence that the Unionist leaders are taking up the Government challenge.

Plans have been completed, it is alleged, for the completion of an Ulster provisional government for the diversion of Ulster taxation from Dublin and for the raising of a militia, etc. These plans, it is asserted, will be divulged on "Ulster Day," Sept. 28, when religious services will be held in the chief towns in Ulster province, after which political demonstrations will be held, the participants pledging themselves by a solemn covenant to resist home rule and to support the provisional government.

CAPTAIN LORD MAKES HIS REPLY

Liverpool, Aug. 17.—W. Stanley Lord, who was captain of the Leyland Line steamer Californian at the time of the disaster to the Titanic by which 1,517 lives were lost, issued a statement yesterday defending his conduct. He declared that if the Californian had been the steamer sighted from the Titanic, she would also have been sighted from the Cunard liner Carpathia.

Captain Lord states that the stigma cast upon his character and seamanship is undeserved and unjust. The evidence, he says, is conclusive that none of the responsible officers of the Californian were aware that there had been a serious calamity. The second officer was the only one who saw signals, so Captain Lord argues that he was justified in relying on that officer's judgment, that the vessel sighted steamed eight miles between 1 and 2 o'clock on the morning in question, whereas the Titanic did not move after midnight.

Out of Frying Pan—.

Boston, Aug. 17.—On his release on parole yesterday from the state prison, where he had served more than eleven years for burglary of a brewery in Lawrence in 1900, Frederick Allen, alias Joseph Huddle, alias John Brown, was rearrested for the Canadian authorities.

Allen is charged with being one of the band of men who robbed the Eastern Township Bank of Danville, Que., of $15,000 about twelve years ago. The robbers were captured in a swamp after a gunfight. Later they escaped from the jail at Sherbrooke, Que., after an exchange of shots with the guards.

Peter McCaskill, a Canadian Government detective traced Allen to the state prison here and came to Boston with a warrant for his arrest. Allen agreed to waive extradition rights and go to Montreal with Detective McCaskill.

Mackenzie King to Run.

Berlin, Aug. 17.—North Waterloo is to have another Sept. 21. This time a provincial bye-election will be on probably not exactly that date, but close to it.

It is currently reported that Dr. H. G. Lackner, M.P.P., is going to resign to accept the shrievalty of Waterloo County, that his resignation will be in the hands of the Provincial Secretary before Labor Day and that a short, sharp campaign will follow.

With an election so near at hand candidates are being mentioned and a well-known politcian said last night that the Hon. Mackenzie King would be the Opposition candidate. It was further stated that the Middlesex and North Waterloo bye-elections will be held on the same day.

Opposed to Sunday Shooting.

London, Aug. 17.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The army authorities are receiving protests against the Sunday rifle practice of Territorials. The protests are chiefly from dissenting bodies. The official reply is that some Territorials are obliged to go to distant ranges and as there is no time in winter for workingmen to make such journeys, except on Sunday, the Army Council feel it cannot but approve of the action of any man willing to sacrifice his time in traveling to the range on Sunday.

The council, however, has issued orders discouraging any Sunday shooting, except when forming a part of compulsory training and is necessary for efficiency.

Demand Withdrawal of Ne Temere.

London, Aug. 17.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—Premier Asquith having refused to receive a deputation on the ne temere decree, the Evangelical Alliance is preparing an Imperial protest meeting for the autumn when the withdrawal of the edict throughout the British Empire will be demanded.

Disastrous Accident In Canal.

NORWOOD FIRE

Two Old Landmarks Have Been Wiped Out.

Two old landmarks on Belmont st., were destroyed by fire on Monday morning of last week, viz.—the old Orange Hall, owned by Mr. W. J. Campbell, and the dwelling adjacent owned by Miss Bella Hetherington. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss on both buildings, which were frame structures, is estimated at $1000, about half of the amount being covered by insurance. — Norwood Register.

TYPOS ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

Cleveland, O., Aug. 17.—The convention of the International Typographical Union yesterday unanimously endorsed its officers and executive council, and the officers and executive council of the stereotypers and electrotypers union for their attitude toward the Chicago pressmen's strike. The vote ended one of the hottest fights that has marked the convention.

The striking pressmen were condemned by the investigating committee for having refused to accept proffered arbitration and for having sought to embroil the International Typographical Union and allied trades unions. The stereotypers in Chicago were found guilty by the committee of having violated contracts and the strike order itself was denounced as a "blunder worse than a crime."

To Take Pair Back.

Toronto, Aug. 17.—Detectives will arrive from New Westminster to-day to take back Walter Davis, alias Walsh, and his wife. Davis is suspected of being one of the gang that looted a New Westminster bank last September.

The local detective force did exceptionally clever work in landing Davis. When arrested the man strenuously denied that he was the party wanted, but could not give a good account of where he got the vast quantity of money he had about his person and in his room at the Palmer House. The numbers of various of the unchanged bills found on him corresponded with the numbers of the bills stolen from the bank.

I.C.R. Pass Enquiry.

Moncton, N.B., Aug. 17.—At the Intercolonial Railway pass enquiry, which resumed at 11 o'clock yesterday, Dr. Charles A. Murray was a witness. His examination was conducted by George W. Fowler, M.P.

Dr. Murray was questioned regarding the money Ray Vye obtained from him at the time he left town in November, 1909. Vye asked him twice for money. He said he at first refused Vye, but later loaned him $270. Witness said Vye told him that he (Vye) had taken passes from The Transcript office, and later let Elmer Ferguson into the secret. Vye gave the witness a number of passes.

Fight For Girl.

Montreal, Aug. 17.—A legal fight for the possession of a ten-year-old girl occupied considerable attention in the practice court yesterday. J. Thibadeau, now of New York, made application for possession of the girl. This was contested by her mother, who lives here.

It was alleged that the father had left the home before the birth of that child and that the mother had been left to bring the child up alone. The matter was adjourned until the September session.

"Jack the Peeper" In Kingston.

Kingston, Aug. 17.—Jack the Peeper is at work in the city. Complaints have been received from different parts of the city about his actions. His game is to go into back yards and look into windows. The police are hot on his trail.

SOUR RISINGS FROM STOMACH

Those Who Experience Fullness and Pain After Meals, Stomach Disorders, and Indigestion, Should Read Below.

"When I was working around the farm last winter I had an attack of inflammation," writes Mr. E. P. Dawkins, of Port Richmond. "I was weak for a long time, but well enough to work until spring. But something went wrong with my bowels, for I had to use salts or physic all the time. My stomach kept sour, and always after eating there was pain and fulness, and all the symptoms of intestinal indigestion. Nothing helped me until I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Instead of hurting, like other pills, they acted very mildly, and seemed to heal the bowels. I did not require large doses to get results with Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and feel so glad that I have found a mild yet certain remedy. To-day I am well—no pain, no sour stomach, a good appetite, able to digest anything. This is a whole lot of good for one medicine to do, and I can say Dr. Hamilton's Pills are the best pills, and [illegible], I am sure, proves it." BUSINESS VERSUS POLITICS

The members of the Associated Boards of Trade, who are at present touring in New Ontario are hard-headed business men, men who in their ordinary pursuits on letting out a dollar make themselves reasonably sure of getting it back. Not one of them would negotiate a loan unless the security was ample and not one of them would seriously consider giving out money on something the value of which was entirely in perspective.

On their holiday outing, however, some of them would give the public an impression to the contrary, when they say that the best method to be employed in bringing about the settlement of the north is to lend money to the settlers, taking their holdings as security. This idea originated with Mr. N. P. Rowell and was one of his favorite themes on his recent tour. The man who advocates some impracticable policy to the end that he may win votes and public favor may be forgiven or at least excused to some extent. But would the business men now in the north, if they were looking for safe investments for their surplus funds, be willing to do that which they propose the Government should adopt as a policy?

The proposed scheme has never been elaborated either by Mr. Rowell or the supporters who fall for it. Details are lacking. Every part of the Dominion has been settled without any such aid from the state and if New Ontario is as rich in natural resources as Mr. Rowell and his press agents would have us believe it can probably work out its own destiny without Government assistance except along the old and well established lines. The north like every new country needs most of all railways and good roads, and these the north is getting from the Provincial Government as fast as the condition of the public funds, set apart for the purpose, will permit.

The representatives of the people voted large sums for the benefit of the north and the people, through their representatives, have a right to know how every dollar of this money is to be spent, is the way a local contemporary sums it up, working itself into a mild fever as it contemplates the possibility of Sir James Whitney spending $5,000,000 in New Ontario and rendering no account of this stewardship. According to this system of reasoning Mr. Rowell and his followers in the Provincial Legislature, and the Senate at Ottawa, can lay no possible claim to be regarded as the people's representatives, seeing that the one opposed the $5,000,000 grant by the Province, on the flimsy pretext that the method was not regular, while the Senate blocked the Dominion subsidy of $2,000,000 to the T. & N. O. railway.

No one, unless his vision be blinded by party leaders, fears for a moment that one dollar of the $5,000,000 grant will be expended other than to the best advantage or that the Premier will fail to account faithfully for every cent of the outlay.

THE C.P.R.'S REQUEST

If the C. P. R. is granted permission by the Federal authorities to increase its capital by sixty million dollars, then the concensus of editorial opinion without regard to party, is off in its prognostications. The latest move on the part of the railway corporation is to a shallow trick for it is taken for granted that the new capital would not be used in the improvement or the betterment of the system, but would be divided among the stock-holders.

The division of so desirable a melon is not the only object that the company has in view. The Dominion Railway Board has the matter of C. P. R. freight rates under advisement and is about ready to decide that it is time for the company to give the public, and especially the farmers of the West, a square deal in the matter of transportation. With increased capital stock, the company will be able to show that their expenses are higher and so offset the contention that they are earning dividends which warrant a reduction of rates.

Whether the company succeeds or not depends entirely upon the Dominion Government. The company has asked for an order in council, but the application will probably be held up until the meeting of Parliament.

EXPERTS AT WORK

We will soon have an idea as to what probable effect the Panama Canal will have on the shipment of grain from the West, whether it will be carried by rail to Montreal and there re-shipped to Liverpool as at present, or be carried by water through the new ocean highway. Government experts are investigating the question that has been raised as to the danger of western wheat being sent through the tropical climate of a long stretch of the water way. If the grain should "sweat" on the voyage it is held that it would be practically ruined.

This important question will be fully treated in the annual review of the Department of Public Works.

AMATEUR FARMING

The ambition to be a chicken farmer probably comes to every honest man once in a lifetime. If he indulges in this fancy the chances are that he will learn by experience and financial loss that his hopes were fallacious. A new temptation may then beset him, in the form of a belief that he can make a vegetable garden pay. Here again when disappointment waits upon his ventures he may decide to abandon new efforts of an agricultural nature and devote all his energy to his regular avocation.

The Toronto papers believe in relaxation. When they weary of juggling the navy question, inventing a policy here, demolishing another there, surmising what Premier Borden has agreed to in this matter, they hear the country calling to them and straightway proceed to carry on rural pursuits upon paper. The cattle trade seems to appeal to them especially, for prices are high, and to the man who regards the situation from a distance the business looks like an easy way for making a fortune. All the farmer has to do is to preserve the lives of his calves and watch his stock developed until the animals reach the age of three years, when the buyer does the rest.

Only yesterday one of the big Toronto dailies had a new attack of agricultural mania. It took the farmer into its confidence and told him the best way to raise cattle was to allow the calves to live, despoil them of their horns when they grow up so that they cannot hook each other, and winter them in open sheds.

Perhaps the preaching of such false doctrine is really harmless seeing that no one takes it seriously. The amateur efforts of the chicken fancier may afford him relaxation without working either injury or benefit to his neighbor, and the same holds true in the case of the newspaper that is prodigal of advice in matters where practical experience is lacking.

LACK OF EXERCISE

Brings on Troubles which are Best Corrected by Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

Sedentary Habits Develop Constipation

Man was intended to live an active, outdoor life, and his digestive system was modelled accordingly. Indoor work with hands or head, long hours sitting or standing still, especially in air that's none too good, slow down the healthy activities of stomach, liver, kidneys and the millions of tiny skin glands.

Constipation, headaches, indigestion, biliousness, rheumatism and similar troubles follow.

Then the worth of that good old reliable family medicine, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, is appreciated. Though it has been in use for over half a century, modern science has not been able to devise a safer or better cleanser for the whole system.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are largely vegetable in composition, free from any harmful drug, and mild yet most effective in their action. They are "Mother's standby" in hundreds of homes because they nip in the bud so many of the common ailments.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, Aug. 16.—There was a fair enquiry over the cable to-day for Manitoba new crop wheat, but bids were still about ⅛c out of line, and little or no business was done. On the other hand there was an excellent demand for old crop low grades, and, altho orders for this kind of wheat are hard to execute in the west just now, some business was worked. Oats are strong and a good business is being done. Extra No. 1 feed is quoted about 1c higher, at 46c to 46½c, with the same advance for Canadian western No. 1. Flour quiet, and little doing, with prices unchanged.

Butter dull and just about steady. Cheese, however, continues firm, sales at the board of trade showing an advance of about 1-16c all around. The export trade continues on rather restricted lines, but a fair amount of business is passing.

Find Relief in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound —Their Own Statements So Testify.

Platea, Pa.—"When I wrote to you first I was troubled with female weakness and backache, and was so nervous that I would cry at the least noise, it would startle me so. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies, and I don't have any more crying spells. I sleep sound and my nervousness is better. I will recommend your medicines to all suffering women."—Mrs. MARY HALSTEAD, Platea, Pa., Box 98.

Here is the report of another genuine case, which still further shows that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be relied upon.

Walcott, N. Dakota.—"I had inflammation which caused pain in my side, and my back ached all the time. I was so blue that I felt like crying if any one even spoke to me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I began to gain right away. I continued its use and now I am a well woman."—Mrs. AMELIA DAHL, Walcott, N. Dakota.

WHICH HAVE YOU PAINTED?

First Picture.

A grey-haired woman with vacant eyes,
And features pale and thin—
A shrunken form that breathes in sighs,
A heart of lead within,
Sits all alone with a crust of bread,
In a corner where none can see,
And murmurs in tones from which hope has fled,
"He's not what he used to be."

Second Picture.

There's a grey hair here and a grey hair there,
There's a line or two on her face:
But her eye is bright, and her cheek is fair,
And her walk has a youthful grace
The music of life is a long, sweet chord,
Her smile is a pleasure to see,
As she whispers low, "I thank Thee. Lord,
He's all I could wish him to be."

REDUCTIONS OF TAVERNS IN INDIA.

The Right Hon. L. V. Harcourt, Secretary of State for the Colonies, in an address delivered in the British House of Commons on 27th June, gave reports as to closer restrictions which the Government had recently placed on the selling and importing of liquor in several of the colonies. The "Alliance News" gives extracts from his address as follows:

Closely connected with tropical labor are the questions arising out of the sale and taxation or prohibition of liquor. I had looked forward with much hope to the discussions and decisions of the International Liquor Conference, which met at Brussels last winter. Unfortunately no agreement was reached and no report was signed. I was not willing, however, to let matters rest there, and I considered what, failing international agreement, we could ourselves do to carry out the proposals we had supported, even though our neighbors are not yet prepared to go so far. With that object I have dealt immediately and drastically in the West African colonies. I have given instructions that the importations of distilling apparatus for potable spirit shall be prohibited, and that all local distillation of such spirit shall be forbidden.

The zone of prohibition in the Nigerias is to be extended over a new district of more than 3,000 square miles in Southern Nigeria. The Gold Coast has already the highest West African rate of duty on imported spirits, namely 6s 6d per gallon at a strength of 50 per cent. centigrade. I have directed that the duties in Sierra Leone and Southern Nigeria shall at once be raised to this figure in spite of the lower rates current in the neighboring possessions of other countries, and I am now in communication, through the usual channels with other European powers as to the possibility of their taking action on similar lines. In our eastern colonies duties are now for the first time imposed on imported liquors at Hong Kong; and in the Malay Peninsula the duties have been increased by some 35 per cent., and those which were formely levied at so much per gallon are now graduated according to alcoholic strength, a direct and efficient encouragement to the consumption of less potent spirits.

In Ceylon a new Excise Bill has just been passed unanimously through all its stages by the Legislative Council. This bill, on its first production, met with some criticism in Ceylon, and with a good deal of agitation here. But from the moment that bill was explained to the Council, in an extremely able speech by Sir Hugh Clifford, the opposition entirely disappeared in the Council, and all the unofficial, as well as the official members supported it. I am not surprised that this should be the case when the real object and effect of the measure is understood. It was submitted to and approved by me before it was introduced, and I convinced myself, after examining it from the standpoint of a temperance reformer, that it would attain the object at which it aimed. There has been in the past far too large an amount of illicit sale, which the bill will undoubtedly check; there has been too wide a diffusion of small distilleries, which will now be greatly limited, and, in addition to the total suppression of the illicit taverns there will be a reduction in the number of those which will be licensed—a reduction which will be carried further in the future in accordance with the needs of the localities.

TEMPERANCE AMMUNITION.

"Prohibition is the greatest blessing to my race since the Emancipation." Proclamation of Abraham Lincoln......... As a practical proposition, it is a blessing, economically, socially, industrially, morally, and religiously. Since Atlanta has been prohibition territory, colored people have bought twice the amount of property they did before. Similar results are apparent everywhere........ Nine-tenths of the lynchings are caused, first, by idleness, and then by cheap whisky, which clogs the brains of bad white men and colored men. Take away the whisky, and you will decrease the lynchings by 90 per cent...........With my race, it is the open saloon, with the physical attraction of whisky, that leads to demoralization.—Booker T. Washington, in address, Chicago, 11th March, 1912.

A DREAM WHICH MIGHT COME TRUE.

I saw the other day a story of a boy who had a remarkable dream.

He thought that the richest man in town came to him and said: "I am tired of my house and grounds; come, take care of them, and I will give them up to you."

Then came an honored judge and said: "I want you to take my place. I am weary of going to court day after day. I will give you my seat on the bench if you will do my work."

Then a doctor proposed that he take his extensive practice, and let him take a rest, and so on, and on and on.

At last shambled old Tommie, the drunkard, and said: "I'm wanted to fill a drunkard's grave. I have come to see if you will take my place in the saloons; and on the street as a loafer."

The boy woke up in horror.—Selected.

The City of Chicago spends about one hundred millions in the retail drink trade each year, and has eight saloons to five groceries.

"At the present rate every five homes must furnish a boy for the saloon. What number is your home?"

GLADSTONE'S RULES.

The late William Ewart Gladstone frequently handed out to his neighbors at Hawarden printed slips, reading:

Drunkenness expels reason.
Drowns the memory.
Distempers the body.
Defaces beauty.
Diminishes strength.
Inflames the blood.
Causes internal, external, and incurable wounds.
It's a witch to the senses.
A devil to the soul.
A thief to the purse.
A beggar's companion.
A wife's woe and children's sorrow.
It makes man become a beast and self-murderer.
He drinks to others' good health and robs himself of his own.—Exchange.

WAS THIS POPLAR A STUNTED TREE?

A Forest Giant Felled by Toronto Board of Trade Man.

W. R. Morris, of Peterboro was with them. The members of the Associated Boards of Trade, now touring New Ontario, visited Mitagami, and there viewed the remarkable progress which is being made by Jackson & Tindle, the Buffalo lumbermen, who have bought two townships from the Government. A saw mill is being set up to cut the timber for the big mill which is to be erected later. The colonizing road for the first settlers is cut for a quarter of a mile and in a few days the building of three farm houses will be commenced.

There was a gang at work clearing up land, and one hundred and thirty of Ontario's business men, Mr. Morris included, laid aside their coats, and for the space of a half hour, abandoned themselves to the strenuous labor of the pioneer. While some hauled vigorously on the ropes lifting the sawmill onto its foundation, others seized saws and axes, and the destruction of the standing timber was the result of their united efforts. Mr. J. F. Wildman, on the authority of half a score of watches held on him as he hewed and hacked felled a poplar tree, fourteen inches across the kerf, in five and a half minutes, amid the tumultuous applause of the spectators. Mr. Dennis Murphy of the T. & N. O. Railway, who was present, is prepared to swear that this tree contained fifty feet broad measure.

This calls up the question of poplar as a source of wealth in the north. To speak of such a thing as a stunted poplar in New Ontario these days, renders the speaker liable to a charge of treason from certain section of the press. If Mr. Murphy's estimate is correct, and he is a timber expert, the forest giant laid low by the Toronto capitalist, would measure exactly seven inches in diameter sixteen feet from the stump cut by any log rule in use. The dimensions of the tree and its value as timber, can therefore be easily imagined.

If this be treason, a local contemporary is at liberty to make the most of the poplar and to vent its spleen upon the tree for failing to attain anything like stately proportions.

Evangelist Telfer

Mr. Robert Telfer, well known evangelist of Toronto, will preach in the Assembly Hall, George street, 4 doors north of the market arcade, on Sunday at 3 and 7 o'clock, and on Monday and Tuesday at 8 p.m. The public are cordially invited.

INVITING SICKNESS

People Whose Blood Supply is Scant are in Danger of a Breakdown.

Thin or impure blood is an invitation to sickness. The blood is at work day and night to maintain the health, and any lack of strength or purity in the blood is a weakness in the defence against disease. Anaemia is the doctor's name for lack of blood. Its surest symptom is palor. Anaemia does not confine itself to age or sex, though it is particularly common to young girls between the ages of 14 and 17, when nature makes peculiar demand upon the blood supply. The same lack of blood, however, prevents full recovery after la grippe, fevers, malaria, and operations, and is present in old age, and in persons who have been under unusual mental or physical strain. In all cases of bloodlessness Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best medicine known to medical science. They actually make new, pure blood, which brings with it a healthy appetite and new strength and vitality. Mrs. George Roy, Clair, Sask., says: "I have tested the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills time and again when a poor condition of the blood might have led to more serious trouble. I am a woman of forty and as occasion required I have used the Pills off and on since girlhood. I have proved their value in the ailments that afflict my sex, and I have never known them to fail. I also gave them to my son for nerve trouble, which we thought would result in St. Vitus dance, but the use of the Pills prevented this and made him well and strong. I do not know any better investment than to keep half a dozen boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the house, as they will save more expensive doctors' bills."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

There is no liniment we can recommend with more certainty of giving satisfaction. It will relieve pain, reduce swellings, and we know of no better liniment for the treatment of neuralgic and rheumatic pains and swellings, or the stiffening of the joints and muscles.

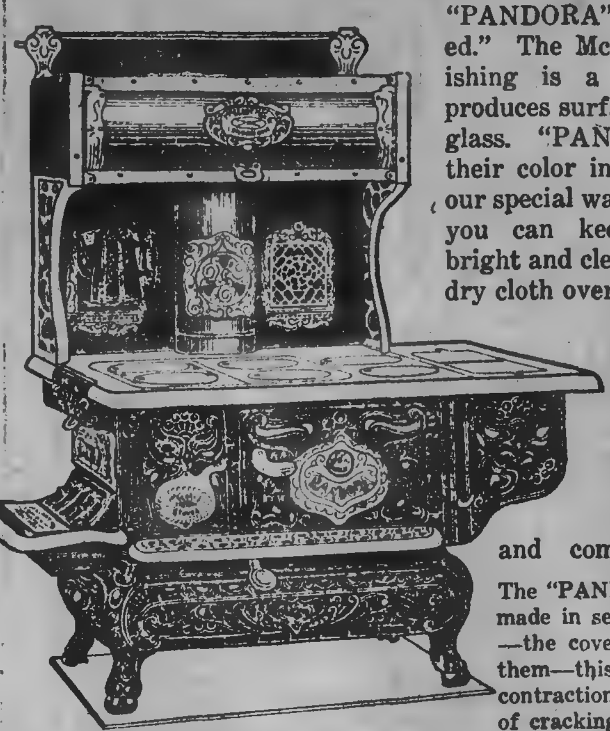
A Beautiful Range—Yet Easily Kept Clean

Glance at the "PANDORA" as it stands complete—a handsome range surely, yet easily kept clean. McClary's famed "Duplex" nickelling cannot burn off—it never becomes tarnished. About it there is no superfine "impossible-to-keep-clean" tracery—the nickel adornment is rich—the carving bold.



"PANDORA" Range

"PANDORA" surfaces are "burnished." The McClary system of burnishing is a special process that produces surfaces as smooth as plate glass. "PANDORA" surfaces keep their color indefinitely—they retain our special water-proof dressing. So, you can keep the "PANDORA" bright and clean by simply rubbing a dry cloth over it.

The "PANDORA" is more than a handsome range. It is also a permanent investment because it is built to endure—it is the one range that is as strong and compact as it looks.

The "PANDORA" cooking surface is made in sections with expansion top—the covers and cross-bars fit into them—this allows for expansion and contraction without any possibility of cracking or warping.

Top sections are reversible—you can place a boiler cross-wise on the "PANDORA" if you wish to use front pot-hole over fire. "PANDORA" lids and entire top are extra heavy and guaranteed not to crack or break under ordinary usage.

N. B.—You can have the story of "PANDORA" Efficiency in detail by simply asking for our free book, "REASONS FOR 'PANDORA' POPULARITY."

EDWARD HAYES INQUEST WAS ADJOURNED UNTIL AUG. 30TH.

Robert Shearer Not Well Enough to Testify — How Deceased Came to His Death Related by Witnesses—Evidence Was Corroborative.

The jury empanelled by Coroner Greer to inquire into the cause whereby Edward Hayes came to his death while employed at the Peterborough Lumber Company, decided last night to adjourn for two weeks to await the recovery of Robert Shearer, whose evidence was desired by the Crown.

Adjournment was made until August 30th, when it is hoped that Mr. Shearer will be able to give his version of the fatality.

The inquest was held in the City Council Chamber, and the proceedings were followed by quite a number of fellow workmen of the deceased, and others.

Mr. G. N. Gordon was present in the interests of the Peterborough Lumber Company.

The first witness called was Thos. Cooley, engineer of the lumber mill at Burnham's Point. He explained the method of operation in force at the mill which drives the lath mill, of which the deceased was in charge.

With the object of giving the jury a clear idea of the circumstances under which the deceased met his death, a small wooden model of the machinery was shown, constructed by the foreman of the jury. Witness stated that for some reason the deceased had taken eight inches off the belt, leaving it rather short on to the pulley. He told of the rope being used to tie the belt to the pulley to hold it there when the power was turned on. Witness turned on the power, and immediately afterwards he received a signal to shut it off. He came in and found Robert Shearer lying on the floor, apparently suffering great agony. He could not at first distinguish the body of Hayes, whom he was told was inside the shaft badly mangled.

Replying to Mr. Gordon's question, witness said that he received a signal from Mr. Hayes to start the engine. Witness admitted that it was a dangerous trick to tie the belt, as had been done in the case in question. Witness stated that he could not understand the object of the deceased in taking eight inches off the belt.

James Moran, the next witness, is general repair man at the mill. He was called by Mr. Hayes to assist him in getting the belt on the two pulleys. One pulley was in motion when they started putting it on.

Mr. Shearer and Edward Hayes, with two or three others, were engaged on the work. When the engine started up and the belt caught he recognized that something was wrong and immediately blew the whistle, which stopped the engine. He ran back and found Shearer lying on the floor.

"Don't mind me," Shearer said, "but look after Hayes." Part of the rope which had tied the belt was wrapped around the body of deceased. When he was taken off the shaft death had already ensued. It was necessary to cut the belt to release the body. The shaft in which deceased had been caught made six revolutions before it was stopped. Witness said he did not know whose idea it was to use the rope, but he imagined Hayes had used his own judgment in the matter. He never saw a rope used for that purpose before, although he had heard of it being done.

Edward Tebo was working for deceased cutting lath and was called by Mr. Hayes to assist in putting on the belt. He said they tried to get the belt on by hand, but failed. Mr. Hayes then suggested trying ropes. They did so and the first rope that was used broke. The big rope that was used was then procured.

When it was put on and the pulley had started, Mr. Shearer called out, "Look out for the rope," but too late. Mr. Hayes was caught and pulled into the shaft by one leg between the pulley and the belt. He was whirled around several times, although how often witness could not say.

When the body was taken out deceased was hanging head downwards. Witness went home shortly afterwards saying that he had lost his nerve. Mr. Hayes was standing at the back of the jack pulley when trying to put on the belt. Mr Shearer was on the opposite side.

The next witness was John Dundas, an employe of the mill, who was at the scene of the fatality. He is engaged in oiling the belts. His story agreed practically with those of former witnesses.

John Thompson, vice-president of the Peterborough Lumber Company, who was next called, said that deceased held a contract with the company for the manufacture of lath for them. The contract was produced and read by the Crown.

The only authority that Shearer held over Hayes was in regard to the quality of the lath. Hayes was supposed to keep the machinery in repair.

WM. DEVINS BADLY HURT

Salesman at Grafton and Co. Knocked Down by a Hamilton Street Car

While attempting to board a rapidly moving street car in Hamilton, Ont., Mr. Wm. Devins, of Grafton & Company, Peterborough, sustained a broken thigh, two fractured ribs and a fractured arm. The accident occurred last Tuesday, and the news was brought to Peterborough by Mr. T. C. Elliott, proprietor of the Bee Hive, who was in Hamilton attending the Oddfellows' convention.

Mr and Mrs. Devins are holidaying at a summer resort just outside of Hamilton. It seems that Mr. Devins went into the city on the morning of the accident and tried to board a moving trolley car at the front entrance. He was refused admittance there and stepped off until the rear door came up, when he attempted to jump on. In some way he missed his footing and was thrown to the ground sustaining the injuries mentioned.

Mr. Devins is in the Hamilton hospital and his injuries are very painful.

THE LATE W. H. SIMPSON WAS A NATIVE OF PETERBOROUGH

Sketch of the Career of Lindsay's Well Known Hotelkeeper Who Was Stricken With Paralysis While Attending the Horse Show at Cobourg—Local Man With Him at the Time.

A brief notice appeared in the Review yesterday announcing the sudden death of Wm. H. Simpson, proprietor of the Simpson House at Lindsay, while attending the horse show at Cobourg.

Mr. Simpson visited Cobourg Thursday in company with Mr. John Carew, Mr. Herb Williamson and others, and it appears that owing to the large crowds attending the horse show the hotels were crowded and it was with difficulty that the visitors were waited upon. Mr. Simpson and Mr. Williamson, along with Mr. Gus White, of Peterboro' had dinner at the Durham House and returned there for supper, and it was shortly after they had secured seats at the table that Mr. Simpson complained of a peculiar feeling about his neck and around the back of his head. He became weak and was assisted by Mr. Williamson out into the hall, where he was placed on a sofa. Without speaking again he lapsed into a state of unconsciousness from which he never recovered.

Mr. Simpson was at once removed to the Cobourg Hospital and three doctors were summoned, who waited on him during the night. Death came to him yesterday.

The news of Mr. Simpson's very sudden demise will be received with deep regret by the citizens of Peterborough and Lindsay. Almost every person in Lindsay and surrounding country knew "Billy" Simpson, as he was familiarly called, and he was widely known in other towns and cities. He was an ardent horseman and was in the habit of attending all large race meets at Toronto, Detroit, Chatham, London, Peterborough, Ottawa, Cobourg, Buffalo and other cities. He was at various times the owner of thoroughbred horses, and enjoyed driving a good one.

For many years past the deceased had been a sufferer from rheumatism but despite this ailment he was apparently strong and healthy, and previous to going to Cobourg on Thursday stated to a friend that he was enjoying good health.

The late Mr. Simpson was a native of the city of Peterborough, where he was born about 66 years ago. He afterwards moved with his parents to Bobcaygeon, his father having conducted the Forest House for a number of years. On the death of the late Mrs. Simpson, mother of the deceased, Mr. W. H. Simpson and his brother, Mr. Geo. A. Simpson, (who passed away on Feb. 12, 1912) moved to Fenelon Falls, where as proprietors of the Mansion House they became closely identified with village life and gained an excellent reputation, the Mansion House (now the Twomey Hotel) ranking as one of the best in the county. Five years later the two brothers became joint proprietors of the Hotel Simpson, Lindsay's hostelry recognized as one of the best east of Toronto.

The late Mr. Simpson took an active interest in the South Victoria Agricultural Society, the Lindsay Winter Racing Association, and ably assisted other organizations. He was always ready to aid any charitable cause and was in every respect a good citizen.

Left to mourn his loss are a loving wife, one daughter, Miss Mary Simpson, and one devoted son, Mr. A. G. Simpson. Mrs. E. H. Dunham, of Montreal, is a sister, and Mr. J. J. M. Simpson, of Vancouver, B. C., a brother.

Miss Octavia Hill, a prominent social reformer in London, Eng., since 1869, is dead.

HAMILON'S TEAM WENT DOWN TO WORST DEFEAT OF SEASON

Shut Out Yesterday by the White Caps Who Made 14 Hits and Scored as Many Runs—Fine Batting and Fielding by the Locals.

It was a stale brand of oats that Knotty Lee's Kolts chewed on yesterday from the Cap's feed bin at Riverside. Losing the first two struggles of the series spelt "enough hay down" to Davy Rowan, so he sent in Tracey to do the leverage work. As a result, the hammering visitors had but 6 one-base clouts to boast of and these were kept so far apart that only once did they assemble even the first installment of a run. The locals on the other hand kept swatting the pill till their bats were pulpy and crossed the plate until the score boy was feeling anxious about his stock of numbers on hand. Fourteen times did the Rowan recruits hit into unguarded territory, according to the adding machine, and of this number two were triple smashes, while three went for doubles.

The Hamiltonians who have been admiring the Petes' work of late but smile at the idea of danger to their scrappy Kolts, might take notice of this 14—0 swatfeast and duly reconsider their opinion of the local brand of ball.

The Hams were smothered in every department of the game and hadn't a look-in from the start, until the game ran into a burlesque with only one team in the running. The locals stitched it up at the beginning, making enough runs in the first two innings to win a week of double headers. The two triple smashes in the opening session from the bats of Barthold and Beard seemed to indicate just how the Petes felt about it, especially since the latter's came with the bases full. To avoid any misunderstanding in the matter, they slashed across five more runs in the next. But still "Connie" Murphy would not be denied, so the sixth saw another pair of counters and by way of graceful exit the Caps tied on four more to balance up the score sheet.

Nearly all the locals had a prosperous day with the stick, Swarts picking off a triplet of safeties, while Johnnie White's average for the afternoon was perfect, the big fellow hitting safely twice with two passes and a sacrifice.

Tracey had them hitting into the air, and the Caps' outfield were continually getting under flies that looked like ripe cherries, Beard, in centre, gathering in six of them with little trouble.

Garlow, who went in for the visitors, had nothing but his reputation and was batted off the mound in the second. Corns, who replaced him, having little better luck, although for a while his slow one did a little damage.

The first two periods were the disastrous ones, nearing all the locals being up twice in that time. The hams got a lone safety in their half of the third and they were granted no more till the seventh.

Rose went into the game in Garlow's place, while Corns and Walsh formed the new battery. The Caps were checked up for a spell at the third, Nicholls, Tracey and Brant flying out in order.

The visitors were also blanked in the fourth, and Petes in the same inning were kept away when Trout bunted too hard and Barthold was caught at the plate.

Both sides were content to let the score stand in the fifth, Swartzmier's fine catch of Nicholls' drive helping to hold the Petes off. In the locals' half of the sixth, with two down, White doubled to centre and scored on Swarts' single, the latter going in on Trout's double. Singles by Keenan and Walsh was the sum total of Hamilton's efforts in the sixth, but these were wasted as the other three were smothered.

In the seventh the visitors also showed signs of coming to, when "Murph" and Crystal hit safely, but Tracey put the muzzle on tight and the Kolts were goose-egged.

The Petes' half of the eighth was a nightmare to pitcher Corns, who was ripped unmercifully by Swartz, Beard, Byrne and Nicholls, netting four more for the Petes. The Kolts had nothing back in the ninth, leaving the final score 14—0.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FROM YEARS OF PAIN

Well Known Montrealer Cured Of Chronic Rheumatism By "Fruit-a-tives" After Doctors Said His Case Was Incurable.

Another Miracle Added To The List Of Hundreds Already Performed By These Tablets Made From The Juices Of Fresh Fruits.

Mr. T. McGrath of Montreal has a remarkable story to tell about "Fruit-a-tives". It is a story of vital interest to all sufferers from Rheumatism. It tells the bare facts of one of the most extraordinary cases in medical history. His own physician could give Mr. McGrath no relief. Then he went to one of the leading Montreal hospitals where the doctors told him that his case was incurable and that nothing could be done for him. As a last resort, he tried "Fruit-a-tives"—and these miracle-workers did what all the doctors in Montreal could not do—they cured him. Is it to be wondered at that Mr. McGrath considers "Fruit-a-tives" a wonderful remedy! They are wonderful indeed, and they will prove their virtues to every sufferer from Rheumatism who will give them a fair trial.

MR. TIMOTHY McGRATH.

130 Atlantic Ave., Montreal, March 1st. 1912.

"For years I suffered from Rheumatism, being unable to work for weeks at a time, and spent hundreds of dollars on doctors' medicine, besides receiving treatment at Notre Dame Hospital where I was informed that I was incurable. I was discouraged when a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives". After using three packages, I felt relieved and continued until I had used five packages when a complete cure was the result, after years of doctoring failed. I consider "Fruit-a-tives" a wonderful remedy. I am now a well man, having gained twelve pounds in weight. You are at liberty to use this testimonial to prove to others the good that "Fruit-a-tives" has done me". TIMOTHY McGRATH.

Rheumatism is caused by Uric Acid forming in the blood. This poisonous material attacks the gristle covering the joints and muscles and produces the intense pain. Uric acid is formed when the kidneys, bowels and skin fail to rid the system of waste matter. This waste matter, or urea, combines with the acid in the blood, to form uric acid. The only way that Rheumatism can be cured is to cure the acid condition of the stomach, and to purify the blood. "Fruit-a-tives" does this because it is the greatest stomach tonic and blood purifying medicine. "Fruit-a-tives" stimulates to renewed activity the liver, bowels, kidneys and skin. It removes urea and uric acid and cures Indigestion. Without exaggeration, it may be stated that "Fruit-a-tives" is the most scientific remedy in the world for Rheumatism. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Former Local Newspaperman Talks of Western Harvest.

Mr. Alfred Terrill, formerly of the Examiner editorial staff, is on a vacation trip to Ontario and Eastern points. In an interview in Toronto last week he said—

"The prevailing opinion amongst the western journalists is that the Prairie Provinces will this year produce a grain crop which will startle the world—providing no untoward circumstance occurs within the next couple of weeks to mar the present prospects. The winter rye and the barley have been harvested to a large extent and ten days of warm weather will carry the wheat past the danger point."

LOST HIS TOES

Painful Accident to a Young Man at Lindsay.

Mr. Joseph O'Keefe, an employe of the Baker lumber mill at Lindsay, met with a painful accident yesterday morning while in discharge of his duties at the company's works. O'Keefe had been previously engaged handling a canthook in the mill rolling logs to the large circular but yesterday was working with an axe, chopping some timber in the yard when the instrument glanced, cutting the great toe and the one next to it. He was taken to the Ross Memorial Hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate both toes and a portion of the foot in a diagonal line from the third toe to the instep.

Comfort & Health

LET us send you this Book. It tells how to heat your home comfortably—and save one-seventh of your Coal Bill. ¶ The Hecla steel-ribbed fire-pot makes this saving. With three times the radiating surface of any other furnace, it sends more heat to the living rooms and less to the chimney. ¶ Everyone who is building a home, everyone who has a worn-out furnace or one that is wasting coal, will value the suggestions and information contained in "Comfort & Health."

Hecla Furnace

FOR COAL AND WOOD

Healthful heating is not possible with a leaky furnace. Coal Gas is not only unpleasant—it is a menace to health. The Hecla will supply your whole house with pure warm air because it cannot leak gas or dust.

No Gas No Dust Fused joints cannot leak

Every point where a leak might otherwise occur is fused by our patent process absolutely tight. Time and use cannot loosen the Hecla Fused Joint.

Is 1/7 of your Coal bill worth saving? Do you want more healthful heat?

Write for "Comfort & Health," a book on the sane heating of homes.

Don't Need Accident Insurance

There is no excuse for refusing to take out Accident Insurance as common as the one that the prospect "Don't Need It."

The average man thinks he never exposes himself to hazards that invite accidents.

Here are some of the illuminating facts in regard to the hazards of ordinary lives.

Is he the man who never goes anywhere, always remains at home? Whereabouts at home does he remain to escape danger? Inside the house? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents nearly 14 per cent occur inside the house. Is he safe there? Hardly.

While at home around the house, amid scenes of peace, is he free from danger? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 13 per cent are met with amid these peaceful surroundings.

Is he safe while walking the streets? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 16 per cent are met with by pedestrians. Hardly safe is he while walking?

A fraction of over 13 per cent of every one hundred injurious accidents are attributable to horses and vehicles. Nearly 7 per cent are attributable to Automobiles and Bicycles. Railroad and Steamship travel are not especially to be commended for possessing elements of safety as these contribute 14 per cent of every one hundred.

Even while engaged in recreation he is not safe, as its quota amounts to nearly 8 per cent of every hundred. There is only one place where a man is not liable to meet with injurious accidents, and that is—the grave. Sleeping there he is in no danger.

The above shows that everyone needs protection against Accident, and this protection can be obtained at a nominal cost by applying to

USE THE CARD CATALOGUE AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

One Has Been Provided and Those in Search of Any Particular Book Can Easily Find it if They Follow the Directions Here Given—How a Catalogue is Prepared.

Article No. 5.

THE CARD CATALOGUES.

As there seems to be so much doubt in the minds of people even yet as to whether there is a catalogue in the Library or not, a few words in regard to the matter may not be amiss.

There certainly is a catalogue, which has taken over a year to arrange. This is known by the name of a card catalogue, and represents the latest idea in library utilities in this regard, being very far in advance of anything that a printed catalogue can furnish. Its chief merit is that it is always up to date. Of course, if a printed catalogue could be kept up-to-date the convenience to the public would be immense, but it is beyond the bounds of possibility to keep it so in a big library, especially the cost of even a half yearly, or yearly publication, would be very great indeed.

A card catalogue, on the other hand, has the merit of being always up-to-date, because every book as soon as received, is placed on record therein. It has additional advantages also which a glance at the directions given below will readily show. If users of the Library would cut out these directions and keep them they would find them of great advantage in finding books that they may be in need of:

1. The cards in the catalogue are arranged alphabetically.
2. Use the catalogue like a dictionary.
3. Every word is entered in three places; under author, title and subject.
4. If you know author or title of a book, look for either.
5. If you desire book on any particular subject look for that subject.
6. When you have found book that you require, copy its number in full.
7. Remember that at commencement of titles, and subjects, 'A' 'An' and 'The' are omitted.
8. When in doubt ask at the desk.

The catalogue not only directs the searcher to books, but also to the maps, pamphlets and reference books in the library.

As showing the amount of work necessary to keep a card catalogue in an efficient condition, the following particulars may be of interest:—

Every volume before it is placed on the shelf undergoes several different treatments. It would take too long to more than enumerate these processes, but when it is stated, that before a book is given to the borrower it has to be recorded in the accession book, where its name, author, title, place of publication, name of publisher, date of publication, style of binding, and cost are entered: that besides this, the leaves have to be cut, cards for each one made out, pockets placed for the cards and entries of, accession number and classification made on the title page, and labels placed on the back, and finally, the shelf list card, and all the catalogue cards made that are necessary for each, it will be seen that cataloguing occupies a very conspicuous and important place in the work of a librarian.

BEAUTIFUL EYES

are made beautiful by long, silky lashes and well defined, lustrous brows. Eyes, like diamonds, depend on their setting. The beauties of the face are lost is the eye brows are thin and scanty, and the lashes are thing and scanty. Parisian Lash Lustre grows beautiful, soft, silky lashes. It has done so for society women throughout Europe, and it comes here well recommended to do the same for you. Parisian Lash Lustre is not a dye or colorator, but a scientific preparation for beautifying the eye lashes and brows. Our guarantee goes with every box of Parisian Lash Lustre. A two weeks' treatment will bring beauty to your eyes that you have never before possessed. By mail, prepaid, in opal boxes on receipt of price, fifty cents. B. V. ELLIS CURRY WAS A PASSENGER

On the Derailed 10.50 C.P.R.—Was Travelling at a Good Speed.

One of the passengers on the wrecked 10.50 C.P.R. passenger train yesterday was Mr. Ellis Curry, who was returning from Toronto. Mr Curry said that the sensation he experienced when the accident occured was very peculiar. It struck him just before the derailment occurred, that the train was making pretty fair speed, and he judged it was averaging around forty miles an hour. The train was taking the second of a double curve at the time, and came to a stop with a suddenness that induced a sinking sensation in the region of the diaphragm. The train then seemed to skid along the track for a considerable distance. The engine went over and down the embankment which is very slight, and assumed a tilted position. The combination smoker and mail car, also went much the same way.

The accident caused no injury to the passengers as far as Mr. Curry noticed, but he heard that the mail clerk and the engineer were hurt.

Mr. Curry also stated that the fireman escaped with very slight injuries and that he was particularly lucky.

As to the cause of the accident, Mr. Curry was not prepared to state. Before the run off however he felt the coach shake from side to side, and had no sooner uttered some words about the speed of the train, when the accident occurred.

BURGLARS GOT AWAY WITH $30

Burglars entered the office of G. Walter Green Company some time last night, broke into the safe and succeeded in getting away with $30 in cash and about $4.00 in stamps. The job looked like the work of experienced crooks. They gained an entrance by one of the windows and ransacked the place pretty thoroughly.

The investigation is in the hands of the police.

LAWYER DARROW ACQUITTED ON FIRST BALLOT TAKEN

Celebrated Trial Comes to an End at Los Angeles and Judge, Jury and Court Officers Congratulate the Defendant—Another Charge.

Los Angeles, Aug. 19.—Clarence S. Darrow, the noted Chicago lawyer, was found not guilty Saturday of the charge of bribing a juror in the McNamara case. The jury was out just 34 minutes.

Only one ballot was taken and each juror voted not guilty.

Although warned against any demonstration by the bailiffs, there was a spontaneous outburst of applause when the foreman, in response to the court's query, stated that the jury had found a verdict of not guilty.

There was a rush to the side of Darrow, which was stopped by the bailiffs, but it was renewed a few moments later, when Judge Hutton thanked and discharged the jury.

Darrow approached the jurors still in the box to thank them and two of them threw their arms about him and patted his back.

The scene gradually resolved itself into a reception for Darrow and the jurors and friends of the erstwhile defendant crowded up to congratulate and shake hands with the jurors, while the flashlights of newspaper photographers boomed from every angle of the courtroom.

Court officials, including Judge Hutton, joined in the congratulations, and Mrs. Darrow, to whom the trial was a continuous nervous strain, stood speechlessly happy with one hand in her husband's and the other wringing those of the jurors.

Stopped at every step by pedestrians who wanted to shake hands with him, it required nearly a half hour for Mr. Darrow to make his way two blocks to a cafe, where he and a small group of friends, went for luncheon.

In his charge to the jury Judge Hutton eliminated the first count in the indictment, that Darrow had bribed George N. Lockwood, a regularly drawn juror, in the case of J. B. McNamara. The evidence, Judge Hutton instructed, did not justify a verdict of guilty on the first count.

The second count charged Darrow with attempting corruptly to influence a man about to be drawn as a juror.

The court also instructed that a verdict of guilty could not be found on the uncorroborated evidence of accomplices.

"If you had no evidence independent of the testimony of accomplices," said the judge, "you must find the defendant not guilty."

"Admissions made by accomplices of the defendant should not be regarded as corroborative. The testimony of a feigned accomplice, however, does not require corroboration."

This instruction applied to Lockwood.

Darrow must stand trial on a second indictment, according to an announcement made by District Attorney Fredericks immediately after the acquittal.

Darrow apparently was unconcerned over the statement of the prosecutor. He was deluged with telegrams from all parts of the country, which began pouring in within an hour after the verdict had been given.

Mr. Darrow's attorneys expressed incredulity when informed that there would be a trial on the Bain indictment. They assented that all of the evidence in the Bain case had been submitted in the trial just ended.

Two o'clock next Monday has been fixed as the time for the trial of the second indictment against Darrow—that charging complicity in the attempt to bribe Juror Bain.

District Attorney Fredericks spoke bitterly late Saturday of the verdict. "We simply could not overcome the damnable atmosphere that counsel on the other side created in the courtroom," he said. "As long as the court allowed them to do it we were helpless."

Legal Fees Were $20,000.

Indianapolis, Aug. 19.—In an 80-page book just issued, the American Federation of Labor makes an accounting for the $236,105 found collected for the defence of J. J. and J. B. McNamara in the Los Angeles dynamite cases. The expenditures were $227,911.85. There were more than five thousand contributors. The largest disbursements were to Clarence Darrow.

Money paid to Darrow, and itemized only as "expenses on account attorney's fees in McNamara legal defence case," totalled $200,000. To Lee M. Rappaport of Indianapolis the payment totalled $11,000. To Henry Seyfried, Indianapolis, $3,500. Darrow obtained his money usually in payments of $10,000 each.

MORE CORRUPTION BROUGHT TO LIGHT

Detroit Has Over 1000 Fraudulent Voters For State Primary.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 19.—Prosecuting Attorney Hugh Shepherd was compelled Saturday to take his attention away for the time being from the councilmanic "graft" cases in order to investigate a mass of evidence submitted to him Friday night charging more than 1,000 fraudulent enrolments for the approaching state primaries. He refused to discuss the probable developments of the latest municipal scandal until he has studied the information given him by detectives more closely.

SPANKING DEVICE CAUSES TROUBLE

Champaign, Ill., Aug. 18.—Because his wife objected to his using a mechanical device, invented by him, at the University of Illinois, for spanking their children, Prof. Duff Andrew Abrams beat her, and she had him arrested. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine amounting to $12.50.

Abrams is associate professor in the engineering experiment station at the University of Illinois. He applied his theoretical mechanics to the erection of a machine for the chastisement of children without the usual manual labor. When he tried to demonstrate the practicability of the device on his little son, the mother objected.

TWO WOMEN WERE DROWNED SUNDAY

Ottawa, Aug. 19.—A double drowning occurred yesterday at Norway Bay, Que., a summer resort, 45 miles west of the city on the Ottawa River when two well-known and popular young women lost their lives while bathing. Miss Mary Wright, aged 23, daughter of P. H. Wright, and Miss Bertha Johnston, aged 16, daughter of the late George S. Johnson, both of Ottawa, with a party of other young women, went in bathing shortly before noon yesterday and wading out beyond their depth went down before assistance could reach them.

Want Advance In Wages.

Buffalo, Aug. 19.—Wm. J. Connors yesterday made an unsuccessful attempt to settle the strike of 1,500 lake freight handlers who went out on Thursday for an increase in wages and betterment of their working conditions. Mr. Connors was ready to concede every point demanded except the advance in wages from 33 to 35 cents an hour, his contracts with the railroads and the lake lines making that impossible, he declared. The meeting ended in a noisy demonstration during which Mr. Connors left the hall. Another meeting has been arranged for to-day.

Ottawa, Aug. 19.—Hon. The Government is planning to do all in its power to extend the period of navigation a month later than in former years. The greatest difficulty in the way of this scheme is the reluctance or refusal of the marine insurance companies to insure steamers after Oct. 30.

BULL GORED FARMER

Thomas White's Life Saved by His Faithful Dog.

Galt, Aug. 19.—Thomas White, a farmer of Brachton, was attacked by a mad bull Saturday, while going through a field, and was knocked down several times. The sides of his head and body were badly bruised. While down on the ground he managed to take hold of a ring in the animal's nose, but the arrival of his dog undoubtedly saved his life. The presence of the dog attracted the attention of the infuriated beast and as it did so, Mr. White got to a place of safety.

Christian Villages Destroyed.

Cettinje, Montenegro, Aug. 19.—Christian insurgents Saturday seized two villages in the Berane district of Albania near the Montenegrin frontier and also plundered Berane itself.

Thereupon the Turkish troops using artillery, destroyed a number of Christian villages lying in the plains, while other detachments of Turkish troops on the way from other districts burned the houses of Christian residents while they were passing through the village.

The Turkish authorities are said to have theratened to exterminate the Christian population which is in revolt in the district bordering on Montenegro.

MRS. BORDEN CHRISTENS A NEW LINER AT CLIDEBANK

Her Husband Delivers a Stirring Address When the "Niagara" Was Named—British Citizens Conscious of the Responsibility For the Welfare of Humanity.

London, Aug. 19.—"We of the overseas dominions are thoroughly conscious of the great problems which even now await the statesmen of the Empire; problems regarding the bringing about of more thorough and more effective organization between Mother Country and vast overseas possessions. We are conscious of those problems and responsibilities which that connection has laid upon us and upon you in these islands, but I venture to say that British statesmen have never been unequal to any task in this regard which has been placed before them in the past.

"I am convinced that British statesmen, and I use the word British in its widest sense, will be equal to that task whatever it may be. Its greatness or development in long years to come; not so much in extent of territory as territory for the Empire is already large enough; not so much in resources, because they are all any one of us desire; but in influence of the Empire for the welfare of humanity, for advancement of civilization, for the peace of the world, so that as the poet says, 'wider, still wider, may her bounds be set, God who made us mighty, make us mightier yet'."

This was the stirring peroration of the speech delivered by Premier Borden at Clydebank Saturday, when Mrs. Borden christened the steamship Niagara, built for the Canadian-Australian service. The ceremony was the concluding one of Borden's visit to Scotland, a visit which has been as remarkable for warmth of welcome displayed to the Canadian Premier as any he has encountered during his strenuous time of the last few weeks. Premier Borden and his wife were the guests overnight of Lord Inverclyde.

The launching ceremony was entirely successful. At the luncheon, success to the Niagara was proposed by Charles Ellis, who described the vessel amid applause, as the last link in the all red route, of which so much has been heard in recent years. Sir John Mills, chairman of the Union Steamship Co., replied and said that Mr. Borden and his colleagues had done much to educate the people of this country to the relationship which ought to exist between the Mother Country and the dominions, which were no longer looked upon as naughty children or poor relations, but partners in the firm. He presented Mrs. Borden with a diamond pendant. Mr. Borden acknowledged the gift on behalf of his wife.

GALT WANTS NO MORE FLOODS

Grand Valley Residents Will Confer With Premier Whitney.

Galt, Aug. 19.—Plans are perfected to send a very large delegation from Grand River Valley to Queen's Park for conference on flood prevention measures. The Board of Trade is joining with the municipal councils in selecting representative citizens in Brantford, Paris, Berlin, Waterloo and other towns, including Galt.

The regulation of streams of great importance to this district, and there is necessity for immediate action in so far as engineering investigation is concerned. Apparent to all municipalities interested, hopes are entertained that Sir James Whitney will see eye to eye with the delegates, and order a complete survey of watershed.

Saturday the secretary of the Grand River Improvement Union, that is again to bring the flood prevention question before the Provincial Government, received word from the Premier that he will meet a deputation at the Parliament Buildings next Wednesday at 3 p.m., and will have two or three colleagues present to hear the case. Representatives will attend from a dozen municipalities. Galt will be represented by its council and Board of Trade. Members of the Legislature from several constituencies interested will also join in conference with the Premier.

NOTED DOCTOR WANTS FREEDOM

Montreal, Aug. 19.—Dr. Charles Noble of Philadelphia, one of the most distinguished gynaecologists in the eastern states, and joint author with Dr. Howard M. Kelly of a standard work on that subject, appeared before Justice Beaudin in the practice court Saturday and asked to be released from the Verdun Hospital for the Insane, where he declares he has been kept contrary to his wishs.

He alleges that he was taken to the asylum at the instigation of a brother who is involved in the Steel Wire Trust investigation and who desired to have him out of the way on account of his knowledge of affairs. He states that a similar attempt was made in the States, but that he was able to prove his sanity. He will be heard again to-day.

NEWLY OPENED GILLIES LIMIT FILLED WITH PROSPECTORS

Although Only 200 Claims Are to be Staked Many Promising Properties Are Camped on—Miners Ready to Rush to Haileybury to Record Claims.

Haileybury, Aug. 19.—Gillies Limits, where a small army of prospectors are bivouaced to-night, with many more coming as reinforcements on each train, has the undivided attention of the whole north.

Only two hundred twenty-acre claims are available for staking, and the half dozen lots of promising surface appearances are camped on by hundreds of prospectors who propose to stake the lot, then make a wild dash in high-power motors to the recording office at Haileybury over the Giroux Lake stone road.

So acute is the rivalry for claims with showings that the men are declaring that trouble of a serious nature is liable to come, both on the limits and at the recording office. The situation hourly grows more intense, and violence may be resorted to by reckless ones.

To save endless litigation over disputed titles, it is said the recorder will refuse or accept applications from those who trespassed in order to get on the ground early. The provincial police may be called upon to clear the limits under the laws of trespass before the official opening to-night at midnight.

Toronto men who are said to be represented in the scrimmage for claims were W. S. Edwards A. G. Minter, W. B. Clark and M. J. O'Brien.

BOAT RUNS AGROUND

A. E. Stewart, Loaded With Wheat, Ashore at Sturgeon Point.

Buffalo, Aug. 19.—The steamer A. E. Stewart, carrying a cargo of 200,000 bushels of wheat for Buffalo, ran ashore at Sturgeon Point, twenty miles west of here, early yesterday. She is resting easily on an even keel and can be floated after a part of her cargo has been lightered. She carried no passengers. The crew remained on board.

TAFT MAY VETO THE CANAL BILL

Unless the Measure is Amended to Suit the President Views.

Washington, Aug. 19.—President Taft has decided to take the initiative in an effort to bring about Panama Canal legislation at this session without entailing international complications.

The President called Senator Simmons of North Carolina, who has been handling the Panama bill in the Senate for the Democrats, to the White House and asked for his support of a plan which the President believes will relieve the United States of the embarrassment that may arise through the free tolls section of the bill.

The President proposes that legislation be put through Congress in some form or other providing that the Panama Canal bill now pending shall not supersede any of the treaty rights of the Hay-Pauncefote convention and conferring upon United States courts jurisdiction to entertain suits for damages filed by aliens on account of the free tolls provision of the bill. The President believes such legislation would go far toward removing objections that have been raised to the present Panama Canal bill.

He may veto the present measure and accept an amended version.

Mr. Taft believes himself that the granting of free tolls to American vessels in the coastwise trade will not constitute a violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty but he acknowledges that the question is open to debate. Since it is debatable, he is anxious to have this Government avoid putting itself in a position where it may be accused, however unjustly, of bad faith and the violation of a treaty obligation. The mere raising of this question, in the President's opinion, ought to be avoided if possible.

The President has told members of Congress who have conferred with him that he believes this embarrassment can be removed if action is taken along the lines indicated by him. A statute like the Panama Canal bill will supersede a treaty when the two conflict, but this can be met, the President suggested, by a specific reservation on this point.

The opening of the United States courts to damage suits by aliens on account of the free tolls, provision would quickly lead to the Supreme Court of the United States construing the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. If that high tribunal held that the United States had a right under the treaty to grant free tolls to American vessels in the coastwise trade Great Britain, according to the administration's view, probably would be inclined to accept the opinion without attempting to carry the question to The Hague.

WALK THE PLANK

Five G. T. R. Conductors Discharged at Belleville.

Five Grand Trunk conductors running on the Middle Division, with headquarters at Belleville, have just received notification with their last pay slips, that their services will no longer be required by the road.

The other conductors on the road are keeping silent with regard to the matter, but certain other employes are not quite so reticent and two theories are put forward as to this week's disclosures. The one is that the men who received their cheques were the formentors of the last claim for increased wages, while the other is that the discharges have been the result of espionage into certain illegial habits, such as allowing "hard-ups" to travel free or at reduced rates, which, it is alleged, are indulged in by certain conductors to their private gain.

WILL LOOK INTO POLICE GRAFT

Commissioner Waldo Has Started a Probe of His Own

New York, Aug. 19.—Thoroughly aroused by the charges of police graft following upon the disorderly house raids made by the district attorney's office, Police Commissioner Waldo, it was said last night, plans a public investigation of his own. Together with Cornelius J. Hayes, the police inspector, whom he reduced to the rank of captain as a sequence of his allegd failure to suppress disorderly houses in his district, three other inspectors will be placed on trial by the commissioner next week it is said, and asked to explain the existence of disorderly places in their districts also. These trials will be the vehicle of the commissioner's proposed investigation into the so-called system of police graft.

The trio of inspectors said to be slated for these trials are known to be three of the quartette of inspectors against whom District Attorney Whitman has secured evidence of graft.

Until the raid made on disorderly houses last Friday night by Assistant District Attorney Smith, Commissioner Waldo, according to one of his close friends, had confidence that his inspectors were doing their duty and that the alleged graft did not reach higher than Lieut. Charles Becker, the gambling raider, accused of instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal. The Becker charges, he thought, were a case for District Attorney Whitman. Believing now that he has had "the wool pulled over his eyes," Mr. Waldo is thoroughly determined to have a house cleaning in the police department.

The record of Becker's bank deposits has now reached $73,000. Becker accounts for $3,000 and 5,000 respectively were furnished to the district attorney's office Saturday by two more banks. Efforts to trace accounts in three out of town banks are being continued.

TRAIN LEFT TRACK

Broken Rail Near North Bay Caused Serious Accident.

North Bay, Aug. 19.—Winnipeg-Toronto Express No. 4 left the rails near Nicholson Station, early Saturday morning. The accident was caused by a broken rail.

The baggage, express, colonist and first-class cars left the rails and went down an embankment.

The engine, diner and Pullman remained on the track.

Conductor Robert Lidkea of North Bay and Baggageman R. Blackman of Toronto were injured but not seriously. Three passengers received wounds but will be able to continue their journey to Toronto.

A special military train with the Strathcona Horse from Winnipeg, having sixteen cars with horses and men, passed safely over the spot where the wreck occurred not an hour before. The regiment was on its way to Petewawa camp for special training.

Tagged Boy Is Lost.

London, Ont., Aug. 19.—Conductors on railroad trains all the way from Mountain Grove, Miss., to Montreal have been on the watch since Aug. 14 for a ten-year-old boy who was lost en route to Montreal. He was discovered here by a Grand Trunk conductor, who ran through London Friday night.

He was ticketed and tagged from Mountain Grove to Battleford to St. Louis, via Wabash to Detroit and Windsor and through to Montreal.

Schooner Ashore, Crew Safe.

Portland, Me., Aug. 19.—The loss of the British two-masted schooner Arizona of Yarmouth, N.S., on Cranberry Isle early Friday was reported Saturday by Lieut. R. Ridgeley, jr., of the revenue cutter Woodbury, which made an unsuccessful attempt to float her. The schooner at low water is high and dry and the rocks have pierced her hull in many places. The crew had no difficulty in reaching shore.

"FEEBLE STOMACH"

Causes Digestive Weakness and Poisons the Entire System.

"No one can have suffered more than I did with stomach trouble," writes Phil. E. Pascalar, well known at St. Andrews Corners. "My doctor told me my indigestion and sleeplessness were due to poisons in the blood. Certainly my condition was desperate, and it seemed from the despondent feelings that swept over me that I would lose my reason. I happened to read about Dr. Hamilton's Pills and bought five boxes from the druggist. Such body-cleansing pills I never used; they were mild and yet quite strong enough to drive all the humors out of the blood. My stomach gained strength rapidly with Dr. Hamilton's Pills and I improved so much that in eight weeks I could eat and digest all ordinary food. Depression and weariness passed away and I am, thanks to Dr. Hamilton's Pills, enjoying robust good health."

No remedy for billousness, indigestion, headache, sick stomach, or constipation that compares with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Refuse substitutes. Sold in 25c. boxes. All dealers, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

THE NEW HEALTH ACT

Two of the most drastic provisions in the new Provincial Health Act, which has just gone into effect, are the clauses which give the local health officers power to isolate cases of consumption and to vaccinate every person in a district where small pox breaks out.

Every doctor who discovers a case of tuberculosis must report it within twelve hours when the patient will be removed to a hospital and proper medical attendance provided. This will not only be the best course possible for the patient, but will guard against the spread of the disease. If the affected person has no means the expenses in connection with his isolation and care will be borne by the public. This important provision in the interests of public health is to have full effect in the large cities, as well as in the smaller towns and rural communities.

Compulsory vaccination is meeting with opposition not only from a section of the press, but from certain medical men who hold that the government has no right to infect an individual with one disease, in order to protect him from another.

Vaccination, however, has long passed the experimental stage. It has established beyond question that the person who has undergone the operation, if not entirely immune from smallpox, is likely to have the disease in the milder form if actually taken down with it. In case of an epidemic the person not vaccinated is regarded by the profession as a menace to the rest of the community, and it would seem clear that the government has as much right to insist that he be vaccinated as it has to compel him to take other precautions in the interests of public health.

THE NEW STOCK ISSUE

On the proposition to increase its capital stock by $60,000,000 the C.P.R. has presented its side of the case in reply to the opposition to the deal that has been set up by a large section of the Canadian press, and especially by the leading papers in the West.

The issue of that amount of common stock would increase the treasury of the company by at least double the amount or by over one hundred and twenty millions. This is not to be regarded as a melon, as some papers assert, to be cut up and divided among the shareholders, but is to be expended in extending the C.P.R. system and in extending the present capacity of the roads. It is the West, which now opposes so vigorously the proposed increase, that will derive the most benefit from the projected improvement of the C.P.R. system. The plant of the West for years has been inadequate railway service and a congestion of traffic every fall when the movement of the wheat to market begins and to remedy this grievance is one of the objects the C.P.R. directors have in view when they seek to add to their resources.

The Toronto World always, an active opponent to the railway interests, argues that if the company desires to increase its resources it can do so by the issue of bonds. This is met by the practical argument that to issue bonds handicaps the company, seeing that it obligates it to pay yearly large sums in interest without regard to the extent of its earnings or the business conditions of the country. By issuing new stock the company avoids this liability, for in case of a poor year's business the directors can exercise their judgment as to the amount of dividends to be paid or whether any shall be paid or not.

If the proposal to increase the capital stock is a move in the interests of the public, as the company asserts, then there seems no valid reason why the Dominion Government should withhold permission for them to do so. If the West is the section to be most directly benefitted then the press of the prairie provinces should withdraw their opposition forthwith and lend their support to a movement designed to increase the railway facilities in the prairie provinces.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The cry of a binder twine famine seems to be a false alarm seeing that there has been no advance in price.

It now transpires that Nat Goodwin was not so badly injured after all, but on the opening of the theatrical season the advertising will not be lost.

According to the ethics of the indicted Detroit aldermen, a public official, who accepts a bribe and then fails to deliver the goods, is not an honest man, while the man who "squeals" on his pals is a dirty dog.

A Texas man made an anti-Roosevelt speech, and immediately dropped dead. Now, the colonel's friends are citing this case as a warning, as they talk of speedy retribution and swift justice.

A twenty pound baby crying an hour, wastes two tons of energy, is one of the latest discoveries by an expert. What a pity this lost power could not be harnessed and employed in doing some of the household chores.

A prisoner has escaped from the prison farm at Guelph. If that institution is as desirable a place of residence as we have been led to believe the man now at large will soon be found knocking at the gates and asking to be taken back.

Calgary bade farewell to Barney Oldfield, who spent some time in that city, with genuine regret. The auto man was fined so often in the police court for speeding, that the city's finances were boosted as never before from a like source.

Liverpool Wheat Futures Close Higher, Chicago Lower—Live Stock —Latest Quotations.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 17.—Wheat—The market opened ⅛d higher, and during the morning held firm, with offerings light, and an additional advance of ⅛d. Shorts covered on the strength in America and firming offerings of winters, and the continued unsettled weather in the United Kingdom. Arrivals are moderate and mostly of lower grade, and millers here are showing anxiety, with stocks firmly held. The holiday in Paris is causing dulness, but there are free purchases being made for France of cargoes arriving and in prospect. At the close the market was firm, ⅛d to ¼d higher than yesterday.

Corn opened ¼d higher and later advanced an additional ⅛d to ¼d, with the undertone firm. The situation remains strong, with shorts nervous, owing to the light stocks and strength in spot. Plate spot advanced 2½d, and a good enquiry for parcels in car positions.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Wheat showed an early advance, based largely on unsettled weather prospects. Fairly free offerings later turned the market downward and the close was steady at hear the low point with prices ¼c to ⅜c lower. Corn ruled lower, finishing ⅜d to ⅝c off. Oats closed a shade to ⅜c lower, and provisions varied from 1½c decline to a rise of 5c.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, Aug. 17.—The advance in the Winnipeg market, combined with firmer ocean freight ratese, left bids from the continent for Manitoba new crop wheat still further out of line with local exporters' views here to-day. Ocean freights have advanced ½c to ¾c a bushel for October-November shipment and altho cables have come a little stronger the last day or two, they have relatively moved further away from the prices asked here. To-day bids were about 1½c out of line. The foreign demand for oats continues very keen, but owing to scarcity of supplies and the higher prices asked by local exporters this week, less business is being done than earlier in the week. Local stocks of oats in store today showed a decrease of 124,438 bushels, as compared with a week ago, and of 155,440 bushels, as compared with the corresponding date a year ago.

The flour trade remains quiet. Butter is easy and unchanged. Cheese is about ¼c lower than a week ago, but the situation on the whole remains firm.

BRUNONIA

How a Town Took Its Name From a Mystery

By ELIZA B. TREAT

Names often fasten themselves upon things or places from some incident connected with them in their beginning.

There is a town in what is now the middle west, but half a century ago was the far west, called Brunonia. Singularly enough, the town took its name when it was in the rough from a man whose name no one knew. He came to the place a stranger, without introduction, and when asked his name said:

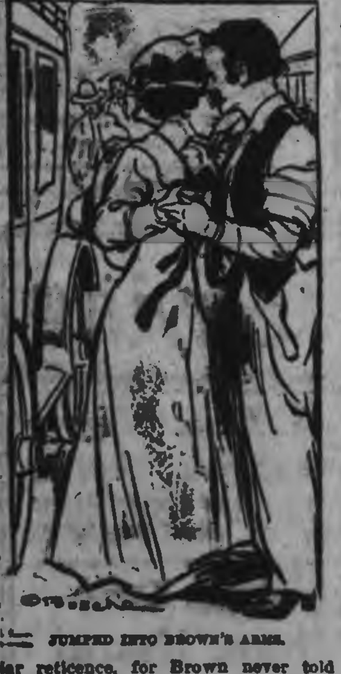
"Call me Brown; that's as good a name as any."

This man Brown turned out to be the embodiment of a mystery which set the inhabitants agog. When this mystery reached its climax the town showed signs of permanence, and a name was sought for. Some one suggested that they call it Brown. The proposition was laughed at till a young college graduate who had recently settled there suggested the Latin for Brown, or Brunonia. This euphonious word pleased the people, and the town was thenceforth known by that name.

Brown was a spare man, who wore his hair quite long and dressed in buckskin, his head covering being a sombrero. One looking at him would remark:

"What a strange looking man that fellow is!"

But he would not be able to determine wherein the strangeness lay. It was not in his costume, for a number of men thereabout wore buckskin, and long hair was a "plains" fashion. If it lay in any one thing it was in a sphinx-like expression the man always wore on his face. The strangeness of appearance was enhanced by a peculiar reticence, for Brown never told whence or why he came to the town or anything of his past or what he might hope for in the future.



JUMPED INTO BROWN'S ARMS.

Brown had not been long in his adopted home when it was noticed that he seemed either to be looking for some one or was conscious that some one was looking for him. A boy one day walking behind him down the main street noticed that at every corner he would turn his head to the right, then to the left, or vice versa, before crossing. The boy saw him cross half a dozen streets, and he never failed to look in both directions.

Brown was a handsome man, and this, taken in connection with the mystery attending him, attracted the young women of the place to him. A number of them at different times endeavored to secure some notice from him, but they all failed. He seemed insensible to feminine charms. This added to the wonder the man excited in every one and led to the theory among the younger persons that he had been crossed in love and among the older ones that he feared some woman he had wronged who was looking for him. There were men of the town who believed that a woman was looking for Brown; but, as to Brown having injured her, they thought it more likely that she had got him in her toils and made it hot for him.

Be that as it may, the attention Brown attracted grew instead of declining. He was pointed out to strangers as the town curiosity, and they carried the story of the mystery to other places. It is quite possible, even probable, that this had some effect in fastening the name of Brown on the town.

With every month that passed the man's watchfulness increased. He was seen at times to start, but so adept was he in concealing the cause that those who noticed the starting either thought that they were mistaken or that it was merely a nervous twitching.

One girl in the town, and one only, refused to put up with Brown's indifference. That was Ellen Wykoff. It was apparent that she was trying to penetrate the armor which protected him from those who sought to gain an inside view of him, and her efforts were watched with a keen interest. For awhile he paid no more attention to Miss Wykoff than to any of the other girls. When in the morning he sauntered down the street she would waylay him at her gate and attempt to engage him in conversation. The only adornment in the town was a flower bed she cultivated in the front yard of her home. One morning she was seen to offer Brown a posy. He accepted it, but without fervor, and after having passed a few blocks away from the donor, where she would not see him, he dropped it.

All these incidents were observed by the watchful citizens, and some of them did a little spying. But that was after Miss Wykoff had seemed to make some headway with Brown. If they wished for information they must get it from another source than Ellen, for she proved to be very close mouthed. She had not been considered so before she sought Brown's attentions, and every one was surprised at her reticence. "Can it be," they said, "that this impenetrable man makes any one with whom he comes in contact impenetrable?"

Ellen Wykoff's efforts to break through Brown's shell continued, increasing the while up to a certain point, when it seemed that she had succeeded. At any rate, her efforts ceased and apparently from the fact that Brown seemed to have yielded. After that the two were often seen together, even to taking walks in each other's company, and Brown no longer threw away any posy the girl gave him.

But here arose another cause for tongue clatter. Was the condition between Brown and Ellen Wykoff that of lovers or of friends? There were those who held to the former and those who held to the latter opinion. All efforts to draw an admission of any kind from Ellen failed, and, as to Brown, no one ever thought of asking him any question whatever.

One day something occurred which led Brown's fellow townsmen to think that the mystery was solved. He was not seen on the street as usual nor the next day nor the next. Then came a woman, a coarse, disagreeable looking creature, who made inquiries about a man, giving a description resembling Brown.

If Mr. Brown was the man wanted he had doubtless heard of her and taken a timely departure. She left, and the next day Brown reappeared. Brown was told that a woman had come into town and looked for a man answering his description, but the news didn't seem to trouble him. He said he'd been called away to look out for a legacy he had received, and it was not long before there were indications that he had really had a windfall.

The woman who was looking for him or some one like him did not return, but Brown kept up his watchfulness. Indeed, her appearance evidently had not changed the situation. He was the same mystery as before, and as time wore on many came to believe that she had been looking for another person.

Then came a man worse looking—if that could be—than the woman who had been there who was hunting for one whose description fitted her exactly. He did not seem to know Brown, and it was at once inferred that Brown had nothing to do either with the ill favored man or woman. He said he hadn't, and there were good reasons why he should be believed.

Every evening at 5 o'clock the stage drew up at the tavern on its way through the town. One evening while the crowd was awaiting the usual daily excitement the coach appeared at the other end of the street, and Brown, who was present, was seen to change color. Several persons who noticed him looked knowingly at each other as much as to say: "His enemy is coming. Look out." The coach came on, and sitting on the seat beside the driver was a comely woman of twenty. Seeing Brown, her face broke into a beautiful smile, and when the coach stopped she stepped down on to the wheel and jumped into Brown's arms.

The news spread throughout the town that the Brown mystery was solved. But the curious citizens were doomed to disappointment. Neither Brown nor the new arrival gave any explanation. Since they went to housekeeping together without any marriage ceremony it was inferred that they were man and wife. But Brown was a new man. He became a permanent resident of the place, and he and his wife—especially the latter—grew in the affections of their fellow townsmen. But neither ever lisped a word as to the story that every one believed was connected with them.

This much came from Ellen Wykoff. She averred that she had formed a resolution to get Brown's secret. For the purpose she pretended to have fallen in love with him. She found him a very honorable man, who felt it his duty to shut off a love that could not be returned. On her promise not to reveal what he said he informed her that he was a married man. But the rest of the mystery she could not get out of him.

Miss Wykoff learned, however, the cause of his looking up and down a street before crossing it. He was blind in one eye and to avoid accident had formed this habit. His starting came from the same cause, a shadow on his blind side being the most frequent cause.

It was soon after Mrs. Brown's arrival when the interest in their story—a story doubly interesting from remaining untold—that the town was named. Brown's legacy proved to be a bona fide one and sufficiently large to enable him to do a great deal for his adopted town. And doubtless this was another reason for its being called Brunonia.

POSTED ON HORSES.

The Tribute an English Expert Paid to a Baltimore Jurist.

Once when Judge J. Upshur Dennis was abroad he visited the Duke of Westminster's estate, Eaton Hall, in Chester. He went unceremoniously enough and directly to the stables. He was told by the person who looked after those horses of august blood and breeding extraordinary that they could not be viewed except by permission in writing of the duke.

Judge Dennis had passed the duke on the road going up to London. Anyway, he had no intention of asking permission in writing. He leaned over the paddock gate and looked at the horses inside.

He saw a gray horse that attracted him, and he remarked to the keeper of the place that that particular horse (indicating) must have in him a double cross of Chanticleer, a famous race horse that lived 600 or 800 years ago.

It was indeed true, and his remark established all the freemasonry needed for a day in the stable. Judge Dennis told his guide more about the horses than the keeper of the stable archives knew himself. * * * He traced relations here and identified crosses there.

"If all the stud books in the world were destroyed," the stable steward told the visitor when the tour of the stables was completed, "you, sir, could rewrite them all from memory."—Baltimore News.

The Whitest City In the World.

There cannot possibly be a whiter city than Cadiz unless it be built of snow. The best way to approach the port is to take a trip on one of the small steamers which ply between the ports of Morocco and Spain. As you near the coast you see in front of you a white mass, which appears to be floating upon the water, just as you are. The first thought of a foreigner is that he is in sight of an iceberg. The white mass, glittering in the sun and rendered more dazzling by the blue sea and sky, looks exactly like a monster ice mountain partly melted, so that outlines of castles and hill appear upon it, but only for a second does the illusion last, for you know there are no icebergs in that part, and you are quickly informed that you are looking at Cadiz. No other town in the world presents such a magic appearance.

Better than Ringing Door-bells

A PIANO manufacturer recently made a house-to-house canvass. He's one of those men with an absurd fear of the "waste-circulation" bugaboo—cannot get away from the haunting thought that only 10 out of every 100 readers of a newspaper may be possible buyers of his goods.

So he refused to advertise, and went a-canvassing—inviting people to come to his piano recitals. Then he wondered why they didn't come.

This is why:

He wasn't reaching the people.

His canvassers rang every door-bell in town. They talked to some one in every house.

But one in every household isn't enough—particularly if it doesn't happen to be the right person. And, as a rule, it wasn't the right person—it was a servant, or a child. The woman of the house was seldom seen; the man of the house, never.

Now, if the piano maker had placed an ad. in the newspaper, it would have reached thousands, where the canvassers could reach only hundreds.

And even though only 10 per cent. of the readers are actual piano buyers, this does not mean that the advertising read by the other 90 per cent. is wasted. Advertising talks, not only to the prospective buyer, but also to his wife, his grown-up sons and daughters, his mother—even his mother-in-law. Their coaxing will help to convince the head of the house—and pretty soon there'll be a piano in that home.

This and dozens of similar cases which might be cited to show that "waste circulation" is an empty bugaboo, and should deter no one.

Take the motor truck. It can be sold only to large firms Yet a motor truck manufacturer is successfully Advertising in daily papers. He realizes that he must reach, not alone the managers of the concerns that require trucks, but also their directors, their foremen, their head machinists, etc. It is found in actual practice that this Advertising radiates in a thousand directions, and again converges most astonishingly to influence the house that has made up its mind that horse-trucking is too costly and inefficient.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Bldg., Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write if interested.

W. R. MORRIS RETURNS FROM HIS TOUR OF NEW ONTARIO

Well Pleased With the Resources of the Country, and commends the Government's Work in the Building of Roads—Former Local Men Who are Boosters of Their New Home.

Mr. W. R. Morris who represented local Board of Trade on the excursion of the Associated Boards of Ontario, returned to the city last night. To the Review he said to-day:

"It was my privilege to be the only member of the Peterborough Board of Trade on the recent excursion of the Associated Boards of Trade of Ontario to the North.

"I regret very much that every member of our Board of Trade was not on this trip so that a wider knowledge of our heritage in this Province could be disseminated.

"Our party of about 125 was accompanied by Mr. J. L. Englehart, chairman, and Mr. Dennis Murphy, a member of the T. & N. O. Ry. Commission, as well as by the Hon. Mr. Hearst, Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines. To say that we were courteously and hospitably treated would be within the mark, for not only were we banqueted and entertained at various points but we were shown the marvellous richness of the country in a way not possible to the ordinary tourist.

"At Cobalt we were shown the various silver mines and reduction work and at Porcupine had an opportunity of inspecting the celebrated Hollinger, McIntyre and Dome Mines; at the former being so fortunate as to see the pouring of a gold ingot from the crucible. This ingot weighed about 85 pounds and was worth approximately $16,000.

"I may say however, that much as we marvelled at the mineral wealth and the millions of dollars invested in the mining and ore reduction works, we were more than surprised and delighted at the agricultural possibilities. Our trip took us as far as the Mettagami River, 32 miles west of Cochrane on the G. T. P. Ry., where we saw the work of roadmaking through the forest which is now being carried on by the Ontario Government out of the grant for Roads in New Ontario, passed at the last session of the Legislature.

At Monteith we stopped at the Government Experimental Farm, where we saw oats, wheat, barley and flax such as we had never seen in the older part of the Province.

At Englehart I was glad to meet Mr. Stanley and Mr. Fred Stanley, formerly stewards at the Peterborough Club, who have taken up land nine miles from there. Both were looking well and hearty and are as thorough "boosters" as any, in a land where every man is a "booster." Both wished to be remembered to any Peterborough friends and Mr. Stanley told me that his land was the finest he had ever seen.

"Last year the Canadian Club of Peterborough were fortunate enough to be addressed by Mr. Englehart on the subject of New Ontario and I, and I have no doubt others, found it difficult to grasp the vast possibilities of this section of our Province, as he then outlined them. I now believe that Mr. Englehart was well within the mark in all he said.

"This country needs men and it needs money. It needs men, able and willing to work, for there is a man's work to be done, but I believe that to such a man and with preferably a small capital the reward will be great.

"The Ontario Government is doing a great work in its road construction and it cannot do too much to aid in the settlement of this new and great Ontario, for let us remember that this is particularly our market and I would not dare to say what I believe it will purchase from us in the course of from five to ten years. Even now I saw the products of several of our local factories at various points and in the Haileyburian noticed the advertisement of one of our manufacturers.

"At all points on our trip the toast was not "New Ontario," but "Ontario One and Undivided, the Banner Province of the Greatest Dominion of the Empire."

BANQUET AT HAILEYBURY.

At Haileybury, the visitors were banqueted by the local Board of Trade and the menu is here given to show the fare which the people of New Ontario are wont to provide for the entertainment of its guests. It will be noted that there was no wine list so that even a Hamilton man could register no objection. The bill of fare served by the Ladies Guild of St. Paul's church was as follows—

Relishes

Sweet pickles, Mixed pickles, chow chow, olives, tomato catsup, worcester sauce, anchovy sauce.

Cold

Beef, lamb, pork, ham, scolloped potatoes.

Salads

Combination, beef, bean.

Dessert

Cakes, pies, bread, rolls. Tea, coffee.

TOASTS

SEVENTEEN SISTERS MADE THEIR FINAL VOWS

A beautiful and impressive ceremony was solemnized at the Mount St. Joseph on Saturday morning, when eleven young ladies who have made their required novitiate were received into the St. Joseph Community and seventeen Sisters made their final vows of Poverty, Chastity and Obedience.

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor officiated at the ceremony which to those who witnessed it was as touching as it was beautiful. The young ladies desiring to be received were dressed in white and carried orange blossoms. Later they returned to the chapel attired in the habit of the Community signifying that they had withdrawn themselves from the world and would in future live the religious life entirely dedicated to God.

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor congratulated the young ladies on being worthy of so great a favor and also their parents and relatives. The Community also was to be congratulated on receiving so many into their Order, and on their rapid growth of late years.

Rev. Father Gorman, S.J., who preached an eloquent sermon, alluded to the fact that it was a rare gift—a great privilege from God to lead the life the young ladies had chosen. He explained what such a step really meant, that it required a great sacrifice and that consequently it brought blessings and reward not only to those who participated in it but to the parents and members of the family. He dwelt briefly on the virtues practiced in the religious life, dwelling especially on those of Obedience and Humility which if continually practiced would always ensure true happiness.

The beautiful chapel was prettily decorated with white lilies, smilax and roses.

The following are the names of the young ladies who were received and also their names in religion:

Miss Mary Doyle, Quebec, Sister Marguerite.

Miss Katherine Coleman, Westwood, Sister Collette.

Miss Mary Burns, Westwood, Sister Bertha.

Miss Bertha Hickey, Newcastle, N. B., Sister Dolores.

Miss Agnes Sloan, Vinton, P.Q., Sister Ermelinda.

Miss Clara Breen, Douglas, Sister Anita.

Miss Annie Dohl, Ottawa, Sister Othelia.

Miss Lyda Beeman, Sister Louise.

Miss Teresa Sullivan, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sister Corona.

Miss Alice Smith, Bayesville, Sister Mary Alice.

Miss Katherine Kennedy, Newfoundland, Sister Aloysia.

A large number of visiting priests were present at the ceremony, and also the parents, relatives and close friends of the young ladies. Among the Sisters who witnessed it were Sister Estella and Sister Ernestine, of the Order of the Grey Nuns, Ottawa, and Mother Fineria, of Newfoundland.

During the ceremony the following appropriate hymns were beautifully sung by the choir: Goe Ye Forth, Te Deum, Ave Maria and the Kyrie Eleison.

The following are the names of the clergy who were present at the ceremony: Rev. Father Dowdall, Eganville, Ont.; Rev. Father W. J. McColl, Rev. Dr. O'Brien, Peterborough; Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, Ennismore; Rev. Father J. O'Sullivan, Victoria Road; Rev. Father Cline, Oshawa; Rev. Father Oshay, Montreal, Rev. Father F. J. O'Sullivan, Port Hope; Rev. Father P. WERE CAPSIZED WHILE SAILING

Two Young Men Had Exciting Time on Chemong Lake

Two young men named Stewart Hayes and Hugh Wallis, who are summering at Chemong, had an exciting adventure Saturday afternoon while sailing on the lake.

The two were in a sailing canoe, and when about half a mile out their craft capsized, sending them both into the water. Fortunately they could swim, but being so far from shore, they clung to their canoe. Their hazardous plight was noticed by Messrs. Zacks and Turnbull, who put out in a canoe, and after hard paddling, reached the couple.

Two others in a canoe on the lake also came up. The young men were very much exhausted. One was helped into a canoe while the other was towed in.

Neither, however, were much the worse for the affair, [illegible]

POLICE COURT

E. W. Jones, proprietor of the Simcoe street livery was allowed another week by Magistrate Dumble, in which to comply with the Provincial Act regulations calling for a closed receptacle for garbage.

His Worship explained to Mr. Jones that if a proper receptacle was not constructed within that time, he would be forced to impose a severe fine upon him. The same charge was preferred against George N. Graham, proprietor of the Oriental, who was also allowed time.

Harry Strange, the young immigrant awaiting deportation, was again remanded for a week until the deportation papers arrive.

A young man named George Striker was arraigned on a charge of vagrancy. He denied the charge however, claiming that he had a home in Kent county and a mother to whose support he contributed. Chief Thompson asked to have him remanded a week.

If, during courtship, a young man tells a girl that he's unworthy of her, she doesnt' believe it any more than he means it.

PROGRAM FOR THE CHEMONG REGETTA

This Popular Event Promises to be the Best Ever Held

Final arrangements have now been made for the Chemong Park Cottagers' Annual Regatta. While being the last held on the Kawartha Lakes it is always considered one of the best. This year will be no exception as those in charge of the different committees say that they will have many more entries in the different races than for many years past.

The prizes this year are exceptionally good, many special prizes being put up for the different events. The war canoes that made such a tremendous hit at the Stoney Lake Regatta, namely St. Paul's and the Y.M.C.A. will also attend Chemong Regatta. While St. Paul's won by a narrow margin at Stoney, the "Y" team are going to do their best to reverse the standing at Chemong, next Thursday. This event alone will more than repay those who attend.

Another feature of the Chemong Regatta that will certainly assure an extra big crowd from town will be that it is being held on Thursday afternoon and evening, the prevailing half holiday in town and it is very easy for those who desire to come to reach the park as there will be several buses coming special for the regatta, and taking the crowd back after the dance.

The dance will be held in the park pavillion, opposite the hotel and will start at 8 p.m. sharp. The 57th band will furnish music for both the afternoon and evening. The races will start at 1.30p.m. sharp.

The following is the program—

1 Canoe sailing for open hunting canoes, sail area limited to 65ft.
2 Dinghy race for Kawartha Lakes Challenge cup.

SPRING WATER LAGER

It's More Refreshing

"Did you ever notice how much more refreshing Kuntz's Original Lager is than ordinary lagers?" remarked a man to a friend, as they were enjoying a bottle the other day. "Yes," replied his friend, who, by the way, was a physician, "and the reason is because Kuntz's Original Lager is brewed from naturally pure spring water, instead of ordinary or city waters which require to be artificially or chemically purified."

Let your next bottle be Kuntz's Original Lager. See how much more enjoyable and refreshing is this famous spring-water lager. 66

MANAGER ROWAN AS PINCH HITTER SAVED THE GAME

Saturday's Contest at Riverside Was the Best Exhibition of Base Ball Offered This Season — Both Pitchers Puzzled the Batters—Some Fine Fielding by the Locals.

When the Kolts broke loose from Riverside paddock on Saturday they were branded with a 3—2 sign that sent them down a notch or two in the league standing. It was nothing like Fridays' runaway victory, however, being a nip and tuck affair with the issue anywhere until the last out in the ninth, when Davy Rowan wielded the stick for Osborne, and came through with the requisite single that scored the winning run.

Teed was Lee's best, and he had the hard hitting Petes eating pretty nearly what he served them. A brace of singles in the first with a sacrifice and a gracious error from "Daddy" Keenan gave the locals two runs, but for the next seven innings they were shut out.

Five of the Caps whiffed at his slants and none were walked. Osborne was in fine fettle also, a pass in the ninth before Crystal "cleaned" with his double being his only serious offence. Seven hits apiece composed the day's swatting list, Brant leading the Caps with three safe ones, while Crystal did the same for the visitors, one of his being a double, with Cameron on, that brought the locals to their toes.

The fielding was snappy to the brilliant point, Beard again pulling off the prize "scoop" in the seventh, when he collared a difficult one that was ticketed for three bases. Running catches by Swartz and Swartzmier and Brant's drive after Nicholls' smash in the seventh, which he succeeded in knocking down, was also of the sensational.

The Petes' get-away at the start was largely responsible for the win, as, with the exception of the Hams' half of the fifth, there was absolutely no admission to Osborne, Lee & Co., and as a result the batting averages tumbled pitifully. The Kolts cut the lead in two in the opening of the fifth, when, after Cameron drew his usual pass and went to second on Osborne's wild one, Crystal smashed to centre and scored him. The ninth saw exactly the same state of affairs, only Crystal, who, by the way is some pitcher, hitter and fielder, drove "Scotty" home from first with his long two base smash. The last of this session was a treat to the fans, when with a tied score and two down, Teed passed Nicholls to get Osborne, but Rowan went him one better and did the hitting that sent the Hams back home with only half the series.

The Caps jumped out for a two run lead at the start, when Swartz sacrificed Brant home, and Trout and Beard did the same for Barthold. The Hams looked good for a tally in the second, when Killilea's long fly got away from Swartz, who ran it to the ground at full speed, and Cameron chopped a beauty down the third base line. Swartz handled Crystal's hit for the third out, however, and there was no damage done.

Swartzmier provided a feature in the second innings, when he chased Nicholls' long drive to the fence. Brant poled his second safe smash to the same place as the first, but it was wasted as he was tagged at second trying to steal.

The bases had absolute rest and quiet till the fifth, when the Hams got one back on Crystal's smash with Cameron on second. In the sixth Fisher won his laurels when he chased Trout's high foul to the netting. The Kolts made another break for liberty in the seventh, when after Cameron's grounder was mishandled by Nicholls, Crystal drove a hard one out past second, but Brant stopped it in time. In the eighth also the Kolts were muzzled when they looked good to tie the score. With two down Keenan singled to centre and Killilea leaned on one to left centre, but Beard tore under it and retired the side. White singled for the locals in the same innings, on which he went to second, when Crystal missed the bounce, looked good for another tally for the Caps. Swartz made an easy out, however, Cameron to Murphy.

The ninth provided the day's real amusement, and Manager Rowan certainly made himself strong with the fans by his timely pinch single that sent Trout across for the winning run.

FINE DIDN'T GO

Pitcher Hanson Loses Nothing by Disputing With an Umpire.

The fine of $10 which was imposed on pitcher Hanson for disputing with umpire Davis in the first game he pitched for Peterboro, has never been collected and probably never will be. Umpire Davis, tired of his strenuous position has jumped the Canadian League without reporting the fine to President Fitzgerald.

C. Duggan, a local fan had raised the amount of the fine by popular subscription, but Hanson under the circumstances, refused to take it and the money was returned to the several donators. On general principles Hanson should have been presented with the amount, as a recognition of the splendid work he has been doing for the team.

Shovelmakers Defeat Browntown by a Score of 27 to 21

Browntown Wanderers went down to defeat at the hands of the Shovel Makers on Saturday afternoon. A good game was witnessed by the spectators, who frequently applauded the players. Some idea of the nature of the fielding may be gathered by the score of Shovels 27, Browntown 12. The Shovel Makers show plenty of promise and will be heard more of later. They are certainly a good team.

UNCONSCIOUS COUNTING.

Train the Mind to Number Grouped Objects at a Glance.

It has always formed a part of the professional conjurer's education to acquire the power of making instant mental note of many objects. A German advocate of the theory that every one should cultivate some similar system of counting has suggested that the ability of most persons of distinguishing from three to five objects at a glance may be so perfected that the mind will find it possible to take note of at least thirty articles in the same length of time. This authority, Preyer, has declared that he can count thirty objects of the same kind as easily as other persons can count three or four.

Apart from such usefulness as this acquired power may impart, the method of teaching it is of interest. The test of one's ability in counting is easily made by placing several small objects, such as pins or coins, under a sheet of paper and then lifting the paper so that one may glance at the articles and give an immediate guess as to their number.

At first the eye finds it possible to distinguish only three or four objects, but practice soon enables the experimenter to manage any under ten with facility. Above that number the process becomes more difficult. Conscious counting is not permitted. The articles must be merely "valued."

To perfect oneself in this practice black spots, forming various geometrical figures, may be made upon squares of white cardboard, the number being gradually increased and the positions altered.

It is said that the sensation of a person practiced in unconscious counting when looking attentively at large numbers of objects is that their number "shoots rapidly through the head." —Philadelphia Record.

SAVAGES OF ECUADOR.

The Jibaros Gave One Spanish Governor His Fill of Gold.

If you are looking for a real wild Indian seek the Jibaro. Perhaps you never heard of him, but you should, for he's the wildest, most savage and uncultured type of redskin who thrives today. War and the Jibaro are synonymous. No other Indian tribe in history has so determinedly and successfully resisted efforts to conquer it as this tribe of the Jibaro.

Today the Jibaro, 15,000 strong, rule supreme over the vast forest regions of Ecuador between the Santiago and Pataso rivers and southward to the Amazon. It is one of the most picturesque and primitive of all surviving tribes of redskins. Once when partly subjugated to Spanish rule they were goaded to rebellion by enforced labor in the mines of their taskmasters and marched 20,000 strong into the stronghold of their enemy and in one night completely annihilated the 12,000 inhabitants. As an example of their savagery they killed the governor by pouring molten gold down his throat in order that he "might have his fill of gold."

Like tactics are still pursued, and the Jibaro is little molested. War is their normal condition, their favorite weapons being the lance, the javelin and the blow gun with poisoned arrows, which have served them with deadly efficiency.

Little is known of their religious or mythological beliefs. There are about 1,400 Jibaros who are Christians, but few of these are of the full blooded type and are scorned by the majority of the tribe. Missionaries say the Jibaros will never break from ancient customs.—Catholic Encyclopedia.

Railway Wheels.

Did you ever notice that the wheels of a locomotive engine are beveled? The reason for this is that in rounding a curve the outer rail is, of course, a little longer than the inner one. The difference is very little, but it would be enough to make an engine "skid" unless it were reckoned for. In the beveled wheel the higher part, with its greater circumference, is forced against the outer rail by the very tendency of the engine to drive straight ahead, and with the other wheel the smaller circumference rests on the rail, thus overcoming the difference in the lengths of the lines.

"An Old Police Trick."

Defending a man charged at West Ham with drunkenness, a solicitor said: "It's a very old trick for two policemen when taking a man to the station to walk out of step. The result is that the prisoner lurches from one side to the other, and he is supposed to be unable to walk without assistance."—London Standard.

A Different Mission.

"Well, old man, how's tricks?"

"Miss Wallaby accepted me last night."

"I suppose you are around today accepting congratulations."

"No; I'm around today trying to borrow $200 to buy the ring."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

BATHING TOGS MUST BE COVERED

New Rule Creates Consternation at Atlantic City.

The people of the United States are as famous for periodical spasms of virtue as for frequent convulsions of crime. The latest epidemic of the former nature has broken out in that ultra fashionable summer resort Atlantic City, where the elite and the wealthy aristocrats of the nation gather to disport themselves in the garb of high society and the costume of the bather.

At Atlantic City, special officers have been appointed to see to it that no bather parade on dry land unless the suit appropriate in the water is properly concealed. Since stockings had been added to the things they had to look out for, the bathing beach lifeguards are objects of suspicion to every woman bather. Many women walk gingerly along the boardwalk to the beaches, stockings drawn high and raincoat enveloping their bathing suits from chin to ankle. All have a weather eye out for the lifeguards.

Life for the bathers was made interesting when Director of Public Safety Bartlett ordered that bathing suits must be covered while women were on their way to the water. Bartlett followed this up with an order that bare-legged bathers would be barred. All must wear stockings

IS NOW AN EDITOR

Boston, Aug. 16. — "Men who would refuse to enter a church to hear certain truths would read the same truth in a newspaper and applaud it," was one of the statements made last night by the Rev. Charles W. Casson in announcing his withdrawal from the pulpit of the Third Religious Society of Dorchester, Mass. (Unitarian, to accept the editorship of the Ottawa Citizen, in succession of Major Morrison, who has been appointed on the permanent staff of the Canadian Militia. He says he is a believer in woman suffrage, public-ownership and socialistic ideals, and adds:

"I expect to do vastly more good as an editor than as a minister."

WHIMSICAL WILLS

Human Nature as Shown In Queer Requests and Bequests.

FEAR OF PREMATURE BURIAL.

This Dread Has Often Been the Cause of Curious Provisions in Last Testaments—The Grave of a Man Who Disliked the Society of Women.

The remarkable will of a man who died not long ago directing the undertaker to stab him through the heart after he had been pronounced dead by his physician is not a unique one. The fear of being buried alive has driven many a man to stipulate in his will that extraordinary steps be taken to make sure of death.

Thus, for instance, a magnate of Plymouth, England, decreed by his will that his wife should cut off one of his toes or fingers to make sure he was dead, adding that he made the request so that "as she had been troubled with one old fool she will not think of marrying a second."

The will of Lord Lytton contained special directions as to the examination of his body in order to provide against the possibility of his being buried while in a trance, which appeared to be an apprehension of his.

A farmer of Hertfordshire, England, who died in 1720, was so certain that his lethal slumber was to be not really death, that he inserted in his will his written wish that, "as he was about to take a thirty years' nap, his coffin might be suspended from a beam in his barn and by no means nailed down." He, however, permitted it to be locked, provided a hole were made in the side, through which the key might be pushed, so that he might let himself out when he awoke. His nephew, who inherited the property, obeyed his whim and did not bury the coffin till 1751, allowing him an extra year of grace.

The Sieur Boby, who died in 1845 at the age of ninety-six, said in his will: "Eight and forty hours after my decease I desire that a post mortem examination be made, that my heart be taken out and placed in an urn, which shall be intrusted to M. Baudoin (the undertaker). In conformity with an arrangement between him and myself my heart is to be conveyed to a mausoleum in the department of La Mayenne and there to be deposited, as agreed."

Robert, the famous Earl of Mellent and Leicester, one of the early crusaders in the holy land, died in 1118 in the abbey of Preaux, where his body was buried, but his heart was conveyed to the hospital at Brackley, there to be preserved in salt. Isabella, daughter of the Earl of Pembroke, who died in 1239, ordered her heart to be sent in a silver cup to her brother, then abbot of Tewkesbury, to be buried there before the high altar. The heart of John Baliol, lord of Barnard castle, who died in 1269, was by his widow's desire inclosed in an ivory casket richly enameled with silver.

But all these examples, strange as they may be, are not especially remarkable among the countless numbers of curious wills which are recorded through many generations.

There is, for example, the will of a rich old bachelor, who, incensed at what he considered the attempts of his family to put him under the yoke of matrimony, vented his spite on the whole sex of women by saying in his will: "I beg that my executors will see that I am buried where there is no woman interred, either to the right or to the left of me. Should this not be practicable in the ordinary course of things I direct that they purchase three graves and bury me in the middle one of the three, leaving the two others unoccupied."

John Reed, gaslighter of the Walnut Street theater, Philadelphia, filled that post for forty-four years. There is not on record a single performance at the theater at which he was not present. He never aspired to appear on the stage in his lifetime, but he was not without his mute ambitions, and before he died he contrived ingeniously to make sure of assuming a Shakespearean role after his death. A clause in his will read:

"My head is to be separated from my body immediately after my death, the latter to be buried in a grave, the former, duly macerated and prepared, to be brought to the theater, where I have served all my life, and to be employed to represent the skull of Yorick, and to this end I bequeath my head to the properties."—New York Sun.

MEETING WITH CASEY.

And a Difference of Opinion as to the Name of the Result.

Mr. Halloran surveyed the insurance agent with a dark and hostile countenance. The fact that one eye was concealed by a somewhat grimy bandage did not add to the attractiveness of his expression.

"Haven't you made up your mind yet to insure with us?" inquired the agent. "You told me I might call again in a few days."

"There was two of you at me to get an accident insurance policy," said Mr. Halloran, breathing heavily. "I towld you and him both you might call in again, and he come first, day befoor yistherday, and I insured wid his company.

"That very night I met up wid Barney Casey on the way home, which was what I was expecting wud happen," continued Mr. Halloran, raising himself by grasping the arms of his chair with two capable though scarred hands, "and whin we'd finished wid one another I was like this!

"Yistherday morning I sent for the insurance chap, and says I to him, 'Look at me,' I says, 'and istimate the damages and pay them.'

"He squirmed right out o' the door, saying 'twas no accident I'd had.

"Now, if meeting wid Barney Casey, afther keeping out o' his way for six months, is no accident, I'm done wid insurance companies, and the sooner yon l'ave this house the betther 'twill plaze me."—London Tit-Bits.

The Fingerless Glove.

How early did mankind think of the convenience of the fingerless glove which modern babies, fishermen and Alpine climbers appreciate so greatly? We hear little of gloves in ancient times, and in most cases it is obvious that they had fingers. Those worn by the secretary of the younger Pliny, used when he visited Vesuvius so that he might keep on jotting down notes in spite of the cold, must have been fingered no less than those of the glutton in Athenaeus who wore gloves at table so that he might handle the meat while hot and get in advance of his bare handed fellow diners. One of the earliest known wearers of a glove with only a thumb is an Anglo-Saxon lady known in Planche's "History of British Costume." Her gloves exactly resemble a modern baby's.

My precept to all who build is that the owner should be an ornament to the house, and not the house to the owner.—Cicero.

At Red Gulch.

"Mr. Mayor, we've got a 'orse thief in jail."

"Well, keep him there."

"But for how long? He's an expense to the town."

"Oh, hang the expense."

So they did.—Kansas City Journal.

Anxious to Be Missed.

YOU CAN BE ABSOLUTELY SURE OF VALUES

If you carefully read the store advertisements and follow them in your buying.

Merchants advertise certain lines because they know these lines will advertise their stores. Because there is something about certain goods, they are put in conspicuous places and the people are told about them. It may be the exclusiveness or newness of design, it may be an unusual quality, it may be an attractive price.

But there is at least one definite, sure reason why a merchant advertises an article and is willing to stake the reputation of his store upon it.

Therefore, when you see an article advertised in THE REVIEW, depend upon it, that article is good value, as good value as can be obtained in that particular store.

Don't Need Accident Insurance

There is no excuse for refusing to take out Accident Insurance as common as the one that the prospect "Don't Need It."

The average man thinks he never exposes himself to hazards that invite accidents.

Here are some of the illuminating facts in regard to the hazards of ordinary lives.

Is he the man who never goes anywhere, always remains at home? Whereabouts at home does he remain to escape danger? Inside the house? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents nearly 14 per cent occur inside the house. Is he safe there? Hardly.

While at home around the house, amid scenes of peace, is he free from danger? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 13 per cent are met with amid these peaceful surroundings.

Is he safe while walking the streets? Out of every one hundred injurious accidents, nearly 16 per cent are met with by pedestrians. Hardly safe is he while walking!

A fraction of over 13 per cent of every one hundred injurious accidents are attributable to horses and vehicles. Nearly 7 per cent are attributable to Automobiles and Bicycles. Railroad and Steamship travel are not especially to be commended for possessing elements of safety as these contribute 14 per cent of every one hundred.

Even while engaged in recreation he is not safe, as its quota amounts to nearly 8 per cent of every hundred. There is only one place where a man is not liable to meet with injurious accidents, and that is—the grave. Sleeping there he is in no danger.

The above shows that everyone needs protection against Accident, and this protection can be obtained at a nominal cost by applying to

MR. SIFTON'S HORSE BROKE THE RECORD

Confidence Cleared Seven Feet Ten and Five Eighth Inches at Cobourg.

Cobourg, Aug. 19— The world's highest record, seven feet ten inches was eclipsed Saturday, at Cobourg Summer Horse Show, when 'Confidence,' Hon. Clifford Sifton's bay gelding took the hurdles at seven feet ten and five-eighth inches, beating his record at the London Olympic Show, by nearly five inches. The announcement that the world's record was beaten was received with prodigious applause by the large crowd upon the grounds, who had watched the high jumping contest with the keenest interest. As Mr. Hamilton who rode Confidence, made the circuit of the ring, the horse proudly wearing the championship badge, he was greeted with deafening applause. Three of the Sifton horses were entered in the championship, the others being Skyscraper, who was second, and Hercules, third. The bars were first placed at five feet six inches, then gradually raised, when seven feet eight and a half inches was reached, excitement was intense and when the proud gelding cleared the hurdles at seven feet ten and five-eighths, the crowd cheered wildly.

From all standpoints this has been the best horse show ever held here, and President Hayden and the members of the committee are being heartily congratulated upon the success that has attended their faithful work. The officers of the association are Hon. President, W. J. Crossen; President J. D. Hayden; Vice-President, Robt. F. Massie; Treasurer, E. W. Hargraft; Secretary, John H. Davidson.

SAFE BLOWERS WERE VERY WILY

Force of Explosion of Nitro-Glycerine Shattered Windows

Secured $35.75

The burglary at the G. Walter Greene foundry gives strong indications of having been carried on by experienced crooks. They neglected nothing that would retard their hasty escape in case of alarm. The latches of the doors were unscrewed, and the hoops on the lawn, used to prevent it from being trodden, were pulled out and tossed into the flower beds. All the windows of the office were raised.

BIG EXPLOSION.

The safe upon which their operations were directed, had the handle wrenched off, and a charge of nitro glycerine was inserted. The force of the explosion shattered the windows and hurled pieces of the safe through the front windows and across the street.

About $23.00 in bills was secured, and $7.00 in silver. The drawers in the office were rifled and $4.25 in stolen and $1.50 in silver. A "jimmy" was evidently used in opening the latter.

It is thought that the operators secured tools for their work from the foundry by lifting one of the windows and taking what was needed in the way of wrenches, hammers, levers, etc.

ELEPHANT POACHER RUN DOWN IN EQUATORIAL AFRICA

James Ward Rogers, Who for Years Defied the Authorities, Shot to Death by a Band of Soldiers Sent Out to Capture Him—Was an American.

London, Aug. 20.—Hunted down by British soldiers in the depths of the jungles of Central Africa, where for several years in defiance of all authority, he had pursued the career of an elephant poacher and illicit ivory trader, James Ward Rogers, an American, is dead. He was shot down by a little force of troops which had been sent into the wilderness in pursuit with orders not to return without the outlaw, dead or alive

News of Rogers' death came formally yesterday to the British Colonial Office from Capt. V. T Fox, inspector of Mongolla province, who commanded the expedition. Although told in official report, the story revealed is one of the most dramatic in colonial annals.

For years Rogers had carried on his lawless trade, which popular opinion credited with netting him a fortune. The remote regions along the Lado enclave and Congo boundaries were the scenes of his operations. Time after time the British officials of the Soudan had tried in vain to trap him. It was this defiance of years which determined the Government to crush the old man.

Capt. Fox's report shows that in his long operations Rogers had done more than had been dreamed of by the Colonial Office. He had established an organized administration over the wild trackless country and among the natives was a virtual uncrowned king.

The success of the outlaw in handling his "subjects" and in the pursuit of his trade drew from Capt. Fox, in his report, the tribute that Rogers work was worthy of a better cause.

Not since the explorer, Henry M Stanley, pierced the jungles in 1871, and found Dr. Livingstone, has such a tale of hardships, trials and dangers come out of Africa.

For the purpose of tracking the outlaw, the English commander was given a non-commissioned subordinate and six Soudanese soldiers. Body carriers and mules for the transportation of supplies were part of his equipment. His instructions were plain—not to return until the outlaw was captured.

With a soldier's disregard for red tape, Capt. Fox, in his report, fails to mention dates in describing the man hunt. Apparently the denouement of the jungle drama came three months ago.

The pursuers then had spent weeks plunging through the jungle that almost defied passage, Rogers cunningly leading them through the densest of swamps, forests and across deep streams. Before the outlaw was overtaken he had crossed the Nile into the Belgian Congo, after a fight in which Rogers was fatally wounded. Fox found him with a white doctor in a hut. After a brief confession Rogers died.

Throughout his talk with Capt. Fox Rogers shielded his white companion and did not reveal his identity. Capt. Fox's report also is singularly silent on this point, as he says he did not know the doctor. It is thought likely, however, that this was done to protect the man.

STOLE $1,000 AND SENT BACK $100

Eccentric Robber Makes Partial Restitution at Toledo.

Toledo, O., Aug. 20.—Nearly $1,000, mostly in currency and the rest in checks, was filched from the office of the Detroit & Cleveland Navigation Co.'s offices here yesterday in a bold daylight robbery. An hour later the robber returned $100 to the company through a third person.

According to a statement made at the office of the company, T. A. Heaton, ticket agent, was making up his daily deposit when a poorly-dressed stranger presented a ticket for some baggage, an errand on which he had been sent by another man. John McArthur, general agent of the company, was in another part of the building. No other employes were about. Leaving the money in sight on top of his desk in the ticket agent's cage, Heaton went to the baggage room, locking the door of the cage with a spring lock. During his absence the stranger went through a rear door and crawled into the cage through a small window in the rear. Heaton returned to the waiting room in time to see the stranger walk from the door of the cage. The man fled, pursued by Heaton, who soon lost sight of the fugitive.

An hour later the man who had employed the robber to get his baggage brought $100 to the company's office. He said that the man had run up to him at the corner where he had appointed him to bring the baggage. The thief had his hands stuffed with money.

The robber thrust the smaller bundle of money into the other man's hands, telling him that it belonged to the Navigation Co. and asking him to return it. Nonplussed, the man, whose name was not obtained by the Navigation Co., did not attempt to delay the other.

DR. SUN YET SEN REPORTED SLAIN

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—Dr. Sun Yet Sen, first provisional President of China, and head of the revolutionary party, was assassinated yesterday in Pekin by troops acting under orders supposed to have been given by President Yuan Shi Kai, according to an unconfirmed report in local Chinese circles. The news has reached Dr. Sun's son and daughters, who are on the Pacific coast.

The rumor was not credited at the Chinese consulate or in the offices of the two Chinese daily newspapers, where no news of an attack on Dr. Sun had been received. At the consulate the report was dismissed as entirely improbable.

COLLISION ON I.C. RAILWAY

Halifax, Aug. 20.—A head-on collision last night at Halifax between the incoming suburban train of the I. C. R. and a shunting engine badly damaged the suburban engine and inflicted fatal injuries on Engineer H. Hele of the suburban train. One of his legs was split downwards from the hip and he was terribly hurt otherwise. The shunting engine was a foot or two from the points connecting the track on which it was moving and the incoming suburban track, a curve preventing either engineer from seeing the other.

KILLED FAMILY; SHOT HIMSELF

Ex-Officer of British Army Enacts Revolting Tragedy.

London, Aug. 20.—Capt. Hicks Murray, an officer attached to the Gordon Highlanders, Sunday night murdered his wife and three children, set his house afire and then committed suicide. The story is one of the most revolting tragedies that has occurred in England in recent years.

Capt. Hicks Murray, formerly of the Gordon Highlanders, some seven or eight years ago took as his mistress Florence Taylor, a young woman of respectable family, and two years ago he married Florence's younger sister, Edith.

By the Taylor woman Murray had two children by his wife one. Mrs. Murray did not live with her husband long, but her sister remained in the house.

Representing himself as Richard Charles Mackie, an American, the former army officer a few weeks ago rented a house in Eastbourne, a fashionable watering place 66 miles southwest of London, installing there the Taylor woman and their two children. Last Sunday night the legal wife and child appeared on the scene and the tragedy followed. Murray in a fit of frenzy whipped out a revolver and shot his wife and the three little ones dead. He also fired two shots at the Taylor woman, both bullets taking effect, and then, after setting fire to the house, committed suicide. The bodies of the five killed were found charred in the ruins of the building.

The injured woman was taken to a hospital, where she lies in an hysterical condition. She was visited at the hospital yesterday by another sister, who said that her brother-in-law was formerly a captain of the Scots Greys and later was connected with the Territorials. He had twice suffered from sunstroke while in India, she said, and had shown signs of insanity, for a time having been confined in an asylum.

Commission for Dr. Noble.

Montreal, Aug. 20.—The case of Dr. Charles Noble of Philadelphia, who is held in the Verdun Insane Asylum against his will at the instigation of his son, and who is petitioning in the courts for his release on habeas corpus proceedings, came up yesterday before Justice Demers, but was put over until Thursday to give the attorneys for the son further time to prepare their case. A commission to inquire into the petitioner's mental condition may be appointed.

ATTEMPTS RECORD OCEAN VOYAGE IN TINY CRAFT.

THE MOTORBOAT DETROIT IN MIDOCEAN; PHOTOGRAPHED BY A PASSENGER FROM THE DECK OF THE STEAMSHIP AMERIKA.

This photograph of the tiny motor boat Detroit, which left New Rochelle N. Y., July 14 in an attempt to make a record trip across the ocean, was taken from the Amerika, of the Hamburg-American line, about a thousand miles west of Hamburg. Captain Fleming, who is racing the small craft to St. Petersburg, reported all well on board.

GENERAL BOOTH IS RAPIDLY APPROACHING LIFE'S CLOSE

Physicians Bulletin Holds Out Very Little Hope—His Strength Decreasing, and he Has Less Perception of Surroundings.

Special to the Review

London, Aug. 20—General Booth is rapidly becoming weaker. The physician's bulletin issued this morning says: "General Booth's condition gives rise to increased anxiety."

Bramwell Booth told the Press: "The General's condition is very serious. His reserve strength has been greatly reduced during the last forty-eight hours, and his nervous control is not so good. There is less perception of surroundings, marked failure of appetite and an increase of physical weakness, but though doctors are very doubtful, we still hope and pray for recovery."

NEW MEN SHOOT BETTER THAN THE CRACK SHOTS OF BISLEY

Opening of the Annual Shoot of the Ontario Rifle Association at Toronto—High Scores and Many Surprises Result of First Day's Trials.

Toronto, Aug. 20.—With everything favorable to shooting, splendid marksmanship took place at the opening day of the Ontario Rifle Association's annual meeting at Long Branch yesterday. In every contest high scores were in evidence. The weather was all that could be desired. There was no breeze or sun throughout, which greatly favored the marksmen.

Contestants arrived from every province in the Dominion. Practically all the regiments from coast to coast are represented in this five days' tournament. And civilian associations from all parts have also sent their crack shots to try for the trophies.

As a sign that the Ontario meet is gradually catching hold of the associations, the entry list this year is nearly 500, a gain of 100 on the previous year. Besides many cups and medals $6,800 in cash prizes are presented those who attain necessary points.

Men who have attended Bisley were greatly off color yesterday or newcomers are gradually gaining on them. Crack Bisley shots of former years did not have a chance for the money. High scores broke all records for the first day. And if there is a slight breeze to-day or during the rest of the meet there is a possibility that scores as high as yesterday's will not again be registered. In practically every match "possibles" were obtained by the winning man. Many outside the money got large scores, points that would have seemed very big on any other occasion. But it must be taken into consideration that the cream of the marksmen of all Canada are participating.

Cadet S. H. Robertson of the Harbord Collegiate Institute Corps, Toronto, surprised the old-timers by making a possible 35 in the seven round shooting in the City of Hamilton series. He won the O.R.A. silver medal and a cash prize of $10. This match was for tyros with cash prizes amounting to $315, and at a range of 500 yards. Robertson was the only man to make a possible. Col.-Sergt. W. Robinson of the 91st Highlanders came second with 34 points.

The shooting of Staff-Sergt. J. Freeborn of the 13th Regiment in the 600 yards Osler Match was remarkable. He was the only marksman to make a possible 50 in ten rounds.

The City of Toronto team prize was won by the 91st Highlanders' No. 1 team, they winning $30, and the Ladies' Challenge Cup, valued at $150, presented by the ladies of Toronto.

The City of Hamilton team prize of $15, open to members of civilian associations, was won by the 91st Highlanders.

OUT ON STRIKE

Building Laborers May Tie up Trade in Brandon.

Brandon, Man., Aug. 20.—Asserting that they will tie up all building operations in Brandon if their demands are not conceded, striking laborers are to-day awaiting a reply to their petition to the Minister of Labor at Ottawa and refuse to consider any advances toward a settlement by contractors unless the latter agree to place the scale of wages, 27 1-2 cents an hour. The men who first went out were working on the new insane asylum and have since been joined by many laborers on the new winter fair arena and St. Matthew's Church. Several contractors have signified their willingness to agree to the new rate, but, with no master builders' organization here, the matter is in a very unsettled condition.

Efforts are being made by several contractors to hold a meeting of master builders to discuss the situation.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED THERE; ROOM FOR ONLY TWO HUNDRED

Opening of Gillies Limit to Prospectors Cause a Wild Rush of Miners, Who Resort to Every Form of Strategy to Record Claims—May be Trouble.

Haileybury, Ont., Aug. 20.—Camp fires on the hills in Gillies Limits loomed up last night like beacon lights at ocean ports, while fifteen hundred men rushed madly at the work of staking two hundred claims in hopes of locating more silver mines that will add to the wealth produced by present Cobalt shippers. A copious rainfall added to the discomforts of the night-workers.

At the hour of midnight the four thousand acres recently thrown open by the Government became a mecca of active prospecting and tents that hid corner stakes which had been set days ago were torn down, unmasking the work that had been done in secret in contravention of the mining laws.

At two o'clock the staking had been completed in a majority of cases, and then began the race for the Haileybury recording office. Prospectors anticipating that unquestionably legal difficulties will follow in many cases where claims prove valuable, sought to add strength to their case by getting on record at the recording office in advance of others. Every saddle horse, carriage and automobile available was pressed into service, and for hours a mad marathon was run over the stone roads of Coleman and Bucket Townships to the town of Haileybury.

A scene of strife was already staged at the recording office door. As early as 6 o'clock Monday night watchers were stationed "for place" and as soon as a prospector arrived from the limits the one who kept vigil at the door in his behalf vacated. The prospector took the watcher's place and thus was placed in a position to record early.

Not alone were men in the struggle for claims. Mrs. Thomas Rogers assumed a position at the very door of the recording office in behalf of her husband.

All the big Cobalt mines had prospectors on the limits holding claims for the past week. A seam of calcite was sufficient to call for a heavy guard.

The formation in the portion of the limits thrown open in Keewatin and conglomerate with patches of diabase. Mine men contend that in order to make mines here, should conditions prove right, that great depth must be attained.

A peculiar feature is that not one per cent. of those staking expect to make finds that will warrant future work on the claims, but stake their hopes on the liability of someone finding a high grade vein. Rumors are rife that no claim will be accepted which was staked before daylight. Morning will see a tremendous struggle for position before the door of the recording office.

Old prospectors are taking their time in staking, blazing all the lines, and will not attempt to record before to-morrow. There will follow the legal disputes.

TROUBLE IN CHINA

President May be Impeached Over the Execution of a Minister.

Pekin, Aug. 20.—The Chinese National Assembly, after a stormy meeting yesterday, resolved by 52 votes against 11 to present a petition to President Yuan Shi Kai demanding a further explanation of the evidence on which Gen. Chang Chen Wu and Gen. Feng Wei, who were members of Dr. Sun Yat Sen's party, were seized and summarily executed.

The petition sets forth five of the charges which the Government had stated in a manifesto had been proved and then adds rebutting comment. It requests President Yuan Shi Kai to answer within three days and says if his reply should be unsatisfactory the National Assembly will summon him to explain in person. If his personal explanation should prove unsatisfactory then the House will impeach President Yuan Shi Kai, or the whole Chinese Government.

DALHOUSIE VOTES HYDRO ELECTRIC

By-law Providing for the System Carried Almost Unanimously.

St. Catharines, Ont., Aug. 20.—The bylaw to supply the Village of Port Dalhousie with Hydro-electric power for lighting purposes carried yesterday by an overwhelming majority. Out of 120 votes cast, only eight were registered against the bylaw. The village in the past has been lighted with power supplied by the Maple Leaf Rubber Co., and latterly by the Lincoln Electric Light Co. As the vote shows, there was practically no opposition to the measure in the village, any opposition coming from outside sources.

POT HUNTERS LOSE

Game Wardens Confiscate a Small Arsenal Near North Bay.

North Bay, Aug. 20.—Game Wardens G. W. Parks and D. Blea have returned from a week's patrol of the waters of the west arm of Lake Nipissing and the French River, bringing seventeen guns which were confiscated for illegal shooting. A party of American tourists were fined $100 for buying venison from Indians and sending their Indian guides out to shoot deer for the camp. Twelve guns were taken from Indians, three from Americans, and two from Italians, the latter being camped on the French River. Two parties of Americans were involved in the gun seizures. The guns are being forwarded to the Department at Ottawa. Determined efforts are being made by the game wardens to stop promiscuous pot-hunting out of season.

CYCLIST WAS HURT

Charles Raymond, of Guelph, Badly Injured by Fall.

Galt, Aug. 20.—While driving to Galt from Guelph Sunday morning, Peter Brown of Guelph found a man lying unconscious by the roadside, a mile and a half from Hespeler. He was apparently very badly hurt and efforts to revive him were unavailing. Mr. Brown took the injured man into his rig and raced his horse to the office of Dr. Lockhart, Hespeler, where an examination showed a broken hip and several crushed ribs. The man proved to be Charles Raymond, Guelph, motor cyclist, who, out on a spin, came to grief. A motor car took him home, where he lies in a precarious condition.

MR. TAFT DODGES CANAL QUESTION

Tries to Dodge Responsibility by by an Appeal to the Courts.

Washington, Aug. 20.—President Taft closed a day of conferences on the Panama Canal bill with a special message to Congress suggesting the passage of legislation which would permit American ships to travel the canal toll free and which would allow foreign nations to test the legality of this provision by suits in the United States courts.

The President discussed the message with Senators and members of the House, and its wording was finally decided upon at a meeting of the Cabinet which began at luncheon time and lasted until late in the afternoon. The message was read in Congress soon afterwards and will be taken up to-day by committees of both Houses.

It was the belief here to-day that a determined effort will be made to meet the President's wishes, although some leaders, particularly in the House, were inclined to believe that the message meant no further action in regard to the canal at the present session.

Mr. Taft explained that he was anxious to sign the present bill, but wished to assure other Governments of the spirit of fairness on the part of the United States.

The President was told that an act of Congress would have the effect of abrogating any treaty previously agreed to, and the decision of the Supreme Court over the Chinese exclusion act was given as the authority for the statement. His suggestion to Congress for additional legislation designed to prevent any such construction as that of the Supreme Court in the Chinese case would allow foreigners to try their cause in the United States courts.

POLICE WANTED HIM

Made Two Attempts to Wrest Schepps From District Attorney.

New York, Aug. 20.—Two attempts were made by the police yesterday to wrest away from District Attorney Whitman, Sam Schepps, who proved himself yesterday to Mr. Whitman's satisfaction the most important witness, aside from those accused of complicity in the crime, as yet produced in the investigation of Herman Rosenthal's death.

The attempts were made first on the train which was bearing Schepps to this city from Albany on the last stage of his journey from Hot Springs, Ark., and again at the Grand Central station, when Schepps was rushed into a taxicab and hustled to the West Side Court, where he now occupies a cell on the technical charge of vagrancy.

UNVEILED STATUE

Brockville, Aug. 20.—After ten years of assiduous work on the part of Gen. Brock Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, there was unveiled yesterday afternoon on Court House Square a bronze bust of Gen. Sir Isaac Brock, after whom the town was named.

The ceremony was performed by Col. Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, in the presence of an immense concourse of citizens.

DOCTORS SAID IT WAS HEART FAILURE

And Gave Me Up—But "Fruit-a-tives" Saved Me

MOOREFIELD, ONT., MARCH 19th, 1910

"I suffered from Severe Indigestion and Dyspepsia for twenty-two years. I could not take food without fearful distress. Two doctors thought my disease was Heart Failure and they said I expected to die in a short time. My son asked me to try "Fruit-a-tives".

From the outset, I was better and gradually this fruit medicine completely cured me.

I took perhaps a dozen boxes—now I am cured and have gained over 30 pounds in weight."

MR. TAFT AND THE CANAL

The Scientific American in an article on the Panama Canal published in another column, raises a point which has hitherto been overlooked by the leading journals of the United States in their discussion of this subject and that point is an exceedingly practical one. It calls attention to the fact that if the free use of the canal is to be allowed to American vessels, one source of profit which naturally belongs by right to the nation which expended so many millions in the construction of the waterway, will be diverted to the treasury of private corporations. This is an argument which even the most witted statesman in the Republic can be expected to recognize.

However, the time for argument has passed, seeing that the canal question is, for the time being at least, out of the hands of both branches of Congress who have passed it. Its ultimate fate rests with President Taft and the latest despatches say that he is disposed to veto it. If he does so it is not likely that the friends of the measure can muster the required two-thirds majority to give the bill effect despite the Presidential disapproval.

President Taft, however, true to his policy to do everything possible to prevent international discord or complications, proposes a compromise or at least he would facilitate any measure that would tend to bring the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty to a clear and speedy interpretation. Legislation is proposed whereby aliens can appeal to the United States courts if they deem themselves aggrieved in any way. They are accorded that privilege now when the alleged offence against their rights is committed in the country itself, but this power to appeal to the courts is to be extended to aliens in the Canal zone. If such legislation is enacted the first owner of a foreign vessel to be charged toll on passing through the canal, while a United States goes through free, could appeal to the courts for redress. In this way the matter would soon reach the highest American tribunal where the Canal Bill with its discriminatory tolls would probably not survive beyond the time required for argument, seeing that it is clearly set forth in the American Constitution that no treaty or contract, lawfully entered into, can be abrogated by legislation enactment.

The world is taking the canal question too seriously. Whatever happens, the jingo American statesmen to the contrary, notwithstanding, the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty will stand in its integrity. The play to the galleries will come to an end. There is a disposition on the part of a certain class of politicians to respond to the claims of the rabid element among their constituents, or to the powerful money interests, by consenting to the adoption of legislation measures, knowing well that such measures will not stand the searchlight of judicial investigation. In this way the cheap politician keeps himself square with the men whose votes he desires to secure and escapes responsibility by hiding behind the courts.

Mr. Taft, himself, appears to have his eye upon this refuge of the office seeker.

THE POSTS OPINION

The following is the opinion of the Financial Post on the C.P.R. stock issue:

"The issuing of new stock by Canada's premier railway is a matter of some importance to the country. Two chief facts stand out in connection with the subject. The first is that there is no adequate reason, legal or equitable, so far as The Post is aware, why authorization to issue the new stock should be delayed until the meeting of Parliament. There is no reason indeed why the C.P.R.'s expansion should be delayed in any way so long as it complies with the requirements of the statutes and of its charter. The press outcry that the railway should be obstructed in its acquiring of new capital until the freight rate question both in Eastern and Western Canada is settled, is, The Post thinks, beside the mark. The latter question is in the hands of the Dominion Railway Board and is actually sub judice at the present time by this capable and empowered body. If there were any reasons for believing that the Railway Board either could not, or would not settle the rates question properly, there would then be some justification for having the different freight and stock issue problems bandied about in Parliament.

If it be granted that the railway should be authorized to obtain new capital in the way it desires, the second consideration has to do with the price, having regard to equity and expediency at which the stock should be issued. Readers of The Post know that this paper believes in justice and in good rewards to private capital which adventures into new or difficult fields. The Post believes now, however, that the original and patriotic adventurers in the great C.P.R. undertaking have now been sufficiently recompensed in the way of stock issue advantages, and that the new stock should be sold at a price considerably higher than those of previous issues. C.P.R.'s original owners have already been well repaid; its later shareholders, or most of them, have also shared in extra profits and have no special claim now for extra favors. They will, moreover, receive special advantages in future years through the increasing value of the railway's immense land holdings. But the railway is practically a great public utility, with which the country's welfare is inextricably involved. The rate question is one of essential importance and the rates obviously, should be steadily lowered if conditions allow it. If the new stock is sold to bring to the company, say $45,000,000 less than it might, the company's tariffs of course have to be high enough to offset the discrepancy. This in view of the railway's vital relationship to the country's welfare, The Post believes, is undesirable. The new issue should, it seems clear, be made at a price to give a fair profit to the shareholders; a profit which will fully ensure that future stock issues will be promptly taken up. Beyond these requirements of fairness and of financial expediency, The Post thinks the railway should not go. The forthcoming issue, in short, should be made at a much higher price than obtained on any previous issue."

NOTE AND COMMENT

Plaster of Paris is the latest slyly suggested weapon with which to puncture a local by-law or a Provincial Act. Have you a sack of it ready?

The way of the transgressor, amusing as it may be, is no harder than that of the sanitary inspector whose duty it is to enforce the Health Act.

Even if Standard Oil money is so tainted that it smells to heaven, that great apostle of political purity, Col. Roosevelt, seems to be equal to the task of handling it for campaign purposes.

Up to date the Saskatoon Phoenix is about the only Liberal paper to favor the proposed increase of the capital stock of the Canadian Pacific Railway, putting the interests of the country generally before the welfare of a political party.

The business men who visited the North were looking for facts, not political bird shot. It did not take them long to see the good work the Whitney Government is doing up there especially in the building of highways.

J. J. Turner & Sons are the first local business men to make a bid for the markets of New Ontario. They have a display advertisement in the Haileybury paper setting forth the qualities of the articles in which they deal.

A correspondent deplores the unruly nature of a local small boy, and attributes it to a sparing of the rod of correction. It seems, however, that where the boy is indiscriminately and violently clubbed with impunity by a burly policeman at the ball games the Peterborough youth are getting more than their lawful share of corporal punishment.

FAREWELL TO A FAITHFUL PASTOR

Rev. D. D. McDonald Remembered by the People of Keene

The Presbyterian Church, Keene, was the centre of special interest on the evening of the 16th inst., when the congregation gave tangible expression to their appreciation of their pastor's services, for the past ten years and their feelings of regret in view of his translation to the congregation of Belwood in the Presbytery of Guelph.

At an early hour the people began to gather in unusual numbers, and at the close of the service in connection with the Young Peoples Meeting, Mr. David Armstrong, president of the society, called the Rev. D. D. McDonald to the platform and two young ladies, Miss Annie McIntyre and Miss Lizzie Miller, read the accompanying address and presented the pastor with a purse of gold.

Mr. McDonald thanked the congregation for their gift, and especially for the sentiments expressed in the address.

He spoke of the many pleasant memories that he and Mrs. McDonald would carry with them in the days that are to come. He admitted that the course of a minister with his people is not always an easy one; there are unseen rocks that have to be guarded against and the most experienced pilot is liable to make mistakes.

He made very appreciative reference to his relationship with the Young People's Societies and hoped that the future would open up many avenues of usefulness and blessing to them.

Mr. James McNeil, who has been secretary-treasurer of the church for many years, spoke of Mr. McDonald's services in very commendable terms. He was strongly in favor of the minister remaining for a life time in one place.

Rev. Mr. Johnston, of the Methodist church, expressed his regrets at having to part with Mr. McDonald, whom he found to be a congenial friend, always ready to help and always interested in the work that was common to both.

Rev. Mr. Barker also said a few words of appreciation.

THE ADDRESS.

Rev. D. D. McDonald:

Dear pastor,—We, the members and adherents of the Keene Presbyterian Church, and the societies in connection therewith, over which you have so long and so ably presided as minister, could not let this opportunity pass without expressing to you the deep regret we feel at the removal of yourself and family from our neighborhood and your severance from our church as its pastor.

We wish also to convey to you the high appreciation in which you are held by us, as a faithful, earnest and efficient minister of the Gospel.

We regret that circumstances of any kind should cause you to sever your connection with us, as our minister, and we trust that you in the new field of labor, on which you are about to enter, may be abundantly blessed in winning souls for the advancement of the kingdom.

We now ask you to accept this address and purse as a slight token of our appreciation of your labors among us.

In conclusion we wish you and Mrs. McDonald and your daughter, health, happiness and abundant success in your future life, and work, and at last may you and your family be ushered into the land of Everlasting felicity.

Signed on behalf of the congregation, Keene, Aug. 16th, 1912.

M. PLUNKETT,

Ask Firemen to Wait.

New York, Aug. 20.—Representatives of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen came here yesterday and arranged for a meeting of the adjustment committee of the brotherhood to-day, for the purpose of discussing the present status of the controversy arising out of the firemen's wage demands upon eastern railroads. The general managers committee for the railroads had requested that the firemen postpone further negotiations until after the decision of the board of arbitration in the engineers' wage case has been handed down. The firemen's committee will decide to-day whether they shall accede to this request or not.

Increase All Around.

Toronto, Aug. 20.—The staff of special clerks at the Exhibition office are working almost night and day getting the entries classified and listed for this year's fair. Almost every department shows an increase.

Cattle and horses, too, are in record numbers, the entries coming from a range of country between Glasgow, Scotland, on the east, and New Westminster, B.C., on the west. Many U. S. points will also be represented.

Cats are fully double what they were a year ago, Detroit, Rochester and Chicago being represented, as well as most of the principal cities in Ontario.

Has a New Wheat.

Indian Head, Sask., Aug. 20.—Dr. Charles Saunders, the Dominion cerealist, who is making his annual trip through the western provinces, has been examining the crop of the Indian Head district. He expressed himself as well pleased with the condition of the fields of early ripening wheat, such as Marquis and Stanley. These promise a heavy yield and many of them will be ready for cutting in a few days. Dr. Saunders' newest wheat, a phenomenal early sort, which he has called Prelude, is now ready for threshing on the Government experimental farm here. Some other new sorts not yet named are also cut.

Italian's Narrow Escape.

Toronto, Aug. 20.—While at work on Quebec avenue, near Humberside avenue, yesterday afternoon, an Italian laborer, whose name was unknown, had a narrow escape from being buried alive. The man was digging out the excavation for a drain when the side collapsed upon him, burying him to his neck in wet sand. Fortunately his fellow workmen saw the cave-in and extricated him as speedily as possible, and the man escaped with a rather severe bruising.

Port Arthur Truckers Out.

Port Arthur, Ont., Aug. 20.—The truckers in the Canadian Northern sheds went on strike yesterday. About 1,000 men are out and no boats are being unloaded. The men want an increase of about eight cents an hour, and their representatives met in conference with company officials yesterday afternoon. A compromise is said to be likely.

Scenery in Bering Sea.

"Sailing southeasterly along the shore of that haunt of the walrus and polar bear, St. Matthew's island, in the Bering sea," said a navigator of those waters, "one is impressed by the mingling of the grotesque and the terrible in the character of the scenery. The northwest point of the island is split up into a collection of large rocks of most fantastic shapes. Houses, spires, cathedrals and figures of men and beasts are some of the forms assumed by these volcanic fragments, which, rising black above the white, seething foam of the seas that breaks against their base, give a weird aspect to the grim and desolate region. One rock resembling a large saddle suggested to me the thought that some antediluvian giant might in his time have straddled it and perhaps fished for reptiles over the beetling cliffs which it surmounts."

Car Strike Probable.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—The wage controversy between 14,000 men working for the street railway system and the elevated lines of Chicago and the employing companies stood at a crisis last night.

Two conferences were held with Mayor Harrison yesterday in the hope of averting a strike. No decision was reached at either meeting. It was then agreed that another conference should be held at 10 o'clock to-day. Mayor Harrison holds out hope of an amicable settlement.

Storm Costs One Million.

Niles, Mich., Aug. 20.—Two persons were killed and damage estimated at $1,000,000 was wrought by a cloudburst and storm that swept over Michigan early yesterday. In Niles the water was five feet deep in the streets, seven bridges were washed out and interurban car service was stopped.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Buyers, encouraged by additional rains, gave wheat a show of strength at the start which faded later under selling pressure and decreased demand. Oats closed from a shade to ⅛c down and provisions varied from 2½c to 1⅞c lower.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, Aug. 19—The demand from foreign buyers for new crop Manitoba spring wheat and old crop grades is fairly good and a fair amount of business was done in the latter, but the prices bid for the former were 1c per bushel under cost. There is also a good demand for oats, but owing to the high rates of ocean freights demanded and the difficulty to buy oats in the west little business was done. The local market is stronger at an advance of ½c, with a fair trade passing. Demand for flour fair and market steady. Millfeed active and firm. Butter quiet, but firmer. CATTLE MARKETS.

Union Stock Yards.

TORONTO, Aug. 19.—Receipts of live stock at the Union Yards were 115 carloads, comprising 2215 cattle, 488 hogs, 794 sheep and lambs and 177 calves.

Exporters.

The Swifts of Chicago were the only buyers of export cattle, their buyer, Mr. Howard, getting, all told, 185 cattle, as follows: For the London market, 75 steers, 1250 lbs. each, at $7.10 to $7.25, and only one load at the latter figure; for Liverpool, 110 steers, 1267 lbs. each, at $6.90 to $7.10.

Butchers Cattle.

Choice picked lots, of which there were few, sold at $8.25 to $8.50; loads of good to choice, $8.00 to $8.20; good, $7 to $7.35; medium, $6.25 to $6.50; common, $5.50 to $6; choice cows, $5 to $5.25; good, $4.50 to $4.75; common and medium, $3 to $4; canners, $2 to $4.

Stockers and Feeders.

There were 20 steers of good quality, 1000 lbs. each, bought at $5.25 to $6.00; stockers, $4 to $4.75.

Milkers and Springers.

A moderate supply of milkers and springers sold at $50 to $80 each. More good cows would have sold.

Veals Claves.

The veal calves on sale sold at $3 to $5.25, and three or four choice quality at $8.50 to $8.75 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Sheep, ewes, sold at from $4.25 to $4.75 for light, with a very few selects at $5; heavy ewes and rams, $3 to $3.50; lambs, $5 to $6.40, but a few selected sold at $6.50 and $6.65.

Hogs.

Selects, fed and watered, sold at $8.60 to $8.65, and $8.25 f.o.b. cars. The bulk sold at these prices, but two or three lots were reported at $8.70 and $8.75.

Montreal Live Stock.

MONTREAL, Aug. 19.—At the Montreal Stock Yards, West End Market, the receipts of live stock for the week ended Aug. 17, were 1300 cattle, 2300 sheep and lambs, 2800 hogs and 500 calves. The offerings on the market this morning were 850 cattle, 1500 sheep and lambs, 1000 hogs and 200 calves.

Owing to the continued very limited supply of good to choice butchers' cattle the market for such was stronger and 25c per cwt. higher for picked lots. Owing to the scarcity of top quality, Ontario stock, some Manitoba beef met with good demand. Sales were made at $6.25 to $6.50 and picked lots at $6.25 per cwt. The gathering of local buyers was large and as the weather is now more favorable for keeping stock the demand was good, packers taking a number of car loads, consequently the trade throut was active. There was also a good demand from canners for beef and sales of bulls were made at $2.50 to $3 and cows at $3.50 to $4 per cwt.

There was no change in the condition of the market for selected hogs; prices being firm owing to the small supplies of such coming forward, but the tone of the market for rough stock was easier as the bulk of offerings consisted of such. The demand for packers was good and an active trade was done with sales of selected lots at $9 and rough stock at $7.75 to $8.50 per cwt., weighed off the cars.

In small meats an active trade was done, there being a good demand for sheep and lambs from both butchers and packers and the tone of the market for the latter was stronger with sales of Ontario lambs at $6 to $6.25 per cwt. and Quebec lambs, at $2.65 to $2.75 each. The demand for calves was good and prices ruled firm.

Butchers' cattle, choice, $7 to $7.25; cattle, medium, $6.25 to $6.75; common, $4 to $5; canners, $2.50 to $3.00; choice cows, $5 to $5.25; bulls, $4 to $5; milkers, choice, each, $60 to $70, common and medium, each $40 to $50; springers, $30 to $35.

Sheep—Ewes, $3.75 to $4; bucks and culls, $3.25 to $3.50; lambs, $6 to $6.25.

Hogs—F.o.b., $7.75 to $9.

Calves—$3 to $10.

YOU CAN BE ABSOLUTELY SURE OF VALUES

If you carefully read the store advertisements and follow them in your buying.

Merchants advertise certain lines because they know these lines will advertise their stores. Because there is something about certain goods, they are put in conspicuous places and the people are told about them. It may be the exclusiveness or newness of design, it may be an unusual quality, it may be an attractive price.

But there is at least one definite, sure reason why a merchant advertises an article and is willing to stake the reputation of his store upon it.

Therefore, when you see an article advertised in THE REVIEW, depend upon it, that article is good value, as good value as can be obtained in that particular store.

NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT

A family medicine cabinet that does not contain NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT is about as complete as a watch without a main spring, and worthy of no more confidence. NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT is true—"first aid"—to the injured. There is nothing better for sprains, bruises, cuts, wounds, etc.

There is no liniment we can recommend with more certainty of giving satisfaction. It will relieve pain, reduce swellings, and we know of no better liniment for the treatment of neuralgic and rheumatic pains and swellings, or the stiffening of the joints and muscles.

SOCIAL FUNCTION AT CHEMONG PARK

A very enjoyable evening was spent at Chemong Park last night when the Regatta Committee held an informal dance. The dancing pavillion was brilliantly lighted for the occasion and presented a lively scene as the couples floated around to the airs of the popular music. Many of the cottagers attended and parties from the city who motored out, helped to make the evening an enjoyable one.

THE ARRIVAL OF KITTY

When this well known laughing comedy comes to the Grand Opera House for Saturday, Aug. 24th, matinee and night, theatre goers will have an opportunity of seeing one of the best plays of its kind that they would care to see. From the first act to the last it is full of amusing situations and surprises, there being not a dull line or moment throughout the action of the play. This season the company presenting the comedy is composed largely of the original cast of players when the play was first produced and their acting has proved that they have not lost their grasp on the fine points in the play. There is a laugh for every moment the participants are in action, and as a means of driving care away it has a call on anything that has ever been produced. During the action of the comedy a number of high grade numbers and specialties are introduced.

WINNERS IN LAWN COMPETITION

Survey of Lawns Very Satisfactory, and Involved Difficult Judging

After a careful examination involving some very difficult judging, the awards have been made in the Horticultural Society's annual competition. Three thoughts were borne in mind by the judges when picking the winners, first, the general effect of the lawn from the street, as seen by the public; second, the quality of the grass, plants and flowers, and thirdly, the cleanliness of the surroundings.

The popular medley from "Up and Down Broadway," with its numerous catchy song excerpts such as Bachelor Bells, Golden Butterfly, Man Who Owns Broadway, Girl nad the Kaiser, Baron Trenk, Alma Where Do You Live, The Dollar Princess, Broken Idols, were each tried satisfactorily.

Citizens who attend the Friday night concert in Victoria Park will have an opportunity of hearing these popular hits for the first time.

Selections from the big musical comedy "The Girl in the Train' were also rehearsed.

WEDDING BELLS

PERRY — GIBBS

A pretty wedding was solemnized in All Saints' Church at 12.30 this afternoon, when Rev. Thomas Henry Perry of Halifax, N.S., was united in marriage to Miss Ethel Mary Gibbs, of Otonabee.

The ceremony was performed by the groom's brother, the Rev. R. J. W. Perry, of Mono Mills. A solo was charmingly rendered by Miss Staples of Cobourg.

Mrs. McClelland, the organist of the church played Mendelsohn's wedding march.

St. John's Notes

The Rev. Archdeacon Warren, of the diocese of Toronto, took charge of the services in St. John's Sunday, preaching both in the morning and evening. Mr. Geo. F. Chandler sang a very effective solo in the evening.

The choir practice will be held Thursday evening, and a good turn out is expected, to practice the music for the harvest festival.

T. AND L. COUNCIL REQUEST AID FROM CITY COUNCIL

Would Appreciate a Donation for Labor Day Celebration —C. R. Banks to Instal Gasoline Tank—Other business.

The City Council favorably considered a request from the Trades and Labor Council for a donation to assist them in financing the Labor Day program to be given here. The deputation, composed of Messrs. Hugh Robinson, John Galbraith, George Ahearn and J. Alex. Sharpe, named $100 as a sufficient donation.

Moved by Ald. Duffus, seconded by Ald. Brown,—That the matter of a donation to the Trades and Labor Council to assist them in the Labor Day celebration be left with the Finance Committee with power to act. —Carried.

Before any action was taken it was suggested that the manner in which the money might be expended be inquired into.

The request of the deputation was felt by the Council to be reasonable. They furthermore considered that a celebration such as the Trades and Labor Council had under preparation was a popular and effective method of keeping the people in the city on a holiday.

"It is much more satisfactory to have excursions coming to our city, than to have them leaving here on a holiday," remarked Mayor Bradburn.

The big success scored here on civic holiday and Dominion Day, caused by people being kept in the city by a celebration and program, was commended heartily by the Council. Any such project requiring assistance was considered worthy of aid.

A CONVENIENCE.

Mr. C. R. Banks was present at the meeting to personally support a request by letter for permission to install a gasoline tank in front of his store on George street. The tank would be for the convenience of autoists in taking in gasoline.

Mr. Banks pointed out that they are so installed to prevent the slightest liability of an explosion, and supported his statement by referring to Toronto, which has thirty such tanks installed in the most congested area of the city.

Moved by Ald. Gordon, seconded by Ald. Johnston,—That Mr. C. R. Banks be given the required permission to place a gas tank there, on the understanding that he give a written promise to remove it should it prove to be a nuisance."—Carried.

The tank in question would be buried in the road, and a pipe would emerge from it, through which the gasoline would flow.

Objection was raised to the installation of the tank, because of the danger that might be caused by congestion of traffic at the place.

Mayor Bradburn preferred the tank to be at the rear of Mr. Banks' store.

Ald. Anderson and Gillespie moved in amendment,—That no action be taken until Council inquired more about the proposed tank.

When put to a vote, however, the motion carried.

BUILDING MUST BE ALTERED.

The trouble caused by the erection of the Isaac Eastwood building on Hunter street, came a step nearer being settled by the following motion:

"That the City Engineer be instructed to notify Isaac Eastwood that his building on Hunter street must be constructed in accordance with the special permit of the building by-law.—Carried.

Ald. Duffus asked what could be done to better the condition of the road from the Locks bridge to Downers' Corners. This road is covered with stone, which requires breaking up before it is fit for comfortable travelling.

Moved by Ald. Duffus, that the chairman of the Board of Works interview Reeve Porter, of North Monaghan, with a view to the betterment of this road.—Carried.

A LOCAL CONTEMPORARY WARS ONN EW HEALTH ACT

Extends Covert Sympathy to the "Victims" (?) and Spoils the Point of a Magisterial Joke by Taking it Seriously.

If it could be shown that Sir James Whitney and his colleagues had any hand in the compilation of the Decalogue, a local contemporary would, without doubt, proceed to attack that venerable instrument on constitutional grounds and to brand it as an imposition upon the rights and the liberties of the people.

Liveryman Jones was in the police court yesterday, charged with failing to place the refuse from his stables in a covered receptacle, as required by the Provincial Act. He felt sore and declared the law an imposition, whereupon Magistrate Dumble asked him, according to the local contemporary, if he had voted for Mr. Whitney at the last election.

Mr. Jones admitted that he had, whereupon His Worship recommended him to make his complaint to the Premier.

It was all done by way of a joke. No one, probably knows, better than Magistrate Dumble that a court has no right to ask a man how he has voted, and no witness is obliged to give up such information. Even if Mr. Jones had voted on the other side, that is a matter between himself and his conscience and is in no sense, the business of anyone else.

But the local contemporary cannot resist the temptation to cast a slur upon anything which bears the stamp of approval of the Whitney Government. By innuendo and insinuation it has been assailing the new Health Act, and slyly tendering its sympathy to the alleged "victims" to use its own term, without the note of interrogation so guilelessly placed, throwing obstacles in the way of the officials, whose sworn duty it is to see that the Act is enforced.

The new Health Act is the result of the almost unanimous findings of both parties in the Provincial Legislature. There was practically no opposition to its final passage, and Mr. Rowell and his supporters agreed that it was a measure devised for the public's benefit. It is being observed in other cities, without undue interference on the part of the press of any brand of politics. The provisions of the New Act are explicit, and no livery stable keeper is not supposed to be favored in the duties it imposes on him, than is the householder who neglects to place his garbage in proper receptacles, tightly covered.

Perhaps the covert hint that a sack of Plaster of Paris is effective for the purpose of de-odorization will not be lost upon the liverymen but the use of a ton of that commodity will not absolve them from the consequences of an evasion of the law. With the rest of the public, it is up to the horse owners of the city, to take their medicine without a murmur.

OBITUARY

Roger Devlin

There passed away yesterday afternoon a well-known citizen, in the person of Mr. Roger Devlin, of 475 Mark street. The deceased, who was sixty-six years old, was born in Otonabee, where he spent his life, until about six years ago, when he removed to his late residence in East City. In 1839, he was married to Catharine Allen, who predeceased him three years ago, and their union was blessed by eight children.

The late Mr. Devlin was a man of most lovable character the very personification of piety, good cheer and Christian charity, and in his death, Peterborough loses a resident who was highly esteemed by all those who were fortunate enough to know him. Like the June flower, his time came to droop and die, and although his was a long and painful illness, he exhibited a true Christian resignation.

He leaves to mourn his loss, three sons and two daughters, William of Otonabee, John and Patrick of East City, Mrs. Thos. McMurray of 184 Wescott street, and Miss Nora, at home. He also leaves two brothers, James of Indian River and W. J. of Montreal.

The funeral will take place from his late residence, Wednesday morning, at nine o'clock, and will proceed to St. Peter's Cathedral, and thence to St. Joseph's cemetery, Douro, for interment. Rest in peace.

Mr. Devlin was a member of St. Peters' T. A. S. and of Branch No. 80 C. M. B. A., Peterborough.

Mr R. R. McKessock, Sudbury, the politician who invited Bourassa to Ontario, has been appointed Crown Attorney.

RAIN YESTERDAY ALL AROUND THE CIRCUIT--NO GAMES

The White Caps Lose a Chance to Win Fresh Laurels—the Winning Streak that the Team Has Struck a fine Advertisement for the City.

If anyone doubts that a baseball team is not one of the best means of advertising a city, then the doubter should read outside papers to see what favorable comment is being lavished upon the rejuvenated White Caps, since they have begun to climb the hill. In the home series just closed they won seven out of nine games with some of the best teams in the Canadian League, a per centage of .777.

Professional baseball was an experiment in this city and the outlook in the early days of the season was certainly anything but bright. It seemed impossible to win a game, but the directors never faltered. They kept on adding new material to the team until now they have beyond a doubt, one of the best clubs in the league. Could the season have been opened with the present aggregation there is hardly a doubt that the White Caps, would, to-day, be at the top of the ladder with the pennant practically cinched.

The local fans have given the team loyal support through shadow and sunshine and no more enthusiastic rooters can be found anywhere around the circuit. That the public regard the sport as clean and legitimate, is evidenced by the fact that some of the best people in the city patronize the games.

The White Caps were, for a time, halted in their victorious career, when their game at St. Thomas was postponed on account of rain, a general downpour in every city, when games were scheduled, preventing play.

OTTAWA SELLING OUT

Sure of the Pennant the Club is Disposing of Star Players

The Ottawa Ball Club are so sure they have the pennant in the refrigerator that they have sold three of their star twirlers. Ed. Rufer, who won his game easily against London on Friday, striking out eight men, has been grabbed up by Providence, where he will report this week. A greater loss is sustained in the departure of Joe McManus, who has been bought by the Cincinnati National League Club. McManus has not yet recovered from his attack of typhoid, but will report as soon as he gets well. Frank Kukat brought a high price from the Fort Wayne Club, where he will work for the rest of the season.

PETES' PROGRAM FOR THIS WEEK

Will Play at Riverside Friday and Saturday With Guelph

The Petes will play a double header in St. Thomas to-day, as it rained yesterday in the railroad town. They hook up with Brantford on Wednesday and Thursday, and are at home with Guelph for the rest of the week.

BREEZES FROM THE DIAMOND

Rain throughout the circuit yesterday.

The Chicago Cubs used 17 players in Friday's game with New York.

No one will be surprised if Joe Kelly sees fit to put Eddie Fitzpatrick behind the bat one of those days. Fitz. has played all around the diamond this year and has proved to be one of the most valuable men of the Toronto Club.

At the rate the Petes have been going they will tumble into the 400 class in a few days.

Umpire Bill Phyle, of the Canadian League staff has accepted a position with the International staff and reported in Toronto yesterday.

Pitcher Ed. Rener, of the Ottawa Club, has been sold to Providence where he will report on Sept. 2nd.

The Toronto Ball Club made the splendid road trip record of ten victories, three defeats and a draw in fourteen games. They are rapidly closing in on the Bustlers and the Toronto fans are looking froward eagerly to the Rochester series, the issue of which will pretty nearly place the pennant where it belongs.

"Peaches" Graham of the Toronto Ball Club, who has been scouting the Canadian League of late, is sufficiently recovered to relieve Bemis and Curtis in a day or two.

Toronto climbed up another notch on Rochester yesterday when they downed Jersey City 8—2. It was Pitcher Kent's first appearance and apart from a slight weakening in the 6th, pitched grand ball.

It was Al Shaw's day yesterday at Toronto Island. Two doubles, each of which drove in two runs, and a single is a pretty good afternoon's swatting. "Mighty Tim" Jordan made his twelfth home run clout of the season in the sixth.

MUST HAVE BEEN A FANNETTE

Spectator at Montreal Threw a Bottle at the Referee and Hit a Player

Toronto's game with the Nationals in Montreal had everything that is tough in it that is known to the game. One hundred and thirty dollars were collected in fines and once more the fining system showed itself to be a fizzle, as a five dollar fine scares a lacrosse player no more than a three minute penalty—not as much. A spectator threw a pop bottle at Referee McIntyre, struck a National player, Decarie, in the head, inflicting a wound that necessitated eight stitches. He was fined fifty dollars or six months for the offence.

SPEEDY MOTOR BOATS

Fastest Boats Afloat Will be at the C.N.E. This Year

Some very fast motor boats are coming from the U. S. lake ports for the races at the Canadian National Exhibition this year. Among them are the W. U. I.V. and Courier III, of Buffalo. The former is owned by Wickware Bros., and has a record of 42.85 miles per hour, while the latter has a mark of 41.2 miles per hour and is owned by "Fingy" Connors.

Negotiations are also under way to bring together on Americans' Day, the two fastest boats afloat, the Baby Reliance of Algonac, Mich., with a record of 58.7 miles an hour and Kitty Hawk of Detroit which has sailed nearly fifty miles an hour. These two fliers have met once, the Kitty Hawk winning, but J. J. Ryan, owner of Baby Reliance, claims the victory was a fluke and is looking for a chance to prove that his boat is the fastest in the world.

J. J. GOODWIN AND FAMILY OFF TO CALGARY

Mr. J. J. Goodwin and family, 218 Reid street, left this afternoon for Calgary, where they intend to permanently reside. Both have been energetic members of St. James' Methodist church, and their departure from the city will be keenly felt in church circles and in the various religious enterprises with which they were associated.

The Quarterly Official Board of the church forwarded to Mr. Goodwin a sincere and eloquent resolution of appreciation of his services to the church, thanking him for the zeal and energy which he had evidenced in helping along the work of the gospel and for assisting in the church's operations.

On Sunday afternoon Mrs. Goodwin was presented with a richly bound Bible by the Treasure Seekers' Bible class.

Last night Mr. Goodwin was pleasantly surprised by being the recipient of a valuable and handsome cabinet of silver, presented by the Cheerful Workers' Bible class and the Epworth League. The gift was presented by Miss M. Bacon, and the address read by Miss Maggie Moss during the meeting of the Epworth League.

Mr. Goodwin appropriately conveyed to the donors his extreme gratitude for their kindness, and also expressed his sincere regret at having to sever associations with the various organizations connected with St. James. He was also president of the District Epworth Leagues of Peterborough.

Many a good woman prays for her husband, but she keeps an eye on him just the same.

THE PRICES OF FARM IMPLEMENTS

No Increase in Cost of Binder Twine or Other Agricultural Requisites

The best brand of binder twine is selling this year for 10 1-2 cents, second grade 9 1-2 cents, third 9 cents and fourth grade 8 1-2 cents. This is the scale of prices which prevailed last year in spite of the reports of a scarcity of the commodity.

The farmer has no just grounds for complaint on the score of high prices for any article that he uses in his business. He can buy a six-foot binder to-day for $135, just as he could last year and the price of all farm implements remains stationary. When it comes to expensive ditching machinery for which he may have only temporary use, the Government will lease him that for so long as he may require it, at a cost just sufficient to cover the wear and tear.

AN ITALIAN WHO IS IN THE DARK

Evidently Thinks That Peterboro is in the United States

Over in Italy they evidently think either that this country was originally a part of the United States, or that Canada voted in favor of the Reciprocity Pact last September and became an "adjunct" in due course. A resident of Italy writing to Mr. G. A. Hamon, of 573 Rogers street, this city, addressed the letter to Peterborough, Ont., U. S. A. The missive, however, reached its destination without undue delay in spite of the complicated directions on the envelope.

CANAL BILL FROM A U.S. STANDPOINT

The Scientific American Discusses the Measure Now Before Congress

The Scientific American in its latest issue discusses the Panama Canal bill as follows:

The United States adopts as the basis of the neutralisation of such ship canal the following rules, substantially as embodied in the Convention of Constantinople, signed the 28th day of October, 1888, for the free navigation of the Suez Canal, that is to say: "The canal shall be free and open to the vessels of commerce and of war of all nations observing these rules, on terms of entire equality, being no discrimination against such nation, citizens, or subjects, in respect of conditions, or changes, or otherwise."

The above quotation is from a treaty concluded in 1901 between Great Britain and the United States, known as the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty, in which in consideration of certain concessions made by Britain the United States agreed to operate the canal under similar conditions as to the ships of all nations making use of the canal.

There is a bill before the U.S. Congress which proposes to remit the charges on ships flying the U.S. flag.

It does not take a legally trained mind to see that such exemption would be a distinct breach of faith on the part of the U.S. government. The peril of the present invitation to a breach of good faith lies in the fact that the issue is clouded in sophistry. Specious catchwords and misleading phraseology may easily divert the minds of a busy people from the real points of issue in a controversy of this kind. "We build the canal, why should we not make the other people pay for it?" The United States has invested $400,000,000 in this enterprise, and why should we be called upon to play the part of the philanthropic benefactor by charging our own ships the same tolls as we charge those of other nations who never contribuet a single dollar? The answer is that the Government, after a careful consideration of the situation, entered into a solemn agreement to operate the Panama Canal upon the same terms as the Suez Canal; and if the U.S. Government should now violate that treaty by operating the canal on terms of inequality, it would stand condemned as having committed an act of international dishonor.

Furthermore, the exemption of U. S. ships from taxation would be to divert a portion of the reasonable profits of the canal into the pockets of certain private corporations. The remission of these tolls would not mean the return of any profit to the U.S. treasury, and no argument can possibly show how it will. It is urged that it will stimulate more shipbuilding in the merchant marine. But we are not prepared to admit that it would. What we do claim, though, is whatever collateral benefits might be secured it is impossible to overlook the fact that the gain would be made at the cost of national reputation for honor and square dealing.

The construction of the Panama Canal must rank as the greatest achievement of a physical character ever undertaken by the U.S. We have gained an enviable reputation thereby, and in this particular field our prestige as a great emergency people has been immeasurably increased.

It would be a lamentable commencement of the operation of the canal if the U.S. were to cloud this great project by following a course which would bring down the condemnation of the whole civilized world.

IS BOTH JUDGE AND POLITICIAN

Robert S. Hudspeth, of New Jersey Summering at Stoney Lake

Judge Robert S. Hudspeth, of New Jersey, the home state of Governor Wilson, Democratic presidential candidate, is spending a few weeks at Stoney Lake, to lay up a store of physical and mental vigor for the campaign which will soon open in all its intensity. The Judge is a well known figure in local resorts and Lindsay claims him as a former resident. His home paper, the Jersey Journal, has a half column editorial in which it gives the judge credit for one of the most vigorous anti-convention fights ever put up, and which resulted in the nomination of Mr. Wilson.

LINDSAY MAN WAS IN WRECK

Mr. J. Hopkins, of Lindsay, was a passenger on the Winnipeg-Toronto C. P. R. express which left the rails near Cartier, one hundred miles near of North Bay. His family have received a telegram which states that he escaped unhurt.

A tramp named Burns from Halfaix was killed by a train between Orillia and Victoria Harbor.

A GENTLE HINT TO THE LADIES

Rochester Visitor Here Laments Their Hat Wearing Habit in Theatoriums

How many ladies indicate their thoughtfulness for the comfort of others, by removing a circular three foot millinery creation from their coiffured heads, while in a moving picture place of entertainment. Momentarily in peril of bursting a blood vessel, the party behind one of these barriers, works his sky piece from side to side like an angry reptile in conflict, and he rejoices with exceedingly great joy, if at long intervals he is rewarded by a glimpse of the picture on the screen.

A Rochester gentleman visiting here, commented upon the fact that at the local theatres, the ladies seemed loath to shed their head coverings. He stated that on the other side however, the thoughtful practice of removing hats was invariably adhered to. Incidentally, the same gentleman stated that only in the Princess Theatre here, did he undergo the pleasure of witnessing the performance with a vision unobstructed by a compilation of fur and feathers on the head of some unthinking dame.

Richard Lapp, of Cambray, Ontario, was killed by a horse.

ALL RECORDS ARE BROKEN AT THE O.R.A. TORONTO MEET

Hawkins of Toronto, Wins Duke of Cornwall and York Match—Thirty-Four Rifle Experts Make Possibles at 500 Yards in the Coronation Match.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—Far superior to Bisley was the marksmanship at the O. R. A. meeting at Long Branch ranges yesterday. Lt.-Col. Mercer was the authority for this remark last night, and the scores clearly indicated that Bisley, or any other crack shots could not eclipse them. Truly yesterday's work on the part of about 200 of the contestants was marvelous. Major-Gen. Otter came from Ottawa and visited the ranges, and was very much surprised at the attainments of many of the contestants. But it must be said that everything is in their favor. Yesterday was an ideal day for the sport. Like the opening day, there was little or no breeze, but there was more light, which helped considerable to attain high scores, which far outclassed those of the opening day.

No one city is getting all the money. The prizes are spread pretty well over the entire Dominion. The west is especially doing well. The most amazing thing of the meeting has been the work of the cadets, who have been shooting thus far in senior company and making old-timers look like never-have-beens. There are four Calgary school boys, ranging in age from 14 to 16 years, and several other cadets in the final stage of the city of Toronto match to-day. They are among the first 60 and are shooting off for the prize. There were about 200 older marksmen who weren't even in the running.

Probably the best shooting yesterday was done by Pte. W. A. Hawkins of the 48th Highlanders, Toronto, who won the Duke of Cornwall and York match, attaining a possible of 70 points at distances of 600 and 800 yards, with seven rounds at each range.

At a range of 500 yards, with seven rounds, 34 men made possible scores in the coronation match. The first prize amounted to $20, but on account of so many making the top notch scores, each man was given $5.65. Altogether there was $425 in cash prizes. Authorities ascribe such remarkable marksmanship to the weather and the fact that lovers of the sport are getting more practice. At all events this year's work surpasses that of any other in the history of the association.

EVERY MAN HAS BEEN INDICTED

New York Murder Case Going Against Prisoners.

New York, Aug. 21.—On evidence unexpectedly strengthened by the testimony of Sam Schepps and "Jack" Zelig, the east side gang leader, the grand jury yesterday re-indicted Police Lieut. Charles Becker for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, and handed down also the expected indictments against six of his alleged tools, the four gunmen accused of actually doing the murder and two who are alleged to have taken part in the plot. "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty" Louis who are still at large, "Dago" Frank Cirofici and "Whitey" Lewis, now in the Tombs, Jack Sullivan, the former "king of the newsboys," who is alleged to have given the "murder signal," and William Shapiro, driver of the murder car, were those indicted in addition to Becker.

Sam Schepps, who was before the jury two hours, did even more toward implicating Becker in the murder motive than had been anticipated by District Attorney Whitman, who expected no more of him than a corroboration of the story told by Jack Rose.

Schepps told the jury, it was learned, that it was true that he acted as a go-between for Rose and Becker while Rose was in hiding at the home of Harry Pollock.

The testimony of Zelig was a story of how Becker attempted to get him into his power and to take part in the murder plot. All that Zelig had to do with it, he said, was to recommend to Jack Rose the names of the gunmen who would do the "job."

ARE WAITING FOR CANADA

No Immediate Action to be Taken by British on Canal Matter.

London, Aug. 21.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—Enquiries as to the probable action of the Canadian Government regarding the Panama Canal bill, lead to the conclusion that nothing will be done until the official terms of the bill, as finally amended, are ratified, have been received. Premier Borden has no knowledge of the nature of the amendments which have been made in the bill at the instance of the two Houses of Congress, beyond what has appeared in the newspapers.

What the Canadian Government will do will then be decided only after full consideration of the terms of the bill and due enquiry as to the probable results to Canadian shipping interests.

The British Government, which represents the overseas dominions in the matter, is in possession of the opinion of the Canadian Government on proposals as they existed at the time of lodgement of the British protest.

Several interesting speeches were delivered at a banquet in honor of the occasion given by the municipality of Vienna at the Bathaus on Saturday.

VETERAN LEADER OF SALVATION ARMY PASSES TO REWARD

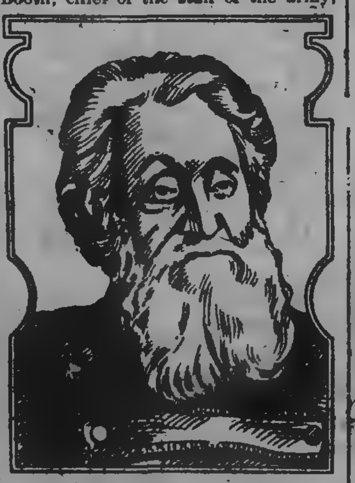
General William Booth Died at 10,13 Last Night, the End Coming After Two Days of Unconsciousness—His Last Words Expressed a Desire to Lay Down Life's Burden—Bramwell Booth, Son of the Dead Leader Will Probably Become Commander-in-chief of the Army.

London, Aug. 21.—Rev. Wm. Booth, general and commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, passed away at 10.13 o'clock last night. He was born in Nottingham in 1829.

The veteran Salvation Army leader was unconscious for 48 hours previous to his death. The medical bulletins had not revealed the seriousness of the general's condition, which for a week past, it is now admitted, was hopeless.

Twelve weeks ago Gen. Booth underwent an operation for the removal of a cataract in his left eye. For two days after the operation indications justified the hope of the general's recovery. Then, however, septic poisoning set in and from that time, with the exception of occasional rallies, the patient's health steadily declined. The general recognized that the end was near and often spoke of his work as being finished.

Throughout the commander-in-chief's illness his son, Bramwell Booth, chief of the staff of the army, and Mrs. Bramwell Booth, gave their unremitting attentions to him both night and day.



GENERAL WILLIAM BOOTH.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; Yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labor; and their works do follow them."—Rev. 14-13.

The aged evangelist died at his residence, The Rookstone, Hadleywood, some eight miles from London, where he had been confined to his bed ever since the operation. Present at the bedside when the end came were Mr. and Mrs. Bramwell Booth and their daughter and son, Adjutant Catherine Booth and Sergeant Bernard Booth, the general's youngest daughter, Commissioner Mrs. Booth-Helberd, and Commissioner Howard, Col. Kitching and Dr. Wardlaw Milne.

Public interest now centres in the question of a successor to the late commander. Under the constitution of the Salvation Army the general nominates his successor. That Gen. Booth did several years ago, placing the name in a sealed envelope which was deposited with the Salvation Army's lawyers with the instructions that it should not be opened until after his death. While nobody knows what name the envelope encloses, the general belief among the Salvation Army is that the name will prove to be that of Bramwell Booth, who for thirty years has been its chief of staff.

Where Gen. Booth will be buried has not yet been decided. While every English member of the Salvation Army is convinced that no man was more worthy of interment in Westminster Abbey, it is not expected that that honor will be awarded to Gen. Booth by the Abbey authorities. It is the general belief that the commander-in-chief's last resting place will be alongside that of his wife, who 21 years ago was buried in Abney Park, Stoke Newington.

TRIBUTE FROM THE PREMIER

Toronto, Aug. 21.—"I have always appreciated highly the work of the Salvation Army for reasons that are obvious and need not be given in detail," said Sir James Whitney, when told of General Booth's death, "and I have had, ever since my acquaintance with him, the greatest admiration for General Booth's qualities. He was a wonderful organizer, and his record in the very important position he held shows him to have been of far more than ordinary capacity. In my opinion, his record, and that of his organization, are bound to have a lasting effect for good on the people of the world at large.

"It was my privilege," continued the Premier, "to meet him very often both in England and in Canada, and I have very pleasant recollections of his hospitality, together with his companionship, on several occasions in England. General Booth's death may be termed a very important event, but I am glad to feel that the work of the Salvation Army will go on under the influence exercised by him during his life. While his passing away has been anticipated for the past few weeks, yet it comes as a shock, owing to the great position he held in the eyes of the world at large."

All the dories returned except the one with Brabson and Coleman. The crew blew horns and fired guns on board the vessel for hours and remained at anchor for twenty-four hours. It is thought that the men have perished by the foundering of the dory.

BELLEVILLE MAN IS IN TROUBLE

Belleville, Aug. 21.—A young man named James Batrage was yesterday committed for trial for assaulting and occasioning grievous bodily harm to Ensign Hamilton, the local leader of the Salvation Army. Barrage assaulted the officer while he was engaged in conducting an open air meeting.

Tramps have of late been very plentiful in the city and vicinity, and in some cases have terrorized citizens. Three were arrested within the past 24 hours, and one, James Scott, was sent to jail for three months at hard labor. He was insolent and resisted arrest.

SIX MONTHS FOR PERSONATOR

Welland, Aug. 21.—On the four charges of impersonation and one of illegally applying for a ballot paper in the recent Hydro-electric bylaw election, Samuel B. Morris of Buffalo was yesterday morning sentenced to six months in the county jail by Magistrate Burgar on each charge, the sentences to run concurrently.

Morris pleaded guilty to all charges and no evidence was taken.

Detective Greer, asked about the investigation he is conducting, replied that they ended with this case, but it is learned that detectives are collecting evidence against the men higher up.

TEMPERANCE FOLKS FOOLED BY HAMILTON PEDDLERS

Stuff Sold as Medicine to Innocent Housewives Turns Out to be Twenty-One Per Cent. Alcohol—Officers Will Investigate.

Hamilton, Aug. 21.—Peddling cheap booze under the guise of medicine is the bold and dangerous game which four women have been playing in Hamilton within the last few days. A large quantity of the dangerous stuff has been sold and many people all over the city have been victimized by the peddlers. The matter has been brought to the attention of the local police and License Inspector Sturday, and the women, if found, will likely be arrested on several charges. A bottle of the preparation the women are selling, which is called "Beef, Wine and Iron," has been analyzed and found to contain 21.3 per cent. pure spirits. This is as strong a liquor as a great deal of the whiskey sold to the public. The alleged "beef, wine and iron" is in reality nothing but the cheapest port wine, to which has been added alcohol in order to make the medicine more potent in its immediate effects on those who take it. The methods employed by the women to sell their "medicine" has evidently been carefully thought out. In soliciting for orders the peddlers only visit residences when they are likely to see only women, the majority of whom do not know the taste of liquor. The canvasser begins her talk to the lady of the house by asking her if she will accept a sample of "our beef, wine and iron." The reply is usually in the affirmative, but instead of being presented with the small bottle she expects, the housewife is offered a small quantity of the "beef wine and iron" in a glass, which the canvaser assures has been carefully washed by "your little neighbor."

If the proffered sample is drunk the canvasser proceeds to expatiate on the merits of the wonderful preparation which she is "demonstrating." It, she declares, is a veritable panacea for all the ills that human flesh ever suffered. It is particularly recommended for children and anaemic women. Lest she forget some specific complaint which the medicine will relieve, however, the voluable saleswoman invariably guarantees the beef, "wine and iron" to be "good for everything."

While the canvasser has been busy with her "speil," her magic medicine has been no less active, with the result that as the talk progresses the housewife, if she have any bodily ailment of any kind, begins to feel considerably relieved through the effects of the "beef, wine and iron," with its 21.3 per cent. of pure spirits. By the time the canvasser is finished the housewife—thanks to the booze she has imbibed — has decided that the "beef, wine and iron" is undoubtedly a meritorious preparation, so that when the glib saleswoman mentions the fact that the regular price of the "medicene" is $1 a bottle, but that a special introductory price of 59c. a bottle, or three for $1.50, is being made in order to get people acquainted with this great boon to humanity, the credulous housewife usually bites and gives the woman an order for one or more bottles. The pedlars' reminder that future orders must be at the rate of $1 a bottle in many cases tempts the purchaser to order three bottles for $1.50, and one poor woman was found suffering from rheumatism, whose eagerness to save money induced her to order six bottles of the poisonous stuff.

The painful surprise and amazement which some of the purchasers of the "beef, wine and iron" exhibited when told that the stuff they had spent their good money for was nothing but cheap booze, was in some cases amusing and in others extremely pitiful. One good temperance woman was almost dumbfounded when she learned she had bought common booze for medicine.

PLAYED THE RACES

Two Bank Clerks Are in Trouble in Toronto.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—Two bank clerks now face serious charges in Toronto, Arthur Richmond, teller in the Elm street branch of the Bank of Toronto, and Roland Harris, assistant clearing house teller in the head office of the Standard Bank. Betting on horse races has been responsible for the plight of both young men. Richmond made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide when he learned that detectives were on his track. Harris quietly left the office of the Standard Bank yesterday afternoon when Detective Taylor came from headquarters to arrest him. Richmond was to appear in police court yesterday morning on a nominal charge of the theft of $500, but he is still too ill in St. Michael's Hospital to allow of his being removed from that place for a few days.

MILTON MAN WAS KILLED BY TRAIN

Alex. Pride Run Over by a C.P. R. Express Yesterday.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—Alexander Pryde, a citizen of Milton, 34 years of age, died in the Western Hospital yesterday afternoon from injuries he received when he was run over by a C.P.R. express yesterday morning about a mile outside of Milton. His right leg was taken off above the knee, and he was otherwise badly battered and bruised. He was brought to the hospital yesterday morning. His body is in the morgue and an inquest will be opened this afternoon by Coroner Currie.

CHICAGO BOY SLAYS HIMSELF

Toronto, Aug. 21.—Charles Stanton, the 19-year-old son of a Chicago business man, committed suicide near Bala, Muskoka Lakes, on Sunday afternoon by shooting himself through the heart. Temporary insanity, due to failing health, is given as the cause of his act.

Stanton had come up from Chicago about two months ago on account of ill-health and with his mother took residence in a cottage on an island in Long Lake.

On Sunday afternoon Stanton rowed his mother across the lake to the mainland, a distance of a few hundred yards, and, after seeing her safely landed, rowed back again. Mrs. Stanton had only proceeded a short distance on her way to Bala, however, when she was startled by the report of a pistol. She at once looked back and saw her son, who had landed on the island, stagger and fall to the ground.

New Steamship Service.

Montreal, Aug. 21.—The Compagnie Generale Transatlantique announced yesterday through their Canadian agents that next season a weekly one-class service would be inaugurated between Havre and Montreal. The company, known as the French line, inaugurated a fortnightly service between Quebec and Havre this year, but on account of the strike of shipworkers in French ports, the scheduled sailings are not carried out. Montreal will be the end of the western run in place of Quebec.

CIVIC FATHERS SNAPPED AT BAIT

Detective Tells How Detroit Aldermen Were Trapped.

Detroit, Aug. 21.—The testimony of W. J. Brennan, a Burns operative, was the feature of the police court examination yesterday of "Honest John" Glinnan, the first of the eighteen aldermen recently arrested on bribery charges to be tried in court. It was Brennan's evidence that resulted in the arrests of the eighteen aldermen and Common Council Clerk Edward Schreiter, the latter since having made a complete confession. Yesterday Brennan went into all details of the trapping of the aldermen up to the time he alleges that he, representing himself to be an official of the Wabash Railroad, paid Glinnan $1,000 for his influence in granting to railroads their request for the use of a city street for building purposes.

The case against Aldermen Watson Ellis, Zoeller, Merritt, Hindle, and Skrzcki yesterday were postponed until August 30. Aldermen Theisen's case will come up next Friday. Disposition was reserved in the cases against Aldermen Brozo, Rosenthal, Lynch, O'Brien, and Koenig, and the examinations of Aldermen Deimel, Mason, Ostrowski, Tossy and Walsh will follow that of Alderman Glinnan. Clerk Schreiter has also been remanded for a week.

Brennan, upon taking the stand, explained that his right name is Walter J. Burns and that his home is in Boston. He told of coming to the city in April and taking offices in the Ford Building as a representative of the real estate department of the Wabash Railroad. He also engaged an adjoining office and had "New England Historical Society" printed on its door. The detective then told of getting himself acquainted with the different aldermen and impressing upon them the urgent desire of the railroad for the rights to the street and of opposition to the proposal that was expressed by several of the councilmen. Finally, he testified, Glinnan came to his office and arrangements were made for the closing of the street.

CONGRESS AROUSED

Official Inquiry to be Made in African Poacher's Death.

Winnipeg, Aug. 21.—Representative Norris of Nebraska introduced a resolution yesterday requesting the President to send to the House all information he has regarding the case of James Wood Rogers, a Californian, who was killed in the Central African jungles as the result of a hunt by British soldiers, who were ordered to kill or capture him. The resolution was referred to the Foreign Affairs committee.

Masters Combine.

Montreal, Aug. 21.—Declaring that their interests are being trampled upon and that under present conditions it is impossible for them to obtain satisfaction for oft-repeated grievances, one hundred and fifty masters of inland steamers operating to Montreal with 3,000 longshoremen, and upwards of sixty members of the Montreal Pilots' Association are to organize themselves as a syndicate to place themselves in a position to deal with the shipping federation. This is according to information made public on the waterfront yesterday.

"Marvelous Recovery"

Montreal Man So Ill With Dyspepsia Thought He Would Die.

No more convincing evidence was ever put on paper than the following letter from one of Montreal's well-known citizens, Mr. D. R. Larose, of 338 Joliette Street:

"Permit me to write you a few words regarding Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for five years. I suffered so much that I could hardly attend to my work. I was weak and lost all courage. I enjoyed no rest until I decided to follow your treatment, after having read your advertisement in the paper. To my great surprise I immediately began to feel better. I am now using the second box and I feel so well that I want to tell you that I owe this great change to your famous pills. I recommend them to every person who is suffering from dyspepsia. Your grateful servant, D. R. Larose, 338 Joliette st., Montreal, P.Q."

Let all who have weak stomachs, and those who suffer with indigestion, headaches, biliousness, know they can be perfectly cured by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Successfully used for many years, mild and safe. 25c per box, all dealers, or The Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills Cure Dyspepsia

GENERAL BOOTH

The central figure, the strongest personality in the religious life of the world, is removed by the passing of General Booth, founder and veteran leader of the Salvation Army. The vast organization has lost its guiding spirit but the good work will continue under the direction of those who have been so carefully trained to carry on the labor.

If General Booth had been orthodox in the accepted sense of that term he would probably never have been heard of outside of the narrow confines of a limited sphere of usefulness and the gigantic work which he has accomplished would most likely never have been undertaken. But in the decrees of Creation, it seems that the general was designed to follow the line of duty in which he performed so much for the good of humanity. He was the man endowed and selected for the task.

When he was a young man he entered the ministry of the Methodist Church, but when the time came for him to go on regular circuit work, he declined and became a missionary in London, working among the moral outcasts, the poor and the suffering, the dwellers in the slums, for whom the orthodox churches of the day had scarcely a thought. To raise the fallen, to call Lazarus from the charnel house of vice and failure and stripping from him the cerements that bound him hand and foot, was even from the earliest days of his mission, the great object of the general's labor.

It was not until 1878 that the Salvation Army was established as it exists to-day. From a small beginning in London, it has grown until it has branches in all parts of the civilized world. It has accomplished a work greater, perhaps, than that of any other religious institution in the world. At all events, the good that it has achieved has been more apparent seeing that the changes wrought in the majority of its converts have been little short of miraculous.

Perhaps no religious worker, whom the world has even seen, followed so faithfully in the footsteps of the Teacher, who was something more than man. To seek and to save the lost, was the general's mission. He believed in the brotherhood of man and in the Golden Rule as the essence, the sum and substance of all earthly duty. He was the good Samaritan, who came to the rescue of the sick, the sinner and the oppressed. At the gates of the prison he met the released convict and helped him to a new start in life. Of him, as of another, it could be truly said that he went about doing good.

Few men engaged in work so arduous have lived so long. Fewer still have been spared to see such rich results from their labors. Founders of churches, or of reform movements have too often passed away crushed with the belief that they had toiled in vain. But General Booth passes to his reward wearing the laurels of victory. He fought the battle and conquered. The religious organization that, under his fostering care, has grown to such wonderful proportions, is the best evidence that the object of his life's work was a righteous one and that the methods which he adopted were beyond even the shadow of reproach. The most remarkable personality of this century has passed away, but his work remains and the thousands who will stand as mourners at his grave are those who have lost their most devoted earthly protector. And while they deplore his passing, there are thousands who can bless the day that such a man was born into the world to start into motion so powerful a force as the Salvation Army to work good to humanity.

It is not necessary to leave to the historian the task of estimating the influences of the late general in the affairs of the world or to sum up his value to humanity in his chosen field. General Booth during his long life effectually lived down every prejudice tending to blind or bias those who would cast the measure of his greatness.

A POINT OF LAW

"The evidence of a pretended accomplice needs no corroboration," said Judge Hutton in charging the Darrow jury at Los Angeles. Here we have a new one in legal jurisprudence. If it is good law it is a point which is generally ignored by the average jury. The evidence of a real accomplice has as much weight with the jury usually as that of the pretended variety, especially if the testimony of the one is drawn from him against his will, while that of the other is offered voluntarily. But real or pretended, the evidence of accomplices seems to secure very few convictions in any country.

THE HIRED MAN

Every day or so a new arrival in the country who has been placed on a Peterborough County farm by the local immigration officer, drifts into town again from his place of employment and announces that farm life has no charm for him and that he has quit. He generally endeavors to give the impression that life in the country is little better than slavery and that the farmer as an employer is one of the hardest task-masters in the world.

There are two sides to every story and the farmer is entitled to a presentation of his case. A prominent agriculturalist from Smith Township stated only the other day that in spite of improved machinery and other facilities the farmer to-day is at a disadvantage owing to the scarcity of labor. The better class of immigrants who land in Canada settle in the cities while the unskilled laborers are billeted upon the farmers.

The modern hired man, as a rule, is more aggravating than the citizen from Missouri, seeing that he has to be shown everything pertaining to his work. Modern machinery is to him a mystery and it is necessary to have an experienced worker with him to explain every detail. This would not be so serious if he displayed any disposition or willingness to improve his stock of knowledge. Generally his life is a chronicle of slam which results from a total lack of ambition and his entire system seems hopelessly saturated with weariness. He is given to complain of his fare even though he regales himself at the same table as his employer. His place of rest, too, often meets with his disapprobation but it is generally a matter of no little difficulty to divorce him from his couch in the mornings.

There is no poetry for him in the dewy morn or in the soft shades of twilight. An abnormal capacity for slumber at both ends of the day is frequently his chief failing. He is interested in the lilies of the field only to the extent that he may envy their lot, seeing that they are required neither to toil nor to spin.

When he finally decides to throw up his job the satisfaction attending the parting is usually mutual and the farmer makes one more venture and secures another helper. The condition is a serious one, seeing that many a farm in Ontario to-day is falling into decay owing to the lack of labor, the dairy business diminishing yearly and the concomitant of that industry, stock raising, decreasing with it.

At present the work on a farm, with short hours and comfortable quarters, is in a great many respects, more desirable than any other class of labor. It is certainly less strenuous and dangerous than many other lines. Any man willing to work is sure of a steady job and a good home from one year's end to another. But that's the trouble. The average hired man to-day is not on friendly terms with physical exertion.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Hamilton has not been able to look the world in the face since one of its citizens fell for that hoary fake, the glass diamond swindle.

In view of the rifle scores made at Toronto, what becomes of that Ottawa editor's contention that very few members of the militia can hit a man at three hundred yards?

That Toledo robber who stole $1,600 and later returned $100 must certainly possess one of those convenient consciences that are easily appeased.

The small boy who attends the ball games after this, if he is wise in his day and generation, will keep his distance from the guardian of the peace.

It is a hard matter these days to decide whether the uncommunicative stranger in our midst is a detective in disguise or a baseball scout with his eye on some of the star players now with the White Caps.

Save us from famine and plague and strife; also from the man who spends a few days fishing or otherwise amusing himself in the United States, and on returning home essays to tell us just how the presidential election is going to turn out. A Toronto clergyman is the latest victim of this form of mania.

The Masculine patrons of the picture shows ask that lady visitors to those places of amusement remove their hats. Considering the gigantic proportions of some of the present styles of headgear, the wealth of brim and the decorations brushing the clouds, the request appears reasonable and natural. But will they?

What Women Are Doing.

Miss Mary M. Pillsbury is in charge of one of the most unusual libraries in the world. This library is in a small building on Mount Vernon street, Boston, and the books are lent to clergymen exclusively. The library is entirely religious and theological. The books are sent to any minister in any district or city in any of the six New England states. Of the 7,000 ministers in New England more than 2,000 are regular patrons of the library.

The books appeal to all denominations. During the past year the Congregational and the Methodist borrowers numbered 500 each, the Baptists more than 300 and the Episcopalians more than 200. Two Lutherans take the books continuously, three Adventists and twelve Friends. Books on social questions are said to be by far the most in demand among ministers; next come biographies with works on pure theology near the bottom of a fairly long list.

Mrs. Scott Hopkins is the president of the Woman's Kansas Day club, through whose leadership a monument to the pioneers of the Santa Fe trail has just been erected at Great Bend, Kan. At their annual meeting in 1908 the members of the Day club decided to acquire Pawnee rock as a site for the proposed monument. One year later they presented the rock, with five acres of land about it and a road leading up to it, to the state. Pawnee rock is flanked by the old Santa Fe trail. It is fifty feet high, and the monument, which is a granite shaft of twenty-eight feet, surmounts the apex, being imbedded in the rock. The Day club was assisted in erecting this monument by the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Woman's Relief corps, the State Federation of Women's Clubs and the Women's Christian Temperance union.

The Extreme Suffragette.

Three Year Old—Mamma, I want some crackers and jam!

Mother—No, dearie; you can't have any more until Mrs. Pankhurst is out of jail.

Grown Son—This motorcoat of mine is a disgrace to the family. Guess I'll go out and look at some English tweeds.

Mother—English tweeds! Horrors, Harold! You wouldn't be so disloyal! There's only nine months to wait.

Grown Daughter—Mother, I saw a duck of a hand bag downtown today—London make. I think I'll buy it tomorrow.

Mother—Oh, my daughter! How can you give in so to your personal vanity while that martyr is suffering?

Father—But, see here, Mrs. Suffragette, I was just dickering for a swell set of dinner dishes for you—best English make. Your birthday comes next week.

Mother (wildly)—Give it to me for Christmas! I can't take it now. Maybe she'll be out of jail by then for good behavior.

The Best Time to Plant Baseballs.

Just before Horace Greeley started for the Cincinnati convention in 1872 he received a letter asking his opinion about baseball. He scratched off a reply as follows:

You ought to plant baseballs early in the spring so as to insure their getting ripe before fall. Most baseballs are picked too green and consequently are very hard, and we have heard of a great many balls being foul, which we attribute to the same cause. I am told the best way to cook them is to have a good stiff batter and send them in hot. Send me a few of the fig balls for seed, and next year I can tell you more about them. Yours literally,

HORACE GREELEY.

Moving Time.

When moving time comes round, alas,
The dollies dread what comes to pass!
They hear their little mother say:
"I'll have to give some toys away.
They say I cannot take them all,
For we must store them till the fall.
I wonder which I'll keep, dear, dear!"
Oh, how the dollies dread to hear
These words, for fear she has in mind
Perhaps to leave some doll behind!

But moving day comes round and goes,
And when the fall arrives it shows
The dollies all together still.
Their little mother never will
The family circle break, oh, no!
She loves each precious dolly so!
The other toys of many styles
She gives away, but always smiles
And says, "Of course, my dolls, you see,
Must always, always go with me!"

Don't Grow Bald, Young Man!

Take Care of Your Hair While You Have Hair to Take Care Of.

It's a safe ten to one bet that the young man who uses PARISIAN Sage as an occasional hair dressing will never grow bald.

There's a reason, of course, and it's a very good and sufficient one.

Dandruff germs cause falling hair and falling hair means thinner hair and in due time baldness.

PARISIAN Sage prevents baldness, by destroying the cause of baldness—the little persistent vociferous dandruff germ.

If you have dandruff or itching scalp it means that dandruff germs are sapping the vitality from the roots of your hair. Get rid of all hair troubles by using PARISIAN Sage.

It is not a dye, mind you, neither does it contain poisonous sugar of lead or even sulphur. It is a scientific preparation that abolishes dandruff, stops falling hair and scalp itch and makes hair grow lustrous and luxuriant.

Many young women as well as men are growing bald and for the same reason.

Use delightful, refreshing PARISIAN Sage; it nourishes the hair roots. If the roots are not dead, and brings to every user a head of glorious hair—radiant and fascinating. Large bottle for 50 cents at drug stores and toilet counters. See that you get PARISIAN Sage.

Wm. Madill guarantees it.

Montreal Grain and Produce.

MONTREAL, Aug. 20.—Cables on Manitoba spring wheat were unchanged to 1½c lower. The demand continues fairly good for both old and new crop, but the volume of business doing is small, as exporters state the strike at Fort William is delaying the boats from being loaded, and if it continues for any length of time it will be very serious. Oats are strong and prices have scored another advance of ⅜c per bushel with sales of 30,000 extra No. 1 feed at 47c ex-store and sales of 80,000 were made over the cable and if it were not for the scarcity of shippers on spot considerable more would have been sold. NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT

A family medicine cabinet that does not contain NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT is about as complete as a watch without a main spring, and worthy of no more confidence. NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT is true—"first aid"—to the injured. There is nothing better for sprains, bruises, cuts, wounds, etc.

There is no liniment we can recommend with more certainty of giving satisfaction. It will relieve pain, reduce swellings, and we know of no better liniment for the treatment of neuralgic and rheumatic pains and swellings, or the stiffening of the joints and muscles.

BOY SCOUTS AT THE EXHIBITION

At Least Twenty-five of the Boys Will Go From Peterboro

The Scouts will leave for Toronto Exhibition on Wednesday morning, August 28th, by C.P.R., at 7.42 a.m. and will be the guests of the Directors of the Exhibition, at the Scout camp. Each boy will pay his own railway fare. There will be no other necessary expenses. Blankets will be supplied in Toronto. Each boy will carry in his haversack whatever toilet articles he requires. Each boy is to learn the Scout song, "Boys, be Prepared," The troops will be in charge of their own Scout masters and Rev. F. J. Sawers will be acting District Commissioner. It is expected that at least twenty-five Scouts will go from Peterboro.

Troup, No. 4, East City Boy Scouts will meet on Friday evening at 7.15 All the members are expected to be present.

This song will be sung at the Scouts' Rally at Toronto.

BOYS, BE PREPARED.

"Boys will be boys" that is a maxim old
But is there a boy who does not enjoy
The life of a woods'man bold?
"Boys will be boys" that's what the fables tell,
But Scouts mean to show by their pluck and go,
That boys can be men as well!

Chorus

While a-marching, marching, marching!
Keep your eye on everything!
You must note each sound,
Ev'ry track upon the ground,
And the clear cool spring.
Or the bird upon the wing!
While a-scouting, scouting, scouting,
There is danger to be dared;
And at every turn there is something new to learn,
So, boys, be prepared!

2nd VERSE

"Boys will be boys," Boys can be heroes too,
By striving to aid a man or a maid,
And seeing the Scout Law through
"Boys will be boys" but all the world has read
That Scouts never fear when theres danger near,
And "Never say die, till dead!"

THE REGATTA AT CHEMONG

To-morrow's Event Promises to be the Best Ever Held at That Resort.

It promises to be a big day at Chemong on the holiday afternoon, when the regatta sports will be run off. The dinghy race for the Kawartha Challenge Cup, always provides keen interest, and this year the rivalry is just as keen among the jack tars to capture the prize silverware. The war canoe contest is a novel feature of this year's sports, and is sure to create plenty of amusement for the spectators, as the different crews that intend entering in the event are sparing no pains to pull down the laurels. The motor boat events, always popular, are attracting all the speed launches from around the Kawartha waters. The tickling events, crab race, gunwale race, tilting, and walking greasy pole, make up the comic side of it, and these contests alone will provide an afternoon's amusements.

A large crowd from the city is expected at the park, especially since the local ball team is on the road. The management of the Park Hotel realise what a job it is to feed a crowd of hungry pleasure seekers, and do not intend to be caught napping in the matter of supplies. Enjoyable popular music will be supplied by the 57th band throughout the afternoon and at the dance at the pavilion in the evening. Busses leave post office sharp at 1 p.m., sports to commence at 1.30.

2,250 CHEESE WERE BOARDED AT THIS MORNING'S MEETING

The Highest Price Was 13 3-16 Cents — Instructor Warde Says That While Some of the Factories Are Not Just Right, Conditions Generally Are Satisfactory.

The twenty factories that were represented at the Cheese Board meeting this morning boarded 2,250 cheese in all.

Mr. R. W. Warde, instructor for the county, made a short address in which he stated that in company with Instructors Lublow and McKay, the latter of the Guelph Agricultural College, and Ald Gillespie, he had made a tour of the factories yesterday in an automobile, and had found everything in a generally satisfactory condition.

"The most of the factories are well kept," said Mr. Warde, "but in some of them—" here he paused and made an expressive gesture.

"Name those factories," said several members of the Board.

"I will not," answered Mr. Warde, "but have no doubt that they will do better."

The bidding was soon over, stopping at 13 3-6. W. S. Cook, of Belleville, took Keene, Central Smith, Villiers, Westwood, Maple Leaf and Myrtle.

J. Kerr, of Belleville, called Warsaw, Ormonde and Indian River.

Oakdale, Daisy D., and Norwood went to Mr. Squires of Norwood.

PRICES TAKE A DROP

Marked Decrease in Cost of Various Articles of Foodstuffs

After an almost continuous advance for the past twelve months the Department of Labor's index number dropped two points in July, standing at 134.6 as compared with 135.9 in June, and 126.9 in July, 1911. The chief decreases during July were in fruits and vegetables, grains and fodders, fish, animals and meats, increases being recorded in hides, leathers, boots and shoes, metals, fuel, lumber and furniture. Some two hundred and fifty articles, selected to represent Canadian production and consumption, are included in the calculation by which a comparison is made of wholesale prices at the present time with the average price prevailing during the decade 1890-1899.

YOUTH FACES SERIOUS CHARGE BLACK-LISTERS FINED $10.00

Health Act Again in the Lime-light—Bicycle Thief Remanded—His Mother Will Make Restitution.

Messrs. Alex. Reid, Isaac Noble, and J. E. Lillico were brought to court this morning, charged with non compliance with the Health Act by failing to have the manure from their stables properly covered.

Mr. Reid was granted a week in which to make the required receptacle, while the other two, since being notified, have attended to the matter, and now await the approval of Sanitary Inspector Spence.

BICYCLE THIEF REMANDED

Mortimer Phillips, the Campbellford youth arraigned on a charge of bicycle stealing was remanded for one week. His mother intends to make restitution to the owner of the wheel for damages which it had sustained.

Phillips is rather a pleasant faced lad and is not the type one usually associates with the police court class. He claims that he was in Peterborough on his way home from the West, at the time the bicycle was alleged to have been taken.

A SERIOUS CHARGE

A young man named Harry Johnston, of Norwood, was charged with attempt to commit rape upon one, Ellen Nicholson. He was remanded until Tuesday, Aug. 27th. The prisoner was a young man, and was brought to the city in charge of the Havelock police constable.

Mr. G. N. Gordon will conduct prisoner's defence.

A CHANCE TO MAKE GOOD

Charged with being drunk and disorderly in a public place, a youth named Mason pleaded "not guilty." The evidence before the court was not sufficient in the opinion of Magistrate Dumble to justify a conviction.

The man was taken into custody last night by P.C. Kane and Reid, in company with two other men.

The constables swore that Mason was acting noisily and generally misbehaving in the lane-way behind R. Beach's store on Charlotte street, leading out to King. The officers also asserted that bottles were being smashed and foul language used.

Mason was in police court several weeks ago, in connection with certain disgraceful correspondence, alleged to have been penned by him, to a young girl in this city. On that occasion he was warned by the Magistrate that his presence was not desired in Peterborough, and ordered to leave the city. He claimed that he was waiting here till Friday, when he would entrain on the Harvesters' Excursion to the West.

BLACKLISTERS' YARNS

Police court has not been illuminated for some time with stories of how blacklisters obtained their liquor.

A local painter admitted he was on the "list" and claimed he received his, from a friend who travels for a Toronto varnish company. He was companioning with the two others in the lane-way referred to, off Charlotte street, that night.

The nominal fine of $10 was imposed, accompanied by one of the Magistrate's sensible lectures on the folly of indulgence in liquor.

"The resolution is strong at the time to give it up, but the appetite is stronger than I am, although I don't make a practice of drinking," was his excuse.

The other "lister" asserted that he had not been the worse for liquor.

He confessed using it in moderation however, as a strengthener, since an attack of pneumonia from which he recently recovered. He purchased a bottle of whiskey in Belleville about two weeks ago.

A fine of $10 as usual with one day to pay it in was the judicial order.

Hanson Pitched in Both Contests and Allowed Only Ten Hits in all—The Race Was Close and Exciting From Start to Finish.

London Free Press.—Yesterday being an off day, the Peterborough, Berlin and London clubs were busy talking baseball. Harry Brant, Chas. Nichols and Trout, of Peterborough, were the centre of the spieling bee. Harry Brant said "that it feels great to be on a winning team!" All the boys caught the drift of what he meant and Harry added: "Just watch us, we're not through with our winning streak yet, and I think that we will take the majority of the remaining games. We have three double-headers this week on account of the rain."

St. Thomas, Aug. 20—Special—St. Thomas won both games of a double header from Peterboro to-day by the shut-out route. Wright, the Saints thirdbaseman, did the heaviest hitting of the day, and his fielding was brilliant. Score—

Post Office Attaches Play a Game of Ball at the Oval

An interesting game of baseball was played at the Oval last night between the Mail Sorters and the Mail Carriers, two teams from the local post office, which resulted in the Carriers going home with the large end of the score of 13—9. It is understood that scouts from the big leagues were in attendance at the game, and it would not be a surprise to see a number of the local boys playing in faster company next year. Darrah, the pitcher for the Carriers, had his slow ball working splendidly.

The teams will meet again within the next few days, and the fans may look for an interesting game.

BREEZES FROM THE DIAMOND

Judge Stein, the Detroiter, who says people married in Canada can get no more divorces in Detroit, and who by so doing has thrust himself into publicity, is an old baseball pitcher, having in his time done slab duty for the Chicago Nationals.

Two games pitched in succession and only five hits in each was Hanson's record yesterday. That's going some even if both games were lost.

Trout, who catches in every game played these days, is certainly earning his salary, whatever the figure may be.

Next week the Toronto Leafs play eleven games in six days.

"Bennie" Meyer, who has been creating quite a sensation by his work, is the centre of attraction for some of the big league magnates, who, it is reported, are trying to get strings on him.

Brant, the Peterborough shortstop, is playing a great game for the tailenders and is almost certain to be drafted, all of which goes to show that they do not know a ball player in London when they have one.—London Free Press.

Al Shaw "sassed" the umpire yesterday in the Toronto-Jersey City game and was benched, which gave "Peaches" Graham his first chance to work since he was hurt.

Yesterday's break in the luck cost the Caps 10 points. Rather a rude jolt in the up-hill climb, but to-day's double header in Berlin might turn out consoling, especially since Osborne and Tracey will very likely do the twirling.

London dropped two to Berlin yesterday, making it ten successive defeats.

Walter Johnson, of Washington, pitched his fifteenth straight win yesterday, a record for the American League, and a hard chase for Marquard's laurels.

BIG WORK AT PRINCE RUPERT

An interesting report has just been received at Grand Trunk System headquarters in Montreal upon the G.T.P. dry dock and marine terminals, now under construction at Prince Rupert, which reads as follows:

"Prince Rupert is approximately 550 statute miles north of Vancouver, about half way between that point and Skagway, Alaska. Being the Pacific terminal of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, and strategically located as it is, it will undoubtedly be one of the most important sea-ports on the Pacific coast. With this in view the G.T.P. Co. retained the services of Messrs. F. W. Kirby and W. T. Donnelly, two of the best known marine engineers on the continent, to go thoroughly into the question of requisite facilities for the care of shipping interests in view of the future of Prince Rupert.

After taking careful and thorough observation, Messrs. Kirby and Donnelly drew up plans for a dry dock and ship repair plant, and submitted the same to the Railway Company, with the result that, in May of this year, construction work was commenced for a plant that will be without an equal on the Pacific Coast.

In this connection it will be of interest to briefly describe the harbor of Prince Rupert. To the east of Dickson's Entrance, Brown's Passage leads to Chatham Sound, and across this to the east between Digby and Kaien Islands lies the harbor which, previous to 1906, was known as Tuck's Inlet. This harbor is formed by Kaien Island on the south and east, Tsimpsean Peninsula and Digby Island on the north and west. The entrance is about half a mile wide at its narrowest point, and one of the most easily entered on the coast. It is entirely unobstructed and is about nine or ten miles in length, and from three-quarters of a mile to a mile and a half in width. The Prince Rupert shore is rocky, falling off rapidly to a depth of approximately twenty fathoms. For this reason the wharves on this side have to be built along the shore line without slips.

Hays Cove, the mouth of Hays Creek, was determined to be the most suitable place for the dry dock, and the plans have been made accordingly. The dock will be of the floating pontoon type, with a lifting capacity of 20,000 tons. It will be built in three sections, which can be used separately as three docks, if required. There will be twelve pontoons in all, built of wood, and treated to resist toredos. The wings will be of steel. In the opinion of experts this combination of wood and steel for a floating dock is the most desirable type and the most easily maintained. There will be twenty-four 12 inch centrifugal pumps used with a capacity of 6,000 gallons per minute each, the entire lot taking one and a half hours to pump the dock out.

In addition to the dry dock proper, the following accessories will be built: An adequate shore plant, comprising an electric power generating plant; an air compressor plant; a machine shop; boiler and blacksmith shop; foundry; construction sheds; coal handling plant, and two piers, each 400 feet long. The shore plant will be constructed first. Since May work has been confined to the building of piers and platforms and rock filling. Construction will be kept up continuously until completion, which will probably be in 1914. This plant will be of inestimable benefit to the North Pacific country and the shipping trade generally, as, at the present time, the nearest dry dock and marine repair works are over 500 miles away.

Button Puzzle.

Place twelve buttons or stones in a hollow square so that you count four along each side of it.

Now take the same buttons and arrange them so that they form another square and you can count five along each side of it.

Solution: Make a square with three on every side and place the remaining four, one on each of the corner buttons.

HUMAN ALBINOS.

Even Their Interior Organs, Brain Included, Lack Color.

There is no race of human albinos, and the albino appears in nearly all races. Latin albus means white in English. The word albino is applied to white plants and white animals. Specifically when we hear the word we think of white humans—men or women without color. In a full or complete albino (human) all pigment or color is absent in the skin, in the interior organs and even in the brain. White negroes and Indians exist, as well as in Caucasian or "white races," some of these being quite dark.

A total albino has a white epidermis or skin and also white hair and red eyes, due to the absence of pigment in the membranes of the eye, which is for the purpose of screening light that is too bright for the retina—that is, in albinos; others can see the retina in the rear of the eye, and this appears to be red.

Albinism is not a disease, nor are the minds of albinos weaker than those of others. White blackbirds, mice, hares and birds are albinos. And then white elephants are sacred and worshiped by some races in Asia.—Exchange.

A Puzzle Explained.

The teacher was giving a lesson in mathematics and English combined.

"A fathom," she said, "is a nautical word used in defining distance. It means six feet. Now I want some little girl to give me a sentence using the word fathom."

Instantly a hand shot up in the rear of the room.

"Well, Mary, you may give your sentence."

Mary stood up proudly.

"The reason flies can walk on the ceiling," said the observant child, "is because they have a fathom."—Youth's Companion.

Two Freights Collide.

Toronto, Aug. 21.—The failure of the crew of a Grand Trunk freight train from Lindsay to apply the brakes effectively, resulted in a collision which ended in six cars being destroyed by fire and three locomotives badly damaged. The crews of all three locomotives managed to jump before the engines came together and they thus escaped injury.

Zeipe Inquest Adjourned.

Hamilton, Aug. 21.—As the report of Prof. Ellis, provincial analyst, on his analysis of the contents of the dead woman's stomach is not prepared, the inquest into the death of Miss Rose Zeipe was adjourned by Coroner Rennie until Sept. 3, last night.

WOMEN SHOULD BE PROTECTED

Against So Many Surgical Operations. How Mrs. Bethune and Mrs. Moore Escaped.

Sikeston, Mo.—"For seven years I suffered everything. I was in bed for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I cramped and had backache and headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room. The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do my own housework, hoe my garden, and milk a cow. I can entertain company and enjoy them. I can visit when I choose, and walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the month. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl."—Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo.

Murrayville, Ill.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a very bad case of female trouble and it made me a well woman. My health was all broken down, the doctors said I must have an operation, and I was ready to go to the hospital, but dreaded it so that I began taking your Compound. I got along so well that I gave up the doctors and was saved from the operation."—Mrs. CHARLES MOORE, R. R. No. 3, Murrayville, Ill.

THE MUMMIES MOVED.

They Raised Their Heads as if to Bid Adieu to Africa.

In his book "Africa of Today" Joseph King Goodrich tells of the shipment of a number of mummies from the banks of the Nile to various museums.

"They were put on board a lighter in the river," he says, "and arranged side by side. As the boat was moving away from the bank many of the mummies seemed to come back to life. Certainly they moved and the heads seemed to rise as if the bodies were turning so that their eyes might take a last look at the place where these old kings and queens had lain in peace for over two thousand years.

"The effect upon the boatmen was most panicky, and even the unsuperstitious foreigner felt as if something uncanny were occurring.

"The explanation is absurdly simple. The heat of the sun had caused the expansion of certain parts, but it was never a satisfactory explanation to those Nile boatmen, who were for a long time loath to handle mummies as cargo."

BEAUTIFUL EYES

Eyes made beautiful by long, silky lashes and well defined, lustrous brows. Eyes, like diamonds, depend on their setting. The beauties of the face are lost if the eye brows are thin and scanty, and the lashes are thin and scanty. Parisian Lash Lustre grows beautiful, soft, silky lashes. It has done so for society women throughout Europe, and it comes here well recommended to do the same for you. Parisian Lash Lustre is not a dye or colorator, but a scientific preparation for beautifying the eye lashes and brows. Our guarantee goes with every box of Parisian Lash Lustre. A two weeks' treatment will bring beauty to your eyes that you have never before possessed. By mail, prepaid, in opal boxes on receipt of price, fifty cents. E. V. Marion, sole distributor, Bridgeburg, Ont.

Cookery Points

Demon Cake.

Cream three-quarters of a cupful of butter with one cupful and a half of brown sugar. Add two eggs and a cupful of sour cream in which half a teaspoonful of soda has been dissolved. Sift three cupfuls of flour with a teaspoonful of baking powder, two level teaspoonfuls of cinnamon, half a teaspoonful of cloves and half a teaspoonful of grated nutmeg. Stir the other mixture into these dry ingredients, and when a smooth batter has been formed mix with a paste previously prepared by melting a square of chocolate and then mixing it with a quarter of a cupful of light brown sugar and a quarter of a cupful of hot water. Cook this mixture till it is smooth before adding it to the batter. Just before putting the batter into the pans add a cupful of chopped nuts and fruit—almonds, raisins, citron and so forth, according to the richness desired. This cake may be used as a layer cake or in a shallow loaf form. It does not need a rich frosting, the batter being rich. Creamy sour milk may be used instead of sour cream, but it is wise to add a little extra butter. The almonds should, of course, be blanched and cut in thin strips and the citron into thin shavings.

Mock Game.

Cut some slices of beefsteak into pieces half an inch thick and square. Lay a piece of raw bacon on each and dredge well with flour. Roll up the beef and skewer it in position. Melt some dripping in a saucepan, put in the meat and brown nicely, then add a finely chopped onion, half a teaspoonful of capers, a wineglassful of vinegar and the same quantity of stock. Cover and stew all together very slowly till tender.

Place the meat on a hot dish. Strain the gravy, thicken it with browned flour. Season with pepper and salt and a tablespoonful of red currant jelly. Pour the gravy over and around the meat and garnish with sippets of toast and pieces of red currant jelly.

Angels' Food Cake.

Take the whites of ten eggs, one cupful of flour, one and a half cupfuls of sugar and one teaspoonful of vanilla extract. Sift the sugar four times, with a teaspoonful of cream of tartar added also a pinch of salt. Beat the eggs until light and dry and add the sugar lightly, then the flour and vanilla. The secret of success is in the mixing and baking. Put together in the order given. Do not use a spoon or beat hard. Beat the eggs with a wire egg beater and use the beater to mix the cake. Bake in ungreased angels' cake pan for forty minutes to one hour. Let the cake cool in an inverted position before removing from the pan. The oven must be a moderate one.

Compote of Apples.

Large and rather tart apples are the best for this purpose. They should be pared and cored and cut into equal parts. Make a sirup with half a pound of lump sugar and a wineglassful of sherry and another of water. Bring it to boiling point.

Drop the apples into this and cook them till perfectly tender, but do not let them break. Lift them out on a plate as soon as done.

When all the apples are cooked boil the sirup a little longer to reduce it and deepen the color by the addition of a few drops of cochineal. Then pour over the apples and serve in a glass dish.

French Cucumber Salad.

Take four medium sized fresh cucumbers, half a cupful of sweet cream, a quarter of a cupful of vinegar and two tablespoonfuls of salt.

Peel the cucumbers and slice thin layers lengthwise until the seeds are reached. Place a layer of cucumber slices in a dish, then sprinkle with a layer of salt. Repeat until all sliced cucumbers are used. Allow to stand several hours on the ice. When ready to use remove cucumbers from the liquid, spread on towel and wipe dry. Place in a bowl and add, alternately, cream and vinegar. Serve on head of lettuce or cress.

Curry Soup.

Peel and slice three apples and three onions. The onions should be sliced from the top to the bottom. Place them in a saucepan with two ounces of dripping and a tablespoonful of curry powder and fry gently without discoloring for about half an hour.

Stir occasionally. Pour in two quarts of plain or fish stock and cook for half an hour. Add enough flour to thicken the soup and boil for three minutes. Season with pepper, salt and a dash of lemon juice and serve with boiled rice.

Beetroot Sauce.

Wash and boil a couple of fair sized beets until they are tender, then remove the skins and cut them in slices. Dissolve half an ounce of butter, mix with it a dessertspoonful of flour and stir in a large teacupful of thin stock or water, adding a little vinegar and pepper and salt.

Boil first, then lay in the slices and salt, root, cover the stewpan closely and stew gently for an hour.

Pour carefully into a hot dish and serve at once.

Beyond Pleasure.

The young attorney was handling his first case before a jury and in its presentation was employing all the odd bits of information acquired during his college course that would even remotely apply to a statement of his case. The judge at last grew weary and impatient, at which the lawyer bridled and said:

"Is it the pleasure of the court that I should proceed?"

"Pleasure, sir," replied the court, "has been out of the question for a long time past, but you may proceed."—New York Tribune.

A Blunt Critic.

A famous art expert was talking at a dinner in Philadelphia about some of Sargent's cruelly realistic portraits.

"Sargent once painted a Philadelphia woman," he said, "and when the work was finished the lady's coachman called for it. As the coachman was studying the portrait Sargent said to him:

"'How do you like it?'

"The man answered thoughtfully:

"'Well, sir, ye might have made it a little better lookin', mebbe; but if ye had, ye'd have spoilt it.'"—Washington Star.

Knew When He Had Enough.

It was before the days of Jack Johnson, and Mickey White, the local heavyweight champion of the Anglo-Saxons, and Rastus Washington, the local heavyweight hope of the Africans, shook hands and squared off for business. Mickey led out with a terrific right hand wallop, and Rastus sat down in the middle of the ring. "Get up," commanded the referee. "He didn't even hit you." "I know he never, boss," said Rastus, "but he mighta, an' I ain't goin' to git up twel dat gen'leman gits outer de ring."—Exchange.

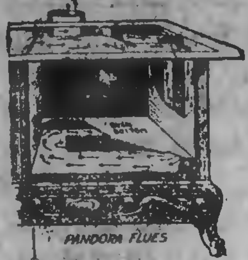
A Job to Suit Him.

"Professor, I know my boy is rather slow, but in the two years that you have had charge of his education he must have developed a tendency in some direction or other. What occupation do you suggest as a possible outlet for his energies, such as they are?"

"Well, sir, I think he is admirably fitted for taking moving pictures of a glacier."—Chicago Tribune.

Cooking and Baking Problems are Easy to Solve With a "PANDORA" Range

The Oven is the heart of a range. Its efficiency depends largely on construction of Fire-box and Flues, but—certain scientific principles must be carried out in making the Oven to insure success.



PANDORA FLUES

Illustration No. 1.

Illustration No. 1 shows the exact course followed by the drafts in "PANDORA" range—you see the heat passes directly under every pot-hole and around the Oven twice before reaching smoke pipe.

The Flues are deep and wide—corners are rounded—they are easily cleaned and there is nothing to impede the draft. A glance at McClary Flue construction will convince you that the "PANDORA" range is a perfect baker and cooker at the same time. The heat envelops the Oven uniformly—bread is evenly baked in the "PANDORA."

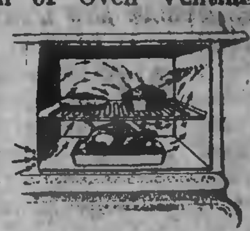


Illustration No. 2.

Illustration No. 2 shows the McClary system of Oven Ventilation very plainly. As you know, air close to the body of a range is fresh and comparatively warm. This fresh, warm air is drawn into Oven through small holes—the intense warmth super-heating and diffusing it throughout the Oven. Then it escapes with cooking fumes through vent holes shown in back of Oven.

The ventilation of "PANDORA" Oven is simple, yet scientific, and —the results are apparent. A roast can be cooked just the way you like it—cooked so that it retains all its generous and nourishing juices and—bread, puddings, etc., are baked light, crisp, and fresh in the "PANDORA" Oven. The linings of the "PANDORA" Oven are of nickelled steel one-eighth of an inch thick and as smooth as glass—so the Oven is easily kept clean—easier heated and more durable.

N. B.—You can have the complete story of "Pandora" efficiency by simply asking for our Free Book, "Reasons for 'Pandora' Popularity."

FAMOUS PAINTINGS

This Year's Display at the C.N.E. in Advance of Other Years

The list of paintings coming from Europe for this year's Canadian National Exhibition fairly bristles with famous names. There are forty paintings loaned by the French Government, while such names as Lord Leighton, Sir James Millais, Orpen, etc., make the British collection even more interesting than usual. The display of art on the whole promises to be well in advance of any previous exhibits.

General Booth's Death Reported Officially to Local Corps.

Lieut.-Col. Rees, head of the social operation of the Salvation Army for the Dominion, is visiting at the home of his son-in-law, Capt. T. A. Watkinson, of the Peterborough branch of the Army.

Lieut.-Col. Rees received this morning the following telegram from Commissioner Rees, of Toronto, who is the head of the organization in Canada and Bermuda:

"Deeply regret just received cable from Chief (Bramwell Booth) announcing General died at 5 to-night. Chief broken hearted over loss, but strong in God that He will help us. Pray for him, the dear ones, the Army. Let us rally around that for which the General lived and died."

FUNERAL OF ROGER DEVLIN

The funeral of the late Roger Devlin proceeded to Douro Cemetery this morning after a very impressive service conducted at St. Peter's Cathedral. Friends of the deceased in his native township of Otonabee, and in Douro and Asphodel were present to pay their farewell respects to the deceased.

OPENING OF THE ROLLER RINK

Big Crowds Enjoyed First Glide of the Season.

The opening of the Brock street roller rink last night, was a gratifying success in every way to the new director, Prof. Don. Donnel and the hundreds who flocked to enjoy the first skate of the season.

The rink, with its numerous little improvements tending to the comfort of skaters, was highly praised, and the management intending conducting the amusement place in a thoroughly modern manner.

A portion of the 57th Regimental Band furnished first class music for the skaters.

The attendance was very large with indications that it will henceforth be splendidly patronized.

Earlier maturing crops in the west may reduce the demand for harvest help.

Only eight votes were cast against the Hydro-Electric by-law at Port Dalhousie.

WESTERN FEVER CALLING MANY

Thirty From Peterboro County Have Left for the West.

The lure of the West on Monday claimed about thirty farm employes and farmers from the vicinity of Peterborough who went to Toronto and left on the special harvesters' and homeseekers' excursions, run by the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Railways.

The majority of the travellers were passengers on the harvesters' excursion.

The first big excursion from Peterborough, however, is on Friday, August 23rd, present indications being that it will be heavily patronized.

The next one will leave here August 28th.

SAMMY SMITH ON THE STAGE

The Popular Pitcher Does a Stunt in a London Theatre.

Something went wrong with the Hajeatic Theatre in London on Monday, and our old Hebrew friend of musical-comedy fame, Sammy Smith, who pitched against Peterborough on Civil Holiday, jumped into stage harness and capped the afternoon's entertainment with a number of popular songs. Sammy was awarded no less than five encores, and his "skit" was proclaimed one of the best bits at the Majestic this season. A number of the ball players idle on account of the rain, were tipped off that Sammy would appear before the footlights and were there to see him perform.

KNOX CHURCH

The session of Knox church will meet to-night at the close of the prayer meeting.

As the cart fell across the main line a train had to be stopped until the vehicle and horse could be moved.

A Moroccan Solomon.

Mulai Hafid's grandfather, we learn from a Paris contemporary, left this world with the renown of a just man. His legal enactments are still remembered, for he had a way of impressing upon his subjects the distinction of "meum" and "tuum." One law dating from 1870 was to the effect that any one who should touch the goods of another should be beheaded. One of his subjects presented himself before the sultan, saying: "Your majesty is always obeyed. A traveler at my inn departed leaving behind him a sack of nuts, and no one has dared to approach them." "How do you know," demanded Mohammed, "that the sack contained nuts?" "Your majesty," replied the subject, "I just touched the sack with my foot." "Ah," replied the just man among the just, the Solomon of his age, "be it so. In view of your intention I will spare your life." Then, turning to the grand vizier, he said, "Only take off one of his feet."

BRAMWELL BOOTH IS THE NEW SALVATION ARMY LEADER

The Late General Left a Letter Written Twenty-two Years Ago in Which he Named His Son as His Successor—Regrets Sent in From all Parts of the World — King Sends Message

London, Aug. 22.—In the presence of all the Salvation Army commissioners and the principal officers in London at the international headquarters on Queen Victoria street, General Booth's testament, entrusted to the army's solicitor twenty years ago, appointing the late commander-in-chief's son, Bramwell Booth, to succeed him, was opened yesterday and read.

Bramwell Booth, who has been chief of staff of the Salvation Army since 1880, accepted the succession formally, with much feeling. His speech was a prayer, and the Scriptural reading was followed by an impressive service. Mrs. Bramwell Booth and Mrs. Booth-Helberd and other well-known army leaders were among the participants.

General Booth's funeral will be held on the afternoon of Aug. 29 at Abney Park Cemetery, in Stoke-Newington, where his wife is buried. The funeral procession from the international headquarters, which will pass through some of the principal thoroughfares of the city, will start at noon. Many thousands of persons are expected to participate in the funeral service for the army, which will be held on the preceding night at the great hall of Olympia, the scene of the international horse shows and various pageants and exhibitions, which has been chosen for its spaciousness.

Several newspapers suggest that the general's work entitles him to lie in Westminster or St. Paul's Cathedral, where many other of the nation's greatest heroes of war and peace are entombed, but his wish was to be buried beside his wife, and it is doubtful if the church authorities will make the offer to place the body in the cathedral.

Bramwell Booth presided at the meeting held in the international headquarters. After calling on Commissioner McKie for a prayer, the chief of staff announced that he had called the officers together to hear the reading of the document appointing General Booth's successor. The army solicitor produced a large sealed envelope, which had lain in his safe just twenty-two years to a day. It bore in the general's handwriting, "The appointment of my successor. William Booth, 21 August, 1890."

After the envelope was passed around the circle of officers, Solicitor Ranger cut it open and read the formal appointment of the chief of staff as commander-in-chief. The solicitor then formally asked Bramwell Booth if he accepted the post. The chief of staff replied with deep emotion, accepting the appointment, and expressing his keen sense of the great loss that the army had sustained, and added his resolution to carry out faithfully the new responsibility cast upon him.

King George was one of the first to telegraph his condolences to the bereaved family. Messages also were received from Premier Asquith, the Archbishop of Canterbury and other prelates of the Church of England; the Lord Mayor of London, Sir Thomas B. Crosby; the Earl of Meath and the Earl of Aberdeen and many others, including representatives of all the Protestant creeds and prominent persons of the Jewish faith.

Premier Asquith telegraphed: "I must offer you my sincere sympathy in your great loss."

The Lord Mayor's message read: "The City of London sincerely mourns the passing away of its distinguished citizen, General Booth, whose grand and good work entitles him to imperishable gratitude."

Lord Rothschild sent the following despatch: "I am deeply grieved to hear of the death of your great and distinguished father. He devoted his whole life to the cause of the destitute and the needy. His name will never be forgotten."

The Salvationists do not wear mourning, but at the funeral of the late evangelist they will wear white arm bands, with a red cross and crown.

FALL WHEAT IS CUT IN ALBERTA

Harvesting Far Advanced and Spring Crops Looking Fine.

Winnipeg, Aug. 22.—Harvesting has started in two-thirds of the districts heard from in the three prairie provinces and it will be general by the end of the week, by which time an immense acreage should be in the sheaf. Given fine weather from now on Western Canada will gather the grandest crop in point of quality ever taken off the fertile western prairies, and decidedly above average in quality.

All reports sent in speak of well filled heads and a berry of exceptionally fine quality.

Little damage is reported since the last review was published. Hessian fly has been responsible for an estimated two per cent. loss in a few districts, and hail has done slight damage in a few of them. But these misfortunes are lost in the splendid crop prospect as a whole.

Fall wheat cutting is finished in Southern Alberta and threshing commenced. On the whole, Alberta has had more favorable ripening weather than Saskatchewan and Manitoba, but the abundant moisture has filled the head and been really a blessing in disguise.

There is urgent [illegible] men everywhere which will [illegible] more pressing next week.

BELIEVES HIM SANE

Dr. Noble's Son Comes to His Defence in Montreal.

Montreal, Aug. 22.—Robert Noble, a son of Dr. Charles Noble, the eminent physician of Philadelphia, who is seeking to obtain his release from the Verdun Insane Asylum, where he claims he has been wrongfully kept through the instigation of relatives, who are interested in having him kept out of the way, last night issued a statement declaring that after investigating he is convinced that his father is sane and that he will aid him in his fight against his brother, Herbert Noble, his wife and his older son, Charles Noble, jr. Robert Noble states that he is the only one of the family who has visited the plaintiff, his father, and who has been on friendly terms with him and he is the best judge of his condition.

Inchcape Has Resigned?

London, Aug. 22.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The Times understands that Lord Inchcape, who recently was appointed chairman of the Imperial Trade Commission, and who has been subjected to severe criticism on account of his political views, has been obliged to resign. Important business made it impossible for him to go abroad at present.

The Times adds that his probable successor will be Arnold Morley.

WAS IT BENNETT?

Berlin Citizen in the Role of Sherlock Homes.

Berlin, Aug. 22.—A Berlin citizen going over from Hamilton to Toronto on the boat Tuesday observed an Indian having in his company a woman, although dressed in woman's apparel with long black veil, acted very much like a man, and "her" features were more masculine than feminine. He is of the opinion that this strange person might be Joe Bennett, the Indian wanted in Brantford on a murder charge, and was being spirited away by a friend.

Will Ostracize Strike-Breakers.

London, Aug. 22.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The Canadian Pacific Steamship Co. gained the first point in the ship officers' dispute, the third and fourth union officers who refused to sign on Tuesday having been replaced. Secretary Macfarlane of the union states that although the company succeeded in getting the Mount Royal away information would be sent to Montreal in advance so as to secure ostracism of the non-union officers on reaching the port of Montreal.

BANK MERGER CASE

The Treasury Board Will Hear Application at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Aug. 22.—The Treasury Board will to-morrow hold a special meeting to consider the application for the amalgamation of the Royal and Traders Banks. Whatever decision is reached, will have to be referred to the Cabinet Council for ratification.

CHINESE PIRATES TO BE WIPED OUT

Hong Kong, Aug. 22.—Several British torpedo boats have been despatched from this port to endeavor to find and attack the pirates who on Monday night, raided the British island of Cheung Chow, where they killed three Indian policemen and looted many of the houses.

Reports have reached here from the southern provinces of China stating that there is much excitement in connection with the execution of Gen. Chang Chen Wu and Gen. Feng Wei, members of Dr. Sun Yat Sen's party. It is said the people of the south consider the sole solution of the present crisis is the formation of separate southern and northern republics.

Big Brick Plant.

Thornbury, Aug. 22.—The belief is current that it will not be very many months before the Canadian Northern Railway will have a line built from Orillia to Kincardine by way of Meaford, Thornbury and Collingwood. This belief is strengthened by the extensive operations of Mackenzie and Mann interests in establishing a huge brick plant between here and Meaford, which when completed will cost over half a million dollars. Work has been rushed all summer on this plant, which it is understood will be used largely in the manufacture of vitrified paving brick for street railway allowances.

Rumors have been rife for some time that there is to be a change in the Police Commissionership of New York City. Among the names most prominently mentioned as the successor to Commissioner Rhinelander Waldo, in the event of the latter getting out, are Joseph H. Johnson, present Fire Commissioner; Michael J. Drummond and Raymon Fosdick. The name of James Creelman, the well known literary man, has also been mentioned.

HAMILTON MAN WINS HIGHEST HONORS AT THE O.R.A. SHOOT

Sergt. J. Freeborn, of the 13th Regiment, Ties for First Place With Morris and With Four Others in the Macdonald Competition—Calgary Lad Wins Cadet Prize.

Toronto, Aug. 22.—Sergt. J. Freeborn of the 13th Regiment, Hamilton, is probably the best shot at the O.R.A. meeting this year. Yesterday he was tied for first place in the final stage of the City of Toronto match and the Macdonald competition. And in the only other match of the day, the Bankers', he stood high in the list. On the opening day of the shooting he won the Osler and was among the top-rungers in the City of Hamilton. On Tuesday he was tied for first with 34 others, all having scored possibles, in the Coronation event. He also scored 66 out of a possible 70 in the Duke of Cornwall competition and consequently was high up in the money. Freeborn, without a doubt, is the sensation of the meet, always shooting steadily and when not winning a trophy, is found somewhere near the shot who does.

Despite the fact that the elements were not favorable, yesterday's marksmanship continued very high. Four big events were pulled off and all brought out good scores. It rained intermittingly during the morning but this did not cause any cessation of the shooting. Rifles barked incessantly all day. In the afternoon there was very little breeze and the sun shone now and then. The Bankers' match was the chief one to suffer owing to the rain and variable winds.

The contingent of cadets from Australia and Tasmania, who will take part at the Exhibition next week, arrived in Toronto yesterday morning and immediately visited the ranges where they lined up with the 100 or more school boys from all parts of Canada in the Cadets' match. Their scores were comparatively low. Only one boy of the dozen got in the money, making a score of 38 out of a possible 50, at a 200-yard range. He came 23rd. Cadet J. Schmick of Calgary took away the prize, $12, making a score of 49.

Good Scores at Montreal.

Montreal, Aug. 22.—The Province of Quebec Rifle Association championships opened yesterday at Point Aux Trembles ranges under excellent weather conditions, and some good scores were made.

Yesterday's contests were the Green shot and the tyro matches, a service condition match of seven shots at 600 yards, and the first two stages of the lieutenant-governor's match at 200 and 500 yards. Extra series matches were also shot.

Sergt. F. Trepanier of the 9th Regiment, won both the green and tyro matches, his scores being identical in each, a possible at 200 yards, and 23 at 500 yards.

UNLOAD NO BOATS AT PORT ARTHUR

Vessels are Being Sent From That Place to Fort William.

Port Arthur, Aug. 22.—No change is apparent in the Canadian Northern freight dock strike situation. Both sides are standing pat and so far no conference has been arranged with a view to settlement. All boats that had been at local dock and those en route have been sent to Fort William, where they can be unloaded, so that there are not even any arrivals of package freight steamers at Port Arthur now.

Local strikers are lending their efforts to an attempt to create a strike in Fort William sheds, as it looks like victory for the company when they are able to send their steamers to the other port and have them unloaded there without any appreciable congestion of freight.

J. R. Cameron, assistant general manager of the C.N.R., is here from Winnipeg, but he and other officials refuse to state what their plans are.

Fort William, Aug. 22.—Despite the fact that freight truckers refused to go back to work at the C.P.R. sheds last night, company officials declare that the strike so far has not been effective. Supt. Morgan says that 250 men reported for work yesterday morning and work is proceeding as before. Most of those at work are Italians, who caused much trouble in the strike three years ago, when one was killed and several wounded. Boats were given quick despatch notwithstanding the threatened strike. Reports that the C.P.R. elevators' staffs intending striking at noon did not materialize.

ANOTHER DEATH IN POISON CASE

Montreal, Aug. 22.—Another Russian, Liliola Guererda, died in the general hospital yesterday, making the eighth to succumb to poisoning following the wood alcohol debauch in which some fifty workmen indulged last week at St. Lambert, where they were engaged in railway construction work.

Two men alleged to have sold them the wood alcohol mixture as whisky were arraigned in court yesterday afternoon, but the hearing was postponed till Friday. The coroner's inquest will be resumed to-day, after being postponed in order to allow the summoning of further witnesses and to await an analysis of the mixture which the victims drank.

CAN COUSINS MARRY?

Interesting Case to be Disposed of by the Court of Review.

Montreal, Aug. 22.—One of the first cases to occupy the attention of the court of review when its sittings are resumed in September will be the Tremblay-Despais marriage suit, which was argued last month on appeal from a decision of Justice Bruneau of the superior court of Sorel.

The husband seeks ratification of an ecclesiastical decree annuling the marriage on the ground of a canonical impediment, the parties being, it is explained, fourth cousins. The wife contests the motion, claiming that the relationship was not proved, and that consanguinity in the fourth degree was not an impediment which the civil law could recognize.

Coal Famine in West.

Winnipeg, Aug. 22.—Reports from the Pennsylvania anthracite fields show that the producers, in spite of every effort to avoid a shortage, are likely to be overwhelmed by a mass of belated orders accumulated during the strike period of the spring. Stocks of the big coal companies throughout the country, which at the present time should be filling up for winter demands, are in many cases being absolutely depleted.

Attempts to Kill Children.

Courcelles, Belgium, Aug. 22.—The Marquise Delamotte d'Arenberg l'Esso on Tuesday in a sudden fit of insanity threw herself and her three children, aged 11, 8 and 6 years, into a canal near here. The cries of the drowning children brought help in time to save the entire family.

The police arrested the marquise, who is a prominent resident of Brussels.

CAPTURED THE CHIEF INSURRECTOR

New Orleans, Aug. 22.—Gen. Luis Mena, leader of the revolutionists in Nicaragua, was seized and is now held a prisoner by members of the Liberal party in Leon, according to a wireless message from Bluefields received here yesterday by Juan J. Savella, Nicaraguan consul at New Orleans.

The time and circumstances were not given. Rumors of an impending Liberal uprising have long been current, though Gen. Arias, who has been regarded as the Liberal leader, has been in Costa Rica. Arias was one of the chief allies of ex-President Zelaya.

HYDRO TURNED DOWN

Kingston Aldermen Fly in the Faces of Their Constituents.

Kingston, Aug. 22.—The City Council, in spite of the vote of the people some time ago by ten to one authorizing the conclusion of a contract with the Hydro-Electric Commission, have decided without again appealing to the people to spend $35,000 on enlarging the present electric steam plant. This is directly in the face of the advice of the expert engineers, Mr. Ross of Montreal and Mr. Storey of Syracuse, who were strongly opposed to such a step. The rates quoted Kingston by the Hydro-Eelectric Commission were of a lower average cost than those in the Niagara district. Prescott and Brockville have signed the Hydro-electric contract, and the material is already on the ground for the line to Morrisburg.

CANADA TO PROTEST.

Department of Justice Proposes to Fight Canal Bill.

Ottawa, Aug. 22.—Canada will help to fight the Panama Canal bill.

The Department of Justice and other Government Departments here last evening received instructions by cable from Premier Borden and Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, to secure all possible records, statistics and other information available, which might in any way strengthen and augment the protest which Great Britain intends renewing against the ratification of the passage of the Panama Canal administration bill as it now stands. It is thought that much valuable material can be secured here of a statistical nature.

Brandon Strike Settled.

Brandon, Aug. 22.—At a meeting of city contractors and striking laborers yesterday, a satisfactory settlement was effected and the men consented to go back to work this morning. The men struck for an increase of 2 1-2 cents an hour. They were receiving 25 cents.

Under the settlement effected yesterday, building laborers will receive 27 1-2 cents, and ordinary laborers 25 cents.

Engineers Discuss Wages Aug. 27

New York, Aug. 22.—Chairman J. Stuart of the conference committee of managers representing fifty-two eastern railroads, negotiating with the locomotive engineers on the question of wage increases, yesterday called a meeting of the full conference committee for Tuesday, Aug. 27.

ROGER EPISODE IS NOW CLOSED

No Danger of International Complications Over the Shooting.

London, Aug. 22.—The death of the elephant poacher and illicit ivory trader, James Ward Rogers, a native of Wayland, Allegan County, Michigan, while being pursued by Capt. C. V. Fox, an officer of the British army in the Egyptian service in Central Africa, is not likely to result in international complications. The British Foreign Office has not so far received any communication from the U. S. Government and the incident is considered closed as far as Great Britain and Belgium are concerned.

It is stated at the Foreign Office that Rogers' companions whose names are Pierce and Lane, are British subjects, and not Americans.

Rogers' death occurred on Belgian territory, and when Capt. Fox became aware of that fact, he promptly sent a report to the nearest Belgium fort and apologized for his mistake.

A Belgian force escorted Capt. Fox to the boundary and took charge of the prisoners who included Pierce and Lane. Officials of the Foreign Office believe that these were afterwards released, but have no official information to that effect. Pierce was the man who was given the title of doctor, although it appears doubtful that he was a medical man.

A hundred natives were also taken prisoners and handed over to the Belgians.

It is reported that Rogers was wounded by one of his own natives in the course of a skirmish with Capt. Fox's advance scouts. Capt. Fox removed the bullet from the wound and nursed Rogers for four days until his death.

HORSES NEVER YET HAVE SEEN A CITY

Mounts of the Western Cadets Will be Tenderly Handled.

Toronto, Aug. 22.—Lt.-Col. Gwynne, who is bringing the Grenfell, Sask., Mounted Cadet to do the second musical ride at the Exhibition, writes that the horses the boy soldiers will ride have never seen a city before and requests that the car in which they are shipped be taken to the Exhibition grounds before the horses are unloaded. Col. Gwynne and his command left Grenfell to-day, and will pick up the Manitoba corps enroute and arrive in Toronto at 3.25 Saturday afternoon.

The Australians arrived yesterday and spent the afternoon at the ranges, then practiced physical drill in the Armories in the evening.

The cadet camp will be made up of the following corps: Halifax, Quebec, Montreal Highlanders, Montreal; Trenton, Ont.; Toronto, Woodstock, Calgary, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, British Columbia, New Zealand, Australia, England (two corps), Scotland, Ireland, and Newfoundland.

Listed the Bills.

Detroit, Aug. 22.—Ald. Thomas E. Glinnan, president of the common council, and alleged receiver of bribe money, was late yesterday bound over to the recorder's court on $1,000 bail, at the conclusion of his examination in police court, which started Tuesday.

The case of Ald. David Rosenthal, charged with agreeing to accept a bribe, was immediately taken up.

W. B. Scarth Made Inspector.

Ottawa, Aug. 22.—W. B. Scarth of Ottawa, son of the late deputy minister of agriculture, has been appointed to succeed the late Mr. H. Herbert, traveling immigration inspector, who was recently shot and killed on the boat near Detroit.

GRAND RIVER VALLEY MEN SUGGEST A HUGE SCHEME

Ask the Government to Construct a Dam Which Would Involve the Expenditure of Millons—Sir James Whitney Cannot See Eye to Eye With the Deputation.

Toronto, Aug. 22.—An influential deputation waited on the Ontario Government yesterday afternoon at the Parliament Buildings to ask for aid in averting floods in the Guelph, Galt, Paris and Brantford districts. After the hearing, a lively scene ensued. "Brantford, Brantford, Brantford," excitedly exclaimed a Paris man. "You would think there was no other place but Brantford. This was in the corridor near the Premier's office. The representatives from Paris swarmed around Sir James and demonstrated that their town was very much in evidence, although it was not heard from while the Grand River Improvement Association was being formally heard by the Government. There may evidently be some pointed questions by the Paris men at the next meeting of the association.

One of the biggest projects ever suggested to a Canadian Government was discussed, which might involve an outlay of millions, the damming of the northern valleys to hold back the spring flow of the Ontario rivers. Engineer Brethaupt of Berlin admitted that such a scheme might mean dams 140 feet high, similar to one in Ohio.

Premier Whitney was in one of his blunt, outspoken moods. He told the deputation that it would be absurd to hold the Ontario Government responsible for such floods as were experienced in Brantford, Galt and Paris last spring. He cut in and compelled the chairman of the association, J. P. Jaffray, Galt, to amend the terms of his introductory speech, and made it apparent that he was familiar with the subject as well as master of the situation.

The proceedings, despite the absolute refusal of the Premier to accept the academic argument of the deputation, were not acriminious, but Sir James at the first and at the last, set the deputation right on the true situation as he saw it.

PREMIER WHITNEY'S LATEST

The Haileyburian, a live newspaper published in Haileybury, says in a recent issue that the great need of the North is home markets for its natural products. It regrets to see the millionaire lumber companies that operate in New Ontario floating logs that they cut every winter to their mills at Ottawa, or other old Ontario cities instead of building plants and manufacturing the timber where it is produced.

Sir James Whitney seems to anticipate the chief wants of the settlers, and his latest move in their interests is to provide for the erection of an up-to-date pulp mill which is to have a capacity of 100 tons a day. Messrs. Shirley, Ogilvie and Anson of Montreal, have successfully tendered for the Abitibi pulp limit and are granted concessions on condition that the products of the forest are to be manufactured on the grounds. They pay $105,000 for the limit, the amount to be divided into twenty-one equal payments, the first five of which are to be made at once. A paper mill, that will turn out 100 tons of paper a day, is to be erected, and to carry out all this work the contractors will at once procded to organize a company with a capital of $1,500,000.

The settler will not only have a local market for the pulpwood which grows on his land, but he will be assured of employment when he cannot work on his farm. The new plan will also result in the speedy settlement of the district, as the pulp company is to spend at once $50,000 in the erection of new buildings and the encouragement of colonization in the vicinity of Iroquois Falls. Wherever a mill is erected a town follows as a matter of course, and a town invariably means a home market and other conveniences for the settlers.

Besides the lump sum of $105,000 secured for the limit, the government will be assured of a steady source of income from the manufactory, as the new company will be required to pay dues, 40 cents a cord on every ton of spruce cut for pulpwood, and 20 cents a cord on all other timber used for the same purpose.

It will thus be seen that while Mr. Rowell is dreaming dreams, devising visionary and impracticable schemes in the interests of colonization, Sir James Whitney, saying nothing as usual, one doing that which is most urgently required under the circumstances. Every new move on the part of the Whitney Government seems to render the position of the administration more impregnable than ever until the assaults of the opposition fail of effect upon it, as would a discharge of bird shot upon the fortress of Gibraltar. Here the settler receives substantial aid without being, practically pauperized, which he most certainly would be if he received loans from the government, a Utopian proposition which finds favor only with Mr. Rowell and his friends.

The condition which exists in the lumber trade and of which the Haileybury paper complains, is one which will soon right itself. The Booths, the Eddys, the Fergusons, the McFaddens and the Hawkesbury lumber people, who have vast holdings in the north, will have to come down to the manufacture of lumber near where it is cut as they move further back into the country. Driving timber down the streams and across the lakes to the towns of old Ontario is a system which results in a yearly loss as a certain percentage of the logs are sure to sink during the transit which at the best is a slow and cumbersome method of transportation. Along the lines of the T. & N.O. railway there are now a number of mills of the most modern type, and the owners of these have all the best of it in the lumber business. More will follow in due course, and Haileybury with other towns of the north will reap the benefit. Every double band sawmill means an increase in the population of over one thousand persons when the employes and their families are counted. Such mills, too, afford steady and lucrative employment, not only during the summer months while they are operated, but in the winter when the stock is secured no man willing to work may be idle.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The Trades and Labor Council, of Ottawa, want the aldermen of that city to resign. Here again the right pig has been caught by the ear.

The prohibition presidential candidate says the high cost of living is due to rum. Come to think of it they have raised the price of that commodity over there, only recently.

Guelph's aldermen are apparently never satisfied unless they are hunting for the scalp of their fire chief. The last complaint against him is that he whipped one of the department's horses with undue severity.

When Sir Thomas Lipton makes his fourth attempt to lift the American Cup he should call his yacht the "Four Leaf Shamrock" and may the magic spell that Lover talks about be woven at last.

The Krupp fortune is growing at the rate of $10,000,000 a year. In some cases a good healthy war scare is the best kind of a money maker.

An American paper wonders what the Pilgrim Fathers would think if they landed in the United States to-day. Well, they would probably secure a return passage as soon as they understood the Canal situation, preferring religious persecution to national dishonor.

The destruction of the house fly is a public duty. Almost every American State Board of Health is carrying on a crusade against him.

Our Sane Fourth

And What Came of It

By AGNES BROGAN

My brother's wife looked up from the paper she had been reading.

"There will be no fireworks at our house this year," she said firmly. "I shall see that Dot and Bobbie at least are withheld from the general sacrifice."

"What are we going to do," Jim questioned meekly—"play checkers?"

"This is my plan, and I know Nan will think it a good one. Upon the eventful day we will take a nice big lunch and go to some lonely, woodsy place along the lake shore. In the evening we will build a fire on the beach and roast corn and things, coming home later in the moonlight."

Jim's face brightened visibly. "Sounds pretty good," he said. "Who's to be Nan's attendant cavalier upon this occasion?"

Mollie cast a troubled glance in my direction.

"That is for Nan to say," she responded. "A month ago I should have asked Allison without even consulting her, for we all supposed that affairs were settled between those two, but since he has ceased calling and Nan avoids him in every possible manner."

"Affairs had been settled" between Allison and me, but how could I tell her that our bitter quarrel had sprung from the very fact that I had insisted upon keeping our engagement secret? It was all so new and wonderful, this great happiness which had come into my life, that I longed to keep it jealously for a little time, but men do not understand. When Allison found that pleadings were useless he turned from me indignantly.

"I can see no reason for concealment, Nan," he had said. "When you are pleased to recognize our engagement you will send for me."

Send for him indeed! Why, my heart could break in little bits before I would do a thing like that.

"Well, Nan?" Mollie spoke impatiently.

"We might ask Mr. Armstrong," I suggested coolly, "or Jack Meads. Either would be glad to come." Mr. Armstrong called as I sat on the veranda that afternoon. When I told him of our Fourth of July plans his face lit up with pleasure.

"Jove," he said delightedly, "that will be great! Won't you let me come along, Miss Harmon? I could take you all out there in my car." This was just what I had expected, so when my brother came home at night I told him of the arrangement. Jim whistled.

"I asked Jack Meads to go," he said, "and he did not lose any time accepting the invitation. What are you going to do about it?"

Mollie came to the rescue. "Never mind," she said cheerfully. "I will ask my sister Nell to join the party, and you young people can all enjoy yourselves together."

I tried to look pleased, but even if Nell is Mollie's sister I must say—

Well, I was busily engaged mixing a cake preparatory to the great event when Jim approached me on the following morning.

"Nan," he began apologetically, "I happened to mention this picnic of ours to Allison today, and he grew quite enthusiastic—hinted openly for an invitation, in fact. You will not mind if he comes in his runabout, will you? He says Armstrong's car will carry only seven comfortably, and he might help out by taking one of us along."

I looked straight into Jim's eyes. "I shall ride on the front seat of Mr. Armstrong's car," I said meaningly. We had intended to make an early start, but it was after lunchtime when the big red auto, followed by the white runabout, rolled down the beautiful lake shore drive, leaving the deafening noise of shot and shell far behind.

"We will not stop at any of the picnic places," Mollie said. "We will ride on until we come to some pretty isolated spot."

But this time Mollie "reckoned without her automobile," for the car stopped suddenly of its own accord just in sight of one of the despised picnic places, and we were all unloaded unceremoniously, while Mr. Armstrong dived under the machine, to reappear presently flushed and disheveled.

"Can I help you?" Allison called, but to me it sounded like a half hearted offer, and I was not surprised at Mr. Armstrong's curt refusal.

"All right," Allison responded. "We will ride up the road in search of an ideal resting place. Let you know when we find it."

Mr. Armstrong threw off his coat and went to work with a will, Jim acting as assistant. Why is it that the nicest men turn savage when a spark plug or some other queer thing about an automobile goes wrong?

"Do you think you can mend it?" I asked sweetly, and this man, who a short time since would have done anything to gain my favor, now glared at me.

"When I can locate the trouble I will answer you," he said, so I turned to Jack. "While he is thinking it over," I suggested, "you might take me for a walk down the beach." And as we strolled along Mollie and Dot went back to sit in the shade of the trees. Jack helped me into a deserted rowboat which lay on the sands and seated himself before me.

"This is good, to be alone with you, Nan," he was beginning when a man who had passed us retraced his steps.

"Jack Meads!" he cried, ignoring my presence. "What luck! The boys from the office are out here today, and we are trying to make up a baseball nine. All we lack is a good pitcher, and we know your fame in that line. It's going to be a short game. Come on over and join us."

Jack looked fieldward, and his eyes shone. "You wouldn't mind, would you, Nan?" he asked eagerly.

"Certainly; I do not mind," I answered effusively, "but I prefer not to walk over to the field."

He hurried away without one backward glance. It was another humiliating moment. Following an idle impulse, I lifted the solitary oar which lay in the boat and poled myself out into the water. Perhaps when Allison came back he might see me. He used strongly to object if I ventured to row alone. I must have drifted out pretty far, for the automobile looked like a speck in the road, while the baseball field was just a green blur. With a splash my one oar slipped from my grasp and quickly floated just beyond reach. It would have been useless to call for assistance, for no one appeared upon the beach. I was really becoming frightened when a canoe came gliding toward me. Its occupant stood up and waved his arms wildly.

"Aunt Nan!" he cried. "Aunt Nan!" It was Bobbie. I could scarcely believe my eyes.

"Save me, Aunt Nan!" he entreated. "I never thought when I climbed into the canoe that it would float away."

There was a soft thud as the boats came alongside. I had a confused vision of my nephew's white face and outreaching arms, and then we were both struggling in the water. Blindly I caught at the upturned boat as Bobbie clung to me in desperation. And surely it was hours afterward that some one snatched him roughly from my grasp; then two strong arms also lifted me to safety. I don't know just what I had been expecting, but it was rather disappointing to see a weather beaten face looking anxiously into my own, while a gruff voice muttered something about "lunatics sailin' about in boats without no oars." And when our rescuer's boat reached the shore there stood Jim and Mollie, who regarded my wet and shrinking self with stern, accusing gaze. Jim carried his whimpering son back to the shelter of the trees, while Mollie lingered only long enough to say:

"If you did not care about risking your own life, Nan, you might at least have left Bobbie safe on land."

I stood still in bewilderment. Then a prolonged wail in Dot's shrill treble attracted my attention, and I hastened in its direction.

"Oh, Aunt Nan," she gurgled, "you do look so funny! Your hair is all sleek, like the seal's at the zoo."

The thought of my own ridiculous appearance had not occurred to me. Now I looked fearfully down the road to where the stalled auto could still be seen.

"Dot," I faltered, "where's Mr. Armstrong?"

My young niece divined by anxiety. "Don't you worry," she said. "He is hammering away under his car."

"And Allison, Dot—where is he?"

"He won't see you," she answered comfortingly. "He is back in the woods getting flowers for Aunt Nell." Then Dottie turned to her own grievances. "Daddie kindled a fire to make some coffee," she confided, "and when they went away I put some corn in to cook and burned my hand. But it's better now, because I tore the front out of my dress and bandaged it up. This nice thin cloth tears easy," she added, with satisfaction.

Like Dot, I returned to my own troubles. "What shall I do?" I deliberated aloud.

"Go and sit in the sand and get dry," my niece wisely suggested, and I followed her advice. Little lavender streams were trickling from every part of my new frock, and the woman who sold it had assured me that the color would not run. She might have traced me now by the violet drops along the sand. I sank down miserably. How could I go home in this plight?

Nell's ringing laugh aroused me. "Oh, Nan," she cried, "what in the world have you been doing? You look like a purple poster girl."

One horrified glance showed me Allison's tall figure. This was truly the last straw. I buried my face in my wet purple arms and wept. Then Allison turned to Nell.

"Dot is alone," he said. "Had you not better see that she doesn't get into more mischief? And—and, Nan, dear, you may take cold. I will fetch my warm auto coat in a moment and wrap it around you." He did so, very tenderly, and as we sat there long in the sands he said— But what Allison said is not for publication. I am glad that my hair dries out all fluffy and curly.

When Mr. Armstrong finally got the machine in order every one was either too badly damaged or too dispirited to go on farther, so we gathered about to have an early supper and then leave for home.

We reached our home at twilight, and as my brother deposited the sleeping, sooty Dot upon a couch Mollie turned on the lights.

"This has been a great Fourth!" Jim exclaimed in disgust.

"Hasn't it?" Allison answered absently. "Just about the greatest Fourth that I have ever known." Then Mollie sank into a chair, overcome by helpless laughter.

"Oh, Allison," she cried, "if you could only see your purple face!"

Princess Victoria Louise, the Kaiser's Only Daughter.

Princess Victoria Louise, only daughter of the German emperor, is very popular. She has six brothers, all of whom are older. Being the youngest of the family and the only girl, she has always been the pet of her parents and brothers. She is also a great favorite with the German people, her sweet disposition and gentle ways having endeared her to all with whom she comes in contact.

Dog Smugglers.

Previous to the year 1795 in the Netherlands dogs were employed in smuggling, which was the more easy as they are exceedingly docile. The dogs were trained to go forward and backward between two places on the frontier without any person to attend them. Being loaded with little parcels of goods, lace, etc., like mules, they set out at midnight and only went when it was perfectly dark. An excellent, quick scented dog always went some paces before the others, stretched out his nose toward all quarters and when he scented custom house officers turned back, which was the signal for immediate flight. Concealed behind bushes or in ditches, the dogs waited till all was safe, then proceeded on their journey and reached at last beyond the frontier the dwelling house of the receiver of the goods, who was in the secret. But here also the leading dog only at first showed himself. At a certain whistle, which was a signal that all was right, they hastened up. They were then unloaded, taken to a convenient stable, where there was a good layer of hay, and well fed. There they rested until midnight and then returned in the same manner over the frontier.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Game of Spillikens.

Collect a number of straws, stand them up so as to meet at the top and spread out at the bottom like a tent or haystack. Get nice little sticks and make a hook at the end with a crooked pin or else find little hooked sticks. Each player takes a hook in turn and tries to remove a straw without shaking or throwing down any of the others. The one who succeeds in removing a straw under these difficult conditions counts one. She who gets most straws wins the game.

Sometimes two or three straws are marked and called king, queen and bishop. The king, safely removed, counts four, the queen three and the bishop two. The straws thus named should be larger than the others or have a tiny flower stuck in their hollow tubes to distinguish them from the plain spillikens.

Hide the Thimble.

In this game the company generally divides in two parts, half being players, while the rest do the work of guessing. A thimble is then produced by one of the party or something equally small that may easily be held in the hand. Seated by the side of the table, the players begin passing the article from hand to hand. When the work has been done sufficiently the closed hands are all placed on the table for those on the opposite side to guess in turn whose hand holds the thimble. As soon as the right guess is made the opposite side takes its turn.

Who is Your Customer?

HAVE you ever met your real customer? Have your salesmen a speaking acquaintance with him? Have you told him about the merits of your product? Have you explained why he should give your goods the preference? Have you done anything to stimulate his desire for your goods?

In short, have you made any attempt whatever to sell your goods to him?

"Most assuredly," you say. "Every dealer in Canada is known to our travelers, and we certainly wouldn't pay a salesman who couldn't tell our customers all——"

One minute, please. The dealer isn't your customer. He's simply a part of your sales organization, and a decidedly independent part of it at that. He is distributor for other concerns in whose goods he is just as much interested as he is in yours. And he isn't particularly interested in your product, any more than in your competitors'.

The dealer realizes that he can serve six who order their goods by a well-known trade name as quickly as he can serve one to whom he has to demonstrate that a product is good.

Your real customer is the Public—the Public who wears your clothing, eats your pickles, uses your safety razor. You've got to sell your goods to the Public.

When the user wants your goods and won't take any other—then you are independent of all but him, your real customer.

To make the user want your goods, you must do two things:

(1) Produce an article of value.

(2) Tell him what you make, and why he should prefer it.

That's advertising.

When are the makers of piano actions, for example, going to discover that they do not know their real customers; and, what is worse, that their real customers do not know them? So the public have to buy pianos in blind ignorance of the quality of the most important mechanical part of the piano.

What is it going to be worth to the piano-action maker who first discovers that his real customer is the Public, and not the piano manufacturer who incorporates the action into the complete instrument?

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or through the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Bldg., Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT

A family medicine cabinet that does not contain NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT is about as complete as a watch without a main spring, and worthy of no more confidence. NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT is true—"first aid"—to the injured. There is nothing better for sprains, bruises, cuts, wounds, etc.

There is no liniment we can recommend with more certainty of giving satisfaction. It will relieve pain, reduce swellings, and we know of no better liniment for the treatment of neuralgic and rheumatic pains and swellings, or the stiffening of the joints and muscles.

THE LATE GENERAL WAS THE TRUE WORKER FOR THE MASTER

Lieut. Col. Rees Compares the Dead Leaders Life to St. Paul's Picture of What an Evangelist Should be—No Crape to be Used as Mourning.

Lieutenant-Colonel Dees, head of the social work of the Salvation Army in Canada, conducted the services in the Army's Hall last night, speaking to a crowd that taxed the capacity of the capacious building. The Colonel read the fourth chapter of the second Epistle to Timothy and applied it to the life of the late General Booth, showing that the dead leader in every way represented everything that St. Paul held should distinguish one who labors in the Master's vineyard.

The General preached the word, in season or out of season; wherever he was, in the palace or the hovel, in the chapel or on the street, he never forgot his mission or neglected his chosen work. While he felt for the weak and erring he never failed to rebuke sin. He exhorted with all long suffering and doctrine. He endured the affliction which always fall to the lot of the evangelist, but he made full proof of his ministry. When the time came for the General to lay down life's burden he could truthfully say:

"I am now ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand.

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

"Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only but unto all them also that love His appearing."

The local officers of the Army received a message from Toronto this morning, stating that no definite information has yet been received as to the funeral arrangements or the holding of a general memorial service. It is thought, however, that the obsequies will be delayed as long as possible to give officers in all parts of the world a chance to reach London in time for the final ceremony. Several Canadian officers will leave at once for England.

It is also thought that the new leader of the Army will order that memorial services be held throughout the world at the same hour. There will be no sable emblems of mourning. All the places of meeting and the offices of the Army will be draped in white. The organization looks on the brighter side of the end of life, regarding it as the entry into a better world.

Lieut.-Col. Dees left for Toronto this morning.

Brigadier and Mrs. C. A. Taylor, of Toronto, will conduct the Salvation Army services in Peterborough Saturday night and Sunday. The brigadier who is principal of the Army's College in Toronto, will on Saturday night give an address on the training college and the work that is being done there.

VETERANS WILL HOLD BIG REUNION IN HAMILTON

Peterboro Ex Members of the Famous Thirteenth Invited to Help Celebrate that Regiment's Semi-Centennial

Residents of Peterborough, those who are ex-members of the famous Thirteenth Royal Regiment of Hamilton, and all others interested, are cordially invited to attend the celebration, September 13, 14 and 15, of the semi-centennial anniversary of the date on which it was gazetted and plans are now going forward for a re-union that promises to make the three dates mentioned memorable ones. The program will be a decidedly brilliant one. While the regiment was gazetted on December 11, 1862, the dates of the celebration have been fixed for mid-September as the weather at the time is usually very enjoyable.

In the fifty years of its life over 12,000 men have passed through the ranks of the regiment and those who have left are scattered throughout Canada and the United States. Col. Sir J. M. Gibson, lieutenant-governor of the province of Ontario, is an ex-commander of the regiment, and was for a number of years one of Canada's reliable men on the old Wimbledon and Bisley teams. Staff-Sergt. T. H. Hayhurst is another famous shot of the regiment. He holds the Queen's prize. The Thirteenth Royal was always strong on shooting and its third commander, Colonel Skinner, was the man who collected the funds for and organized the first Wimbleton team.

The executive in charge of the affair has to rely on publicity to get into touch with ex-members of the regiment, all of whom will be personally invited to the celebration after they register their names and dates of service at Nordheimer's music store, 18 West King street, Hamilton.

The celebration will be well worth while attending. On Friday, September 13, a number of rifle matches will be held and in the evening a brilliant smoking concert will be held. Saturday, 14, will be a big day. A huge picnic will be held at which all members and ex-members of the regiment will make merry at all kinds of games, amusements and entertainments. On Sunday graves of old comrades will be decorated and an open air service will be held.

Those who were once members of the regiment can obtain any information they desire regarding railway rates, etc., when they send in their names for registration. A crowd of over 5,000 is expected and everyone who comes will find a crowd of his old friends.

IS AFTER THE COLLECTOR NOW

Contractor Downer Must Have Covered Receptacles for Garbage

Sanitary Inspector Spence has issued his ultimatum to Contractor Downer, the garbage collector, and insists that the latter must comply with the provisions of the by-law. He has given Mr. Downer seven days in which to provide proper receptacles for the removal of the garbage. It is not sufficient to place a piece of cloth over the barrels a tight cover must be used.

There have been a good many complaints made recently by citizens with regard to the collection receptacles and the offensive odours that are diffused by the garbage wagons as they pass through the streets. Residents when required to secure proper receptacles have been in the habit of reminding the inspector that the city authorities were not themselves complying with the law which they had adopted. Hence Mr. Spence's ultimatum to the collector. If the latter does not comply within the time specified his case will be reported to the Property Committee.

The inspector's official pathway is rocky. Some people seem to regard him as their natural enemy no matter with what diplomacy he approaches them. The pig owner is one of his chief troubles, because he goes from house to house in certain sections of the city and collects garbage with which to feed his stock. Only the best of it is taken and that not suitable for the purpose is scattered promiscuously upon the ground.

Fruit dealers, too, complain that children upset their garbage receptacle in search of fruit that has not been entirely ruined.

Sheriff John McLennan and Mrs. McLennan celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding at their home on Bond street, Lindsay, Wednesday, August 21st, 1912, with all their children and grandchildren with them. These are: Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McLennan, of Toronto, and their children, Ward and Elizabeth; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McLennan, of Lindsay, and their children, James and Helen; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McLennan of Lindsay, and their children, Helen, Hugh and William; Mr. and Mrs. D. S. McLennan, of Lindsay, and their children, Scott and Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Horn of Lindsay, and Mr. Kenneth R. McLennan of Montreal.

Among others present were, Rev. J. W. McIntosh, of Kingston, a nephew of Mrs. McLennan and Mrs. McIntosh; also the Rev. Dr. Robert Johnston, of Montreal and Mrs. Johnston.

During the day, the youngest grandchild, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McLennan, was christened by Dr. Johnston.

In the afternoon, Sheriff and Mrs. McLennan were at home to their many friends in Lindsay.

Sheriff and Mrs. McLennan, who for years have been residents of fair Lindsay, where they are held in the highest esteem, are also widely known throughout the Dominion and elsewhere, and numerous messages of good will were received from friends and relatives in various parts of the world. Both are natives of the County of Glengarry, Mrs. McLennan's maiden name being Helen Scott. They were wedded on the 21st August 1862, at Martintown, by Rev. James Mair.

WEDDING BELLS

DRAPER—REVOY

A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Revoy, 292 Woodbine Ave. on Wednesday, at 4 p.m., when their daughter, Lillian May, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Mr. James Wellington Draper of Cobalt, the Rev. Mr. Fee being the officiating minister. The bride, who looked charming and was becomingly attired in a gown of cream silk marine with all over lace and silk fringe and buttons to match, and carried a bouquet of bridal roses was given away by her father while the strains of the wedding march was being played on the piano by Miss L. Miller. Mr. Fred Revoy, brother of the bride, acted in the capacity of groomsman, while Miss Annie Revoy, sister of the bride, who was attired in a dress of French delaine and cream lace, and carrying a bouquet of orchids and moss roses, performed a similar duty for the bride. Little Miss Mildred Revoy, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl. A sumptuous dejeuner was then partaken of.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of useful and pretty presents, testifying to the high esteem in which she is held by her numerous friends.

The groom's gift to the bride consisted of a pearl necklace, to the bridesmaid a gold bracelet and to the groomsman a pearl stick pin.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper left on the midnight train, the bride's going-away costume, consisting of grey travelling suit with hat to match.

After a honeymoon spent in Ottawa and points in Quebec, they will leave for their future home in North Cobalt.

PERRY—GIBBS

At All Saints' church, on August 20, the marriage was quietly solemnised, of Mary Ethel, only daughter of the late Thos. G. and Mrs. Gibbs to Rev. T. H. Perry, M.A., Rector of St. Matthias' Church, Halifax, N.S. The marriage was conducted by Rev. R. J. W. Perry, brother of the groom. The bride's gown was of ivory duchess satin, trimmed with rose point lace and pearls. Her long wedding veil was arranged in cap effect and trimmed with lilies-of-the valley. Her only ornament was the gift of the groom, a gold bar, set with amethysts and pearls. She carried a sheaf of white roses tied with duchess satin. The bridesmaid, Miss Jean Campbell, of Mitchell, wore pale blue marquisette over pale blue satin, her pale blue Juliette cap being trimmed with small pink roses. The groom was attended by Mr. A. Hobson of Hamilton. During the signing of the register, Miss L. Staples of Cobourg, cousin of the bride, sang "O Perfect Love." The organist of All Saints Church, Mr. McClennan, played the wedding march.

THEATRICAL

Brewster's Millions

The dramatised story of "Brewster's Millions," George Barr McCutcheon's most celebrated success is an ideal blending of keen humor and delicate situations. The famous production as played at the Grand last evening provided nearly three hours of solid enjoyment to a large and decidedly appreciative audience. The management negotiated a most acceptable engagement by booking as an opening attraction the strong and well balanced company who appeared last night.

The dramatization of the popular novel is the work of Winchell Smith and Byron Ongley. The difficult and exceedingly versatile character of "Monty" was ably depicted by Mr. Clyde Bates, who scored distinctly. He was supported by a large and very capable company.

In order to thoroughly appreciate the stage presentation of the story of "Monty" and his frenzied financial operations, it is necessary to peruse the famous book. The seemingly impossible undertaking of expending one million dollars in order to fulfil the conditions of a will entitling him to an inheritance of seven millions, presented a task before which "Monty" could easily have been pardoned for quailing. The knowledge, however, that by accepting, he would be gratifying his uncle who bequeathed the legacy, and with the conviction that he would be pleasing his dead mother, "Monty" heroically sets out to comply with the almost unheard herculean conditions contained in the will.

One continuous, hilarious and highly improbable round of revelry commences from the moment Brewster takes up the challenge. Laughs follow on the heels of each other every minue.

"Monty" Brewster commences the task of squandering one million dollars in one year, in a most business-like manner by employing a staff of assistants, who, however, in accordance with the will, must remain in ignorance of his intentions.

He buys a taxi, or rather "some taxis"; he sends his office boy on errands, only ordering him to go by taxi; he dictates expensive telegrams in place of letters, bestows lavish gifts upon his stenographers and in scores of ways endeavors to legally rid himself of his superabundant riches. He places money on a horse whose chances of winning looked nil.

Unfortunately, the horse won, and Monty records the win as a liability. Side-splitting situations as humorous as they are impossible chase each other throughout the production, and through it all "Monty Brewster" is the figure around whom all the eccentric movements centre.

A delicate touch of pathos is introduced by the love of "Peggy" Gray for the young spendthrift, who pleads with him to drop his extravagances. As "Monty" is in a position under oath not to reveal his reasons, some touching scenes follow. Eventually, however, Monty rids himself of his entire fortune, and everything in his apartment is tagged with the auctioneer's cards of "sold."

The yacht scene and the storm in the third act were two of the cleverest realistic reproductions possible to obtain.

NO MORE HALF HOLIDAYS

This afternoon is the last of the summer that will be observed by the stores as a Thursday half-holiday. For some unknown reason the weather man has not smiled his approval on these appreciated business lulls and has handed out unpleasant atmospherical conditions. In fact every Thursday afternoon this summer since the holiday has been in force, has been marred by rain and cool disagreeable weather. Notwithstanding this, the clerks and other employes have greatly appreciated the afternoon off.

Owing to next Thursday being so close to Labor Day, there will be no half-holiday. The closeness of the Fall millinery season is also another reason.

BOUQUETS FOR THE WHITE CAPS

St. Thomas Paper Praises Some of Our Players

St. Thomas Times—The Petes worked in a pair of pretty double plays. The tail-enders play like champions.

The two ex-Londonners, Brant and Nichols, are playing nice ball for the Petes. Nichols is a little week in his stick work.

One can't help but admire the work of Trout, the Pete's catcher. He has caught nearly every game this season, and besides being a good backstop, is a .303 batter. There's not many can beat Trout.

TWO GAMES WITH GUELPH

Guelph will clash with the winning White Caps at Riverside Park tomorrow afternoon and on Saturday. An interesting effort will be witnessed on the part of Manager Rowan's men to depose the team just ahead of them from their position.

Next week the league leaders of Ottawa, will play here, commencing Wednesday and playing here the balance of the week.

Monday and Tuesday of next week Peterborough plays in London.

GETTING READY FOR FOOTBALL

Rugby has secured an early grip on Toronto. Several clubs have been doing grid-iron work of late, and the Parkdale Club, which Hugh Gall will manage this year, held a mammoth meeting on Tuesday night. Parkdale will play junior and senior O.R.F.U. this year.

Many a man is unable to climb up because he is on the level.

It is practice rather than theory that makes a satisfactory lover.

ALL ABOARD FOR CHEMONG PARK

Busses and Autos Carried Large Crowds to the Regatta This Afternoon

Large crowds left this afternoon for Chemong where the annual regatta sports are being held. Judging from the number of people who crowded the busses the aquatic events have taken strong hold on the Peterborough people. The Carey-Moher, Fulkinghorn and Gibbs had all their busses running at frequent intervals to and from the Park and did a thriving business.

One of the pleasing features of this regatta is that the high, grassy banks along the water provide an excellent view point from which the spectators can see to advantage all that takes place below on the water.

The large floats at the yacht club house can also accommodate a great number.

The two immense war canoes, St. Paul's and the "Y" were taken out this morning and this event is bound to create lively interest for the crowds. Most of the spectators will remain for the dance this evening which commences at eight o'clock.

Refreshment booths have been put up around the Park by Mr. Davis, manager of the hotel, who is doing everything in his power to ensure the visitors a good time.

PETERBORO MAN BADLY INJURED

Local Barber Struck by Train in Toronto Railway Yard

George Irwin, of Peterboro' was found in the railway yards west of the Bay st. crossing, in Toronto yesterday evening lying in an almost unconscious condition as the result of being struck by a train. He was removed to Grace Hospital, in the police ambulance, where it was found that he was severely cut about the head, and his right leg was broken. His right thumb was also so badly crushed that it will be necessary to amputate it.

The manner in which Irwin was injured is a mystery. The man refuses to give any account of the accident, and no railway officer appears to know anything about it. The only statement that Irwin will make is that he left Peterborough yesterday afternoon. He refuses to say why he was in the yards. He was discovered by a trainman on the Grand Trunk Montreal Express, No. 7. At that time he was lying close beside the track, and the train was stopped and he was carried into the station. Policeman Holmes (100) was notified, and he accompanied the man to the hospital.

The injured man is a well known barber in this city.

Little Pupils Picnic

A very pleasant afternoon was spent by the primary department of St. John's Sunday School on the grounds of the church. There were many of the little folks out and they enjoyed themselves very much with their teachers. Ice cream and cakes were served and games were played. The party broke up about 4 o'clock after spending an enjoyable time.

PARALYSIS COMPLETELY CURED

"Fruit-a-tives" Performs Another Miracle

Bathurst, N. B., July 25th. 1911

"I had a stroke of Paralysis in March 1910, and this left me unable to walk or help myself, and the Constipation of the Bowels was terrible.

Nothing did me any good and I was wretched in every way.

I then took "Fruit-a-tives" for the Constipation and it not only cured me of this terrible trouble, but gradually this fruit medicine toned up the nerves and actually cured the Paralysis.

By the use of "Fruit-a-tives", I grew stronger and stronger until all the Paralysis and weakness left me.

I am now well again and attend my store every day. I say "Thank God for Fruit-a-tives"

ALVA PHILLIPS.

"Fruit-a-tives" not only cured the terrible Constipation, but so toned up the nervous system and the general health as to completely overcome the palsy.

Truly "Fruit-a-tives" is a wonderful medicine.

SIGNALS TO THE PITCHER.

Catcher Robinson Kept His Secret For Twenty Years.

There was one catcher who worked a long time before any one caught his signals. That was Wilbur Robinson. He backstopped twenty years without ever having an opposing player discover what he was signaling for.

One day St. Louis was playing Baltimore. Robinson was catching for the Orioles. Harry Kane, a St. Louis pitcher, was lying on the bench while his team was at bat. Kane suddenly sat up. He said he could see Robinson's signs. Joe Sugden was with St. Louis. Sugden crawled over to where Kane had been. He could plainly see Robinson's signs. He interpreted the system in a few moments and put the St. Louis coacher wise.

Sugden, lying on the bench, used a program for a fan. When Robinson signaled for a fast ball Sugden waved the program and the man on the coaching line yelled, "Come on!" to the batter. Any time Robinson asked for a curve Sugden lowered the fan and the coacher yelled "Nail it!" to the batter.

Robinson knew they were getting the signs, but he could not guess how. And the funny part of it was that St. Louis after getting Robinson's signs after every other club he played against had failed to get them was beaten by Baltimore.

THREE FEATHERS.

That in One's Cap, the White One and Job's Turkey's Tail.

"A feather in one's cap" is derived from Scotland. Among the woodcraft enthusiasts it was the custom for the individual first to kill a woodcock to pluck out a feather and place it in his cap. Oliver Cromwell conferred dignity upon this expression when, on his refusal of the English crown, he observed, "Royalty is but a feather in a man's cap; let children enjoy their rattle."

A thoroughbred gamecock shows only red and black feathers, and a cross breed is known by a white feather in its tail. Hence "to show the white feather" conveys a strong notion of cowardice, from one point of view at least.

One may search the Scriptures in vain for any allusion to Job's turkey. The expression "as poor as Job's turkey" had its origin in the brain of a humorist, Sam Slick. He described this bird as being possessed of but one feather in its tail and as of so feeble a constitution that it was only by leaning against a fence that it was enabled to gobble.—Exchange.

MILLET'S RIOT IN COLORS.

The Artist Enraged the Critics, but Forced Recognition.

In his early years as an artist the late Frank D. Millet had a hard struggle to gain recognition. He sent pictures to exhibitions, to be sure, and good pictures they were, but no one paid any particular attention to them or said anything about them.

One day Millet conceived an idea. He painted a picture of a lady in black sitting on a bright red sofa, standing against a vivid yellow background. The effect was just a trifle startling. Friends who saw it in the process of production expostulated with him and asked him what he was going to do with it. They were astounded when he announced that he was going to send it to the exhibition. They told him the critics would "wipe the floor" with him. "They can't do that without mentioning me," said Millet quietly, "and they've never even done that, as yet."

To the exhibition the picture went. It killed everything within twenty feet on either side of it. You couldn't help looking at it. It simply knocked you down and held you there.

The critics got into a towering passion over it. They wrote whole columns about it. They exhausted the English language in abusing it. They ridiculed the committee that permitted it to be hung. They had squibs and gibes about it, but every time they spoke of it they mentioned Frank Millet. He suddenly became the best known artist in town. Somebody, because of the stir it had made, bought the picture at a good price and removed it to the seclusion of his own home.

When the next exhibition came off Millet had another picture ready, one of a very different sort and very good, but no better than others which he had exhibited before. The critics had much to say about it and "noted with pleasure the marked improvement" that Mr. Millet had made, "an evidence," as they modestly put it, "of the value of criticism, even though severe, to a young artist." And the majority of them never realized that Millet had simply compelled their attention by a clever trick.

TUNIS DIVORCE COURT.

An Oriental Scene That Smacks of "The Arabian Nights."

The next time you happen to be in Tunis don't fail to pay a visit to the divorce court. It is the most Harounal-Raschidic institution this side of Samarkand. A great hall of justice, vaulted and floored with marble and strewn with eastern carpets, forms the setting, while husbands in turbans and lawyers in tarbooshes, white veiled women and green robed, gray bearded judges complete a scene which might have been taken straight from "The Arabian Nights."

The women, closely veiled and hooded and herded like so many cattle within an iron grill, take no part in the proceedings which so intimately affect their futures, their interests being left in the hands of a voluble and gesticulative avocat. In each of the four sides of the great hall is an alcove, and in each alcove, seated cross legged on a many cushioned divan, is a green robed, gold turbaned cadi. To him the husband states his case, the wife, through her avocat, putting in her defense—if she has any.

The judge considers the facts in silence, gravely stroking his long gray beard the while, and then delivers his decision—in nine cases out of ten, so I was told, in favor of the husband. Should either party be dissatisfied with the finding he or she can take an appeal by the simple process of walking across the hall and laying their case before one of the other judges, whose decision is final.

A case, even if appealed, is generally disposed of well under an hour and at a total cost of $1.20.—Metropolitan Magazine.

Too Hasty.

A traveling theatrical company was starting to parade in a small New England town when a big gander from a farmyard near at hand waddled to the middle of the street and began to hiss.

One of the double-in-brass actors turned toward the fowl and angrily exclaimed:

"Don't be so quick to jump at conclusions. Wait till you see the show."—Lippincott's.

Didn't Like the Reference.

Tramp—You know the sayin', mum, "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord." Mrs. Subbubs—Very true. And since you speak in proverbs I'll refer you to another old saw. Tramp—Which one is dat, mum? Mrs. S.—The one back in the woodshed.—Boston Transcript.

A Tight Fit.

"How do you like the rooms in your new flat?" asked Bill Brown.

"Pretty fair," answered Jim Jones.

"What do you mean by pretty fair?"

"Well, they're a little tight across the shoulders, but otherwise seem to be a good fit."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Irony of Fate.

"Did your husband have luck on his shooting trip?"

"The very worst. He accidentally shot the friend who was going to take us on an automobile tour and missed the man to whom he owed a lot of money."—Baltimore American.

The funeral took place from the home of his mother in Omemee at 2.30 p.m., and interment took place at Emily cemetery. The Rev. Mr. Moore of Toronto, conducted the services, and at the home spoke in high terms of praise of the departed, deducting from his noble character words of comfort for the bereaved widow and the mother. The pall-bearers were his boyhood companions of his early home at Orange Corners, and his brother-in-law, Mr. D. Belch. A large concourse of friends, many from a distance, assembled to pay their last respects to one who was universally admired and loved. The floral offerings were very beautiful. Besides a sorrowing wife and two sweet children, a son 6 years old and a daughter 4 years old, there are left to mourn his early death, his widowed mother and two sisters—Mrs. Walter Boyd of the Northwest, and Mrs. D Belch of Omemee. The deceased was 39 years of age, a member of St. George's Anglican church, Toronto, a member of the Orange Order and of the Chosen Friends. NO ACTION TO BE TAKEN UNTIL PREMIER BORDEN RETURNS

Cabinet Will Not Act in the Matter of the C.P.R.'s Application for Permission to Increase Capital Stock Protests Against Increase Coming in From the West.

Ottawa, Aug. 23.—While the lips of members of the Government here are sealed as to the probable attitude which the Cabinet will take towards the application of the C.P.R. for an increase in its authorized capital, it is learned that strong protests against the proposal are being received daily at the acting Premier's office from influential western parties.

Nothing can or will be done in any case until Mr. Borden's return, although it is understood that the principle of the matter will be discussed at to-day's meeting of the Treasury Board, when the Royal-Traders Bank merger will be up for consideration. The general feeling in official circles here is that the C.P.R.'s application will not be granted without a careful investigation on the part of the Government in the merits and demerits of the demand.

When Premier Borden and his colleagues return to Ottawa they will place before the Cabinet Council a scheme for the creation of under secretaries to Canadian Cabinet Ministers, similar to that which obtains in England. Sir Joseph Pope of the external affairs department, who is now in England, has been making a thorough study of the workings of the system there and his report will be placed in the hands of the Cabinet on his return.

This matter has been under consideration by the Government for some time past. At present a Minister of the crown has to attend to an enormous amount of detail. In England an Under Secretary, who is also a member of Parliament, gets no salary. He is not a member of the Cabinet, although he goes out of office with his Government. He is, as it were, an understudy for the Minister and attends to the lesser details of the department; details that otherwise the Minister would have to attend to. Being a member of Parliament he carries more weight than a private secretary, and when a Cabinet vacancy occurs the under-secretary, by virtue of training and experience, has the best claim thereto, although there is nothing obligatory about his appointment.

A solicitor-general is the nearest which Canada has to an under-secretary. In the Thompson Ministry of 1894 a start was made in this direction; a controller of inland revenue and a controller of customs not in the Cabinet were appointed, but during the Bowell administration, which followed, these men were called to the Cabinet and their positions left in abeyance.

With the tremendous and rapid growth of the country, however, the work of Cabinet Ministers has increased so rapidly that it is now well nigh impossible for a Minister to attend to the lesser work of his portfolio.

At least, in the case of four or five of the more important and busier departments, the creation of under-secretaries would in many ways facilitate the work of Parliament and it would train good men to step into Cabinet positions in case of vacancy.

MAY IMPEACH THE STRONG MAN

Yuan is Suspected by the Chinese National Assembly.

Pekin, Aug. 23.—A force of 2,000 Mongolian troops has occupied the city of Taonan, Manchuria, and has begun looting the houses and stores, according to a Chinese report received here. The Mongolians are said to be commanded by a lieutenant of the Kutuktu or Shah of Mongolia.

A detachment of Chinese troops from Mukden, with a number of Maxim guns attacked them during the night of August 20 and fighting was still proceeding on the 21st. The result has not yet been ascertained.

Many other bands of roving Mongolians are also actively raiding the surrounding country.

The impeachment of President Yuan Shi Kai of the Chinese Cabinet is still under discussion in the Chinese National Assembly. The members are, however, inclined to await the arrival here of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, ex-provisional President, from Tien Tsin. He arrived there last night from Shanghai and is to proceed immediately.

The loan question is still far from settlement. A group of independent capitalists proposed to advance $14,000,000 as a preliminary to the subsequent entire financing of China for five or ten years. Their operations were intended to be conducted by a bank worked on the same principle as the Ottoman Bank. This, it was proposed, should receive all revenue.

The Cabinet rejected the offer considering the terms proposed worse than those of the six-power group. A modified scheme is probable.

LOANS HIS MANIA

Brockville Farmer Arrested for Passing a Forged Check.

Brockville, Aug. 23.—Frederick Anglin, the McIntosh Mills farmer who is awaiting sentence on a charge of passing a forged check for $150 on the teller of the Northern Crown Bank, appears to have had a mania for fraudulent dealings in banking circles. Judging from developments since his arrest, it transpires that in July he negotiated a loan for $127 at the Metropolitan Bank, and two weeks later obtained $150 at the Bank of Montreal, using the name of Bernard Flood on the promissory notes in both instances. Flood is a leading farmer of the section where Anglin resides. About the same time it is also said he obtained a pair of boots from a local merchant on false pretence.

Anglin was committed for trial in the police court on these three additional charges. The prisoner is being examined as to his sanity.

Negotiations Are Off.

Port Arthur, Ont., Aug. 23.—Another attempt to patch up the difficulties between the striking truckers of the Canadian Northern Railway and the company was made yesterday afternoon, and failed.

The men refused the offer of the company, and it is now said that all negotiations are off.

Farmer Hangs Himself.

Bright, Aug. 23.—Edward Hall, a well-to-do farmer, about 55 years of age, who lived on the 10th concession of Blenheim, two miles east of Bright, took his life by hanging Wednesday morning in his barn. The reason of his act is unknown.

STANDARD OIL MONEY WAS USED TO ELECT ROOSEVELT

Senator Penrose Says That $100,000 of the "Tainted" Figured in the Presidential Election of 1908 and That Roosevelt Knew of it at the Time.

Washington, Aug. 23.—John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil Co. will appear to-day before the sub-committee of the Senate investigating campaign contributions. The announcement that he would appear followed a day of bitter political recrimination on the floor of the Senate, devoted to an effort to show that former President Roosevelt knew that funds contributed by big corporations were used to help elect him in 1904.

The attack on former President Roosevelt, yesterday originated in a colloquy between Senator Reed of Missouri, Democrat, and Senator Bois Penrose of Pennsylvania, who presented an investigation of the circumstances set forth in his statement to the Senate on Wednesday in which he charged that $100,000 of Standard Oil money went into the 1904 Roosevelt campaign fund with President Roosevelt's knowledge. Senators Penrose, Reed and Williams each attacked Col. Roosevelt and Senator Poindexter of Washington came to Roosevel's defence.

Senator Poindexter charged that a combination of "regular Republicans and Democrats was at work to defame Col. Roosevelt."

The debate between Senators Reed and Penrose was marked by the readiness with which the latter replied to Senator Reed's questions. Early in the afternoon the two Senators, with Senator Smith of Maryland, had held a short conference in one of the rooms adjoining the Senate chamber.

Senator Penrose, in answering questions from Senator Reed, declared "that according to his information," Col. Roosevelt knew that $100,000 of Standard Oil money had been received and spent in 1904, before he wrote a letter directing that any Standard Oil contributions be returned. A new element was injected into the political embroglio when Senator Penrose suggested to Senator Reed:

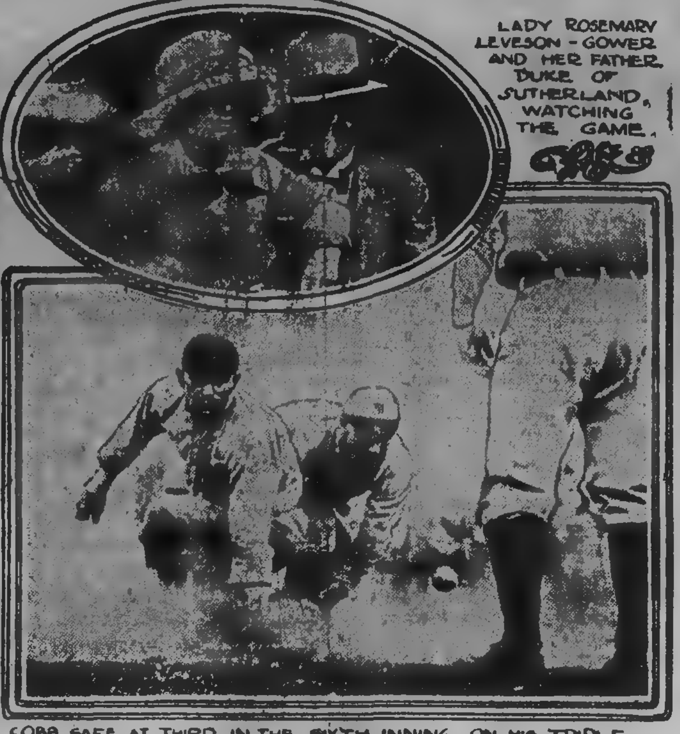
"There has come to my notice quite a lot of information leading to the thought that some three million dollars was underwritten by George W. Perkins and his associates to nominate Mr. Roosevelt for the nomination for the Presidency of the regular Republican party in the present campaign."

Alleged contributions of $100,000 each by the Missouri Pacific and the Southern Pacific Railroads to the Roosevelt campaign fund in 1904 were mentioned by Senators Reed and Penrose, Senator Penrose declaring that President Roosevelt was always in close touch with the national committee managing his campaign.

When the colloquy between Senators Penrose and Reed was concluded, Senator Reed made an extended speech attacking Roosevelt, re-opening the question of the $260,000 collected for the Republican campaign in 1904 by E. H. Harriman.

When he concluded Senator Poindexter took the floor and characterized the day's proceedings as "a combination, an understanding and alliance," between the machine Republicans and the machine Democrats against Progressive principles.

ENGLISH PEER AND DAUGHTER LIKE BASEBALL



LADY ROSEMARY LEVESON-GOWER AND HER FATHER DUKE OF SUTHERLAND, WATCHING THE GAME.

COBB SAFE AT THIRD IN THE SIXTH INNING ON HIS TRIPLE.

The baseball game between the Yankees and the Detroit club at New York was observed and closely followed by the Duke and Duchess of Sutherland, accompanied by their daughter, Lady Rosemary Gower. Perking up in the presence of the nobility, the Yankees defeated the Tigers by the score of 9 to 8.

The Duke was asked for his opinion of the American game, the umpires and "Ty" Cobb afterward. He was most impressed by the melodious voice of "Silk" O'Loughlin. He showed that he appreciated the finer feelings of New York by not pulling a single "Bah Jove!" or "Don't you know!"

DEAD LEADER'S REMAINS LIE IN STATE IN LONDON

Thousands Stand in Pouring Rain to Pay Last Respects to the Late General Booth—No Unseemly Outbursts of Grief and No Trappings of Woe—Flags of Four Nations Displayed.

SPECIAL TO THE REVIEW

London, Aug. 23.—Waiting from before dawn in a cold pelting rain, thousands of people of all classes and both sexes filed before the casket of the late General Booth lying in state at Salvation Army Congress Hall, at Clapton to-day, The only sign of mourning was the reverent demeanor of those who had come to pay their last respects.

Everywhere instead of the usual trappings, Salvation Army Symbols were displayed. The body of the late General lay in a plain oak casket, and was dressed in the well known frock coat, opened to display a red jersey with the words "Blood and Fire" worked on the breast.

Cadets stood at the corners of the bier, holding the flags of Britain, Germany, Japan and United States. The coffin rested under a canopy of gold and white muslin, draped with red and blue.

AMERICAN TROOPS AT MONTREAL

The First Foreign Corps Allowed to Bear Arms in That City.

Montreal, Aug. 23.—The Governor's Foot Guards of New Haven, Conn., who arrived here yesterday, turned the Windsor Hotel into a busy place as they marched into the rotunda at 7 o'clock and stacked their rifles in lines up and down the corridors. They soon discarded their blue uniform worn when traveling and donned the old-fashioned dress uniform of red, similar to those worn under the old colonial regime. They paraded to the City Hall afterwards, being the first foreign corps that has ever been allowed to bear arms in this city.

Marine Enquiry Ends.

St. John, N.B., Aug. 23.—The enquiry into the collision between the Government dredge Fielding and the Boston schooner T. W. Women on a Hunger Strike.

Dublin, Ireland, Aug. 23.—Mary Leigh and Gladys Evans, two suffragettes who were sentenced here on Aug. 7 to five years' imprisonment on charges of wounding. John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Parliamentary party, with a hatchet thrown at Premier Asquith's carriage, and of setting fire to the Theatre Royal, respectively, have started a "hunger strike." They are being forcibly fed by the jail officials.

LIFE CRUSHED OUT

An Unknown Jew Meets a Sudden End in Toronto.

Toronto, Aug. 23.—Caught between a wagon and the wall of the yard of a junk shop at 46 Berkeley street yesterday afternoon, a Jew, whose name is not known yet, had the life crushed out of him, and his body was taken to the morgue.

When searched at the morgue there were two papers found on him, with the names Henry Munder and the other with the name Samuel Hooshrown. Both of the papers were issued in London, England.

At the junk shop the police could not find out how the accident happened, or anything about the man. An inquest will be held.

Brings Big Suit.

Montreal, Aug. 23.—One of the largest actions taken in Montreal courts for years was entered yesterday by J. C. McGreevy against the Montreal Protestant School Commission, involving $1,369,755, the price of the high school property on Peel street which was to have been sold to McGreevy. The action is the first gun on which promises to be a big legal battle over the disputed titles to the high priced land.

TWO ATTEMPTS WERE FAILURES

Italian at Niagara Charged With Attempt to Kidnap Daughter.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 23.—Following an unsuccessful attempt to have his wife returned to Canada by American immigration authorities, Rene Devitis, an electrical engineer of this city, is held by Rochester police charged with attempting to kidnap his nine months' old daughter. Four Rochester Italians are being held as his accomplices, the police saying Devitis paid them $50 each for their part in the affair Several days ago the American court decided that Mrs. Devitis could remain in the States because her husband was an American citizen, she being a native of Canada. Decision was on her husband's application to have her deported on grounds that she was a Canadian. They have had family trouble for some time, friends say.

CAPTAINS AND MATES OF BRITISH BOATS MAY STRIKE

Merchant Vessel Officers Threaten to Starve the Nation if They do Not Get More Pay and Better Terms—C.P.R. Liner Replaces Mate.

London, Aug. 23.—The culminating strike of the series which has crippled the British carrying business during the past two years is threatened by the officers of the mercantile marine.

The movement began yesterday when the newly-formed union of shipmasters and mates tried to prevent the Canadian Pacific liner Mount Royal from sailing. The chief officer had been dismissed and the union demanded his reinstatement. A substitute was obtained by the company, however, and the vessel left port.

The officers are well organized, they are violently discontented, and they propose to put forward before the end of the year what they consider their legitimate demands. Failure to meet these on the part of the shipowners will, they say, be met by a strike "which may starve the nation."

Inadequate salaries is the foremost count in the indictment against the companies. Masters of some of the largest passenger ships are paid no more than $2,000 a year, and most of them have families ashore to maintain. Entire denial of vacations, seven days' work weekly, with long hours, while in port as well as at sea, and the liability to loss of certificate through one error of judgment are some of the hardships being discussed.

Other recent strikes have failed, largely because the strikers were unskilled laborers whose places could be filled. The officers of ships on the other hand are a special class, and a general strike by them would leave the owners almost helpless.

DR. NOBLE IS FREE

Philadelphia Physician Released From Montreal Asylum.

Montreal, Aug. 23.—Dr. Charles Noble, the Philadelphia physician, who has been confined since June 24, in the Verdun Insane Asylum, was granted his release yesterday afternoon by Justice Demers on a writ of habeas corpus.

The judge did not dwell at all on the supposed mental condition of the plaintiff, but gave his judgment in favor of the release of the petitioner on account of a technical error in the committment papers on which Dr. Noble had been confined.

Counsel for the asylum authorities asked for time to have the error corrected, but the judge refused a delay. He stated that Noble, being an American, could, if he were later proved insane, be attended to in the institutions of his own country, and if he were sane he was at liberty to choose his own place of residence.

TWELVE STOREY HOTEL IN TORONTO

New York Capitalists Will Erect Big Hostelry in That City.

Toronto, Aug. 23.—James J. O'Neill, manager and half-owner of the St. Charles Cafe and Hotel, announced yesterday that, with New York people, would erect a twelve-storey hotel on the Bishop Strachan School property, at the corner of College and Teraulay street.

With land and structure, the total cost will run close to three million dollars. The building will contain 600 rooms, besides magnificent dining-rooms and other features, some of them absolutely new, and all everything a truly metropolitan hotel should contain.

There will be no entrance from Yonge street, it probably having been found impossible to secure frontage property of sufficient width. The main doorway will be on College street, a couple of hundred feet west of Yonge street.

THE GANGSTERS ARE ARRAIGNED

New York, Aug. 23.—Lieut. Charles Becker, whom District Attorney Whitman hopes to convict of having instigated the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was arraigned yesterday with four of the six other men named with him in the blanket indictment for first degree murder before Judge Mulqueen in the Court of General Sessions. All but Becker pleaded "not guilty," with leave to withdraw their pleas and make motions on next Tuesday. John F. McIntyre, counsel for Becker, refused to let him plead, and Judge Mulqueen gave until next Tuesday to do so.

GAME THAT COST PLAYER DEARLY

Montreal Italian Lost $105 on Wager With a Waitress.

Montreal, Aug. 23.—Misplaced confidence in his own strength cost Arthur Catzaro $105 last month, a sum which he cannot recover, according to a ruling handed down in the recorder's court yesterday. Mary Sioga, an Amazonian waitress, profits accordingly.

Catzaro entered an east end restaurant July 1 and clenching his hand over a $5 bill offered to wager the waitress who was serving him $5 to $1 she couldn't force open his hand and extract the bill. The waitress promptly accepted the offer and quite as promptly relieved him of the bill. He then put up one hundred dollars that she could not repeat the feat. Thereupon she took away his hundred. She refused to believe him when he declared that "he was only fooling," and he immediately had her arrested for theft. The recorder, however, couldn't see it that way.

STOLE $26,000

That's the Amount of Bank Clerk Richmond's Defalcation.

Toronto, Aug. 23.—According to the statement of inspectors of the Bank of Toronto, Arthur Richmond's total defalcations approximate $26,087. The charge against him of stealing $500 has been changed and when he comes before Magistrate Denison in the police court next Wednesday morning, he will face a charge of stealing the entire amount he is short. His condition is much improved and yesterday he was taken to the jail hospital from St. Michael's. He will not be allowed out on bail, as it is feared he might make another attempt on his life.

WILL EXTEND A WELCOME

Ottawa, Aug. 23.—A warm hearty welcome awaits Premier Borden when he returns to the capital. At last evening's meeting of the Board of Control a resolution was unanimously passed that a civic address of welcome be extended him, and a committee was appointed to arrange the details for the celebration of his homecoming.

About Time.

Toronto, Aug. 23.—After 40 deaths from the typhoid epidemic the Ottawa authorities are carrying out the recommendations of Dr. McCullough secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, including the appointment of a bacteriologist.

DETROIT SPECIAL ATTORNEY COLLAPSES WHILE IN COURT

Charles T. Wilkins, Retained by the State to Prosecute the Indicted Aldermen Breaks Down From Overwork and Loss of Sleep. Detective's Record Probed by the Defence.

Detroit, Aug. 23.—The preliminary examination of Ald. Brozo of the 13th ward, charged with bribery, came to a dramatic and unexpected halt late yesterday when Charles T. Wilkins, special assistant prosecuting attorney, suddenly collapsed unconscious in his chair.

In an instant Detective Walter J. Brennan, who had been testifying as to how he claims he trapped Brozo, was forgotten. The court room was in a turmoil. It was thought the attorney had sustained an apoplectic stroke and was dying. A physician soon restored consciousness to the stricken lawyer, and Judge Stein adjourned the hearing until to-day.

One of the first men to rush for medical assistance when the lawyer fell limp in his seat was Ald. David Rosenthal, one of the 18 whose conviction Wilkins has been attempting to secure. It was stated that overwork and loss of sleep, added to recent illness, caused the assistant prosecutor to break down.

There was no morning session of the court yesterday and Detective Brennan was on the stand most of the afternoon. He testified that on July 12 he had telephoned Brozo to come to his office "on advice of Glinnan" and that he talked with Brozo in the detective's office the next day. Ald. Glinnan, president of the common council, had already been bound over to stand trial for alleged bribery.

Much of the cross-examination was the same in the Glinnan case—an effort by the defendant's attorneys to probe into the career of the detective before his coming to Detroit to conduct his aldermanic investigation. During one little passage-at-arms between Brozo's counsel and Brennan, the latter admitted that Brozo never asked for a cent.

"But he did take the money," added Brennan.

Shortly after this Attorney Wilkins collapsed and court was adjourned until to-day.

ALDERMANIC NERVE

The people of Kingston, by a vote of ten to one, declared in favor of the Hydro-Electric. They were offered a cheaper rate, and recognised a good thing when it was held up before them. Towns on all sides of them followed in the wake of the Limestone City voters and decided by big majorities to become patrons of the Commission.

But right here, the Kingston City Council, supposedly the servant of the people, as it is their creation, steps in and blocks the game by a move, the legality of which, is palpably open to question. The aldermen have decided, on their own initiative, to expend $35,000 in enlarging the present electric steam plant. They ignore the clearly expressed wishes of the people and the advice of experts and have besides, decided upon an expenditure of public funds without authority from the ratepayers.

Truly, the ways of some civic legislative bodies is beyond all human understanding. The best of them will kick themselves out of the harness at times and forget for the nonce that they are responsible to the people, who have vested them with authority. The extraordinary move on the part of Kingston's city fathers will doubtless result in litigation in which the mighty injunction will figure prominently, but no one who is familiar with such matters, doubts that the aldermen will eventually be brought to a diet of crow.

ANOTHER MARRIAGE CASE

In the number of marriage question cases now before the Quebec Courts in one form or another, either awaiting a first hearing or a disposition on appeal, the Tremblay-Despain case has been temporarily lost sight of. It was again brought to public attention yesterday by a dispatch from Montreal which stated that the case will be one of the first to occupy the attention of the Court of Review in September.

The husband asks the Civil Courts to ratify a church decree which annuled his marriage on the ground that his wife was his cousin, four times removed, a relationship so slight, it must be admitted, that it is almost impossible to figure out the process by which it can exist. The wife opposed the divorce — for such the action really amounts to it decided in favor of the plaintiff—on the grounds that the civil law cannot recognize such relationship as an impediment to marriage. The husband lost in the Superior Court at Sorel, but carried his case to a higher tribunal.

The old and familiar dispute between church and state is thus brought up again. It seems incredible that such a condition of doubt can exist much longer. It should be decided once for all whether in such matters the ecclesiastical decree is to override the civil laws of the Dominion or of any Province. The Tremblay case is another step toward a settlement of the marriage question dispute which has clogged the legal machinery of the country for so long.

MR. TAFT'S RELIGION

Rev. Byron H. Stauffer, of the Bond street church in Toronto, spent his vacation in the United States, and on returning home announces that President Taft has no show in the approaching election, one reason cited by the Toronto divine being that a faction of the Protestant voters are opposed to his re-election.

That same faction was heard from four years ago and still Mr. Taft scored a marked triumph. The president is a member of the Unitarian church, and some of the orthodox object to his faith, seeing that he does not subscribe to the doctrine of a triune Deity and that he balks at the generally accepted view of the vicarious sacrifice. The American voters, in common with the rest of the world, are not entirely free from religious intolerance.

NO CHANGE OF HEART

The Toronto World attempts to show by means of the parallel columns that the Review suddenly changed front on the question of the C.P.R.'s application to the federal authorities for permission to increase its capital stock. With all due deference to the live Toronto paper, we claim that the inference is not warranted. In one editorial we gave the situation as sized up by such of the Canadian editors as had at that time expressed an opinion. In the editorial published two days later the company's side of the case was presented.

The Review, however, is of the opinion that it is unfair to assume that any business organization that seeks to add to its capital stock does not honestly intend to increase its working resources, but is actuated by no higher motive than a desire to divide a "melon" among the shareholders.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The Grand River Valley men may have a grievance but there is no doubt of their possession of a cool and calculating brand of nerve.

Seeing that the members of the new company that is to operate in New Ontario come from Montreal and not Buffalo, even Mr. Rowell can offer no objection on the ground of nationality.

It's coming just as surely as Christmas is. Nothing can prevent it. The American jingo and Anglophobic Senators are even now inflating their lungs and preparing for new flight into the realms of spread eagle oratory over the Roger episode.

Public Spirited.

"Why doesn't Jabez Jones go to work and get prosperous?"

"Because," replied the loyal friend, "he's a patriot who never neglects his duty as a citizen. He has been a member of the petty jury three times, a member of the grand jury twice, a delegate to four conventions and has gone unresisting to the legislature frequently. What time has he had to himself?"

Beauty Hints.

Nails that have been injured by cutting them too low are soothed and healed by gently massaging them with a good cold cream. Rub the cream well in around the nail.

Keep a dish of oatmeal on the toilet stand and rub it freely on the hands after each washing. This dries and softens the skin, preventing it from becoming red and rough when exposed to the air.

To keep hair brushes clean necessitates frequent washings, a process certain to soften the bristles. This may be remedied by dipping the bristles in a strong solution of alum water after they are thoroughly cleaned.

A veil is an excellent protection against the winds of spring. Chiffon or any loose mesh material is the best selection and may be removed when a lessening of the exposure warrants the elimination of this pretty and effective precaution. The shadow and Shetland veils now so fashionable give a becoming tone to the skin and have the advantage of coming from a warm bath of soap and water fresh and clean as new.

Almond oil is used to bring the desired whiteness to the hands. The hands should be dipped in the oil, then in French chalk and incased in a pair of kid gloves over night. Another plan recommended as a hand beautifier is to wash with peroxide, letting it dry on the hands, then rub in a good cold cream and don old kid gloves. In the morning wash off with lemon juice, vinegar or cider, hot water and a good skin cream.

Sleep, if taken at the right moment, will prevent an attack of nervous headache. If the subjects of such headaches will watch the symptoms of its coming they can notice that it begins with a feeling of weariness or heaviness. This is the time a sleep of an hour, or even two, as nature guides, will eventually prevent the headaches. If not taken just then it will be too late, for after the attack is fairly under way it is impossible to get sleep until far into the night.

A Cure For Nerves.

Fresh air will string up any group of nerves not hopelessly demoralized. When you feel that "flying to pieces" inclination overtaking you, jerk yourself to order with the checkrein of determination and then, if you cannot regain self control, stop anything on earth you may be doing and go out of doors. If you cannot leave the home, lean out of a window or step for a little while on a porch. You will not lose any time—you will, in fact, gain time by increasing efficiency in whatever you may be doing. Sleep also is a great restorer of nerves to a normal tone, and sleeping with all windows open secures for us two nerve cures at the same time. In foods raw onions, carrots, lettuce and celery, with plenty of olive oil, are excellent nerve foods, all valuable as aids in the good work, but the chief remedy is strong will and the compelling of your body to obey your mind.

Cure For Fever Blisters.

Fever blisters, or cold sores, as some call them, are very disfiguring. They may come from suddenly chilling the blood when heated, or they may result from digestive troubles. The best cure, of course, is to find the trouble and remove it. Sometimes if they are rubbed vigorously when the first symptoms of their coming are felt they will disappear. The following remedy, too, is helpful:

Carbolic acid, six drops; glycerin, one teaspoonful; rosewater, ten drops.

Then, if a woman finds that her lips have settled into unpleasant lines, and sometimes they do, a few lip gymnastics are helpful. These should not be done to such an extent as to make lines or wrinkles on the face, but if the lips are moved about and pursed up until any fixed habits of expression that they may have formed are broken up it will add to their charm.

Homemade Cold Cream.

During the windy weather one requires a good, pure cold cream that can be applied in the day time without being noticeable. Here is an excellent recipe:

Take half an ounce each of spermaceti and white wax, with two of witch hazel and three of sweet almond oil. Let the wax and spermaceti barely melt over hot water before adding the oil. They should only just turn liquid before being removed from the heat. Mix in the oil, then with a silver fork add the witch hazel, drop by drop. Beat to a smooth cream, adding a few drops of any preferred perfume.

A Beauty Tip.

Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine. Learn how to tell a story. A well told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sickroom. Learn to keep your troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to care for your sorrows. Learn to see the bright side of things. If you cannot see good in the world keep the bad to yourself. Learn to hide your pains and aches under a pleasant smile. No one cares to hear them. Learn to meet your friends with a smile. The good humored man or woman is always welcome, but the hypochondriac is not wanted anywhere.

Seized Lawrence Furniture.

London, Aug. 23.—The British suffragettes are strongly indignant because sheriff's officers entered the country house of Mr. and Mrs. Pethick Lawrence yesterday, two of their leaders who are now visiting Canada, and ordered the furniture to be sold in order to pay the costs of the recent conspiracy prosecution. Mr. and Mrs. Pethick Lawrence were sentenced to nine months' imprisonment on May 22 at the Old Bailey Sessions for inciting their followers to malicious damage of property, but were liberated on June 27.

Two Children Bitten.

Chatham, Ont., Aug. 23.—Charles and Isabelle Bennie were seriously injured at the home of Alexander Farquharson in East Tilbury Township by being bitten by a mad dog. The canine attacked them while they were playing on a swing. People in the neighborhood assert that the animal was mad, and the children have been removed to Toronto, where they will undergo treatment at the Pasteur Institute.

Attempted Suicide.

Toronto, Aug. 23.—W. H. Merrill of 27 Maitland street, endeavored to commit suicide at his home at about 12.15 by cutting his throat with a razor. One of the members of his household had occasion to enter the room where Merrill was lying sick, and found him on the bed in a pool of blood with a razor in one hand. No. 2 police station was communicated with, and Officers Ough and Sullivan hurried to the place and had him removed in an ambulance to St. Michael's Hospital. Although in a precarious condition, it is said that he will recover. Financial losses in the north country are attributed as the cause of his attempt on his life. He was also about to be operated upon for appendicitis.

NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT

A family medicine cabinet that does not contain NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT is about as complete as a watch without a main spring, and worthy of no more confidence. NUGENT'S ELECTRIC LINIMENT is true—"first aid"—to the injured. There is nothing better for sprains, bruises, cuts, wounds, etc.

There is no liniment we can recommend with more certainty of giving satisfaction. It will relieve pain, reduce swellings, and we know of no better liniment for the treatment of neuralgic and rheumatic pains and swellings, or the stiffening of the joints and muscles.

FEDERAL MEMBERS LEAVE ON INSPECTION TOUR OF CANAL

Distinguished Visitors Started on the "Bessie Butler" This Morning But Were Held up by the Trouble at the Lift Lock.

The Government steamer Bessie Butler steamed from the Street Railway dock at 9 o'clock this morning carrying one of the most distinguished parties that has trod her decks for many a day. There were Messrs. W. H. Bennett, M.P., East Simcoe; W. R. Northrup, M.P., East Hastings; J. A. Sexsmith, M.P., East Peterborough; G. A. Munson, M.P., West Northumberland; Major Samuel Sharpe, M.P., North Ontario, and Supt. McClellan, of the Trent Canal.

Mr. Mothersill, the auditing engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals, and several newspaper men are also with the party. Dr. J. D. Reid, M.P., acting Minister of Railways and Canals; E. G. Porter, M. P., of West Hastings, and Mr. Boys, the member recently elected in a bye-election in South Simcoe, will join the excursionists when the Bessie arrives at Lindsay.

The tour is entirely unofficial in its nature. The members of the party are desirous of making a personal inspection of the Trent Canal and ascertaining at first hand the splendid work that is being done there and the improvements that have been made within the past year. The work referred to is especially noticeable on the canal at Healey Falls, and Orillia and Barrie on Lake Simcoe.

The tour of inspection by so many influential members of the Dominion Parliament it is expected will be more productive of results than the sending of deputations to Ottawa, as the members can personally inform the Minister and his colleagues as well as their fellow-members that the Trent Canal is in a higher state of efficiency to-day than ever before.

When the Bessie Butler reaches Lindsay the visitors will be met by a deputation of citizens and taken on an auto ride about the town. To-morrow morning they will leave by boat for Orillia.

Hon. Frank Cochrane will make his official inspection of the canal sometime next month.

EXCURSION HELD UP.

The excursion was held up at the lift lock and the outlook is that the "Bessie" will not be able to get through to-day. The program, however, will probably be carried out a day behind scheduled time.

BIG ATTRACTION FOR OTTAWA EXHIBITION

The official program for the Dominion Exhibition and 25th annual Central Canada Fair, to be held jointly in Ottawa, from September 6th to 16th, is now available to any one who applies for it to the office, in Ottawa. The booklet contains a terse summary of the big features arranged for the great Exhibition.

It is the first time the Dominion Exhibition has been brought within easy access of the people of Central Canada and it is evident that the event will attract thousands, who have not attended past Ottawa Fairs. The $50,000 federal grant, with the prestige of the Dominion Exhibition gives the enterprise a unique advantage over any other Fair in Canada. On Ottawa's hundred acres of fair ground will assemble thousands of peerless, well-bred animals and the rarest products of the field, in competition for $30,000 in prizes. Four immense pavilions will teem with manufactured wares, varying from tiny novelties to massive machinery.

New uses for labor-saving contrivances will be taught by demonstrations that impart information while they entertain the visitor. Government experts will carry out a large program of educational work.

Before a grand stand of 12,000 seating capacity will appear clowns, gymnasts, balloonists, musicians, cavalry, infantry, cadets, race horses, equestrians, trained elephants and miscellaneous vaudeville stars gathered from two hemispheres. The Night Shows will be spectacular with a war pageant, chariot-of-fire races and pyrotechnics.

Five provinces and two states enjoy excursion rates to the Dominion Exhibition at one third the usual cost of travel. The policy of assisting far-off producers to bear freight charges has drawn exhibits in car loads from the remotest parts of Canada. British Columbia will be represented by many splendid displays and all other provinces in like proportion.

For horse races, jumping, etc., there is $5,000 in premiums and every attraction is high class. Six-for-a-dollar tickets, good at the gate any time and grand stand in the afternoon are on sale all this month.

D. B. Taylor, the Woodstock publisher, will take charge of the Prince Rupert Daily News.

Miss Lottie Chiles Accepts a Position as Organist in Havelock

KNOX CHURCH PICNIC PARTY STRANDED ON RICE LAKE

The Steamer Stoney Lake Struck a Sunken Pier and Was Brought to a Standstill - Geneva Came to the Rescue and Pulled Her Clear.

There was a miniature marine disaster on Rice Lake yesterday when an excursion boat crowded with Sunday School picnickers, ran upon a sunken pile and became stranded until hauled clear by another boat that was called to the rescue.

The occasion was the annual excursion of the Knox Church Sunday School and the boat, the Stoney Lake was crowded with pleasure seekers ,ladies and children being in the majority. The weather had cleared up and the day was pleasant. The place decided upon for the picnic was Idyl Wyld and all went well until the middle of Rice Lake was reached. The boat was proceeding slowly when a shock was felt and the Stoney Lake came to a sudden stop, the engine being shut off at once. On investigation it was found that the keel had come in contact with one of the sunken piers of the old Cobourg and Peterborough railway bridge.

If the boat had been going at a high rate of speed it would probably have cleared the obstruction without damage. As it was she hung fast and was unable to pull herself clear. There was no other boat in sight and as there was aheavy sea at the time some of the ladies and children became alarmed as they thought of the Titanic and other marine disasters. There was, however, do danger and the excitement among the passengers soon subsided.

Mr. Fred Finney and one of the deck hands took a canoe from the upper deck and paddled to Jubilee Point for assistance. The Steamer Geneva had landed at the latter place with an excursion from Hastings and the captain responded readily to the call for help. After a wait of over two hours the stranded excursionists were released, the Geneva attaching a line to the bow of the Stoney Lake and pulling her clear without any apparent difficulty.

The excursionists changed their program owing to the delay and went to Jubilee Point where the picnic was held. The following is a list of the prize winners in the different events:

Primary Girls' Race—1, Evaline Kennedy; 2, Winnifred Gourlay; 3, Viola Routley.

Primary Boys' Race—1 Allan Trussler; 2, Allan Foster.

'CONFIDENCE' BRED IN PEEL COUNTY

Sam Charters M.P. Settles a Dispute That Was Waxing Warm.

Ever since Hon. Clifford Sifton's horse "Confidence" broke the world's record for high jumping at the Cobourg horse show, at least a dozen towns in Ontario set up claims as being the birth place of the hurdler Mr. Sam Charters, M. P., for Peel county, settles the dispute beyond all question in a letter to the Toronto World, in which he says:

"Hon. Clifford Sifton's famous horse. 'Confidence,' who beat the world's record by jumping seven feet ten and three-quarter inches at Cobourg last week, was bred by Mr. William Hyatt, of Huttonville. He was sired by March Past, owned by Mr. Joseph Fewster, of Britannia, out of a Cleveland bay mare. He was sold by Mr. Hyatt to Mr. E. J. Jones, then a Brampton horse dealer, who in turn disposed of him to Senator Beith of Bowmanville. He was next purchased by an American syndicate, who sold him to Crow & Murray of Toronto. The latter firm sold the horse to a Montreal purchaser, and afterwards bought him back and sold him to Hon. Clifford Sifton. The County of Peel has produced a large number of particularly good horses, but none attracting greater attention than Mr. Sifton's 'Confidence'.'

GUELPH LEAFS AND PETES IN LAST SERIES OF SEASON

Given fair weather, the White Caps and the Guelph Maple Leafs ought to serve up interesting games of baseball to-day and to-morrow.

The showing of the Petes in their games of the past few weeks has been the talk around the circuit and were it not for the bad start, the Rowanites would be clamouring for a seat at the top. The Petes go back to London on Monday and Tuesday and then return again to finish out the week here with a four game series with Ottawa, and here's where we get our revenge.

Everybody is getting to Louie Cook's Senators, and the race to the pennant is not over yet.

The season of 1912 will close for the Petes with three games at Ottawa on September 1 and 2.

◆

The Canadian league champions of 1911 are well scattered around. There are only the following now on the Berlin team: Manager Deneau, Dusty Bullock, Fred Bramble and Biddy Burns. Scotty Cameron is with Hamilton, with Walter Teed. Joe Dunn is with Guelph. Jack Miller is with Brantford, playing in the outfield. Chaput is with London. Joe Cambria is playing in the Northwest league. Doggie Andrews is out of baseball entirely, while Curtis Templin started out as manager of the Peterborough team and made a bad showing and is out of the game now for good. Chick Mueller wanted to come back, but could not. His arm was bad when he reported to Hamilton this spring.

◆

Tracey, the former Berlin heaver, now with Peterborough, has enjoyed a very good season in spite of the fact that be has been with a tail-end team. His winning streak was broken yesterday at Brantford when after making it six straight wins by taking the first game of a double-header, he attempted to come back in the second game, losing to Coose.—Hamilton Spectator.

◆

Ray Keating, the pitcher who was with Hamilton last season and who was sold by Lawrence to the New York Americans, established a New England league record by pitching four shut-out games in 12 days. On August 2 Keating blanked the Lowell champions and held them to five hits. Four days later he held New Bedford to four hits and no tallies. On August 10 Haverhill secured eight hits, but failed to score, and on August 13 Lynn got but two hits and no runs off his delivery. Keating joins the New York Americans early next month.

GOOD HITTING BY BARTHOLD

Hit Out Six Safeties in a Row at Brantford.

The White Caps are home to-day, having finished up their series with Brantford yesterday when Kane's men took both ends of the double header. Osborne worked in the first game and was going strong till the eighth, when the Brants began to hit and the Petes to aviate. The big lad started the second game but gave way to Beard.

Donovan also went in for Brantford, but, he too, was derricked.

Dubbie Shea took the big mit for the second game and gave a good account of himself.

Johnny Barthold sure had his batting machine on the hum, his record for the day being six hits in a row for a total of twelve bases. This performance by the Petes' first sacker given him a Canadian League record.

The scores were:

First Game—		R.	H.	E.
Brantford	0000007x	7	11	1
Peterborough	000000012	3	9	1

Batteries—Osborne and Trout; Donovan and Lamond.

Second Game—		R.	H.	E.
Brantford	02030	5	7	[illegible]
Peterborough	20010	3	7	[illegible]

Batteries—Donovan, Tasker and Lamond; Osborne, Beard and Shea. Umpire—Blake.

CHALLENGE CUP GOES TO STURGEON POINT THIS YEAR

Won Yesterday by Mr. Hopkins at Chemong Regatta—"Y" War Canoe Crew Win From St. Paul's after a Close Race—Dance Was Held in Evening

It was typical Chemong Regatta weather yesterday, dark, blustery, windy, a little rain now and then, and the lake, a choppy mass of black and white. It was taking a very long chance on the part of the spectators, especially those who motored from the city, as the weather man had a frown on his face about 1.30 p.m., that meant business. The popular event, however, claimed its due attendance, in spite of the weather conditions, and the high banks, the club house balconies and floats and the beach swarmed with people that sent a glad thrill to the hearts of all the members of the committee.

Keen enjoyment was provided by every event, from the hawklike flight of Mr. Heigle's long-nosed "Admiral" which churned up the water at 22 miles an hour, to the awkward crawl of the boats in the crab race. In fact, so interested were the crowds, that several times, even with due warning, they were caught by a passing shower. In spite of all the little handicaps, the affair was decidedly of the record variety.

A two-hour downpour in the evening was not sufficient to dampen the ardor of the dancers, and the Hotel pavillion was crowded to the utmost throughout the program.

The high wind which kept up throughout the afternoon, while it made it considerably difficult for the paddlers and oarsmen to demonstrate their abilities, was just what the dinghys were camping for and as a result, the sailing races, which are usually a little tedious to the spectators, claimed just as much attention as any of the other sports. A half-dozen or more of the canvass speed craft, tore around the triangular course and raced past the judges, headed by Hopkins' boat, finishing an event in almost half the time it usually requires. Mr. Hopkins incidentally deserves first place in this event as he has been endeavoring to carry the cup Sturgeonward for seven consecutive years.

Jack Hopwood's boat, manned by Harold Hill and Vincent Eastwood, raced in a close second and responded to the applause, by overturning at the flag. The canoe sailing also proved a real live event, Herb. Dixon nosing in for first place with Harold Matthews, 2nd.

Although many parties who intended motoring out for the dancing gave up the idea when the downpour began, still the cottagers together with those from the city, who remained after supper, made up a large and pleasant crowd. The pavillion, which was boarded up during the rain, was all that could be desired by those who "tripped" it, and Mr. Gliddon's musicians, who were generous in their work, were kept very busy indeed.

The men's single canoe was an event also that proved as interesting as it was closely contested. Mr. Alex. Alliott at the finish had to use his eyes to an extraordinary degree, as inches only separated the noses of the Nicholls' canoes. In the first of the motor boat events, the six cylinder "Admiral," built like a needle, shot out in front in easy fashion, covering the six miles in the heavy troughs, in 20.20. In the handicap, however, the "Viking" another Sturgeon craft, won out by a few lengths. The war canoe contest, around which most of the interest was centered, lived up to its reputation of being one of the banner events. The "Y" crew, who were beaten a few weeks ago, by St. Paul's, came back with a dash of vigor that won for them the laurels by about a foot. This event which is in its maiden year on Kawartha waters, was so keenly enjoyed that mixed crews, composed of members of the "Y" team, Bridgenorth and Chemong boys engaged in an extra event.

Sturgeon Lake was well represented among the contestants, and the majority of events, as will be seen by the following list were copped by the campers from the point.

The following is the list of events with the respective winners:
